LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY THE PARISH OF LLANVRECHVA UPPER, IN THE COUNTY OF MONMOUTH.

WHEREAS notice in writing was duly given to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the Local Government Act, 1858, had on the 22nd day of September, 1870, been adopted by the parish of Llanvrechva Upper, in the county of Monmouth: now, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby, under the provisions of the said Act, issue the following notice and Order:—

That the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted by the parish of Llanvrechva Upper, in the county of Monmouth aforesaid; and I do also order, that though such parish is a place with a population of less than 3,000, by the last census, it has appeared to me that by reason of the special circumstances of the case, it is expedient that the said parish should be allowed to adopt the said Act, I do hereby approve of such adoption; and do further order, that such Act shall, from and after the date of this Notice have full force of law within the said parish of Llanvrechva Upper.

Given under my hand this 17th day of November, 1870.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Home Office, Whitehall.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER APPROVING OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY THE DISTRICT OF TENBURY WELLS, IN THE COUNTY OF WORCESTER.

WHEREAS a resolution for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, was, on the 28th day of September, 1870, passed by the owners and ratepayers of the district of Tenbury Wells, in the county of Worcester, as settled for the purposes of the said Act; and notice of such adoption has been given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act: and whereas it has now been certified to me, that a copy of such notice has been duly advertised, and that copies have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in the district to which notices are usually affixed, and the period fixed by the said Act for appeal has now expired, and no such appeal has been made: And whereas, although the said district is a place with a population of less than 3,000 by the last census, it has appeared to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that by reason of the special circumstances, it is expedient that the said district should be allowed to adopt the said Act, I do hereby approve of such adoption by the district aforesaid; and do further Order that such Act shall, at the expiration of two months from the date of the aforesaid resolution of adoption, have the force of law within such district of Tenbury Wells.

Given under my hand this 17th day of November, 1870.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 119.)—ENGLAND—EAST COAST.

Buoyage of the Port of Boston.

The Boston Harbour Commissioners have given Notice, that the following alteration has been made in the buoyage of the approaches to Boston, viz. :—

All the buoys in Boston Deeps have been relaid. The buoys on the port side going in through the North, South, and Gat Channels, are painted with black and white vertical stripes, the buoys on the starboard side remaining black, as heretofore.

The channel north of the Scullridge Sand having become dangerous for navigation, the black buoys have been removed and placed to mark the channel South of Scullridge Sand.

Four additional buoys with black and white vertical stripes have been placed on the south side of the Deep between the Dogs Head buoys and the Bar Sand buoy.

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
17th November, 1870.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Thames to St. Abbs Head, No. 2092 a; Cromer to Trusthorpe, No. 1455; Orfordness to Flamborough Head, No. 2182; Lynn and Boston Deep, No. 108; also, North Sea Pilot, Part III, 2d editon, page 169.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 120.)—SCOTLAND—WEST COAST.

Port Patrick.

INFORMATION has been received through the Board of Trade, that the buoys marking the channel into Port Patrick have been displaced by late gales, and will not be replaced, as the management of the harbour has been relinquished; also, that in consequence of the rapid demolition, by storms, of the works of the harbour, great alterations have taken place—and are still likely to take place—in the depths as denoted in the charts. Mariners seeking the port are cautioned accordingly.

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
17th November, 1870.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Port Patrick, No. 2026.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the incumbent of the vicarage of Upleadon, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those annual tithe commutation rent charges which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said tithe commutation rent charges to the use of the said incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always that the said tithe commutation rent charges shall be and be held to be charged and chargeable at all times for ever hereafter in exoneration of all other property whatsoever, now or formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Gloucester, with the liability to repair and maintain the chancel of the church of the parish of Upleadon aforesaid; and provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said tithe commutation rent charges as from the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Paul, Tupsley, in the county of Hereford, and in the diocese of Hereford, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that tithe commutation rent charge, amounting to nine shillings and nine pence, charged on and payable to us in respect of the close of land numbered 160 upon the tithe map of the parish of Hampton Bishop, in the said county of Hereford, upon which close the church, parsonage, and schools of the new parish of Saint Paul, Tupsley aforesaid, have been built, to have and to hold the said tithe commutation rent charge to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Llantwit Major with the rectory of Llyswarney annexed, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Llantwit Major with the rectory of Llyswarney annexed.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Christ Church, Hougham, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one capital sum of three hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of certain improvements in the parsonage or house of residence of the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Christ Church, Hougham.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 28th year of Her Majesty, cap. 30, for granting to Her Majesty certain duties of Customs and Inland Revenue, power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed under the provisions made by the Act passed in the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, cap. 35, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Ormskirk, in the county of Lancashire, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Income Tax Act, the said Board hereby authorise the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Law Association Rooms, in Cook-street, Liverpool, on Wednesday, the 23rd day of November, 1870, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said district of Ormskirk, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

Southampton Docks.

(Alteration or Repeal of Provisions of Dock Act of 1843, as to Income of Harbour Board, Agreements with Corporation and Harbour Board; Alteration of Tonnage and other Rates, and mode of levying same, and estimating Tonnage of Vessels; To levy and to alter Rates and Dues; Debenture Stock; Amendment or Repeal of Acts; Incorporation of Acts; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session by the Southampton Dock Company (hereinafter called the Company) for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes; that is to say:—

1. To alter and amend section 53 of the Act relating to the Company (Local 6 and 7 Victoria, chapter 65), 1843, intituled "An Act to convert the shares in the capital authorised to be raised by the Acts for making a Dock or Docks at Southampton into Stock; to raise a further sum of money, and to alter and amend some of the powers of the said Acts;" and which section relates to the making up by the Company, in the events in that section mentioned, of the annual income of the Commissioners in that section mentioned (now the Southampton Harbour and Pier Board) to the sum and in the manner mentioned in that section, or to repeal that section and to make other provisions in lieu thereof.

2. To enable the Company and the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the town of Southampton, and the Southampton Harbour and Pier Board to enter into contracts, agreements, and arrangements with reference to the provisions for making up the annual income of that Board before mentioned, and any other matters in which the Company and the Corporation and the Board, or any or either of them are interested, and to confirm any contract, agreement, or arrangement which prior to the passing of the Bill may be made touching any of the matters aforesaid.

3. To alter and vary, and to reduce and, if need be, in some instances to increase the tonnage rates and the rates upon goods, wares, and merchandize, and the wharfage rates, and the other tolls, rates, duties, and charges which the Company are now authorised to demand and levy, and to alter or prescribe the manner of charging and levying such tolls, rates, duties, and charges, and to authorise the Company to demand and levy new tolls, rates, duties, and charges in lieu thereof, and particularly to alter all tonnage rates payable to the Company upon or in respect of steamers and ships and other vessels, and the mode of measuring and ascertaining the tonnage of such steamers and other vessels.

4. To levy tolls, rates, duties, and charges, to alter existing tolls, rates, duties, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, duties, and charges.

5. To enable the Company to create and issue debenture stock.

The Bill will incorporate with itself all or some of the powers and provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," and "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," and will confer upon the Company all other powers, rights, and privileges necessary for carrying into effect the objects of the Bill, and will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with its objects, and will confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And it is proposed by the Bill to alter, amend, extend and enlarge, the powers and provisions or some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, that is to say:—(local and personal), 6 and 7, Willm. IV, chapter 29; 1 and 2 Victoria, chapter 62; 6 and 7 Victoria, chapter 65; 8 and 9 Victoria, chapter 23; and any other Acts relating to the Southampton Dock Company, or, (if need be), to repeal and re-enact the said Acts either wholly or in part, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof.

To alter and amend "The Southampton Harbour Act, 1863," and the provisions unrepealed of the local and personal Act, 43 George III, chapter 21.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1870.

Merionethshire Railway.

(Incorporation of Company; Power to make a Railway from Festiniog to the Railway of the Cambrian Railways Company in the parish of Llandecwyn; Compulsory purchase of Lands; Tolls, traffic, and other arrangements with the Cambrian Railways Company and the Festiniog and Blaenau Railway Company (Limited); Amendment of Acts, and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to pass an Act to incorporate a Company, for making and maintaining the railways hereinafter mentioned, or some part or parts thereof, together with all necessary and convenient or incidental works, stations, approaches, bridges, roads, and communications (that is to say):

No. 1.—A railway commencing in the parish of Festiniog, in the county of Merioneth, by a junction with the Festiniog and Blaenau Railway at a point situate on the centre line of that railway, between the Festiniog end of the railway and the first bridge over the Festiniog and Blaenau Railway, and distant two hundred and twenty yards, measured in a southerly direction from the centre of such bridge, and terminating at a point situated in the west corner of a plantation belonging to Morgan Lloyd, and now in the occupation of Hugh Roberts, of Hendre Mŵr, in the parish of Maentwrog, in the county of Merioneth, and distant eighty-eight yards, measured from the point at which the parish boundary between the parishes of Maentwrog and Trawsfynydd, in the county of Merioneth, crosses the centre of the turnpike-road leading from Maentwrog to Trawsfynydd, and which said Railway No. 1 will pass through or into the parishes, townships, extra-parochial places following, or some of them (that is to say), Festiniog and Maentwrog, both in the county of Merioneth:

No. 2.—A railway commencing by a junction with Railway No. 1 at the point described as the termination of that railway, and terminating in the parish of Llandecwyn, in the county of Merioneth, by a junction with the railway of the Cambrian Railways Company at a point distant eight hundred yards, measured in a southerly direction along the centre line of that railway from the centre of the timber truss erected over the widest span of the wooden pile bridge carrying the railway of the Cambrian Railways Company over the Traeth Bach, and which so proposed Railway No. 2 will pass from, through, or into, the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places following or some of them (that is to say), Maentwrog, Trawsfynydd, Llandecwyn, all in the county of Merioneth:

No. 3.—A railway situate wholly in the said parish of Llandecwyn, commencing by a junction with Railway No. 2 at a point on that railway distant 400 yards measured along Railway No. 2 from the termination of that railway, and in a field belonging to William Theresby Poole, and now in the occupation of Robert Jones, of Penbrynissa, and terminating by a junction with the railway of the Cambrian Railways Company at a point distant 1,250 yards measured in a southerly direction along the centre line of that railway from the centre of the timber truss erected over the widest span of the wooden pile bridge carrying the railway of the Cambrian Railways Company over the Traeth Bach.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to confer on the Company to be thereby incorporated (hereinafter called the Company) all the necessary powers to effect the objects following or some of them (that is to say):

To stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike and other roads and highways, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers within the aforesaid parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places, or any of them, as it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert, by reason of the construction of the said intended railways and works or any of them.

To purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, any lands or houses for the purposes of the said intended railways and works, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands and houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended railways and works or any of them, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To levy tolls, rates, and duties for or in respect of the use of the said intended railways and works, to confer exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

To enable the Company and the Cambrian Railways Company and also the Company and the Festiniog and Blaenau Railway Company (Limited) to enter into agreements for the management, use, working, and maintenance of the intended railways and works, or any part thereof, the supply of any rolling or working stock, and of officers and servants for the conduct of the traffic on the intended railways and works, the payments to be made and the conditions to be performed with respect to the matters aforesaid, the interchange, accommodation, conveyance, and delivery of traffic from or destined for the railways of the Company and the railways of the Cambrian Railways Company and the Festiniog and Blaenau Railway Company (Limited), or any railway leased to or worked by them, and the fixing and the division between the said Companies of the receipts arising from such traffic, and to confirm any existing agreements with reference to any of the objects and purposes aforesaid.

To alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, and if need be to repeal the powers and provisions of the following Acts relating to the Cambrian Railways Company and their undertaking, viz.:—local and personal Acts, 27 and 28 Vict., caps. 97, 147, 161, 262, and 263; 28 and 29 Vict., caps. 277, 283, and 291; and 29 and 30 Vict., cap. 334; 30 and 31 Vict., cap. 137; 31 and 32 Vict., cap. 177, and any other Acts relating to that Company.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended railways and works, and of the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such respective plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and houses, together with a published map with the lines of the intended railways delineated thereon, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November instant with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Merioneth, at his office in Dolgelly, in the said county, and that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, and books of reference, as relates to the several parishes in or through which the intended railways and works are proposed to be made or in which the lands, houses, and property proposed to be taken are situated, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the said 30th day of November, be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his place of abode, and in case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some adjoining parish at his place of abode.

And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the proposed Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1870.

Northampton Extension and Improvement.

Repeal and Amendment of Local Act.—Further Powers for Sewerage, Drainage, and Improvement of Borough, and Paving, Improvement, and Regulation of Streets and Buildings.—Stopping up and Diversion of Paths and Roads.—New Streets and Improvements.—Transfer to Northampton Improvement Commissioners of Northampton Water Works Company's and Northampton Gas-Light Company's undertakings, Dissolution of Companies.—Sewer Authority.—Utilization of Sewage and Formation of Works, and acquisition of Land for that purpose.—Bye-Laws.—Erection and maintenance of a Fire Engine Station and Brigade.—Transfer of powers to Corporation of Northampton.—Powers to raise money and for Rating.—Extension of Limits, Extension of Time for Payment of Money Borrowed.—Purchase, Sale, and Exchange of Lands, Incorporation of Acts, and other purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing Session, by the Northampton Improvement Commissioners (hereinafter called the Commissioners), for leave to bring in a Bill (hereinafter referred to as the Bill) for all or some of the following purposes, that is to say:—

1. To repeal wholly or in part, and to re-enact or to alter, amend, extend, or enlarge "The Northampton Improvement Act, 1843," and to confer on the Commissioners further and additional powers, as a sever authority, and for widening and improving streets, for regulating and determining the width, level, line, mode of laying out, formation, constructing, paving, draining, repairing, and maintaining streets, roads, courts, lanes, and other public and private ways and places in the said borough, and in the extension to the Parliamentary limits and the footways thereof; for regulating the due and proper construction, levels, and foundations of new buildings, and the re-building and alteration of old ones, and for the due ventilation and drainage of the same, and for regulating the structure of walls of buildings, for securing stability and the prevention of fires, for regulating the repair of vaults, arches, cellars, and other like things in or under, and the removal of obstructions upon streets or roads; for regulating the making and repair of house drains and sanitary conveniences, for charging the expenses of all or some of the above works upon owners, lessees, and occupiers of property, and for the apportionment and more easy recovery of such expenses; for prohibiting the inhabiting of buildings unfit for human habitation, and for other like purposes, and for the better recovery of moneys expended or to be expended by the Commissioners, by agreement with the owners or occupiers of property or otherwise, in exercise of their powers in private improvements, and for enabling the Commissioners to charge such moneys upon the properties belonging to such owners or occupiers, and affected by such improvements, and to make further and better provision for the local Government and management of the said borough, and of the extended limits of the said borough.

2. To alter and extend the limits defined in the Act of 1843 (in this notice referred to as the extended limits), and to include within the extended limits all the lands, houses buildings, roads, works, and property, which are, or may be, comprised within the Parliamentary Boundary of the Borough.

No. 23680.

3. To extend the powers and provisions of the Acts herein mentioned (with such modifications and additions as Parliament shall sanction) to the extended limits.
4. To empower the Commissioners to take and purchase by compulsion or agreement, lands, houses, and property, for the purpose of the said widening and improvement of streets, and making of the said new streets, and to extinguish all rights and privileges therein; and to stop up and to extinguish either wholly or in part, all rights of way or other rights in the highway through the churchyard of All Saints, in the town of Northampton, and to cut off 432 square yards of the west end of such yard, and to throw the same into the public road.
5. To empower the Commissioners to purchase and take by compulsion or agreement, and to extinguish all rights and privileges in the next mentioned additional lands, and to use and employ such lands for sewage and sewage utilization purposes, and for the purposes of thereon dealing with, receiving, collecting, storing, disinfecting, deodorizing, distributing, utilizing, and applying to purposes of agriculture, irrigation, or fertilization, or other like purposes, and in such manner as they may deem fit, the whole or any part of the sewage and sewage matter, now, or at any time hereafter, flowing through or into, or being in or upon any of the reservoirs, sewers, drains, or channels of the Commissioners, within the said borough of Northampton, and the said extension. The lands to which the compulsory powers above in this paragraph mentioned relate, are in the parishes of All Saints, in the town of Northampton, and Abington, Weston Favell, Little Billing, Great Billing, Ecton, and Earl's Barton, in the county of Northampton, and are known by or are reputed to be known by the following descriptions, viz:—

Together with the cottage, farm, and other buildings standing thereon.

And also all that land containing 677 acres, or thereabouts, situate in the said parish of Ecton, partly arable, partly pasture, partly meadow, and partly wood, in the several occupations of Ambrose Isted, Samuel Sharman, William Whitehead, William Walker, John Pell, Stephen Hawkes, Josiah Dawes, Anthony Barker Childs, and others, bounded on the north partly by land belonging to the living of Ecton, and in the occupation of Samuel Sharman, and partly by land belonging to Ambrose Isted, and in the respective occupations of Anthony Barker Childs, John Pell, William Walker, Ambrose Isted, William Whitehead, and others; on the south by the River Nene; on the west by the aforesaid brook dividing the parishes of Great Billing and Ecton; and on the east by a brook dividing the parishes of Ecton and Earl's Barton. Together with the farm and other buildings thereon.

And also all that land, containing 122A. 2R. 25P. or thereabouts, situate in the said parish of Earl's Barton, partly arable, partly pasture, and partly wood, in the several occupations of John Gaudern, Edmund James, John Ward, H. Line, — Simpson, and others, bounded on the north by property in the occupation of Edmund James; on the south by the River Nene; on the west by the aforesaid brook dividing the parishes of Ecton and Earl's Barton; and on the east partly by a public road from Whiston Mill to Earl's Barton, and partly by land in the occupation of John Gaudern. Together with the buildings thereon.

6. To enable the Commissioners to construct and maintain, and from time to time to alter, extend, and improve, cleanse and repair, for the purposes last aforesaid, the following works, or some or one of them, that is to say:

Firstly.—A main conduit or pipe, conduits or line of pipes with all necessary manholes, storm overflows, and other necessary works and conveniences along the course thereof, commencing in the said parish of Abington, at the end of the main sewer of the Commissioners, at or near the boundary fence between the parishes of St. Giles, in the borough of Northampton, and Abington, at a point about 73 feet south of the nursery grounds occupied by John Perkins, and at the hedge dividing a meadow in the parish of St. Giles, occupied by John Perkins, from the adjoining meadow in the parish of Abington, occupied by Richard Britten, both meadows being the property of Samuel Jones Baron Overstone, and terminating in the said parish of Great Billing, in the north-west corner of a field in the said last-mentioned parish, which field is bounded on the north by the road leading from Little Billing to Ecton; and on the west by the road leading from Brayfield and Billing Bridge to Great Billing, and is in the occupation of John Fahey, and the property of Valentine Dudley Henry Carey Elwes, which said conduit, pipes, and works will pass in, from, through, or into, the parishes of Abington, Weston Favell, Little Billing, and Great Billing.

Secondly.—All necessary and proper sewers, drains, channels, and junctions with sewers, and all necessary sluices, cuts, pipes, filtering, or disinfecting beds, machinery, waste gates, gauges, regulating basins, reservoirs, approaches, and conveniences connected with the before-mentioned main conduit or pipe, conduits or lines of pipes, and other works, or any of them, in the said several parishes, or any of them.

Thirdly.—All necessary and convenient pumping stations, tanks, pumps, pipes, works, and conveniences for the intercepting, lifting, conveying, receiving, storing, disinfecting, distributing, and utilizing the sewage and sewage matter aforesaid; and all such works, matters, and things as may be necessary or convenient for effecting the purposes aforesaid.

To empower the Commissioners for the purposes of the said conduits and works, firstly, secondly, and thirdly, in the last preceding paragraph mentioned, to purchase and take by compulsion or agreement, lands, houses, and property in the several parishes last aforesaid, and rights, liberties, and easements therein, and to vary and extinguish rights and privileges therein, and to cross, break up, stop up, alter, or divert, for the purposes of the Bill, and either temporarily or permanently, the present road leading from Billing-road Railway Station to Ecton, and to construct on the lands herein-mentioned a new road in lieu thereof, and also any turnpike or other roads, streets, highways, footpaths, railways, tramways, aqueducts, streams, rivers, bridges, sewers, drains, ways, and watercourses, within the parishes and places aforesaid, or any of them, and in particular to stop up so much of the public road leading out of the road from the Billing-road Railway Station to Great Billing to Ecton, as is comprised between a point nine chains and fifty links east of its junction with the aforesaid road from Billing-road Railway Station to Great Billing, and a point where it meets the road leading from Cooknoe-mill to Ecton, and substituting in lieu thereof a new road commencing at the said point, nine-and-a-half chains east of the said junction as aforesaid, and terminating at a point in the said road to Ecton four-and-a-half chains north of the said point, where it meets the said road leading from Cooknoe-mill to Ecton, as aforesaid, the whole of which new road is situate in the said parishes of Great Billing and Ecton.

And also to purchase or acquire by agreement, other lands, buildings, and hereditaments, and to erect or construct on the site of the lands, buildings, and hereditaments, to be taken, purchased, or acquired under the authority of the said intended Act, or any part or parts thereof, fire engine stations, and other public buildings and erections, or otherwise to appropriate such lands, buildings, and hereditaments, and the site, or any part or parts thereof, to the purposes of their undertaking, or as they may think proper.

To empower the Commissioners to alter existing bye-laws, and to make and alter from time to time, other bye-laws and regulations for all or any of the purposes of the Bill, (or any of the Acts incorporated therewith), and to impose penalties for breach or non-observance of all or any such bye-laws; and the Bill will make provision for recovery, enforcement, and application of all penalties, damages, and expenses recoverable under the provisions of the Bill, or of any such Acts or otherwise, and will prescribe forms of procedure, and will make provision for the publication in newspapers of orders of the Commissioners upon individuals, being sufficient notice to such individuals of such orders.

To provide for the transfer to the Corporation of Northampton of all the powers of the Act, with the other Acts herewith incorporated, or some of them, and in that event to provide for marshalling or enabling the Corporation of Northampton, to marshal against the Borough Fund the cost heretofore incurred under the provisions of the Northampton Improvement Act, 1843, or this Act, in carrying its or their provisions into effect, and to provide for vesting in the said Corporation in their municipal capacity, the rights and property of the Commissioners, and as Corporation property, to be thenceforth subject to the provisions of the Municipal Corporation Acts.

And it is proposed by the intended Act to transfer and vest, or to authorize and provide for the transfer and vesting, or leasing of the undertakings, works, lands, properties (real and personal) powers, rights, privileges, and authorities of the Northampton Waterworks Company, and the Northampton Gas Light Company (hereinafter called the Companies), to, in and by, the Commissioners, for such price and consideration, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Companies and the Commissioners, or as may be settled by arbitration, or as may be fixed and prescribed in or otherwise provided for by the intended Act, and to authorize the Commissioners and the Companies to enter into agreements with respect to the several matters aforesaid, or any of them, and to confirm any such agreements as may have been entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act, and to provide for the winding up of the affairs of the Companies, and the distribution of their assets, and to dissolve the Companies, and to authorize the Commissioners, and after certain events, the said Corporation, to carry on the undertakings of the Companies after the purchase or leasing thereof, and to exercise all the powers, rights, authorities, and privileges aforesaid, in like manner, and to the same extent, and throughout the same district as the Company might have exercised the same respectively.

To enable the Commissioners to apply to all or any of the purposes to be authorized by the Bill, and to the payment of the interest of any moneys borrowed as hereinafter mentioned, any money at any time belonging to them, and for all or any of those purposes, and for other the occasions of the Commissioners, whether under the Northampton Improvement Act, 1843, or as a "sewer authority," or otherwise to raise further and additional funds, by borrowing or re-borrowing from time to time, on the security of any property, rates, and moneys respectively, at any time, belonging, acquired, receivable, or leviable to, or by them, by virtue of the Bill, or any other power or authority, now or at any time vested in them; and for all or any of the said purposes to levy new or increased general, district, or other rates and assessments upon the owners and occupiers, or owners, or occupiers of houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, within the said extended limits, and compel payment, of such rates and assessments, and continue or alter rates and assessments which they are now authorized to take, and continue, confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payments of rates and assessments, and to provide for repayment of moneys borrowed, by instalments, or by a sinking fund, or otherwise.

If and when the powers of this Act are transferred to the Corporation, to provide for and authorise the consolidating into one rate, or into two or more separate rates, of all the rates, of whatever kind (other than the borough rate), which the Corporation have or may have power to assess upon the inhabitants of the said borough for any of the several purposes for which such respective rates may be assessed or imposed, and to apply the same as a common fund for the general purposes for which separate rates might have been assessed or imposed by the Corporation, and to mortgage the property acquired by them under the intended Act, and such consolidated rate or rates from time to time, for raising money for such general purposes, in like manner as they might have mortgaged the separate rates for separate purposes, and to consolidate into one or more account or accounts the receipts and expenditure of the Corporation for such general purposes, and to provide for the effectual recovery of such consolidated rate or rates, and to make other provisions with reference thereto.

To enlarge and extend, with respect to all moneys heretofore borrowed by the Commissioners, under all or any of the borrowing powers already vested in them (but without prejudice to the rights of existing mortgagees), the times prescribed by the several Acts authorising such borrowing, for the repayment of such moneys, and so far as may be necessary for that purpose, to alter, amend, or repeal the provisions of those Acts respectively.

To enable the Commissioners to exchange for other lands, rights, and easements, or to sell or dispose of, or to grant leases of, any lands, streets, or parts of streets, rights and easements, for the time being vested in them, and to confer, vary, or extinguish rights and privileges in or with respect to such last-mentioned lands.

To confer upon the Commissioners all other powers and authorities necessary for effecting the objects of the Bill, and to provide that the powers to be given by the Bill shall be deemed in addition thereto, and not in derogation of any other powers conferred on the Commissioners by any Act of Parliament, law, or custom, and that the Commissioners may exercise such other powers in the same manner as if the proposed Act had not been passed.

To empower the Commissioners, in the construction of the said several works hereinbefore mentioned, to deviate laterally from the lines delineated on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to the extent to be defined on the said plans, and to deviate vertically to any extent from the level of those works, as shown upon the sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

To incorporate in the Bill, or to extend and make applicable to the purposes thereof, all or some of the existing powers, indemnities, and authorities of the Commissioners, and all or some of the existing provisions of the following general Acts, viz., "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act Amendment Act, 1860;" "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Towns Police Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Public Health Act, 1848;" "The Local Government Act, 1858;" "The Sewage Utilization Act, 1865;" and "The Sanitary Act, 1866;" "The Sewage Utilization Act, 1867;" "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1863;" and all other Acts amending or extending all or any of the Acts herein specified, or any of the provisions thereof respectively.

To amend or repeal, so far as may be necessary or desirable for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them, "The Northampton Waterworks Act, 1861," and any Act or Acts relating to the Northampton Waterworks Company; "The Northampton Gas Works Act, 1858," and any other Act or Acts relating to the Northampton Gas Light Company.

And notice is hereby also given that plans and sections in duplicate describing the several works to be authorized by the Bill and the lines and situations of the whole thereof respectively, and the lands intended to be taken for all or any of the purposes of the Bill, and in or through which the same works will be made, maintained, varied, extended or enlarged, or through which every communication to or from the works shall be made, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of all lands and houses so intended to be taken and in the lines of the proposed works, or within the limits of deviation as defined upon the said plans, and describing such lands and houses respectively, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northampton, at his office at Northampton, and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections and book of reference as relates to the several parishes in or through which the intended works are proposed to be made, or in which the lands, houses, and property proposed to be taken are situate, also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the said 30th day of November, be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode.

And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December, 1870.

Dated this 7th day of November, 1870.

Barnet Gas.

(Incorporation of Company; Purchase and maintenance of existing Gas Works belonging to the Barnet Gas Light and Coke Company, Limited; Power to supply Gas.)

A PPLICATION will be made to Parliament next session for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following purposes, that is to say:—

To incorporate a Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") and to confer upon them the powers, or some of the powers, and enable them to carry into effect the objects, or some of the objects following, that is to say:—

To light with gas the parishes and places following, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, viz.:—The parishes of Chipping Barnet, in the county of Hertford, and the parishes of Monken Hadley, South Mimms, and Enfield, all in the county of Middlesex.

To purchase and acquire, or take on lease the existing gas works belonging to the said Barnet Gas Light and Coke Company, Limited, now on lease to Robert Douglas and Thomas Douglas, and situate next a road or lane called Hoggylane, in Chipping Barnet, aforesaid. And the messuage or dwelling house and premises, and the several offices, sheds, workshops, gasholders, and other buildings adjoining thereto, and used therewith, and gasometers and pipes, mains and services, meters and other apparatus in use by the said Company or their lessees in connection with the said works.

To maintain, alter, enlarge, renew, and improve such existing gas works.

To erect, maintain, and use gas works, with all necessary buildings, gas holders, and apparatus, upon the lands hereinafter described, or some part thereof, that is to say: A piece of land situate in the parish of Chipping Barnet, in the county of Hertford, and in May's-lane-road, on Barnet Common, leading from May's-lane to Workhouse-road, bounded on the North by Workhouse-road, aforesaid, on the east and south by land belonging to Thomas Wilson and others, and on the west by May's-lane-road, being formerly allotments from the waste of the manor of Chipping Barnet and East Barnet in the parish of Barnet, in the county of Hertford, and numbered respectively 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, and 756, and containing by admeasurement 3 acres or thereabouts.

To manufacture gas and the several matters and things produceable from the residual products arising, resulting, or obtainable from the manufacture of gas, and to supply, sell, and dispose of gas, coke, coal-tar, and other residual and manufactured products, and matters, and things, and to carry on the business usually carried on by Gas Companies, or which is or may become incident thereto, and to acquire and to hold patent rights, or to take licenses to hold and use patent rights for the manufacture and distribution of gas, or the utilization of the residual products from gas; and to maintain, alter, or renew, any existing mains and pipes, within the said parishes and places aforesaid, and to lay down, maintain, and renew other mains, pipes, and other apparatus in, through, across, along, or under streets, roads, highways, canals, rivers, bridges, yards, courts, footways, and other public ways, passages, and places within any of the places supplied or to be supplied with gas by the Company within the parishes and places aforesaid, and to pass gas through the same: and to open, break up, and divert, alter, stop up, and interfere with such streets, roads, canals, rivers, highways, bridges, yards, courts, footways, and other public ways, passages, and places, and also sewers, drains, water pipes, gas pipes, railways, telegraphic apparatus, and other works in, over, or under the same within the parishes and places aforesaid.

To purchase or hire gas meters, pipes, fittings, and other gas apparatus, and to sell or let the same.

To levy and to collect rates, rents, and charges for the sale and supply of gas for public and private lighting, and of gas meters, pipes, apparatus, and fittings.

And it is further proposed by the Bill to enable the Company to enter into and carry into effect contracts and arrangements for the supply of gas with any local board, public trustees, highway board, surveyors of highways, and other corporations, bodies, or persons, and to confer all necessary powers upon all such corporations, bodies, and persons, and to enable them to apply for the purposes of any such contracts, any funds or moneys which they have raised, or may raise, or have power to raise, and to confirm and give effect to any contracts or agreements made by any of the corporations, bodies, or persons aforesaid with any other Company or person, and to vest in the Company the interests and rights of any third persons under any such contracts or agreements. And the Bill will or may incorporate with itself all or some of the provisions of "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847," "The Companies' Clauses, Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies' Clauses Act, 1863," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act Amendment Act, 1860," and it will confer upon the Company all other rights, powers, and privileges necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the objects of the Bill, and it will vary or extinguish all such existing rights and privileges as may interfere with the attainment of any of those objects.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1870.

Folkestone Waterworks.

(Construction of New Works. Additional Capital. Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Folkestone Waterworks Company, intend to apply to Parliament in the next Session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to confer upon them the following or some of the following among other powers.

To construct and maintain the following works in the parish of Folkestone, in the county of Kent.

1. To maintain the existing high level reservoir, called the Hill Tank, constructed by the Company on land of theirs, situate towards the north-east of the Company's upper uncovered reservoir, and which said Hill Tank is for the most part used by the Company for the supply of water to the Shorncliffe Camp.

2. To maintain the following conduits or pipes, videlicet:—

1. A pipe or conduit to connect the upper uncovered reservoir, and the filter tank, with the Company's Engine House, at the upper pumping station.

2. A pipe or conduit to connect the works of the Company at the last-mentioned engine-house, with the Hill Tank and the existing supply main of the Company below, but near to the lower uncovered reservoir of the Company.

3. To construct and maintain a new high level reservoir or new high level reservoirs, on certain land known as the Cherry Garden Hill, belonging to the Company, and occupied under them by Francis Parks.

4. Also a conduit or pipe to connect the said high level reservoir or reservoirs with the works of the Company, at the upper pumping station.

5. Also a conduit or pipe to connect the said last-mentioned reservoir or reservoirs with the existing supply main of the Company below, but near to the lower uncovered reservoir of the Company.

6. To construct and maintain two wells or shafts, on land agreed to be purchased of the Earl of Radnor, situate in the parish of Folkestone, known by the name of Shireway Field, in the occupation of Thomas Griffin.

7. To construct and maintain five other wells or shafts, on land belonging to Sir Courtney Honeywood, baronet, or his trustees, and in the occupation of John Bowley, situate near to and partly adjoining the said Shireway field.

8. To construct and maintain a conduit or pipe (herein referred to as No. 8) to connect three of the wells or shafts intended to be sunk on the land lastly referred to, and one of the two wells or shafts intended to be sunk on the said Shireway field, with an existing conduit or pipe, on land of the Company which leads into a well under the engine-house of the lower pumping station of the Company.

9. Also a conduit or pipe to connect the other two wells or shafts intended to be sunk on the land of the said Sir Courtney Honeywood and his trustees, with the intended conduit or pipe lastly before described.

10. Also a conduit or pipe to connect the other of the two wells or shafts intended to be sunk on the said Shireway field, with the conduit or pipe No. 8.

To construct all needful wells, cuts, and shafts, drains, engines, works, and conveniences in connection with the proposed works.

To take, use, and appropriate for the purposes of the said works and of the Company's existing undertaking, all such springs and streams as may be found in, upon, or under any of the lands belonging to the Company, or to be acquired by them under the powers of the Bill, or in the construction of the intended works.

To purchase lands, houses, and other property, compulsorily and by agreement, for the purposes of the Bill, and to enable the Company to purchase additional lands for extraordinary purposes.

To extend to the said intended high level reservoirs the 20th section of "The Folkestone Waterworks Act, 1848," relieving the Company from the obligation to supply water above the working level of the reservoirs, and to extend to the said intended reservoirs the powers as to additional water rent conferred by "The Folkestone Waterworks Acts Amendment Act, 1864," with respect to the reservoir by that Act authorized.

To enable the Company for the purposes of the before-mentioned works, and of their authorized undertaking, to raise additional capital by shares or by stock, or by borrowing, and to attach to such shares and stock any preference or priority of dividend, or any other advantage which the Bill may define.

To amend the powers and provisions of the existing Acts of the Company, namely, "The Folkestone Waterworks Act, 1848," "The Folkestone Waterworks Amendment Act, 1855," "The Folkestone Waterworks Acts Amendment Act, 1858," and "The Folkestone Waterworks Acts Amendment Act, 1864," and to confer other rights, powers, and privileges upon the Company.

The Bill will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation

Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," and "The Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863."

Duplicate plans and sections showing the line or situation and levels of the intended works, and the lands in or through which the same will be made, and the springs and streams intended to be taken and diverted; and plans also showing the lands sought to be acquired by compulsion, with books of reference to the plans containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of the lands, houses, and other property, which may be taken under the powers of the Bill; and also a copy of this notice will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone; and on or before the said 30th day of November, a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, and a copy of this notice, will be deposited with the parish clerk of Folkestone, at his residence.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1870.

Mitcheldean-road and Whimsey Railway.

(Incorporation of Company; Railway from the Hereford, Ross, and Gloucester Railway at Mitcheldean-road Station to the Whimsey Branch of the Forest of Dean Railway; Powers to Company and to Great Western Railway Company; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the ensuing session, for a Bill for the following or some of the following purposes:—

To incorporate a Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") and to enable the Company to make and maintain a railway with all proper stations, sidings, approaches, works, and conveniences, commencing in the parish of Lea, in the county of Hereford, by a junction with the Hereford, Ross, and Gloucester Railway of the Great Western Railway Company, at or near their Mitcheldean-road station, and terminating in the township of East Dean, in the county of Gloucester, by a junction with and at or near to the Northern Terminus of the Whimsey Branch of the Great Western Railway Company's Forest of Dean Railway; which said intended railway will be situated in and pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places of East Dean, Ruardean, Mitcheldean, and Lea Bailey, in the county of Gloucester, and Hope-mansell, Lea, and Hounall, in the county of Hereford.

To enable the Company to lay down rails, or an additional rail, on, and to adapt to the narrow gauge so much of the said Forest of Dean Railway as is situate between the Northern Terminus thereof at Churchway and the point where that railway crosses on the level the turnpike road leading from Cinderford to Coleford at the south side of Cinderford station.

To enable the Company and all other companies and persons lawfully using the said intended railway to run over and use with their engines, carriages, waggons, and trucks of every description, and with their clerks, officers, and servants, so much of the Forest of Dean Railway and the Whimsey Branch thereof as shall be adapted to narrow gauge traffic as aforesaid, together with the stations, watering places, booking offices, warehouses, sidings, works, and conveniences connected therewith. The terms and conditions upon which such rails shall be laid down on the aforesaid portions of railway and branch, and the tolls and other payments to be made for the use of the same will, if not agreed upon, be defined by the Bill or settled by arbitration.

To enable the Company and the Great Western Railway Company from time to time to enter into contracts, agreements, or arrangements for or with respect to the maintenance, working, and using of the proposed railway and works, or any part thereof, and with reference to the regulation, management, interchange, and transmission of the traffic on their respective railways, the supply and maintenance of engines, rolling stock and plant, and fixing, collecting, payment, division, appropriation, and apportionment of the tolls and other income, and profits arising therefrom, and the employment of officers and servants; and the Bill will provide for securing the forwarding, transmission, collection, and delivery of traffic passing from or destined for the railway of the Company to, from, at, and over the railways of the Great Western Railway Company, and confirm any agreement already made, or which may be made, touching any of the matters aforesaid.

To empower the Great Western Railway Company to promote the Bill, and to take and hold shares in and subscribe towards the said intended undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, and to guarantee interest dividends, or annual or other payments, and for those purposes to empower the Great Western Railway Company to raise further capital by the creation of new shares or stock, with or without preference or priority in payment of interest or dividends, or other privileges, or by borrowing on mortgage, and to empower the Great Western Railway Company to appoint directors of the Company.

To enable the Company to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, whether temporarily or permanently, roads, railways, drains, sewers, pipes, streams, and watercourses, so far as may be necessary in constructing or maintaining the said intended railway and works, or in adapting the Forest of Dean Railway to the narrow gauge; to deviate from the lines of railway both laterally and vertically; to purchase, lands, houses, and other property compulsorily for the purpose of the said intended railway and works; to levy tolls, rates, and charges in respect thereof, and to exercise other rights and privileges.

The Bill will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with its objects, and it will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Companies' Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies' Clauses Act, 1863," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860," "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Railways Clauses Act, 1863," and it will amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of any Acts relating to the South Wales Railway or to the Great Western Railway Company which the provisions of the Bill may affect.

Duplicate plans and sections describing the line, situation, and levels of the proposed railway and works, and the lands, houses, and other property in or through which they will be made, or which may be taken under the powers of the Bill, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property, together with a published map, with the lines of railway delineated thereon, so as to show its general course and direction, and a copy of this notice will, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office at Gloucester, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Hereford, at his office at Hereford, and at the Speech House in the Forest of Dean; and on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each parish in or through which the intended railway and works will be made, or in which any lands, houses, or other property are intended to be taken, and a copy of this notice will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such parish, at his residence, and in the case of any extra parochial place with the clerk of some parish immediately adjoining, at his place of abode; and as regards the township of East Dean, with the clerks of the District Churches of East Dean, at their respective residences.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1870.

North London Railway.

(Extension of Time for Construction of Works—Purchase of Additional Lands—Power to Grant Leases and to hold and dispose of Surplus Lands—Alteration of Certain Works—Agreements with London and North Western, and London, Tilbury, and Southend Railway Companies, and others—Regulation and Increase of Capital—Repeal or Amendment of Acts).

To extend and enlarge the time limited by certain warrants issued by the Board of Trade, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Railways Extension of Time Act, 1868," for completing the additional bridges and works over the London and Blackwall Railway and the new dock or basin at Poplar, authorized to be constructed under "The North London Railway (Additional Powers) Act, 1864," and for completing the new cut or dock entrance to the River Thames, authorized to be constructed under "The North London Railway Act, 1865."

To repeal or amend the 87th section of "The East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway Act, 1846," relating to arches on the Camden Estate, and also the 11th section of "The North London Railway (City Branch) Act, 1861," relating to an access to the Company's Broad-street or Liverpool-street Station.

To empower the Company to purchase by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes of their undertaking, the lands and houses following, or some of them, that is to say:—

Certain lands in the parish of St. John, at Hackney, in the county of Middlesex, lying south of the Company's railway, and adjoining and to the west of a house and other property belonging to the Company, and now under lease to Messrs. Green and Branscombe.

Certain houses or other buildings in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, on the west side of Albert-street, partly in the occupation of John Dennison, and partly of John Morrell.

Certain other lands and houses in the same parish, situate on the south-west side of, and fronting the Holloway-road, and known as Nos. 49 and 51, in such road, and also the gateway running between the said houses.

Certain other lands and houses lying respectively on the north side of, and near to the Company's railway, and on east and west sides respectively of the road known as Crane-grove, and also a part of the ground and soil of the same road lying between the houses so to be purchased, and also certain other lands lying at the rear of and adjoining to the said houses on the west side of Crane-grove aforesaid, all of such lands and houses being situate in the aforesaid parish of St. Mary, Islington.

A certain house also situate in the same parish, and lying north of the Company's railway, and on the east side of and fronting upon the Liverpool-road, and known as No. 300 in such road, and also certain lands and buildings in the same parish, on the south side of the Company's railway, and on the east side of and fronting upon Liverpool-road aforesaid, and being part of the cattle sheds or layers formerly known as Laycock's Dairy, and now in the occupation of Ellen Nicholls.

Certain houses in the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, situate on the south east side of, and known as Nos. 24 and 25, Priory-street, and a way or passage adjoining No. 25, Priory-street, and running at the rear of that and several adjoining houses.

To vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with any lands and houses proposed to be purchased for the purposes of the undertaking of the Company, which would in any manner impede or interfere with such purposes, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To authorize the Company to vary the execution of certain of the works authorized by "The North London Railway Act, 1867," so far as relates to proposed diversions of Plough-yard and Maria-street, in the parish of St. Leonard, Shoreditch, in the said county of Middlesex, and to empower the Company to extend and enlarge the bridges or arches by which it is proposed to carry the widening of their railway authorized by "The North London Railway Act, 1867," over Cumberland-street and Thomas-street respectively, so as to enable them to carry the said widening over the portions of Plough-yard and Maria-street respectively, at or near their junctions with Cumberland-street and Thomas-street respectively, in lieu of diverting the said Plough-yard and Maria-street to the extent contemplated by the said Act.

To authorize the Company to grant building or repairing leases or leases for terms of years of houses and buildings erected over the line of railway or works of the Company, or connected in any way with the structure of such railway and works, including the arches under the same, and also of lands, houses, and buildings adjoining or near to and within a distance to be defined from the railway and works, or any of them, and to relieve the Company from any obligation for the sale thereof, and to authorize them to hold such lands, houses, and buildings in perpetuity, and with all the rights and powers over the same of an ordinary owner in fee simple.

To empower the company to grant building leases for terms of years of any lands which may have been heretofore, or may from time to time be hereafter used or occupied for the purposes of their railway, or for any purpose incidental to the traffic or business thereof, and which may at any time, or from time to time, cease to be so used or occupied, and any other lands which may have been or may be hereafter acquired by the Company, and which may be found not to be required for the purposes of their undertaking, and to sell and dispose of all or any of such lands within a period or periods to be limited by the said Act.

To exempt all buildings forming part of, or connected with, or occupied as part of the Company's railway and stations, or erected over the Company's railway, from the provisions of the Metropolitan Building Acts, and to make other provisions with reference thereto.

To confirm and give effect to certain heads of agreement, dated the 20th day of March, 1867, and made between the London and North Western Railway Company of the 1st part, the Company of the 2nd part, the London, Tilbury, and Southend Railway Company of the 3rd part, and Messrs. Peto, Brassey, and Betts of the 4th part, in relation to the user and working of the railway of the London, Tilbury, and Southend Railway Company by the London and North Western Railway Company and the Company, and any other contract or agreement to be hereafter entered into between the companies and parties before mentioned, or any of them, for extending or carrying into fuller effect the same heads of agreement.

To regulate and define the capital of the Company in shares and stock, and in mortgage and bond debt, and the amount of money which they are authorized to raise by the creation of shares and stock, and by borrowing, and by the creation of debenture stock, and to make further provision in respect thereof.

To authorize the Company to apply their corporate funds towards the purposes of the intended Act, and to raise additional capital for such purposes, and for the general purposes of the undertaking of the Company, by shares or by stock, with or without any priority of dividend, or interest, or other advantages over all or any part of the existing and authorized capital of the Company, and by mortgage or bond, or by any or either of those means, and to enable the London and North Western Railway Company to contribute money towards all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to take their rateable proportion of any new capital which may be raised by the Company, and to create new shares in their own capital, with or without preference or priority of dividend, or interest, or other advantages, over all or any part of their existing and authorized capital, and by mortgage, or by either of those means.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act, to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or to repeal some of the powers and provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," relating to the sale of superfluous lands, and also of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them, relating to the Company (that is to say), local and personal Acts 9 and 10 Vict., cap. 396; 13 and 14 Vict., cap. 36; 16 and 17 Vict., cap. 97; 17 and 18 Vict., cap. 80; 23 and 24 Vict., caps. 14, 52, and 67; 24 and 25 Vict., caps. 132 and 196; 27 and 28 Vict., cap. 246; 28 and 29 Vict., cap. 72; 30 Vict., cap. 78; and 31 Vict., cap. 4. And

No. 23680.

Ince Water.

(Power to the Local Board of Ince in Makerfield to better supply their district, and adjoining places, with water, and to enter into agreements in connection therewith; Compulsory taking of Lands; Compulsory Water supply to certain houses; Levying of Water and other Rates and Charges; Borrowing Powers and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Local Board for the district of Ince in Makerfield, in the county palatine of Lancaster (hereinafter called "the Local Board"), for leave to bring in a Bill to empower the Local Board to afford a better supply of water for domestic, trade, sanitary, and other purposes, and to carry into effect the objects and purposes following, or some of them; viz. :—

To make and maintain the water works and other works and conveniences following, or some of them; that is to say :—

1. A reservoir wholly in the township of Golborne, in the said county, to be situate in and upon certain lands belonging to William John Legh, and in the occupation of Abel Wiswall, lying at a point 480 yards or thereabouts, measured in an easterly direction from the house in Factory-lane, occupied by the said Abel Wiswall, in the same township.

2. An aqueduct or line of pipes commencing from and out of the proposed reservoir, and passing thence, from, along, through, and into the parishes, townships, and places of Golborne, Ashton-in-Makerfield, Abram, Hindley, and Ince, or some or one of them, in the said county, and terminating in such last-mentioned township in the public highway leading from Golborne to Ince, at a point adjoining or near to the boundary between the township of Ince and Hindley, and on the northerly side of and near to the bridge which carries the Manchester, Eccles, Tyldesley, and Wigan branch of the London and North-Western Railway over the last-mentioned road.

To sink wells and shafts and make borings and other works for collecting water from the lands in the said parishes, townships, and places, or some or one of them.

To deviate from the lines of the intended new works within the limits shown upon the plans hereinafter mentioned, and to deviate vertically from the levels shewn upon the sections hereinafter mentioned.

To make and maintain in the said parishes, townships, and places aforesaid, or any of them, in connection with the intended works above-described, all necessary and convenient approaches, roads, ways, embankments, tanks, filtering beds, dams, sluices, channels, drains, pipes, engines, and conveniences for collecting, raising, filtering, and draining, and distributing water.

To lay down and maintain mains, pipes, culverts, and other works for the distribution of water within the before-mentioned parishes, townships, and places, and for supplying water in bulk or otherwise to any Local Board or other public body or private consumer in any parish, township, district, or place adjoining or near to the hereinbefore-mentioned parishes, townships, and places, and to enable the Local Board, and any other Local Board, public body, or persons, to enter into contracts and agreements for carrying into effect such last-mentioned object, or any other object of the said Act, and to confirm existing agreements.

To break up, alter, divert, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, any roads, streets, highways, footpaths, bridges, canals, towing-paths, railways, tramroads, sewers, drains, streams, and watercourses within the parishes, townships, and places aforesaid, which it may be necessary or convenient to break up, alter, divert, and stop up for the purposes of the intended works, or of the said Bill.

To enable the Local Board to acquire, compulsorily or otherwise, easements or rights of way or other rights over or affecting the several roads, lanes, and ways hereinafter mentioned, or some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and the site and soil thereof respectively; that is to say:—

Factory-lane, Cow-lane, Smithy-lane, Windy Bank-lane, Lightshaw Hall-lane, Heybridge-lane, Dover, Dover Bridge, Abram Brow, and Platt Bridge.

To purchase and take by compulsion and otherwise, and take leases and grants of, or easements over, lands, houses, water, and hereditaments in the parishes, townships, and places aforesaid, for any of the purposes of the said Bill; and the Bill will or may confer or extinguish any rights or privileges connected with any such lands, houses, roads, water, and hereditaments.

To levy rates, rents, and charges in addition to any rates, rents, and charges which they are now authorized to levy, and to apply the same and any moneys belonging to, or under the control of, the Local Board to all or any of the objects and purposes of the Bill, and to borrow money for such purposes.

To ensure to every house within the district of the Local Board a proper supply of water, and to require the owners and occupiers of all such houses to procure such supply at their expense.

To diminish the several amounts which the Local Board are now required to set apart and appropriate annually for paying off any moneys borrowed by them, or which they are authorized to borrow, and to extend the time limited for paying off moneys borrowed by the Local Board.

And it is proposed by the intended Act to confer upon the Local Board all or some of the powers conferred by the clauses and provisions of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the temporary occupation of lands, and to amend "The Public Health Act, 1848," and "The Local Government Act, 1858," as applicable to the Local Board, and all other public Acts applicable within their limits.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the 30th November instant, duplicate plans and sections of the works proposed to be authorised by the Bill, and plans shewing also the lands proposed to be compulsorily taken under the powers of the Bill, and a book of reference to such plans, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county palatine of Lancaster, at his office at Preston; and that on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, as relates to each parish and extra-parochial place, in, through, or into which the proposed works will be made, or in which any lands are intended to be taken; and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, in the case of each parish, with the parish clerk of such parish, at his residence, and, in the case of each extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his residence.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1870.

Dover Harbour.

(Acquisition of lands and easements by compulsion or agreement; Power to borrow money; Alteration of tolls; Extinguishment of certain rights and exemptions; Amendment of Acts and other purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, by the Dover Harbour Board (hereinafter called the Board), for leave to bring in a Bill and to pass an Act for all or some of the following purposes:—

1. To purchase by compulsion or agreement lands, houses, and easements, for improving the access to the harbour basins and works of the Board, and particularly the land forming a part of the bed and foreshore of the sea, and lying seawards of and adjoining or near to the entrance of Dover Harbour, and situate in the parishes of Saint James the Apostle, and Saint Mary the Virgin, in Dover, or one of them, or the bed of the sea, and to extinguish rights and interests in and over such lands and houses, and all easements in and over the same.

2. To cross, stop up, alter, and divert, either temporarily or permanently, all roads and high-ways, footways, railways, tramroads, sewers, navigations, and bridges within the several parishes of Saint Mary the Virgin and Saint James the Apostle, in Dover, or either of them, which it may be expedient to cross, stop up, alter, or divert, for improving the access to the harbour and works of the Board.

3. To levy additional tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the harbour, basins, bridges, and works of the Board, or to alter, modify, increase, or diminish the existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, or duties, or other rights or privileges, and particularly the exemptions contained in the "Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c., Act, 1861," and in the following Acts (local and personal), 9 Geo. 4, cap. 31; 6 and 7 William 4, cap. 125; and 11 and 12 Vict., cap. 97, relating to Dover Harbour.

4. To borrow on mortgage, bond, or by other means on the security of the lands, houses, harbour works, and property belonging to the Board, and of the tolls, rates, and duties leviable under the before mentioned Acts, or either of them, or which may be authorized to be levied under the proposed Act or by any of these means, such sums of money as may be necessary for carrying into effect the objects of the intended Bill, or may be required by the Board for improving their harbour and works, or the general purposes of their undertaking, and to sell and dispose of any of the lands, houses, and property of the Board, and to apply the proceeds in the improvement of the said harbour and works.

5. So far as it may be necessary for all or any of the objects and purposes of the intended Act, the following local or personal Acts will be repealed, altered, or amended, that is to say, 9 Geo. 4, cap. 31; 6 and 7 William 4, cap. 125; 11 and 12 Vict., caps. 11 and 97; and the "Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c., Act, 1861," and all other Acts relating to Dover Harbour or to the Board.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant, duplicate plans, showing the lands which will or may be taken under the compulsory powers of the intended Act, with a book of reference thereto containing the names of the owners and lessees, or the reputed owners and lessees and occupiers of such lands, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office, at Maidstone, in the said county; and on or before the same 30th day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plans and book of reference as relates to each parish and extra-parochial place in which any lands are situate, which may be taken under compulsory powers of the said Bill, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection in the case of each parish with the parish clerk thereof, at his residence, and in the case of each extra-parochial place with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his residence.

And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Maryport and Carlisle Railway.

(Conversion of Preference Stocks B and C into Ordinary Stock, and the extinction of their Preferential Rights and Privileges; Power to raise Additional Moneys; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Maryport and Carlisle Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company,") will, in the ensuing Session of Parliament apply for an Act (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") to effect the following objects, or some of them:—

1. The conversion of or authority or obligation on the part of the Company to convert the Preference Stocks of the Company, designated as Stock B and Stock C, with the consent of the holders thereof, into Ordinary Stock of the Company, with all the rights and privileges of Ordinary Stock of the Company, and the alteration or extinguishment of the preferential rights and privileges of the holders of those Stocks B and C respectively, on and after such conversion. Such Stocks were created by a resolution of the Company, dated the seventeenth day of August 1851, in lieu of, and in substitution for, the four per cent. and four and a half per cent. preference shares respectively, created by resolutions of the Company, dated respectively the sixteenth day of December, 1850, and the twenty-seventh day of August, 1851.

2. The raising by the Company of additional capital by the creation of New Shares or Stock and by borrowing on mortgage and the granting to such New Shares or Stock such preferences, priorities, privileges, or advantages (if any) as may be deemed expedient.

3. The incorporation in the Act of the provisions, or some of them, contained in "The Companies' Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Companies' Clauses Act, 1863."

4. The alteration, amendment, and extension, and (if need be) the partial repeal of the provisions of "The Maryport and Carlisle Railway Act, 1855, the Maryport and Carlisle Railway Act, 1862, and the Maryport and Carlisle Railway Act, 1865.

And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Batley Corporation Water.

(Powers to construct new Works for supplying Batley with Water; to lay pipes through public and private streets, &c.; to purchase private Waterworks; to supply water within or beyond the borough, in bulk or otherwise; for sale of Corporation's share and interest in the Dewsbury, Batley, and Heckmondwike Waterworks; to apply funds, levy rates, &c.; amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to make better provision for supplying with water the Borough of Batley, in the West Riding of the county of York, and to authorize the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Batley (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") in their municipal capacity, or as Local Board of Health for the District, to make and maintain the following reservoirs, aqueducts, waterworks, and roads, with all necessary proper, or convenient sluices, embankments, weirs, overfalls, bridges, dams, aqueducts, pumping stations, filtering beds, steam engines, pipes, tunnels, drains, approaches, and other works and conveniences, that is to say:—

1. A reservoir, hereinafter called "The Yateholme Reservoir," to be situate in the townships of Holme and Austonley, otherwise Austonley detached, and parish of Almondbury and West Riding of the county of York, to be formed by an embankment commencing at a point where an imaginary line measured 88 yards or thereabouts, in a southerly direction from the south corner of the building known as "Yateholme Cote," would intersect an imaginary line measured 364 yards or thereabouts, in an easterly direction, from the centre of the bridge known as "Great Bent Bridge," thence extending in a north-westerly direction about 109 yards, thence in a south-westerly direction about 521 yards, thence in a southerly direction about 48 yards to its termination at a point where an imaginary line measured 202 yards or thereabouts, in a south-westerly direction from Great Bent Bridge, would intersect an imaginary line measured 444 yards or thereabouts, in a south-westerly direction from the point of junction of the Great Bent Dike with the Holme Woods Dike; such reservoir will extend up the Great Bent Dike for a distance of 220 yards or thereabouts, measured in a direct line from the intended line of embankment, or 252 yards or thereabouts, measured in a direct line from the centre of Great Bent Bridge.
2. A reservoir, hereinafter called "The Riding Wood Reservoir," to be situate on the stream known as "Ramsden Clough," to be formed by an embankment across the said stream, about 189 yards in length, from north-east to south-west, placed 55 yards or thereabouts, measured in a straight line, in a south-easterly direction from the centre of the bridge across the said Clough, known as "Rake-bridge." The said reservoir will commence at the said embankment, and will extend to and terminate at a point on Ramsden Clough, 454 yards or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a south-easterly direction from the said embankment, and will be situate in the township of Holme, in the parish of Almondbury, and in the township of Cartworth, in the parish of Kirkburton, all in the West Riding of the county of York.

3. A reservoir, hereinafter called "Ramsden Reservoir," to be situate on Ramsden Clough and Netherly Clough, to be formed by an embankment across Ramsden Clough, about 139 yards in length from east to west, placed 252 yards or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a southerly direction from the junction of Rake Dike with Ramsden Clough to the point at which such embankment will cross Ramsden Clough, at which embankment the said reservoir will commence and extend to and terminate at a point on Ramsden Clough 540 yards or thereabouts, measured in a direct line, in a south-easterly direction from the point where the said embankment will cross the said Clough, and will extend to and terminate at a point on Netherly Clough, 650 yards or thereabouts, measured in a direct line in a south-westerly direction, from the point where the said embankment will cross the Ramsden Clough, and which reservoir will be situate in the township of Holme, in the parish of Almondbury and in the township of Cartworth, in the parish of Kirkburton, all in the West Riding of the county of York.
4. A reservoir, hereinafter called "The Holme Reservoir," to be situate on the River Holme, the Ramsden Clough, and Rake Dike, to be formed by an embankment across the River Holme, about 147 yards in length from east to west, to be placed 255 yards or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a south-westerly direction, from the most westerly corner of the main building of the mills known as "Brownhill Mills," to the point at which such embankment will cross the River Holme, at which embankment the said reservoir will commence, and will extend to and terminate at a point on Ramsden Clough, 462 yards or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a southerly direction, and extend to and terminate at a point on Rake Dike, 482 yards or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a south-westerly direction from the point at which the said embankment will cross the River Holme, and will be situate in the township of Holme, in the parish of Almondbury, and in the township of Cartworth, in the parish of Kirkburton, all in the West Riding of the county of York.
5. A reservoir, hereinafter called "The Batley Reservoir," to be situate wholly in the township and parish of Batley, on land belonging to the Corporation, occupied in part by William Turner, and in part by the Corporation, which reservoir will be formed by an embankment which will commence at a point where an imaginary line, measured 31 yards or thereabouts, in a south-westerly direction from the most southerly corner of the Wesleyan Chapel, called the Centenary Chapel, would intersect an imaginary line measured 27 yards or thereabouts, in a south-westerly direction from the most westerly corner of the said chapel, and will thence extend in a south-westerly direction for a distance of about 58 yards, thence in a north-westerly direction for a distance of about 33 yards, thence in a northerly direction for a distance of about 60 yards, thence in a south-easterly direction for a distance of about 55 yards, to its point of commencement, and will there terminate.

6. An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, in this notice called Aqueduct No. 1, to be situate wholly in the township of Holme and parish of Almondbury and West Riding of the county of York, and to commence in and out of Ramsden Clough, at a point on Ramsden Clough, measured 46 yards or thereabouts, in a direct line in a southerly direction from the junction of Hoar Clough with Ramsden Clough, and to terminate in the "Yateholme Reservoir," at a point where an imaginary line measured 107 yards or thereabouts, in a southerly direction from the south corner of the building known as "Yateholme Cote," would intersect an imaginary line measured 326 yards or thereabouts, in an easterly direction from the centre of the bridge known as "Great Bent-bridge."
7. A road to be situate wholly in the township of Holme and parish of Almondbury, in the West Riding of the county of York, to commence at a point in the existing road known as "Intake-lane," 6 yards or thereabouts measured along such road in a north-easterly direction from the centre of the bridge known "Great Bent-bridge," and to terminate in the said existing road at a point 127 yards or thereabouts, measured in a direct line in a westerly direction from the south corner of the building known as "Yateholme Cote."
8. An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, in this notice called Aqueduct No. 2, in the township of Cartworth and parish of Kirkburton, and in the township of Holme and parish of Almondbury, in the West Riding of the county of York, to commence at a point in Ramsden Clough within the Riding-wood reservoir, measured 148 yards or thereabouts, in a direct line in a south-easterly direction from the centre of the bridge known as "Rake-bridge," and to terminate at a point where an imaginary line measured 154 yards or thereabouts, in a south-westerly direction from the most westerly corner of the main building of the mills known as "Brownhill-mills," would intersect an imaginary line measured 219 yards or thereabouts, in a northerly direction from the most northerly corner of the most northerly building of the buildings at Brownhill.
9. An aqueduct, conduit, or lines of pipes, in this notice called Aqueduct No. 3, to be situate wholly in the township of Holme and parish of Almondbury, in the West Riding of the county of York, to commence at a point on the stream known as "Great Bent-dike," in the Yateholme reservoir, 77 yards or thereabouts, measured in a southerly direction from the centre of Great Bent-bridge, and to terminate by a junction with Aqueduct No. 2, at a point in Ramsden Clough, 26 yards or thereabouts, measured in a direct line in a north-westerly direction from the centre of the bridge known as "Rake-bridge."
10. An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, in this notice called Aqueduct No. 4, to be wholly situate in the township of Holme and parish of Almondbury, in the West Riding of the county of York, to commence by a junction with Aqueduct No. 3, at a point 6 yards or thereabouts, measured in a north-easterly direction along the road known as "Intake-lane," from the centre of the Great Bent-bridge, and to terminate in the stream known as "Great Bent-dyke," at a point on such stream, 18 yards or thereabouts, measured in a northerly direction from the centre of the said bridge.
11. An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, in this notice called Aqueduct No. 5, to be situate in the township of Holme and parish of Almondbury, and in the township of Cartworth and parish of Kirkburton, to commence in Ramsden Clough, within the Ramsden reservoir, at a point 88 yards or thereabouts, measured in a direct line in a southerly direction, from the point where the embankment of the said reservoir will cross the said clough, and to terminate by a junction with Aqueduct No. 2, at a point where an imaginary line, measured 209 yards or thereabouts, in a southerly direction from the junction of Rake-dyke and Ramsden Clough, would intersect an imaginary line, measured 55 yards or thereabouts, in a north-easterly direction, from the point where the embankment of the Ramsden Reservoir will cross the said clough.
12. An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, in this notice called Aqueduct No. 6, in the township of Cartworth and parish of Kirkburton, and in the township of Holme and parish of Almondbury, to commence in the river Holme within the Holme Reservoir, at a point measured 88 yards or thereabouts, in a direct line in a southerly direction up the said river, from the point where the embankment of the Holme Reservoir is described as intended to cross the said river, and to terminate by a junction with the aqueduct No. 8, hereinafter described, at the point at which such aqueduct is described to commence.
13. An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, in this notice called Aqueduct No. 7, in the township of Cartworth, in the parish of Kirkburton, and in the township of Holme and parish of Almondbury, to commence in Ramsden Clough at a point measured 524 yards or thereabouts, in a direct line in a south-easterly direction, from the centre of the bridge known as "Rake-bridge," which crosses the said clough, and to terminate in river Holme at a point in the said river, 270 yards or thereabouts, measured in a direct line in a northerly direction from the point of junction of Rake-dike with Ramsden Clough.
14. A road in the township of Holme and parish Almondbury, and in the township of Cartworth and parish of Kirkburton, to commence in the existing road called "Rake Stones," at a point in the said road 132 yards or thereabouts, measured in a north-easterly direction from the northerly corner of the farm-house called "Yateholme," and to terminate at a point in the road known as "Brownhill-lane," measured 33 yards or thereabouts, in a north-easterly direction from the north-east corner of the building called "Bright-hill."
15. A road in the township of Cartworth and parish of Kirkburton, to commence in and out of the existing road called "Brownhill-lane," at a point in the said road measured 374 yards or thereabouts, in a direct line in a northerly direction from the north-east corner of the building called "Bright-hill," and to terminate at a point where an imaginary line, measured 55 yards or thereabouts, in a north-westerly direction from the point of junction of the Greenhouse-lane with the Brownhill-lane, would intersect an imaginary line, measured 264 yards or thereabouts, in a northerly direction from the north-east corner of the building called "Bright-hill."

16. A road in the township of Cartworth and parish of Kirkburton, to commence in the existing road called "Brownhill-lane," at a point in the said road measured 139 yards or thereabouts, in a northerly direction from the most northerly corner of the most northerly building of the buildings at Brown-hill, and to terminate at a point where an imaginary line measured 88 yards or thereabouts, in a north-westerly direction from the most northerly corner of the most northerly building of the buildings at Brown-hill, would intersect an imaginary line measured 242 yards or thereabouts, in a south-westerly direction from the most westerly corner of the main building of the mills known as "Brownhill Mills."
17. An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, in this notice called Aqueduct No. 8, to commence in the township of Holme and parish of Almondbury, at a point where an imaginary line measured 154 yards or thereabouts, in a south-westerly direction from the most westerly corner of the main building of the mills, known as "Brownhill Mills," would intersect an imaginary line, measured 219 yards, or thereabouts, in a northerly direction from the most northerly corner of the most northerly building of the buildings at Brown-hill, and to terminate in the township and parish of Batley, in the Batley Reservoir, at a point 61 yards or thereabouts, measured in a south-westerly direction from the most southerly corner of the Wesleyan Chapel, called "Centenary Chapel," would intersect an imaginary line, measured 51 yards or thereabouts in a south-westerly direction from the most westerly corner of the said chapel, which said aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, will pass through or into the townships of Holme, Austonley, and Austonley (detached), Upper Thong, Nether Thong, Honley, Almondbury, Lockwood, Huddersfield, Clifton, Hartshead, Mirfield, Liversedge, Heckmonwike, and Batley, or some of them, also the borough of Huddersfield, and the several parishes of Almondbury, Huddersfield, Dewsbury (detached), Mirfield, Birstall, and Batley, or some of them, all in the West Riding of the county of York.
18. An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, in this notice called Aqueduct No. 9, to be wholly situate in the township and parish of Batley, to commence in the Batley Reservoir, at a point in the said reservoir where an imaginary line, measured 60 yards or thereabouts, in a south-westerly direction from the most southerly corner of the Wesleyan Chapel, called "Centenary Chapel," would intersect an imaginary line, measured 50 yards or thereabouts, in a south-westerly direction from the most westerly corner of the said chapel, and to terminate at a point in the road known as "Staincliffe Hall Road," 113 yards or thereabouts, measured in a north-easterly direction along such road from the most easterly corner of the public-house, known as "The Butcher's Arms," at the junction of the Wakefield and Halifax-road with the said road.

And it is proposed to take, impound, and store up in the said intended reservoirs, or some of them, for the purposes of the intended Act, the streams or waters of the Great Bent Dike, Ramsden Clough, Netherley Clough, Rake Dike, River Holme, and affluents thereof and therein, and all or any other streams or waters which are capable of being intercepted or collected by means of the intended works, and to use and appropriate the same for supplying water to the town and borough of Batley, and to the inhabitants thereof, and to provide compensation-water to persons whose present supply of water may be affected by, or in consequence of the works to be authorized by the intended Act, or any of them, and which streams or waters so to be taken and appropriated are situate in the townships of Holme, Cartworth, Uppertong, and Austonley, otherwise Austonley detached, and in the parishes of Almondbury and Kirkburton, all in the West Riding of the county of York, and now directly or derivatively flow into the River Holme, the River Colne, the Huddersfield Canal, Sir John Ramsden's Canal, the River Calder, the Calder and Hebble Navigation, the River Aire, the Aire and Calder Navigation, the Knottingley and Goole Canal, the Selby Canal, the River Ouse, the River Humber, and thence into the German Ocean.

And it is proposed to take powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and buildings, streams and waters, in the several townships and parishes aforesaid, or some of them, and of rights, easements, and privileges, in, over, or affecting lands and buildings, streams and waters, and also to purchase by agreement, lands, buildings, streams, waters, rights, easements, and privileges, and to lay down and maintain mains, culverts, pipes, drains, tunnels, and other works, for the conveyance of water through or under any turnpike road, or highway, or any public or private road, street, passage, place, or land within or beyond the said borough, and to stop up, alter, divert, or remove, temporarily or permanently, all, or any turnpike, or other roads, highways, bridges, railways, tramways, sewers, brooks, streams, water-courses, sewers, pipes, telegraphic wires or apparatus, or other works, which it may be necessary or convenient to stop up, alter, divert, or remove for the purposes of the intended works, or any of them.

And it is proposed by the intended Act to authorize the Corporation to purchase by compulsion or agreement, all or any of the waterworks, pipes, plant, apparatus, and property of any Company, or private person or persons supplying water within any part of the borough of Batley, and to empower the Corporation, and all or any such persons or Companies as last aforesaid, to make agreements for the sale and transfer of any such waterworks, pipes, plant, apparatus, or property.

And it is proposed to amend and extend the powers of the Corporation with respect to the supply of water, and to confer upon them full powers to supply water, whether for domestic, trading, manufacturing, or other purposes, within or without the borough, and to authorize agreements between the Corporation and any other Corporation, Local Board, or other Local Authority, or private persons, for the supply of water to any district or place, whether within or without the borough, and whether in bulk, or otherwise, and to authorize the Corporation to levy rates, rents, and charges, whether within or without the borough with respect to any such supply.

And it is proposed to confirm all or any such agreements as aforesaid, whether with respect to the sale and transfer to the Corporation of any waterworks, pipes, plant, apparatus, and property, or for the supply of water to any district or place which may have been entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act.

And it is proposed to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with any lands, buildings, streams, or waters to be purchased, taken, used, or interfered with under any of the powers, or for any of the purposes of the intended Act, or which might in any way prevent or interfere with the carrying into effect of any such purposes, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is proposed to make provision and confer powers upon the Corporation for preventing any abstraction, diversion, appropriation, misapplication, fouling, injury, use, misuse, or waste of or to any waters for the time being belonging to the Corporation, or which they may be entitled to appropriate under the powers of the intended Act, and to make and from time to time alter or repeal bye-laws for regulating the waterworks and other works and property belonging to them or under their control, and the several persons using or frequenting the same.

And it is proposed to authorize the Corporation to sell and transfer their share and interest in the undertaking known as the Dewsbury Batley, and Heckmondwike Waterworks, and all or certain of their rights, powers, authorities, and privileges, mains, pipes, works, machinery, plant, and property conferred or acquired by, under, or through means of the Acts relating to the said undertaking to the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Dewsbury (hereinafter called "The Corporation of Dewsbury") in their municipal capacity, or as Local Board of Health for the district of Dewsbury, and the Local Board of Health for the district of Heckmondwike, and any other Corporations, Local Boards of Health, bodies of commissioners, and private companies, or to some or one of the parties aforesaid, upon such terms and conditions, and if more than one in such shares and proportions as may be agreed upon between the parties or prescribed in, by, or under the provisions of the Act; and to authorize the Corporation of Dewsbury, the Local Board of Health for the district of Heckmondwike, and all other such Corporations, Local Boards of Health, bodies of commissioners, and private companies aforesaid, or some or one of them to purchase, hold, enjoy, use, and exercise the premises aforesaid, and to confer upon them respectively all powers, rights, authorities, and privileges necessary, proper, or convenient for such purposes, including powers to levy rates, rents, and charges, to alter existing rates, rents, and charges, and to grant exemptions from the payment of rates, rents, and charges, and to raise or borrow money by annuities or on mortgage, and to charge therewith their several and respective undertakings, rates, and property, and to authorize agreements between the Corporation on the one hand, and the said several and respective Corporations, Local Boards of Health, bodies of commissioners, and private companies, or some or one of them on the other hand, for effecting any such sale and purchase or otherwise in relation thereto, and to confirm all or any such agreements as may have been entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act, and to make full provision for carrying the same respectively or some or one of them into complete effect.

And it is proposed to authorize the application of any existing funds or revenues of the Corporation, from whatever source, derived for the purposes of the intended Act or any of them, and to authorize the Corporation to levy rates, rents and charges, to alter existing rates, rents and charges, and to confer, vary or extinguish exemptions from payment of rates, rents or charges, and to raise money by mortgages, bonds, debentures, rent charges or annuities, to be charged upon the security of all or any part or parts of the undertakings, property, rates or revenues of the Corporation.

And it is proposed to confer upon the Local Board all or some of the powers conferred by the clauses and provisions of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the temporary occupation of lands, and to amend or repeal all or certain of the provisions of the "Dewsbury, Batley and Heckmondwike Waterworks Act, 1856," "The Dewsbury, Batley and Heckmondwike Waterworks Amendment Act, 1861," and "The Dewsbury, Batley and Heckmondwike Waterworks Amendment Act, 1867," and any other Act, if any, relating to the Corporation, or to the town, district or borough of Batley.

And notice is hereby also given, that a plan and section in duplicate, describing the situation, lines and levels of the intended reservoirs, aqueducts and works, and the lands in, through, or upon which the same respectively will be situate or made; a book of reference to the plan containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees and occupiers of the lands and buildings which will be liable to be taken under the compulsory powers of purchase, to be conferred by the Act will be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the county of York, at his office at Wakefield, and that a copy of so much of the said plan, section, and book of reference as relates to any parish or extra-parochial place will be deposited as follows, that is to say, in the case of a parish, with the parish clerk of such parish, at his residence, and in the case of an extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of a parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his residence; and that each such deposit will be made on or before the 30th day of November instant, and will be accompanied by a copy of this Notice; and that printed copies of the proposed Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 10th day of November, 1870.

Mining Company of Ireland.

(Incorporation of the Mining Company of Ireland; Repeal or Amendment of Act; Cancellation or Amendment of Deed of Agreement, &c.; Transfer of Property, and Powers of Existing Company; Extension of those Powers; Power to hold Land and other Property; Power to Trade and Manufacture; To Subscribe to other Companies; Regulation as to Capital and Management of Company, and for other purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the purposes, or some of the purposes following:—

1. To repeal, alter, or amend all or some of the provisions of the Act, local and personal, 5 Geo. IV., cap. 158, intituled "An Act to enable the Mining Company of Ireland to sue and be sued, in name of their Secretary, or of one of the Members of said Company," and also to cancel and annul, or to amend and extend the Deed of Agreement of the Mining Company of Ireland (herein called the existing Company), and the resolutions under which the existing Company is at present constituted; and to dissolve the existing Company, and to confirm any acts done by the existing Company under the said Act, Deed, and Resolution, or otherwise, howsoever.

2. To incorporate into a Company (herein called the Company) the Proprietors or Shareholders in the existing Company, and such other Corporations and persons as may become Proprietors or Shareholders in the Company, and to confer on such Company powers to sue and be sued, and the other usual powers of a Corporate Body, and all necessary powers for carrying out the objects of the Bill.

3. To enable the Company to continue to exercise the powers and effect the objects for which the existing Company were associated, and also to extend these powers and objects, and to hold, work, and maintain or dispose of the lands, mines, and works, and other property belonging to the existing Company, wherever situated; and also to acquire, and hold, and dispose of other mines, or of shares in mines, or in mining companies, and of quarries, and of other lands, buildings, machinery, ships, and other property of every nature and kind, in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and also to enable the Company to purchase, smelt, and sell and dispose of ores and mining produce of all kinds, and to manufacture and sell the products of any ores, whether home or foreign; and to enable the Company to grant leases of lands, mines, or works belonging to the existing Company, or which the Company may hereafter acquire.

4. To enable the Company to subscribe towards, or make other pecuniary contributions or advances out of their capital or funds, to any company, firm, landowner, or undertaking, where the operations of the Company may be facilitated thereby.

5. To transfer to, and vest in the Company, all the lands, and all mines, works, buildings, rights, powers, interests, privileges, easements, agreements, moneys, shares, credits and trusts, and property of every description, at law or in equity, belonging to the existing Company, and vested in them, or in any person or persons in trust for them, and to dispense with the necessity of any conveyances, or other deeds or writings for the purpose of conveying to and vesting in the Company, any property held in trust for the existing Company.

6. To apply, for the purposes of the Company and of the Bill, the capital, property, and funds of the existing Company, and to alter, define, and regulate the capital of the existing Company, and if deemed expedient to reduce the same, and to alter the shares of the existing Company, and to limit the liability of the holders thereof; to borrow, on mortgage, bond, or otherwise; to alter and regulate the mode of voting, and other rights and privileges of the shareholders, and the provisions as to increasing or reducing the number and the manner of electing the Directors, and to make further provision for the regulation and management of the Company and its affairs.

7. To provide for the continuance of any secretaries, clerks, officers, and servants of the existing Company, and of other persons employed by them, and for the future appointment and remuneration of all such persons respectively.

8. To incorporate in the Bill all or some of the provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1863, and 1869," and all or some of the provisions of the existing Company's Deed of Agreement, and of the resolutions modifying or amending the same, and the provisions of any other public Acts which may be expedient or desirable for the purposes of the Bill.

9. To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges on the Company.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 7th day of November, 1870.

Huddersfield Improvement Bill.

(Repeal, Consolidation, and Amendment of Acts; Severance from South Crosland of parts of that Township; General Powers as to Improvement of Borough and Prevention of Nuisances; New Streets and Improvements; Rebuilding of Long Bridge, and Contribution of West Riding thereto; Compulsory Purchase of Markets and of Property; Establishment of New Markets, &c.; Power to acquire existing Gasworks, and to establish Inland Bonding Warehouses; alteration of existing and levying of New Rates; Powers to Borrow Money; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Huddersfield, in the West Riding of the county of York (herein called the Corporation), intend to apply to Parliament in the next Session thereof for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following, among other purposes, and to confer upon them the following or some of the following among other powers (that is to say):—

To declare that such parts of the township of South Crosland, in the parish of Almondbury, as are now within the municipal borough of Huddersfield, shall for all purposes be part of the township of Lockwood, in the said parish and borough:

To rescind all resolutions and provisional or other orders whereby "The Public Health Act, 1848," "The Local Government Act, 1858," or any Act wholly or partially incorporated with the two last-named Acts or either of them, has been put in force within the said borough of Huddersfield (hereinafter called the "Borough"), and to repeal, so far as they relate to the borough, all Acts of Parliament confirming such orders:

To alter, amend, and enlarge, or repeal wholly or partially, and to consolidate and re-enact the Act (11 and 12 Vict., cap. 140) intitled "An Act for better paving, lighting, watching, sewerage, draining, cleansing, and otherwise improving the town and neighbourhood of Huddersfield, in the West Riding of the county of York; for maintaining an efficient Police, and removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances therein," (which said Act is hereinafter referred to as the Act of 1848), also "The Huddersfield Burial Ground Act, 1852," and the Act of the 18 and 19 Vict., chap. 89, amending that Act, and to re-enact or incorporate with the said Bill, in extenso or by reference, all or some of the powers and provisions of the before-mentioned Acts, and of, amongst other Acts, "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," "The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847," "The Town Police Clauses Act, 1847," "The Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863," "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847," "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," "The Public Health Act, 1848," "The Local Government Act, 1858," and any other supplemental Act, and "The Sewage Utilization Acts 1865 and 1867:"

To repeal so much of the local and personal Act of the 32 and 33 Vict., cap. 124, as relates to the borough and corporation of Huddersfield:

To vest in the corporation all needful powers for the improvement and good government of the borough, and subject to the provisions of the Bill to extend the operation of the Bill to the whole of the borough, and to confirm the letters patent bearing date the 7th day of July, 1868, granted to the corporation by her present Majesty, in the 32nd year of her reign, and to confirm the transfer to the corporation of the powers of the Commissioners acting in execution of the Act of 1848:

To enable the corporation to pave, light, watch, cleanse, regulate, and otherwise improve the borough, to remove ruinous and dangerous buildings, to remove or compel the removal of obstructions, projections, and encroachments in, and otherwise to regulate the streets, roads, lanes, passages, places, and thoroughfares within the borough:

To vest in and place under the control or management of the corporation all present and future streets, roads, bridges, lanes, footpaths, courts, yards, and passages within the borough, with powers to repair, alter, widen, and improve the same, and to enforce the flagging and paving thereof, and to make and maintain all needful sewers and drains, and to compel the better and more effectual drainage of houses, buildings, and other property:

To restrain the collection of tolls upon any turnpike road within the borough:

To make provision as to the laying out and completion of new streets and the levels, width, and direction thereof, and the paving, sewerage, and drainage thereof and of roads and buildings, and the erection and alteration of houses and buildings and the drainage thereof, and the prevention of nuisances, and the exhibition of dangerous or offensive articles within view of any public street, and the imposing and enforcing of fines and penalties, and the making and revision of bye-laws, rules, and regulations, or to prescribe in the Bill any of such bye-laws, rules, and regulations:

To make provision as to the prevention of fire, the consumption of smoke, the position of steam and smoke pipes, the discharge of steam from factories and other works, the issuing of smoke or steam from buildings and locomotive engines, the ventilation of public buildings, the means of ingress and egress thereto and therefrom, and the provision of urinals for such buildings and for public houses, the preventing or regulating the letting of cellars or underground rooms as residences, and regulating the building of houses in courts:

To regulate the height and construction of furnaces and chimneys, to prevent the disfiguring of the front of buildings by signboards and advertisements, the defacing of walls and fences by placards or writing, and to prevent the carrying on of any offensive trade or business in or near to any street or dwelling-house within the borough:

To regulate and licence brokers, hawkers of marketable goods, pawnbrokers, scavengers, lodging houses, marine store dealers, places of public entertainment, porters, hackney carriages, carts, and animals plying for hire, and their drivers and attendants:

To authorize the closing of any public place of amusement or entertainment improperly conducted, and to impose penalties upon and otherwise punish the keepers thereof, and the keepers of brothels and other places of ill-fame:

To authorize the corporation to appoint an officer of health and an inspector or inspectors of weights and measures, and to vest in the corporation the sole and exclusive jurisdiction over weights and measures within the borough, and to extend the powers of the Public Acts and of the said Bill as to weights and measures, to beams, scales, and other machines and apparatus for weighing and measuring:

To authorize the corporation to provide and fit up rooms or premises for the reception of the dead, and to make bye-laws as to the management of and charges for the use of such rooms and premises, and as to the interment of the dead, and to enforce the removal to such rooms or premises of any corpse which shall be lying where there is no proper accommodation for the keeping of such corpse:

To enable owners of property with limited interest to charge the property with the sums leviable upon them by the corporation for the expense of paving, flagging, levelling, draining, sewerage, and improving such property, or the streets or roads adjoining thereto, or any of them, and to make property and the owners thereof chargeable with the expenses aforesaid or some of such expenses:

In like manner to charge property and the owners thereof with the cost of alterations in streets, and of forming and paving footpaths on the side or sides of such streets, and also with the repair and maintenance of occupation roads and bridges and of footpaths:

To confer upon the corporation the power to superintend, control, and cleanse, and to prevent the pollution of streams and rivers within the borough, or any nuisance arising therefrom; and to require the owners of property abutting upon such streams and rivers to make good and maintain the banks and fences, with power also to the corporation to cover in and arch over or to require the covering in and arching over offensive streams:

To enable the corporation to purchase and hold lands for outfall and other sewage works, and for the deposit of manure and refuse, and for the utilization and distribution of the sewage, and other purposes in connection with the sewage:

To transfer to and vest in, or to provide for the transferring to and vesting in the corporation (for such price or consideration and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the corporation and the owner or owners thereof, or as may be settled by arbitration, or as may be fixed or prescribed in or otherwise provided for by the Bill) all fairs and markets now held or authorized to be held by charter, prescription, or otherwise, within the borough, together with all lands, properties, tolls, rents, stallages, rights, and privileges connected with any such market or fair:

To authorize the corporation to abolish the existing and authorized markets and fairs, and to establish and hold other markets and fairs within the borough, and to appoint times for the holding thereof, and to erect stalls, sheds, and other buildings and conveniences in connection therewith, and to make bye-laws for the holding thereof, and to take tolls, rates, and rents in respect of such markets, fairs, stalls, sheds, buildings, and conveniences and to alter the tolls now taken or authorized to be taken in respect of any market or fair within the borough, and to vary and extinguish the franchises, rights, and privileges relating to the existing and authorized markets and fairs, and to determine any existing lease thereof, and of the tolls and profits arising therefrom:

To provide, construct, maintain, and regulate a covered market or covered markets, with approaches thereto, within the township and parish of Huddersfield, upon the following sites, or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, namely: upon the land or ground now known and used as the lower market and shambles, and bounded northward by King-reet, southward by Victoria-street, eastward by Shambles-lane, and westward by Victoria-lane; also upon or over the street called Shambles-lane, from its junction with Victoria-street, for about 70 yards in length towards King-street; also upon the land or ground situate to the east of and adjoining to Shambles-lane, from its junction with Victoria-street, for the said distance of 70 yards, or thereabouts, towards King-street, and for a distance eastwards of Shambles-lane, towards Queen-street, of 18 yards, or thereabouts, throughout the said length; also upon such other land or ground as the corporation may have or acquire by agreement for such purpose:

To provide, construct, maintain and regulate a cattle market and fair ground, with all necessary buildings, works, conveniences and approaches, and also a slaughter-house or slaughter-houses upon the land or ground or upon some part or parts thereof next hereinafter described, namely,

Upon the closes of land belonging to Sir John William Ramsden, Baronet, or his trustees, situate within the township and parish of Huddersfield, and bounded northwardly by the Hebble Beck or stream; eastwardly in part by the Huddersfield Canal, in part by the property of Mr. William Learoyd, and in other part by land belonging to the said Sir John William Ramsden, Baronet, or his trustees; southwardly in part by the property of Mr. William Learoyd, and in other part by land belonging to the said Sir John William Ramsden, Baronet, or his trustees, set out or intended for a street to be called Beaumont-street; and westwardly in part by a road called Viaduct-street, and in part by land belonging to the said Sir John William Ramsden, Baronet, set out or intended for a back street or road extending from Viaduct-street to Beaumont-street;

With power also to make in connection with the said market and fair ground the following approaches, or some of them, all of which will be in the said township and parish of Huddersfield, viz.:

A road, about 14 yards in width, commencing on the north side of Fitzwilliam-street at a point about 133 yards east of the street called Northgate, running in a northerly direction for a distance of about 110 yards, and terminating at the site of the proposed cattle market;

Also a road, about 14 yards in width, commencing at the south side of the street called Hillhouse-lane, about 25 yards east of the railway arch, running in a southerly direction for about 145 yards, and terminating at the site of the proposed cattle market:

With power also to use as roads or approaches to the said Cattle-market, the said road called Viaduct-street, and the said intended street to be called Beaumont-street and the said intended back street or road from Viaduct-street to Beaumont-street:

To erect and provide public slaughter-houses and knacker's yards, and to make regulations with respect thereto; and to prohibit, restrict, licence, and regulate the use of existing slaughter-houses and knacker's yards, and to prevent the slaughter of animals elsewhere than in public or licensed slaughter-houses or knacker's yards, and to enable the corporation to take tolls and charges in respect of such public slaughter-houses and knacker's yards:

To prohibit the holding of any market or fair and the exposing or offering for sale within the borough of animals or goods elsewhere than in shops or dwelling-houses, and in any market-place or fair authorized by the corporation :

To let the fairs, and markets, market-places and buildings, stands, stalls, and shops, weighing-machines, slaughter-houses, and knacker's yards :

To authorize the corporation to enter into agreements with Sir John William Ramsden, Baronet, or his trustees, and to confirm any agreement which may be entered into with him or them prior to the passing of the intended Bill with respect to fairs and markets, or any rights claimed by him or them in respect thereof :

To enable the corporation on any land now belonging to or occupied by them, or hereafter to be acquired by them, to erect a town-hall, municipal offices, court-house, gaols, station-houses, and other offices and buildings for public purposes.

To maintain and pay a police force and fire brigade.

To provide and maintain and to regulate the use of public parks or places of public recreation, and to lay out, drain, plant, and ornament the same, and to erect therein such buildings as may be expedient for the better enjoyment thereof by the public :

To provide, and maintain, and regulate the use of public libraries and museums, and to provide, and erect, and maintain public clocks :

To empower the corporation to erect buildings suitable for public baths and washhouses, and from time to time to alter, enlarge, repair, and improve the same, and to furnish and supply the same with all necessary furniture, fittings, and conveniences, and to make and receive rents or charges in respect of such baths and washhouses :

To enable the corporation to accept grants of land for public parks and recreation grounds, and to levy general or special rates in respect thereof, and to confirm agreements for the granting of lands to the corporation :

To enable the corporation to make and maintain the following new streets and street and bridge improvements and works, namely :

1.—Long Bridge Improvement.

The pulling down and removal of the existing bridge, called Long-bridge, over the River Colne, and the construction of a new bridge partly upon the site of the existing bridge, and partly upon land adjoining thereto on the north side thereof ; also the widening and improving of the existing approaches, and the construction of new approaches thereto on the east and west sides thereof, commencing at the west side thereof at a point of Aspley-road opposite the junction of Aspley-street therewith, and terminating in Wakefield-road, Moldgreen, about 70 yards eastward of the centre of the existing bridge ; also the widening and improving of King's Mill-lane, on the west side thereof, for a distance of about 20 yards southwards of its junction with the said Wakefield-road :

The said works will be partly in the township and parish of Huddersfield, partly in the township of Dalton and parish of Kirkheaton, and partly in the township and parish of Almondbury, all in the West Riding of the county of York :

2.—Shorehead and Aspley Improvement.

The widening and improving of the streets known as Aspley-road, Shorefoot, and Shorehead, and of the bridge carrying the Aspley-road over the canal at Aspley, and the alteration and improvement in level of the said streets commencing at a point of the said Aspley-road where it joins Aspley-street, and terminating at a point of the said street called Shorehead, about 145 yards westward of the centre of the said canal bridge at Aspley, with power to alter the line and levels of any side roads, yards, and approaches communicating with the said streets between the points aforesaid.

3.—New Street from Aspley to Leeds-road.

A new street from Aspley to Leeds-road, commencing at Aspley at the junction of the Canal Basin-road with Aspley-road, and terminating by a junction with the road called Leeds-road, at a point about 220 yards southward of the junction of Bradley Mill-lane with the said Leeds-road :

4.—Westgate Improvement.

The widening and improving of the existing street called Westgate on the north side thereof from the junction therewith of the street called Station-street to a point opposite to and about 7 yards westward of the junction of Chancery-lane and Westgate.

5.—Kirkgate Improvement.

The widening and improving of the street called Kirkgate on its north side from the point of junction thereof with the market place to a point opposite the premises known as the Old Vicarage, and also on its south side where it adjoins the premises of Mr. William James Clarke, with powers to take, use, and interfere with a portion of the churchyard attached to Saint Peter's Church for the purpose of such improvement.

6.—Swan-yard Improvement.

A new street at or near the site of the premises known as Swan-yard, and extending from Kirkgate immediately westward of the western gate of Saint Peter's churchyard there, to Saint Peter's-street, opposite the junction of that street with Byram-street, with powers to take, use, and interfere with a portion of the said churchyard for the purpose of such improvement.

7.—Viaduct-street Improvement.

The widening and improving of Viaduct-street on the eastern side thereof, where the same adjoins the New Town Brewery and premises, now or lately belonging to Mr. Godfrey Berry's representatives, and situate at or near to the junction of Viaduct-street and Oxford-street.

8.—Saint John's-road Improvement.

The widening and improving of Saint John's-road on the west side thereof from the junction therewith of the street called Bath-street or Bath-buildings to a point opposite the junction of Saint John's-road and Green-street :

The foregoing improvements and works numbered 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, will be wholly situate within the township and parish of Huddersfield :

9.—Chapel-hill and Engine Bridge-road Improvement.

The widening and improving of the streets or roads known as Chapel-hill and Engine Bridge-road and of the bridges carrying such roads over the Huddersfield Canal and the River Colne, commencing at or near the junction of Stables-street with Chapel-hill, and terminating at or near the junction of Deadwaters-road and Engine Bridge-road :

These works will be partly in the township and parish of Huddersfield, and partly in the township of Lockwood, in the parish of Almondbury :

10.—Beast-market Improvement.

The widening and improving of the street known as Beast-market, from its junction with

Kirkgate and Lord-street to its junction with Northgate and Lowerhead-row :

11.—Lowerhead-row Improvement.

The widening and improving of Lowerhead-row, on the north side thereof, where the same adjoins the buildings and premises now or lately belonging to Robert Skilbeck and Jane Binns :

The foregoing works Nos. 10 and 11 will be wholly within the township and parish of Huddersfield :

12.—Swan-lane (Lockwood) Improvement.

The widening and improving of the street known as Swan-lane, Lockwood, on the south side thereof, opposite or near to the Board-room and premises known as the Town-hall, Lockwood :

13.—Woodhead-road (Lockwood) Improvement.

The widening and improving on the east side thereof of the street or road known as Woodhead-road, Lockwood, commencing near the Lockwood Toll-bar from the junction of the said Woodhead-road with Water-street, and terminating at the junction of the said Woodhead-road with a footpath called the Ginnel.

14.—Rashcliff Hill-road Improvement.

A diversion and improvement of the street known as Rashcliff Hill-road, by the construction of a new street commencing at a point about 50 yards south of the junction of the Woodhead-road with the existing Rashcliff Hill-road, and terminating by a new junction with the said Woodhead-road, at a point about 12 yards north of the present junction of the said Woodhead-road and Rashcliffe Hill-road; also the stopping up and discontinuance of that portion of Rashcliff Hill-road situate between its present junction with the said Woodhead-road and the point of commencement of the said diversion or new portion of street :

The foregoing works, numbered 12, 13, and 14, will be wholly within the township of Lockwood, in the parish of Almondbury :

To confirm any agreements already made, or which, prior to the passing of the Bill, may be made between the corporation and the said Sir John William Ramsden, Baronet, or his trustees, as to payments of moneys, and the giving of land by him or them in aid of the intended new streets and improvements :

To authorize the grant by the justices of the West Riding of the county of York of £3,000 towards the cost of the said Long Bridge Improvement, and to confirm the order made at the general quarter sessions held in and for the West Riding on the 6th day of October, 1869, with reference to such grant :

To relieve the West Riding of Yorkshire, in consideration of such grant, from any liability to maintain the said bridge and approaches, and to make provision for charging the cost of such maintenance upon the inhabitants of the districts of the borough in which the said bridge and approaches will be respectively situate :

To authorize the corporation on the one hand, and the said Sir John William Ramsden, Baronet, or his trustees on the other hand, to make and enter into agreements as to a contribution by him or them of money towards the cost of the said Long Bridge Improvement, and of land for the purposes thereof, in consideration of his or their receiving in exchange surplus land, now forming part of the highway approach to the existing bridge, and which may not be required in connection with the new or improved bridge, and to confirm any agreement already made, or which prior to the passing of the Bill may be made, touching the matters aforesaid :

To charge upon the borough and upon the borough fund rates and property, the moneys borrowed in respect of the Huddersfield Burial Ground, and to enable the corporation to levy rates within the borough in respect of such burial ground, and to exercise other powers in respect thereof :

To alter any existing tolls, rates, and charges now authorized to be levied within the borough, or any part thereof; and to authorize the corporation from time to time to make and levy new tolls, rates, and charges, general and special, for all or any of the purposes of the Bill, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of any existing or future tolls, rates, and charges :

To provide for an uniform method of making, levying, and collecting the various rates, or of some of the rates, leviable for the time being by the corporation, and to authorize the corporation to appoint officers for the collection of such rates, and to confer on the corporation and their officers all needful powers for the recovery of such rates, and where any rate is to be collected through the overseers of the poor, to enable such overseers to allow exemptions in accordance with the Acts now in force within the borough, or with the provisions of the intended Bill :

To enable the corporation to divide the borough into districts for the purpose of rating, or for the purpose of making and levying any particular rates, and to confer upon them all necessary powers for the recovery and application of such rates; and to vary the method of giving notices of the making of rates, with power also to consolidate the rates which can be made by the corporation under the Municipal Corporation Acts, and to alter the mode of levying and collecting such rates :

To amend and enlarge the present borrowing powers of the corporation, and to enable them to apply their corporate funds and any moneys which they are already authorized to raise, or any rates which they are now authorized to levy, to any of the purposes of the Bill, and to enable them for all or any of those purposes to borrow further moneys, and to charge therewith the borough fund, and any moneys from time to time carried to the credit of that fund, and any of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, rates, and revenue of the corporation, or any such securities :

To enable the corporation to borrow money by way of terminable or other annuities :

To authorize the corporation to acquire, and if need be by compulsion, the fee of all or any leasehold lands now held by them, or which they may acquire for the purposes of the Bill, and to enable them to accept grants of land, and to hold such land for any of the purposes of the Bill :

To authorize the corporation to purchase and take by compulsion, and to take leases or grants of, or easements in, under, or over all lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments required for any of the purposes of the Bill; and to appropriate any land now held by or vested in the corporation, for any of those purposes, and to vary and extinguish any rights and privileges connected with any such lands and hereditaments, and to free the same from all covenants and restrictions, obligations, and conditions to which they are now subject; and the Bill will vary and extinguish all such other rights and privileges as would in any way interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and it will confer other rights and privileges :

To enable the corporation on the one hand, and the Huddersfield Gas Company, and other Companies and persons, or any of them supplying gas to the inhabitants of the borough on the other hand, to contract and agree for the purchase by the corporation of the undertakings, works, and property of the said companies and persons respectively, and to confer upon the corporation all necessary powers for enabling them to effect such purchases, and for the supply of gas to the inhabitants of the said borough, and to maintain and enlarge any works which they may so acquire, and for the purposes aforesaid to borrow money upon the credit of any property belonging to them, or of any rates which they are or may be authorized to levy, or of any moneys belonging to them or under their control, and if necessary to levy a new rate or new rates, and to alter the rates and charges now authorized to be taken by the said companies or persons respectively:

To authorize arrangements between the corporation and the Huddersfield Gas Company, or any other company or persons now supplying gas to the inhabitants of the said borough, for the purchase by the corporation of the undertakings of such companies and persons respectively by payment of a sum in gross or by way of permanent or terminable annuities, and to confirm any agreement which previously to the passing of the Bill may be made between any such company or person and the corporation:

To enable the corporation to erect and provide, or to take on lease, buildings for inland bonding warehouses, and to borrow money in respect thereof, and to let and regulate the use of such warehouses:

To authorize the corporation to stop up, divert, either wholly or partially, appropriate, use, and arch over any street, court, road, footpath, or passage, and to remove and alter sewers, drains, pipes, and telegraph wires, where necessary or expedient, in carrying into execution the various powers of the Bill, and particularly to extinguish all rights of way or other public rights in or over or in connection with the sites of the proposed covered markets, and in connection with the proposed cattle-market and fair ground to stop up so much of the existing public footpath leading from Fitzwilliam-street to Hillhouse-lane, both in the said borough, as traverses the site of the proposed cattle-market and fair ground hereinbefore described:

To enable the corporation to accept and hold lands, whether in or in the neighbourhood of Huddersfield, in connection with the Huddersfield General Infirmary, or for other charitable or public purposes, and to accept and hold grants of money in respect thereof:

To authorize the corporation, in respect of any lands belonging to them, or which they may acquire under the powers of the Bill, to demise, sell, or otherwise dispose of such lands:

To exempt the corporation from the provisions of the ninety-second section of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," in respect of all or some of the properties to be acquired by the corporation under the powers of the Bill:

Duplicate plans and sections, showing the line or situation and levels of the proposed new streets and street improvements, and of the intended new bridge, and other new works, and the lands, houses, or other property in or through which they will be made, and plans showing the lands sought to be acquired by compulsion, with books of reference to the plans containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of the lands, houses, and other property which may be taken under the powers of the Bill, and also a copy of this notice, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the county of York at Wakefield; and on or before the said 30th day of November a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said intended works will be made or be situate, or in which any lands or houses intended to be taken are situate, and a copy of this notice, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such parish at his residence:

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1870.

Huddersfield Waterworks.

(Transfer to Corporation of Huddersfield of certain Powers of Wessenden Reservoir Commissioners; Enlargement of Reservoir and Construction of New Works in connection therewith; Alteration of Works for distribution of Compensation Water from Deer Hill Reservoir and Construction of New Reservoirs and other Works; Diversion of Waters; Extension of Waterworks Limits; Construction of New Roads and Powers over existing Roads; Borrowing of Money; Amendment of Acts).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Huddersfield (herein called "the Corporation") intend to apply to Parliament, in the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following among other purposes, and to confer upon them the following, or some of the following among other powers (that is to say):—

To amend and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of "The Huddersfield Water Act, 1869:"

To enable the Corporation on the one hand, and the Commissioners of the Wessenden Reservoir on the other hand, to agree as to the transfer or grant to the Corporation of certain rights, powers, and interests in, over, or in connection with the Wessenden Reservoir and works of the said Commissioners situate in the township of Marsden in Almondbury, in the parish of Almondbury, in the West Riding of the county of York, also of certain liabilities and obligations of the Commissioners in and over the said reservoir or connected therewith, and to confer on the Corporation other and further rights, powers, and interests in, over, and in connection with the said reservoir and works, and to authorize the Corporation to alter and enlarge such reservoir and the works connected therewith:

To confirm any agreement already made, or which prior to the passing of the Bill may be made, between the Corporation and the before-mentioned Commissioners, and to amend and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the Act 6 and 7 Will. IV, cap. 94, relating to the said reservoir:

To construct and maintain the following new works, all in the West Riding of the county of York, namely :

An enlargement and extension of the said Wessenden Reservoir, by means of an addition to the existing embankment thereof, and by other works upon or near the site of the said existing reservoir, so as to raise the height of the present top-water level of such reservoir ; such works to be wholly situate in the said township of Marsden in Almondbury :

A main pipe or aqueduct (No. 1), to be wholly situate within the said township of Marsden in Almondbury, to commence at or near the existing outlet or gauge basin of the said Wessenden Reservoir, and to terminate in the stream called Butterley Clough Brook, at a point about three chains above its junction with the Wessenden Brook ;

A catchwater drain or conduit, main pipe, or aqueduct (No. 2), to be also wholly situate within the said township of Marsden in Almondbury, to commence in a tank to be constructed under the powers of the Bill at a point about four chains south of the southern end of the existing waste weir of the said Wessenden Reservoir, and to terminate in a tank or basin to be constructed under the said powers, and herein referred to as Tank No. 2, at or on the stream called Blakeley Clough Brook, at a point about 15 chains above its junction with the Wessenden Brook ;

A main pipe or aqueduct, herein referred to as (No. 3), to be also wholly situate within the said township of Marsden in Almondbury, to commence from and out of Tank No. 2, and to terminate in a tank herein referred to as Tank No. 3, to be constructed under the powers of the Bill at or near to the existing course of Wessenden Brook, about three chains above the point at which it is joined by the said Butterley Clough Brook ;

A main pipe or aqueduct (No. 4), to be wholly situate within the township of Marsden in Almondbury, to commence from and out of the main pipe or aqueduct No. 3 at a point thereon in the road leading from Marsden to the Wessenden Reservoir, and known as New Lane, about three chains measuring along the said road in a north-westerly direction from the house and premises known as Booth Lathe, and to terminate about three chains east of Binn House by a junction with the catchwater drain, or conduit authorized by the said "Huddersfield Water Act, 1869" to be there constructed ;

A reservoir, herein referred to as the Blakeley Reservoir, to be wholly situate within the said township of Marsden in Almondbury, and to be formed by an embankment across the Wessenden Brook about two chains below the point at which it is joined by the stream called Great Clough Brook ;

A reservoir, herein referred to as the Booth Reservoir, to be wholly situate within the said township of Marsden in Almondbury, and to be formed by an embankment across the Wessenden Brook about seven chains above the point at which it is joined by the said Butterley Clough Brook ;

A main pipe or aqueduct (No. 5), to be wholly situate within the said township of Marsden in Almondbury, to commence from and out of the Booth Reservoir at or near the point where the embankment thereof is intended to cross the said Wessenden Brook, and to terminate in Tank No. 3 ;

A main pipe or aqueduct (No. 6) to commence in the said township of Marsden in Almondbury from and out of Tank No. 3, and to pass thence through or into the several townships or places of Marsden in Almondbury, Lingards, and Linthwaite, all in the said parish of Almondbury, and to terminate in the said township of Linthwaite, by a junction with the main pipe or aqueduct authorized by the said "Huddersfield Water Act, 1869," at the point where the Wakefield and Austerlands turnpike road is intersected by the road known as Cowlersley-lane :

To confer upon the Corporation powers to vary, alter, or discontinue the pipe or aqueduct and works, or some of them, already authorized for the distribution and delivery of the compensation water from their authorized Deer-hill reservoir, as prescribed and required by "The Huddersfield Water Act, 1869," and to construct, lay down, and maintain in substitution thereof the following works, namely :

A pipe or aqueduct to commence from and out of the said authorized Deer-hill reservoir, in the said township of Lingards, passing thence through or into the said townships of Lingards and Marsden in Almondbury, and to terminate in the stream called Ram's Clough Brook, near to and to the north-east of Holme, in the said township of Marsden in Almondbury :

Also a pipe or aqueduct to be wholly situate in the said township of Lingards, to commence from and out of the last-mentioned pipe or aqueduct, at a point about 4 chains from its commencement in the said authorized Deer-hill reservoir, thence continuing in a north-easterly direction along or near to the line of the stream called Bradley Brook, for a distance of about 23 chains, and there to terminate in the said Bradley Brook :

To take, use, divert, and appropriate for the purposes of the said proposed new works, as well as of the waterworks already vested in or authorized to be constructed by the Corporation, and at the times or upon the conditions to be specified by the Bill, all springs, streams, and waters which will or can be intercepted by the said proposed works, or any of them, or which may be found in, upon, or under any lands to be acquired or held by the Corporation under the powers of the Bill :

The waters to be abstracted flow derivatively into the rivers Colne, Calder, Aire, Ouse, Trent, and Humber ; and also the following canals and navigations, namely, the Huddersfield Canal, and the canal known as Sir John Ramsden's Canal, both now vested in the London and North Western Railway Company, the Calder and Hebble Navigation, the Aire and Calder Navigation, the Knottingley and Goole Canal, and the Selby Canal, or some of them :

To construct and maintain a new road or approach to the authorized Deer-hill reservoir of the Corporation to commence on Lingards Moor at or near the south-east corner of the said authorized Deer-hill reservoir, in the township of Lingards and parish of Almondbury, passing thence through or into the several townships of Lingards and Meltham, in the said parish, and to terminate at or near the house called Deer-hill or Deer Hill-end, in the said township of Meltham, by a junction there with the occupation road known as the Black Moor and Deer-hill-end-road :

To confer on the Corporation the right of using in connection with their waterworks, and in common with the persons in whom the right of user thereof is now vested, the said occupation road known as the Black Moor and Deer-hill-road, situate in the said township of Meltham, from the place called Deer-hill-end to its junction with the highway known as the Black Moor Foot-road, at or near the inn or public house at Cop-end, called "the Spotted Cow Inn," on condition of the Corporation repairing or contributing towards the expense of the repair of such occupation road such proportion, quota, or sum as may be from time to time fixed and determined by justices, or by a surveyor appointed by justices, with power also to the Corporation to do such repairs if and when needed upon the terms to be specified in the Bill :

To alter, widen, and divert the road leading from the Wessenden reservoir to Binn-lane, all in the said township of Marsden in Almondbury, and to vest the said road in the Corporation, or to confer upon them a right to use the said road :

To divert, widen, alter, and stop up, whether temporarily or permanently, roads and footpaths, and particularly the road leading from Bank Bottom to Hole Top, and thence towards Butterley-hill, and to construct and maintain all needful roads, pipes, conduits, culverts, tanks, basins, wells, adits, cuts, drains, sluices, filtering beds, valves, weirs, byewashes, gauges, engines, pumping establishments, and other works :

To lay down and maintain pipes in, over, and under streets, roads, lanes, bridges, railways, and other passages and places, and to purchase and acquire compulsorily and by agreement, and to take on lease, lands, houses, springs, streams, waters, and other hereditaments, and to acquire compulsorily and by agreement easements over and under lands and other property :

To purchase, and if need be by compulsion, certain lands at or near Brow Grains Dike, Deer-hill-end, and Black Moor Foot, all in the said township of Meltham, in the said parish of Almondbury, for the purposes of the waterworks authorized by the said "Huddersfield Water Act, 1869," and to confer upon the Corporation all the rights of ownership in reference to the lands acquired or held, or to be acquired or held by them for the purposes of their waterworks :

To enable the Corporation from time to time to resell, demise, or let any of the lands acquired or to be acquired by them, and subject to such reservations, if any, as they may think fit :

To authorize the Corporation to borrow money for the purposes of the Bill upon security of the rates and rents authorized to be levied by them and of the property vested in the Corporation, or for the time being belonging to them or to be acquired by them, and out of any moneys now in the hands of the Corporation or under their control; and to levy further rates or rents for the purposes of the Bill :

To extend the limits of "The Huddersfield Water Act, 1869," and to enable the Corporation to supply with water the several parishes, townships, and places following, or some of them, in the West Riding of the county of York (that is to say): the said township of Marsden in Almondbury, the township of Marsden in Huddersfield in the parish of Huddersfield, the township of Mirfield in the parish of Mirfield, the township of Kirkheaton in the parish of Kirkheaton, and so much of the township or chapelry of Hartshead cum Clifton in the parish of Dewsbury as adjoins or is near to the turnpike road leading from Huddersfield to Leeds :

To make provision for the payment of the interest on the expenses incurred in and about the construction of the waterworks of the Corporation, until such works are completed and in practical operation, and to alter and extend the provisions of the said Act of 1869 as to paying off borrowed moneys :

To alter the days fixed by the said last-mentioned Act for the half-yearly water rents becoming payable, and to make additional provision for enabling the owners of property who are by the same Act made primarily liable to pay the water rates or rents, to recover the same from their tenants using the water, for the supply of which such primary liability has been incurred :

The Bill will provide for payment of the expenses of applying for and passing of the Bill out of any moneys in the hands of the Corporation, or under their control, or to arise under the powers of the Bill :

And the Bill will vary and extinguish all such rights and privileges conferred by the before-mentioned Acts, and all such other rights and privileges as would in anywise interfere with the objects of the Bill; and it will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863," and will extend to the Bill the powers and provisions of the before-mentioned Huddersfield Water Act of 1869, except so far as such powers and provisions may be altered by the Bill :

Duplicate plans and sections, showing the line or situation and levels of the intended works, and the lands in or through which the same will be made, and the springs and streams intended to be taken and diverted, and plans also showing the lands sought to be acquired by compulsion, with books of reference to the plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of the lands, houses, and other property which may be taken under the powers of the Bill; and also a copy of this Notice will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the county of York at Wakefield; and on or before the said 30th day of November a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said intended works will be made or be situate, or in which any lands or houses intended to be taken are situate, and a copy of this Notice, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1870.

In Parliament—Session 1871.

Chesterfield Water Works and Gas Light Company.

(New Conduits; Additional Capital; Supply of Water in Bulk; Diversion of Footpath; Amendment of Acts.)

APPPLICATION is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session thereof, by the Chesterfield Water Works and Gas Light

Company (who are hereinafter referred to as "the Company"), for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes:—

1. To enable the Company to construct the following works:—

An aqueduct or conduit between their Upper Linacre Reservoir, in the parish of Brampton, in Derbyshire, which reservoir was constructed under the powers conferred by the Company's Act of 1865, and the Club Mill Service Reservoir of the Company, in the township of Newbold, in Derbyshire, constructed under the powers conferred by the Company's Act of 1855.

The said conduit will commence at the eastern end of the Upper Linacre Reservoir, will pass through Linacre Wood to a point at or near to the eastern end of the said Lower Linacre Reservoir, and thence along or near to the course of the existing aqueduct or conduit of the Company, and will terminate in the said Club Mill Reservoir.

Together with such tanks, valves, sluices, and other works as shall be necessary for the purposes of the Bill.

All the said works will be in the said parish of Brampton and township of Newbold, or one of them.

2. To enable the Company to divert a footpath leading from the Hernstone Lane Head Turnpike-road to the Ashgate road across a field in the township of Newbold, such field being contiguous to and lying to the westward of the land and gas works of the Company.

3. To enable the Company to apply their existing capital to the purposes of the Bill, and to raise additional capital by shares and by borrowing, and to attach to such capital such preferences and priority of dividend or other advantages as the Bill shall define.

4. To enable the Company to purchase and take lands, streams, and other property or easements therein by agreement or compulsorily, for the purposes aforesaid, and other the purposes of their undertaking.

5. To enable the Company to supply water in bulk to places in the neighbourhood of their works.

6. To amend, extend, and if need be, repeal the powers and provisions of the Acts relating to the Company passed respectively in 1855 and in 1865, namely, 18 Vict., cap. 29, and 28 and 29 Vict., cap. 36, and especially the 20th section of the first-mentioned Act relating to the remuneration of Directors, the 15th section of the Act of 1865, limiting the amount of the reserved fund, and so much of the 102nd section of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 (which is incorporated with the said Act of 1855), as provide; that the auditors of the Company shall hold at least one share in the capital of the Company and the Bill will contain further provisions for the protection of the waterworks of the Company, and the Bill will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869;" "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Companies Clauses Acts, 1863 and 1869," and the provisions of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the temporary occupation of lands.

On or before the 30th day of November instant duplicate plans, showing the situation of the proposed works, and the line or situation of the intended Aqueduct and Works, and the lands and houses or other property in or through which the same will be made, duplicate sections showing the levels of the proposed works, a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees and occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property; and also a copy of this notice will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Derby, at Derby, and with the parish clerks of Brampton, Chesterfield, and St. Thomas, Brampton, at their respective residences.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1870.

In Parliament—Session 1871.

Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, and Cheshire Lines Committee.

(Purchase of Land in divers places by Compulsion and Agreement; Extension of Time for Construction of Works of the Chester and West Cheshire Junction Railway; the Liverpool Central Station Railway; the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Extension to Liverpool; the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire New Lines, 1866; Widening of the Liverpool Central Station Railway in Liverpool; Powers for Protection of Buildings near the Railway; Provisions with respect to Superfluous Land; Level Crossings at Lincoln; Power to stop part of the Manchester, Ashton-under-Lyne and Oldham Canal in Manchester; New Borrowing Powers; Amendment of Acts; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session for an Act to authorize the Cheshire Lines Committee, incorporated by "The Cheshire Lines Act, 1867" (hereinafter called "The Committee,"), to purchase lands by agreement, and also to purchase by compulsion or agreement the following lands, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively (that is to say):

Certain lands in the township of Rixton cum Glazebrook, in the parish of Warrington, in the county palatine of Lancaster, adjoining the Railway No. 1, authorized by the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway (Extension to Liverpool) Act, 1865, being parts of land numbered 31, 32, and 34, in the said township and parish on the deposited plans referred to in that Act;

Certain other lands in the township of Woolston cum Martinscroft, in the said parish of Warrington, adjoining the said last mentioned authorized Railway No. 1, being parts of lands numbered 1 in the said township and parish on the deposited plans referred to in the said Act of 1865;

Certain other lands in the hamlet of Risley, township of Culcheth, in the parish of New Church, in the said county palatine of Lancaster, adjoining the said last-mentioned authorized Railway No. 1, and numbered 1A, 2, 3, 3A, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12, in the said township and parish on the said deposited plans referred to in the said Act of 1865;

Certain lands in the township of Garston, in the parish of Childwall, in the said county palatine of Lancaster, adjoining the said last mentioned authorized Railway No. 1, being part of lands numbered 44 in the said township and parish on the said deposited plans referred to in the said Act of 1865.

Certain other lands in the township of Much Woolton, in the said parish of Childwall, adjoining the said last-mentioned authorized Railway No. 1, being part of lands numbered 3 and 4 in the said township and parish on the said deposited plans referred to in the said Act of 1865;

Certain lands in the township of Partington, and parish of Bowdon, in the county of Chester, abutting upon the southerly side of the Railway No. 2, authorized by the said Act of 1865, and being parts of lands numbered respectively 27, 36, 39, and 40 in that township and parish on the deposited plans referred to in the said Act of 1865;

Certain lands in the township of Dunham Massey, and said parish of Bowdon, abutting upon the southerly side of the said last-mentioned authorized Railway No. 2, and forming parts of the lands numbered respectively 44, 45, 47, 49, and 50 in that township and parish on the deposited plans referred to in the said Act of 1865;

Certain other lands in the said township of Dunham Massey, and said parish of Bowdon, abutting upon the north and south sides of the said last-mentioned authorized Railway No. 2, and forming parts of the lands numbered respectively 71 and 72 in that township and parish on the deposited plans referred to in the said Act of 1865;

Certain lands in the township and parish of Warrington, in the said county palatine of Lancaster, containing about eight acres, near to the Railway No. 1, authorized by "The Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway (New Lines) Act, 1866," and adjoining on the west a certain road or highway in Warrington aforesaid called Batterbys-lane, and on the east by a certain other road in Warrington aforesaid called Marsh House-lane;

Certain other lands at or near a place called Throstle Nest, in the township of Siretford, in the parish of Manchester, in the said county palatine of Lancaster, and in the occupation of Abel Heywood, and being a portion of the garden to the house and premises occupied by the said Abel Heywood, and part of lands numbered 65 in the said township and parish on the deposited plans referred to in "The Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway (New Lines) Act, 1866," respecting Railway No. 3, mentioned in that Act;

Certain other lands in the parish of Saint Oswald, in the county of the city of Chester, containing about eight acres, belonging to the Earl of Kilmorey, adjoining the Railway No. 3 authorized by "The Chester and West Cheshire Junction Railway Act, 1865," being parts of lands numbered respectively 28, 30, 31, 35, and 36 in the said parish on the deposited plans referred to in the said last-mentioned Act;

To extend the time limited by "The Cheshire Lines Act, 1867," for the construction of the works authorized by "The Liverpool Central Station Railway Act, 1864," "The Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway (Extension to Liverpool) Act, 1865," "The Chester and West Cheshire Junction Railway Act, 1865," and "The Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway (New Lines) Act, 1866";

To widen and enlarge so much of the railway authorized to be constructed under the powers of "The Liverpool Central Station Railway Act, 1864" as lies between a point where the said railway is intended to cross Seel-street, in the borough and parish of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and a point where the said railway is intended to cross Parliament-street in the said borough and parish of Liverpool; and to alter the line and levels of such authorized railway, and to put down additional rails thereon, and to purchase and acquire, compulsorily or by agreement, all such lands, houses, and easements as may be necessary for such purposes, and to extinguish all rights, powers, and privileges connected with such lands and houses respectively, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges; the whole of such last-mentioned lands and works will be in the said parish of Liverpool.

To make provision for the preservation and protection of buildings on either side of any railway or work of the Committee already constructed, or which may be hereafter constructed, and to confer upon the Committee powers to underpin or otherwise strengthen, support, or protect from injury any such buildings, and from time to time, as occasion may require, to enter upon any buildings, lands, tenements, or property adjoining or near the railway, for the exercise of such powers :

And it is proposed by the intended Act to enact provisions with respect to the sale of superfluous lands belonging to or vested in the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company (hereinafter called "The Company"), either alone or jointly with any other Company or Companies, or in the said Committee, and to exempt such lands from the operation of any provisions requiring a sale thereof within a limited period; and to authorise the Company and the said Committee respectively to maintain and hold all or any part of such lands permanently, or for a further limited period (as the case may be), and to authorise the Company and the said Committee respectively from time to time to sell any such lands for sums in gross or for rent-charges, or other annual payments, or for any other consideration, and from time to time to sell, let, demise, transfer, commute, or redeem for sums in gross any such rent-charges or annual payments, and from time to time to mortgage, charge, let, demise, or otherwise dispose of, use, or enjoy, all or any such lands as the Company or the said Committee respectively may think proper; and to enable the Company and the said Committee respectively to purchase and acquire lands, and for the owners and occupiers thereof, whether incapacitated or not, to sell lands, houses, and other property required for the purposes of the Company or the said Committee.

To enable the Company and the mayor, aldermen, and citizens of the city of Lincoln and the Local Board for the district of the city of Lincoln, to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements for substituting bridges over, or subways or passages under, any streets or highways within the said city of Lincoln, in lieu of level crossings upon such streets and highways, or to divert, alter, and if need be, stop up and appropriate, either temporarily or permanently, all or any of such level crossings, and all such streets, roads, footpaths, sewers, drains, watercourses, pipes, and other property, so far as may be necessary for carrying into effect any such contracts and agreements, and to extinguish all rights, powers, and privileges which would interfere with the carrying into complete effect the objects and purposes of the intended Act :

To authorise the Company to close and fill up and appropriate the site of so much of the Islington Branch of the Manchester, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Oldham Canal as adjoins the works and premises of Messieurs Molyneux and Webb, in the parish of Manchester, or some part thereof, to abandon the same as a canal, and to extinguish all rights of navigation and all other rights and privileges connected with such last-mentioned portion of the said canal :

To authorise the Company to acquire by agreement or by compulsion certain lands belonging to Thomas Marsden, in the township and parish of Penistone, in the West Riding of the county of York, adjoining the south-west side of their railway, and near to the junction of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Company's Branch Railway from Huddersfield with the Company's Railway, at or near Penistone aforesaid :

To enable the Company to widen and improve the Bridge carrying the public road called Masbrough-street over their canal at Masbrough, otherwise Masborough, in the township of Kimberworth, in the parish of Rotherham, and West Riding of the county of York, and to purchase compulsorily certain lands and hereditaments which may be required for that purpose on the east side of the said canal, and adjoining the said bridge.

To enable the Company and the Committee respectively to apply, for the purposes of the intended Act, any capital or funds now belonging to them respectively, or which may hereafter belong to them, or under the control of the directors of the Company, or of the Committee respectively, and to raise other moneys by mortgage of all or any part of their respective undertakings, and to increase their capital by the creation of new or additional shares or stock, with or without any preference or priority in payment of dividends, or by such other ways and means as may be prescribed in the proposed Act :

To alter and extinguish the powers of borrowing money on mortgage, now vested in the said Committee, and for that purpose to repeal, alter, and amend, so far as may be necessary, all or any of the following local and personal Acts, viz.: 23 Vict., caps. 16 and 90; 24 and 25 Vict., caps. 143 and 175; 25 and 26 Vict., cap. 190; 26 and 27 Vict., cap. 147; and 27 and 28 Vict., cap. 240; and in lieu of the powers so intended to be extinguished and altered, to confer on the Company and the Great Northern Railway Company and the Midland Railway Company respectively, powers to raise and borrow in equal proportions and either jointly or severally on mortgage of their respective undertakings a sum equal in amount to the money authorized to be raised by the lastly before-mentioned Acts ;

To incorporate with the said Act all or some of the powers and provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Amendment Act, 1860," and "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Railways Clauses Act, 1863," and "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," and other general Acts ;

So far as may be necessary for all or any of the objects and purposes of the said intended Act, the following local or personal Acts will be repealed, altered, or amended (that is to say), 11 and 12 Vic., cap. 86, relating to "The Manchester, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Oldham Canal, and all other Acts relating to that Canal;" "The Liverpool Central Station Railway Act, 1864;" 23 Vict., caps. 16 and 90; 24 and 25 Vict., caps. 143 and 175; 25 and 26 Vict., caps. 112 and 190; 26 and 27 Vict., cap. 147; 27 and 28 Vict., cap. 240; 28 and 29 Vict., cap. 292; and 30 and 31 Vict., cap. 207, relating to the Cheshire Lines Committee; 12 and 13 Vict., cap. 81; 13 and 14 Vict., cap. 94; 14 and 15 Vict., cap. 114; 15 and 16 Vict., caps. 83 and 144; 16 and 17 Vict., caps. 52 and 145; 18 and 19 Vict., caps. 91 and 129; 21 and 22 Vict. caps. 75 and 113; 22 and 23 Vict. cap. 5; 23 and 24 Vict. cap. 15; 24 and 25 Vict. caps. 66, 86, 113, and 156; 25 and 26 Vict. caps. 91, 98, 112, and 129; 27 and 28 Vict. caps. 77, 78, and 320; 28 and 29 Vict. caps. 248, 327, and 378; 29 and 30 Vict. caps. 158, 162, 191, and 294; 30 and 31 Vict. cap. 4; 32 and 33 Vict. caps. 25 and 26; and all other Acts relating to the Manchester Sheffield and Lincolnshire Railway Company.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections describing the line, situation, and level of so much of the hereinbefore mentioned Liverpool Central Station Railway as is proposed to be widened and enlarged under the powers of the said Bill, and describing the lands, houses, and other property in or through which the said railway is intended to be widened and enlarged, together with a book of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and the occupiers of such lands, houses, and property respectively, and also a published map with the line of the said railway (so far as it is intended to be widened and enlarged) delineated thereon, and also plans showing the lands which will or may be subject to the compulsory powers of purchase to be conferred by the intended Act, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and the occupiers of such lands, will be deposited for public inspection as follows (that is to say): as regards such of the lands and works as are situate in the county palatine of Lancaster, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county palatine of Lancaster, at his office at Preston; as regards such of the said lands as are situate in the county of Chester, a plan thereof in duplicate, and a book of reference thereto, with the Clerk of the Peace of that county, at Chester, and as regards such of the lands as are situate in the county of the city of Chester, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of the city of Chester, at his office at Chester, and as regards such of the said lands as are situate in the West Riding of the county of York, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said riding at his office at Wakefield; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to any parish or extra-parochial place will be deposited, in the case of a parish, with the parish clerk of such parish at his residence, and, in the case of an extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto at his residence; and that such deposits will be made on or before the 30th day of November, 1870, and each of such deposits will be accompanied with a copy of this notice; and printed copies of the said Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid, or some of them, will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December, 1870.

Dated this 7th day of November, 1870.

Lincoln Water.

(Authorization of Existing Works and construction of Additional Works, and the taking of Water from the Prial Brook, the Catchwater Drain, the Upper River Witham, and the Pike Drain, and other waters, and the prevention of the fouling thereof; Abandonment of certain Authorized Works; Raising additional Moneys; Amendment of Existing Acts; Extension of Limits to Canwick and Greetwell; and other Powers.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to introduce a Bill (in this notice called "the Bill") to authorize the Lincoln Waterworks Company (in this notice called "the Company") to effect the following objects, or some of them, that is to say,—

To continue, maintain, and repair, or to construct, maintain, and repair (as the case may be) the following waterworks, with all necessary approaches, embankments, weirs, filtering beds, drains, sluices, culverts, shafts, bye-washes, pipes, works, and other conveniences, that is to say,—

1st.—A reservoir already constructed on lands formerly belonging to the late Richard Carline, Esquire, and now to Joseph Shuttleworth, Esquire, in the parish of Skellingthorpe, in the parts of Kesteven, in the county of Lincoln, situate on the southerly side of the public carriage-road leading from Lincoln to Skellingthorpe, and which reservoir is bounded on the northerly, westerly, south-westerly, easterly, and south-easterly sides by lands belonging to the said Joseph Shuttleworth, and occupied by himself, and on the south by lands belonging to the Governors of Christ's Hospital London.

2nd.—An overflow weir in the said parish of Skellingthorpe, already constructed, commencing from and out of the reservoir firstly described, at the northerly end thereof, and thence crossing the said public carriage-road, and terminating in a public drain running nearly due north from the northerly side of the embankment of the said reservoir to the drain called the Catchwater drain, at a point 200 yards, or thereabouts, north of the said public carriage-road.

3rd.—An aqueduct conduit or main pipe, already constructed, commencing from and out of the northerly end of the reservoir firstly described, and thence passing in, through, and out of the said parish of Skellingthorpe and the parish of Boultham, in the parts of Kesteven, in the county of Lincoln, and the parish of Saint Botolph, in the city of Lincoln, and county of the same city, and terminating in the High-street, in the said city and county, at or near the Bargate-bridge.

4th.—A pumping station, with an engine-house, buildings, and apparatus connected therewith, and an aqueduct conduit, or main pipe for abstracting water from the drain called the Catchwater drain, at a point 200 yards, or thereabouts, westward of the intersection of the Upper River Witham by the said Catchwater drain, and three filtering beds near to such pumping station, all which works are already constructed, and are situate upon lands in the said parish of Boultham, purchased by the Company from Colonel Richard Ellison, and at a point varying from 130 to 230 yards westward of the intersection of the Upper River Witham by the said Catchwater drain.

5th.—A pumping station, engine-house, and buildings connected therewith, and two filtering beds, and an aqueduct conduit or main pipe for abstracting water from the said Catchwater drain at a point 66 yards, or thereabouts, westward of the intersection of the Upper River Witham by the Catchwater drain, and another aqueduct conduit or main pipe for abstracting water from the Upper River Witham at a point 44 yards, or thereabouts, southward of the said intersection, and all which works will be situate in the said parish of Boultham, on lands belonging to the said Colonel Richard Ellison, and in the occupation of Charles Pratt, Esquire.

6th.—An aqueduct conduit or main pipe, situate wholly in the said parish of Boultham, and on lands of the said Colonel Richard Ellison, in the occupation of the said Charles Pratt, Esquire, for abstracting water from the Pike Drain, and commencing at and from the pumping station fourthly described, and terminating in the said Pike Drain at a point 200 yards, or thereabouts, eastward of Boultham parish church.

7th.—An aqueduct conduit or main pipe, already constructed, commencing by a junction with the aqueduct conduit or main pipe thirdly described, at or near near the said Bargate-bridge, and thence passing in, through, or into the parishes or extra-parochial places of South or Canwick Common, Saint Botolph, Saint Peter-at-Gowts, Saint Mark, Saint Mary-le-Wigford, Saint Benedict, Saint Peter-at-Arches, Saint Martin, Saint Michael—otherwise Saint Michael-on-the-Mount, Saint Mary Magdalene, Saint Paul, Bail of Lincoln, Close of Lincoln, and Castle Dykings, or some of them in the city of Lincoln, and the county of the said city, and terminating by a junction with the reservoir next hereinafter described on the southerly side thereof.

8th.—A reservoir already constructed on lands formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Lincoln, and Mr. William Harrison their lessee, situate in the said parish of Saint Paul, at a point 140 yards, or thereabouts, northward of the north-west corner of Lincoln Castle wall, and a waste pipe from and out of the south side of such reservoir, to and into the Castle Dykings, at or near a point 65 yards, or thereabouts, measuring in a north-easterly direction from the said north-west corner of the castle wall.

9th.—An aqueduct conduit or main pipe, commencing at the pumping station fourthly described, and thence passing in and through the said parishes of Boultham and St. Botolph, and the said extra-parochial place of South or Canwick Common, and terminating in the said High-street, at or near the said Bargate-bridge, with a branch from the pumping station fifthly described, to such aqueduct conduit or main pipe, such branch being wholly within the said parish of Boultham.

10th.—An aqueduct conduit or main pipe, commencing at the said Bargate-bridge by a junction with the aqueduct conduit or main pipe ninthly described, and thence passing in and through the said parish of Saint Botolph, the said extra-parochial place of South or Canwick Common, and the parish of Bracebridge in the parts of Kesteven, in the county of Lincoln, and terminating by a junction with the reservoir, next hereinafter described.

11th.—A reservoir, in the said parish of Bracebridge, on lands belonging to Charles Coningsby Waldo Sibthorpe, esquire, and in the occupation of Mr. Edward Clarke, situate on the east side of the turnpike-road leading from Lincoln to Sleaford, and at a point 50 yards, or thereabouts, west of the farm-house called White-hall, in the occupation of the said Edward Clarke.

12th.—An aqueduct conduit or main pipe, commencing at the Bargate-bridge by the junction with the aqueduct ninthly described, and thence passing in, through, and from the said extra-parochial place of South or Canwick Common, and the said parishes of Saint Botolph, Saint Peter-at-Gowts, Saint Mark, Saint Mary-le-Wigford, Saint Benedict, Saint Peter-at-Arches, and Saint Martin, in the city of Lincoln, and county of the said city, and terminating in the High-street, in the said city and county, at or near Saint Martin's Church.

To authorize the Company to divert into the said works, and to take and appropriate for the purposes of their undertaking the water of the Prial Brook, the said Catchwater Drain, the Upper River Witham, and the Pike Drain, and also any waters from any lands, and from any streams or springs which may be found in, upon, or under, or adjoining any lands which the Bill may authorize to be taken, and to provide that the said Prial Brook, Catchwater Drain, Upper River Witham, and Pike Drain, shall, for the purposes mentioned in sect. 61 of the Waterworks Clauses Act 1847, be deemed to be belonging to the Company, which waters so intended to be appropriated directly or derivatively flow or proceed into the Upper River Witham, the Brayford Pool, the Lower River Witham, the Fosdyke Canal, the River Trent, the Gainsborough Waterworks Company's Reservoirs, and the River Humber.

To enable the Company to deviate in the construction of the proposed works from the lines and levels delineated on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and to break up, alter, divert, or stop up (temporarily or permanently) roads, bridges, canals, towing-paths, railways, tramways, sewers, drains, streams, and watercourses, in the parishes and places hereinbefore and hereinafter named in this notice, or any of them for the purposes of the intended Act.

To legalise and confirm, if necessary, all the Acts, proceedings, and expenditures of the Company, or their directors or officers in relation to the existing works of the Company.

To authorize the Company to abandon such of the works authorized by the Lincoln Waterworks Act, 1846, within the parishes and places aforesaid, as are or will be unnecessary by reason of the substituted works to be authorized by the Bill.

To purchase, by compulsion, lands, houses, waters, and other hereditaments and rights of way, and other easements, rights, and privileges in, and over the same, and to confer, vary, and extinguish any rights and privileges necessary to the attainment of the objects of the Bill and other rights and privileges.

To enable the Company to manufacture, sell, or let on hire, meters and other apparatus in connection with the supply of water, and to make provision for preventing the fouling, waste, illegal use, misuse, or abstraction of the water supplied, or authorized to be appropriated by the Company, and to enable the Company the better to recover rates and rents payable to them.

To enable the Company to raise additional capital in shares or stock, and by borrowing, and to attach to such shares and stock a preferential dividend and other privileges and advantages.

To alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or wholly or partially repeal "the Lincoln Waterworks Act, 1846," and "the Lincoln Waterworks Act, 1856."

To enable the Company to extend their power to supply water to the parish of Canwick, or part thereof, in the parts of Kesteven, in the county of Lincoln, and the parish of Greetwell, or part thereof, in the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln.

To enable the Company to hold half-yearly general meetings, and otherwise to increase their powers in reference to their meetings and the proceedings of the directors.

To incorporate with the Bill all or some of the provisions of "the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863," "the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860," "the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1869," "the Companies' Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "the Companies' Clauses Act, 1863," and also sections 30 to 44, both inclusive of "the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

And notice is further given that on or before the 30th day of November instant, plans and sections describing the situation, lines, and levels of the works proposed to be authorized or constructed, and the lands and other property which may be taken for such works and other the purposes of the Bill, with a book of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and other property, and a copy of this notice will be deposited for public inspection with the clerk of the peace for the city of Lincoln and county of the same city, at his office, St. Benedict's-square, in the said city and county, and with the clerk of the peace for the parts of Kesteven, in the county of Lincoln, at his office, at Stamford, and with the clerk of the peace for the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, at his office, at Spilsby, and on or before the said 30th day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, as relates to each parish, in which it is intended to authorize or construct works, or take lands or property with a copy of this notice will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode, and in the case of any extra-parochial place with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto at his place of abode.

And on or before the 21st day of December next printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1870.

Birmingham West Suburban Railway.

(Incorporation of a Company for making a Railway from Birmingham to King's Norton with a Branch to Harborne—Power to acquire parts of the Lands of the Worcester Canal Company—Agreement with Worcester Canal Company—Compulsory Purchase of Lands—Power to Levy Tolls—Amendment of Acts).

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the next Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following, amongst other purposes:—

To incorporate a Company (hereinafter referred to as the Company) to make and maintain the railways following, or some or one of them, with all needful works, stations, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, that is to say,—

(1.) A Railway (hereinafter called Railway No. 1) commencing at Albion Wharf, Bridge-street, in the parish and borough of Birmingham, and county of Warwick, at a point in Bridge-street aforesaid, 130 yards or thereabouts, south of the place where the west side of Bridge-street strikes Broad-street, in the said borough, and terminating in the parish of King's Norton, in the county of Worcester, on the west side of the Worcester and Birmingham Canal, at a point thereon 50 yards, or thereabouts, south of the centre of the Breedon Cross Bridge, over the Worcester and Birmingham Canal which said intended railway will pass from, in, through, or into, or be situate within the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places of Birmingham and Edgbaston, within the borough of Birmingham, and county of Warwick, Northfield, King's Norton, Selly Oak, Stirchley-street, and Breedon Cross, in the county of Worcester.

(2.) A Railway (hereinafter called Railway No. 2) commencing by a junction with Railway No. 1, at its proposed termination aforesaid, and terminating in the parish of King's Norton aforesaid, near to Reachills Wharf, on the north side of the turnpike-road leading from King's Norton towards Walker's Heath, at a point on such road seventy yards or thereabouts west of the centre of the bridge carrying the said turnpike-road across the Worcester and Birmingham Canal, which said intended Railway No. 2 will pass from, in, through, or into, or be situate within, the parishes, townships, extra-parochial or other places of King's Norton, Breedon Cross, and Lifford, all in the county of Worcester.

(3.) A Railway (hereinafter called Railway No. 3) commencing by a junction with Railway No. 1, at its proposed termination as aforesaid, and terminating in the parish of King's Norton aforesaid, by a junction with the Midland Railway, at a point thereon 160 yards or thereabouts, west of the centre of the bridge carrying the Midland Railway over the Worcester and Birmingham Canal, the said bridge being adjacent to the goods station of the Midland Railway Company at Lifford aforesaid, which said intended Railway No. 3 will be wholly situate in the parish and extra-parochial or other place of King's Norton aforesaid and Breedon Cross aforesaid, or one of them.

(4.) A Branch Railway (hereinafter called Railway No. 4) commencing by a junction with Railway No. 1, at a point thereon thirty yards or thereabouts south of the Metchley Park Road Bridge, over the Worcester and Birmingham Canal, in the parish of Edgbaston, in the county of Warwick, and terminating in the parish of Harborne, in the county of Stafford, on the south side of the road leading from the village of Harborne, to Birmingham, and opposite to the Junction Inn, in the said village of Harborne, which said intended Railway No. 4 will be wholly situate in the parishes of Edgbaston aforesaid and Harborne, in the county of Stafford, or one of them.

(5.) A Branch Railway (hereinafter called Railway No. 5) commencing by a junction with Railway No. 1, at a point thereon 250 yards or thereabouts south of Metchley Park-road Bridge over the Worcester and Birmingham Canal, and terminating by a junction with Railway No. 4, at a point thereon 250 yards or thereabouts west of the commencement of Railway No. 4, as above described, which said intended Railway No. 5 will be wholly situate in the parish of Edgbaston aforesaid.

(6.) A Railway (hereinafter called Railway No. 6) commencing by a junction with Railway No. 4 at its proposed termination aforesaid, and terminating in the parish of Harborne aforesaid by a junction with the authorized Harborne Railway, at a point thereon in field No. 19 on the plans deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, in respect of the said Harborne Railway Company, session 1866, 460 yards, or thereabouts, in a direct line from the point where, according to the said plans, the said Harborne Railway strikes the road leading from the village of Harborne to the Ravenhurst Farm, the said road being No. 44 on the said plans, which said intended Railway No. 6 will be wholly situate in the parish of Harborne, in the county of Stafford.

To empower the Company to deviate laterally from the line of proposed works to the extent shown on the plans deposited as hereinafter mentioned, or as may be prescribed by the Bill, and to deviate vertically from the levels of the works shown on the sections deposited as hereinafter mentioned to the extent prescribed by the Bill.

To empower the Company to purchase and take by compulsion or agreement lands, houses, and hereditaments for the purposes of the intended railways, works, and other purposes of the undertaking, and to vary and extinguish any rights or privileges, statutory or other, connected with such lands, houses, and hereditaments, or any of them, all which lands, houses, and hereditaments are situated in the townships, parishes, and extra-parochial places following, or some or one of them (that is to say):—Birmingham and Edgbaston, both in the borough of Birmingham, and county of Warwick, Harborne, in the county of Stafford, and Northfield, King's Norton, Selly Oak, Stirchley Street, Breedon Cross, and Lifford, in the county of Worcester.

To enable the Company of Proprietors of the Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation (hereinafter called the Worcester Canal Company), from time to time (by agreement) to sell, lease, or exchange, and the Company to acquire and hold lands, houses, and hereditaments belonging to the Worcester Canal Company, and required for the purposes of the proposed undertaking, and situate within the parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places above-mentioned, with power to narrow parts of the canal of that Company, but so as to leave sufficient water way for the ordinary navigation thereof, also to narrow the towing-path, and to pull down and rebuild or alter bridges, and for the purpose of executing the works authorised by the Bill, to stop (temporarily) the traffic on the canal, and to provide that on any sale or lease to be made or granted by the Worcester Canal Company, that Company may take in lieu of a fixed rent charge, or rent, or in addition thereto, or otherwise, a proportion or share of the profits of the proposed undertaking, and to provide for the application by that Company of their receipts from the proposed Railway Company, to authorize the Worcester Canal Company to appoint some directors of the Railway Company, and to authorize the Worcester Canal Company, or their nominees, to take part in the management of or to control the working of the proposed undertaking. To authorize the Company and the Worcester Canal Company from time to time to enter into and carry into effect agreements for or relating to the objects aforesaid, or relating to any traffic or class of traffic to be carried on the intended railway, and also to confirm and carry into effect any agreement already made, or which previously to the passing of the Bill, may be made touching any of the matters aforesaid, or to make special provision respecting such traffic as aforesaid in the Bill.

To affect any rights or easements of Lords of Manors, owners, or occupiers of land adjoining the Worcester and Birmingham Canal or towing-path, or other persons, over, across, or upon such part of the towing-path of the Worcester and Birmingham Canal as shall be required for the purposes of the intended railways, by providing substituted rights, benefits, or easements in lieu thereof, and extinguishing the same, or otherwise to provide for the continuance thereof, with or without modification, or for the discontinuance thereof in whole or in part, with or without compensation or equivalent.

To stop up, alter, divert, cross, or break up, or otherwise interfere with, either temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike and other roads, streets, highways, tramways, bridges, footpaths, towing-paths, railways, aqueducts, rivers, canals, streams, brooks, sewers, drains, pipes, and water-courses as may be necessary or convenient in executing the purposes of the Bill, and also for the purposes aforesaid, to alter the level of any streets, roads, bridges, or paths, and to remove any telegraph posts, apparatus or wires, or alter the positions thereof.

To empower the Company to levy tolls, rates, and duties for or in respect of the railways and works, and to grant exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties.

To authorize and regulate the intended junctions with the Midland Railway and the Harborne Railway when made, respectively, and to make provision for facilitating the interchange and transmission of traffic from, to, and over the said intended railways and the railway belonging to the Midland Railway Company and the Harborne Railway Company respectively, also for fixing or ascertaining and settling the tolls, rates, and charges, to be levied or charged on other terms, and conditions to be imposed for or in respect of any of the purposes aforesaid, and to enable the Company, and the Midland Railway Company, and the Company, and the Harborne Railway Company, respectively, from time to time to enter into agreements with respect to the matters aforesaid, and also with respect to the use of the lands, buildings, and works, belonging to the Companies respectively, at or near the junctions of the railways respectively, and to enter into working agreements within Part III of "The Railway Clauses Act, 1863."

To alter, amend, extend, and enlarge or repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of the several local and personal Acts of Parliament following, or some of them; that is to say: 31st Geo. III, cap. 59, 38 Geo. III, cap. 31, 44 Geo. III, cap. 35, 48 Geo. III, cap. 49, and the 55th Geo. III, cap. 66, and also the 7th and 8th Victoria, caps. 18 and 59, and other Act or Acts relating directly or indirectly to the Midland Railway Company.

To incorporate wholly or partially "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869;" "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869;" "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Railways Clauses Act, 1863;" and "The Railway Companies Arbitration Act, 1859."

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the proposed railways and works, and the lands, houses, and property intended to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, a published map with the lines of railway delineated thereon, so as to show their general course and direction, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November, 1870, be deposited as follows; as regards the railways, lands, and works in the borough of Birmingham, with the Clerk of the Peace for that borough, at his office there; as regards the railways, lands, and works situate in the county of Warwick, with the Clerk of the Peace for that county, at his office at Stratford-on-Avon; as regards the railways, lands, and works situate in the county of Worcester, with the Clerk of the Peace for that county, at his office at Worcester; and as regards the railways, lands, and works within the county of Stafford, with the Clerk of the Peace of that county, at his office at Stafford; and on or before the said 30th day of November, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each parish or extra-parochial place, in or through which the said intended railways or works are intended to be made, or in which any lands are intended to be taken, together with a copy of this notice published as aforesaid, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence, and as to any extra-parochial place with the clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his residence.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 21st day of December next, printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1870.

Northampton Gas Light Company.

(Application under "The Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870," to Board of Trade for Provisional Order, authorizing the raising of Additional Capital, and for other purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Northampton Gas Light Company are about to apply to the Board of Trade, under "The Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870," for a Provisional Order to be confirmed by Parliament in the ensuing session, and that by such Order the Company will seek for powers:

- (1.) To raise additional capital by shares or stock, and by borrowing, with power to issue any new shares or stock with a preference or priority of dividend, and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed in the Order;
- (2.) To amend the Act relating to the Company, namely: "The Northampton Gas Works Act, 1858."
- (3.) To extend to the Company the provisions or some of the provisions of "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863."
- (4.) To enable the Company to purchase by agreement, land and premises within the limits of the said Act of 1858, and to convert the same, or some part or parts thereof into, or to erect thereon offices, warehouses, workshops, and other buildings, for the use of the Company, their officers and servants.
- (5.) To confer upon the Company further powers for the prevention of frauds upon them, and the waste of gas supplied by them.
- (6.) To vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges, which would interfere with the powers to be sought for as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that a copy of this advertisement will on or before the 30th of this instant November be deposited for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northampton, at Northampton, and also at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the draft of the Provisional Order can, on and after the 23rd day of December next, be obtained at the office of William Dennis, Esquire, Solicitor, Northampton, or of Messieurs Dyson & Co., No. 24, Parliament-street, Westminster, on payment of sixpence for each copy, and all persons desirous of making to the said Board of Trade any representation, or of bringing before that Board any objection respecting the application to the said Board for the said Provisional Order, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant-Secretary of the Railway Department of the said Board, on or before the 1st day of January next, and that copies of such objections must at the same time be also sent to the Secretary or Solicitor of the Company.

And notice is hereby also given, that after the Board of Trade have settled the said Provisional Order, printed copies thereof can be obtained at the before-mentioned offices, at a charge of sixpence for each copy, or such sum as the Board of Trade may direct.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1870.

Cradley Heath Gas Company.

(Re-incorporation of Company, with powers to maintain and extend existing works, and light Cradley Heath and other places in Staffordshire, and Cradley in the parish of Halesowen, and other places in Worcestershire, with Gas).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following among other purposes, that is to say—

1. To incorporate by the same or some other name "The Cradley Heath Gas Company" (hereinafter referred to as the Company), and to confer upon the Company all necessary powers and authorities for carrying into effect the powers of the Bill.
2. To dissolve the Company as it now exists, and to cancel the deed of settlement under which the Company are acting, and to confer upon the Company powers for lighting with gas Cradley Heath, Reddal-hill and Old-hill, in the parish of Rowley Regis, in the county of Stafford, and Cradley, in the parish of Halesowen, in the county of Worcester.
3. To authorize the Company to hold lands and to maintain their existing works, and to alter, enlarge, and improve such works, and to erect additional works on the lands or any part of the lands now belonging to or held by or on behalf of the Company, and upon any lands which may be purchased or taken by them under the powers of the Bill; and to enable them to manufacture gas and any residual products arising in the manufacture of gas, and to sell and dispose of gas, coke, coal tar, and other residual and manufactured products, matters, and things.

The lands to be held and used for the manufacture of gas, and for gas works, and for the manufacture and sale of residual products arising from the manufacture of gas, or of the materials used therein, are the lands now belonging to the Company, and on which the existing gas works have been erected or immediately adjoining thereto, and are situate at Cradley Heath, in the parish of Rowley Regis, in the county of Stafford, and are bounded as follows:—Towards the west by the Occupation-road and public footway leading to and joining the public road from Cradley to Cradley Heath, and elsewhere by the colliery and spoil-lands, houses, and outbuildings of Joseph Purser, Esq.

4. To enable the Company to acquire and hold patent rights and licences to use or exercise patent rights, and to carry on the business usually carried on by gas companies, or which is or may become incident thereto, and to maintain, alter, or renew any existing mains and pipes within the limits to be supplied with gas; and to lay down and maintain mains and pipes in, through, across, along, or under streets, roads, railways, rivers, bridges, and other passages and places within the limits of the Bill; and to break up and interfere with such streets, roads, bridges, and other passages and places, and also with any sewers, drains, and pipes in, over, or under the same.

5. To empower the Company to manufacture, purchase, or hire gas meters, fittings, and other gas apparatus, and to sell or let the same; and to levy and collect rates, rents, and charges for the sale and supply of gas and gas meters and fittings, and other gas apparatus, and, if need be, to alter the existing rates, rents, and charges.

6. To authorize the Company and any local authority within the said limits to make and carry into effect contracts and agreements for lighting and for supplying all things, and for performing all acts incidental to lighting any streets, roads, places, or buildings within such limits.

7. To authorize the Company to purchase additional lands, and from time to time to sell and dispose of lands.

8. To alter and regulate the capital of the Company and its distribution into shares, and its appropriation amongst the shareholders, and to provide for the capitalisation or conversion into capital of money raised or expended by the Company out of their undivided profits, or otherwise, and to enable the Company to raise further capital by shares or stock and by borrowing, and to attach if they think fit to such shares or stock or any part thereof a preference or priority of dividend over the existing or ordinary shares of the Company.

The Bill will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869;" and "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847;" and it will confer upon the Company all other rights and privileges necessary for carrying into effect the objects of the Bill, and it will vary and extinguish all such existing rights and privileges as may interfere with the attainment of any of those objects.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1870.

Bradford.—Church of St. John the Evangelist. Power to remove the District Parish Church of St. John the Evangelist, in the borough of Bradford, to another site within the district; Provisions with respect to Sale of the existing Church and Churchyard; Purchase of the New Site; Erection of New Church; and other consequential matters.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for an Act to authorize the removal of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, in the township of Horton, in the borough of Bradford, in the West Riding of the county of York, to another site within the district parish assigned to the said church, and for such purpose to authorize the sale and dissolution of the existing church and the sale of the site thereof, and of the yard and premises adjoining thereto or connected therewith, and all or any part of the materials used in the erection or fitting up and furnishing of the said church, churchyard, and premises, either together or in lots, and either by public auction or private contract discharged from all ecclesiastical uses or purposes, and so that the same may be used or appropriated to any secular purposes whatsoever.

And it is proposed to authorize the purchase of a plot or parcel of land, situate at Little Horton, in the said township of Horton, and borough of Bradford, containing 1,887 square yards, or thereabouts, and which said plot or parcel of land is part of a close of land, containing 6a. 0r. 24r., or thereabouts, and is bounded on or towards the north-west by Little Horton-lane, on or towards the north-east by the centre of a certain private street, called Henry-street, on or towards the south-west by the centre of another private street, called Neal-street, and on or towards the south-east by other part of the said close, including part of the said private streets respectively, or of some other plot or parcel of land within the district parish aforesaid, and the erection on the plot or parcel of land to be so purchased, or on some part thereof, of another church, to be the parish church of the said district parish, in lieu of the existing church, with the same endowments, rights, and privileges attached thereto.

And it is proposed to vest the patronage of the new church in the parties entitled to the patronage of the existing church, and to provide that the vicar and officers of the existing church shall be and continue vicar and officers of the new church, with the same property, rights, endowments, fees, salaries, and emoluments, and in all or any other respects to provide that the new church shall be in the place or stead of the existing church as fully as if the new church had been the original edifice, and all that had been given, granted, or done to, for, or with respect to the existing church had been given, granted, or done to, for, or with respect to the new church.

And it is proposed to provide funds for carrying the purposes of the Act into effect, and to direct the application to such purposes of all or part of the purchase money to be received for the existing church and premises, with or without voluntary subscriptions, and to make further provision with reference to such matters.

And it is proposed to confer upon the Lord Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and the patrons, vicar, and churchwardens of the said church for the time being, or some or one of them, and all other persons whose concurrence or consent may be necessary, full powers to sell and convey the said existing church, churchyard, and premises, and to purchase or sell the site for, and build the new church, and to make, do, enter into, and execute any contracts, agreements, deeds, or other instruments, matters, and things which may be necessary, proper, or convenient for carrying into effect all or any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confirm any such contracts or agreements as may have been entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might prevent any of the objects of the Act being fully effected, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid, will be deposited in the Private Bill Office, before the 22nd day of December, 1870.

Tottenham Local Board of Health.

(Drainage and Sewerage, and Distribution of Sewage; Acquisition of Lands by Compulsion or Agreement; Power to let Lands on Lease, and to raise Money upon security of Lands and of rates; and to levy increased Drainage and other Rates; Amendment of Acts; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session by the Tottenham Local Board of Health (hereinafter referred to as "the Local Board") for leave to introduce a Bill, and to pass an Act for all or some of the following purposes; that is to say:—

To empower the Local Board to utilize the sewage of their district, and for that purpose to construct, lay down, and maintain a conduit, aqueduct, or line of pipes, commencing in the parish of Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, from and out of the existing sewage works of the Local Board, lying between and near to the junction of the brooks or streams, known by the name of the Stonebridge Brook and the Moselle Brook, and passing thence under the River Lee, and terminating in a piece or parcel of land on the south side of and adjoining the said River Lee, and reputed to belong to Viscount Maynard, and in the occupation of John Rumbal, and at or near the southern abutment of the bridge which carries the Great Eastern Railway over the said River Lee, and which piece or parcel of land is partly in the said parish of Tottenham, and partly in the parish of Walthamstow, in the county of Essex.

A conduit, aqueduct, or line of pipes, to be wholly situate in the said parish of Tottenham, commencing from and out of the hereinbefore mentioned sewage works of the Local Board, and terminating in a piece or parcel of pasture land, lying on the west side of and adjoining the towing path of the River Lee Navigation, and about 130 yards measured in a south or southerly direction from the Tottenham Lock on the said navigation.

To empower the Local Board to exercise all or any of the powers and privileges following.

To deviate in the construction of the intended works and the lines and levels thereof, as shewn on the plans and sections to be deposited as herein-after mentioned.

To make, construct, lay down, and maintain culverts, drains, bore holes, water courses, pumps, pumping engines, reservoirs, tanks, filtering beds, and other works, machinery, and conveniences for the purposes of, and in connection with, their works, and to use any existing culverts, drains, water courses, and outfalls, which it may be necessary to use for carrying off effluent and other waters, and for carrying into complete effect the objects and purposes of the intended Act.

To purchase and acquire by compulsion or agreement, lands, houses, buildings, easements, and other property for the purposes of the intended works, and for purposes connected with the receiving, storing, distributing, and irrigating with sewage, certain other lands, property, and easements in the said parish of Tottenham, comprising the Lammas lands known by the name of the Lock Meadow, containing about 16 acres, and lying to the westward of, and adjoining to, the towing-path of the River Lee Navigation, and numbered on the ordnance map of that parish 884, and certain other lands, buildings, and property in the said parish of Tottenham, lying on the southern and eastern sides of, and adjoining to, the River Lee, and situate between that river and the boundary between the counties of Middlesex and Essex, and numbered respectively, on the ordnance map of the said parish 885, 886, and 976, and certain other lands, buildings, and property in the said parish of Walthamstow, bounded on the northern and western sides by the last-mentioned lands and county boundary, partly on the western side by the boundary of the parish of Hackney and the River Lee, and on the south side partly by the River Lee and partly by a stream commonly called the Copper Mill Stream, and on the eastern side by the Great Eastern Railway, and numbered respectively on the ordnance map of that parish 638, 799, 804, 805, and 922, and certain other lands, buildings, and property in the said parish of Walthamstow, bounded on the north by the aforesaid county boundary, on the western side by the Great Eastern Railway, on the southern side by the aforesaid Copper Mill Stream, and on the eastern side by the conduits, canals, and reservoirs of the East London Water Works Company, all in the occupation of John Rumbal, and reputed to belong to Viscount Maynard and John Albert Craven, Esq., and others, and numbered respectively on the ordnance map of the said parish of Walthamstow 641, 642, 800, 801, 806, and 923.

And certain other Lammas lands, commonly known or called by the name of Walthamstow Marsh and Leyton Marsh, situated partly in the parish of Walthamstow, and partly in the parish of Leyton, in the county of Essex, and bounded on the northern side by the Great Eastern Railway and the aforesaid Copper Mill Stream, on the western side by the River Lee and a part of the boundary between the parishes of Hackney, in the county of Middlesex, and Leyton, in the county of Essex, on the south side by a turnpike road, known as the Lee Bridge-road, and on the eastern side by the canal or aqueduct of the East London Water Works Company, and numbered respectively on the ordnance map of the parish of Walthamstow 985 and 986, and on the ordnance map of the parish of Leyton 171, and certain other lands, houses, buildings, and easements in the before-mentioned parishes, or some or one of them, adjoining the said lands above described, and for the purpose of obtaining access to a portion of the said hereinbefore mentioned lands, to pass over and use at all times, with carts, horses, and servants, that part of the towing-path situate in the parish of Tottenham, on the western side of the said River Lee Navigation, which lies between the hereinbefore-mentioned Moselle Brook and Ferry-lane, all in the said parish of Tottenham; and to vary and extinguish all existing rights, easements, and privileges connected with any rivers, streams, waters, and other property within the before-mentioned parishes, and with any lands, houses, or buildings proposed to be purchased, taken, or interfered with for the purposes of the intended Act, which would in any manner impede or interfere with such purposes, or any of them, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To exercise beyond, as well as within, their district all such powers as may be deemed requisite for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the said intended Act, and to extinguish all existing rights, privileges, powers, or customs of all corporations, bodies, and persons whomsoever which are inconsistent with, or might interfere with, the exercise of the powers so to be conferred on the Local Board, or with the objects of the intended Act, and to impose or provide for the imposition of penalties for any offence committed in respect of any of the matters aforesaid.

To authorise the crossing, stopping up, altering, or diverting, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike-roads, highways, railways, tramways, canals, rivers, streams, and footpaths within or adjoining to the before-mentioned parishes and places which it may be necessary to cross, stop up, alter, or divert in executing the works and several purposes of the intended Act, and particularly power will be taken to carry a pipe or culvert under the portion of the Great Eastern Railway now in course of construction in the said parishes of Walthamstow and Leyton, or one of them.

To authorise the temporary occupation and use of lands, houses, buildings, and property for the purposes of the intended Act, and to incorporate all or some of the provisions of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the temporary occupation of lands, or to make other provisions with reference thereto.

To empower the Local Board to make, levy, and demand, within the district of the Local Board, rates, assessments, and other charges, and to increase, alter, repeal, or extinguish existing rates, assessments, and other charges, and to make or increase other rates, assessments, and charges, and to grant exemptions from rates, assessments, and charges.

To empower the Local Board to raise such sums of money as may be necessary for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, on the credit of the charges and rates which the Local Board are now authorised, or may by the intended Act be authorised, to make and levy, and on the credit of their existing lands and property, and of any lands and property which they may acquire under the powers of the intended Act, or by such other means as may be provided by the intended Act.

To extend to the lands and district above-described, and to be acquired under the powers of the intended Act, all or some of the powers possessed by the Local Board within their district.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections describing the line, situation, and level of the hereinbefore-mentioned proposed works, describing the lands, houses, and other property in or through which the said conduit, aqueduct, or main pipes, are intended to be made, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and the occupiers of such lands, houses, and properties respectively, and also plans showing the lands which will or may be subject to compulsory powers of purchase to be conferred by the intended Act, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and the occupiers of such land, will be deposited for public inspection as follows (that is to say):—

As regards such lands and works as are situate in the county of Middlesex, with the Clerk of the Peace for that county, at his office, in Clerkenwell; and as regards such of the said lands and works as are situate in the county of Essex, with the Clerk of the Peace for that county, at his office, at Chelmsford; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to any parish or extra-parochial place, will be deposited in the case of a parish with the parish clerk of such parish at his residence; and, in the case of an extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his residence, and that such deposits will be made on or before the 30th day of November, 1870, and each of such deposits will be accompanied with a copy of this notice.

Printed copies of the said Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid, or some of them, will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December, 1870.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1870.

Salford Borough Drainage and Improvement.
Power to Construct Tanks and other Works for the more effectual Drainage of the borough of Salford, and the collection and disposal of the Sewage thereof—Power to acquire Lands—Power to apply for the purposes of the proposed Act, Money authorised to be borrowed by existing Acts—Amendment of Acts and other powers for effecting the proposed objects.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Salford (hereinafter called "the Corporation") for leave to bring in a Bill hereinafter referred to as "the proposed Act," to authorise the Corporation to effect the objects or some of the objects hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

1. To construct the following works or some of them:—

Firstly—A tank or tanks for the purpose of receiving, filtering, or otherwise dealing with the sewage of the borough, such tank or tanks commencing at a point in a field the property of John Dugdale and Anna Maria Worsley Doncaster, and in the occupation of William Brown, situated 420 yards, or thereabouts, in a north-westwardly direction from the Mode Wheel Weir in the River Irwell, and being 150 yards distant from, and in a northerly direction, from the northern bank of the River Irwell, measured from a point on the said bank 230 yards from the said weir, and terminating at a point 570 yards, or thereabouts, to the westward of the point of commencement hereinbefore described.

Secondly—A culvert, conduit, or watercourse, commencing at the westerly side of the said tank or tanks, and terminating by a junction with the River Irwell at a point on the northerly bank thereof, 600 yards or thereabouts below the said Mode Wheel Weir.

Thirdly—A carriage-road, commencing at a point about 50 yards to the west of the junction of Mode Wheel Lane and Eccles New-road, and terminating at or near to the north-easterly side of the tank hereinbefore described.

Together with all necessary works, buildings, conduits, valves, sluices, and other appliances in connection therewith, for the proper control, purification, discharge, and disposal of the sewage, and of the effluent water therefrom.

All which works will be situate wholly within the borough of Salford, and in the parish of Eccles and townships of Pendleton and Pendlebury, all in the county of Lancaster.

2. To convey into such tanks or works, or some of them, the sewage of the several districts of the borough now discharging into the River Irwell at various points, and to discharge into the said river the effluent water from such tanks or works.

3. To purchase by compulsion or agreement lands in the townships of Pendleton and Pendlebury and parish of Eccles, required for the purposes of the said intended works; and to purchase and take by compulsion or agreement easements and other rights and privileges in, over, or upon all or any of the lands authorized to be acquired under the provisions of the proposed Act, or any lands adjoining thereto respectively.

4. To authorize the deviation in the construction of the said several works from the lines and levels delineated on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to the extent to be defined on the said plans and sections, and specified in the intended Act; and also to break up, stop, pass under, alter or divert temporarily or permanently all turnpike and other roadways, streets, railways, tramways, aqueducts, bridges, canals, streams, rivers, sewers, drains, water pipes, gas pipes, telegraph pipes, tubes, and wires within the aforesaid townships, parishes, and other places adjacent thereto, or any of them, for the purposes of the proposed works.

5. To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges in any way connected with the lands, houses, and property proposed to be purchased, which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects of the proposed Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

6. To repeal wholly or partially, or to amend "The Salford Improvement Act, 1862," and to extend the powers of the Corporation, for preventing the casting of any solid matters of whatever kind into the River Irwell, within the borough, or the placing of solid refuse in such position on the banks of the said river, as to render it liable to be washed away by floods, and also to prevent the falling or discharge therein of soil, refuse, rubbish, refuse material, polluting liquids, drainage matter, and other matter; and to regulate and prescribe the mode and course in and by which any such polluting liquid or drainage, or refuse water, shall be carried away or disposed of, so as to prevent the pollution of the river, and injury to the health of the inhabitants, and to impose penalties in respect thereof.

7. To authorise any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts, at the instance of the Corporation, or of their authorised servants, or any person whose property, rights, or interests shall be or likely to be injured or prejudicially affected by any offence within the intent and meaning of the proposed act, to restrain the commission of such offence by injunction either perpetually or otherwise, and to award costs against offenders in respect thereof.

8. To amend and extend the powers of the Corporation as to the cleansing or deepening of the River Irwell, so as to embrace the whole of the river in those parts where the river is partly within the borough of Salford and partly within the city of Manchester, and, if need be, to confer powers in respect thereof on the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Manchester.

9. To authorise the Corporation to exercise additional powers in relation to the sanitary improvement and better regulation and government of the borough, and to the regulation of buildings or streets hereafter to be erected or formed.

10. To authorise the Corporation to apply the moneys which they have raised or received, or are authorised to raise or receive, by borrowing or by means of rates, or from any other source, and also the borough fund of the borough, to all or any of the purposes of the proposed Act, and to apportion the costs of and incident to the obtaining of the proposed Act, and of carrying the same into effect among the several districts of the borough.

11. To incorporate with the proposed Act, the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869.

12. To alter, amend, extend, and if need be, partially to repeal the following Acts relating to the borough—20 and 21 Vict., cap. 132; 25 and 26 Vict., cap. 205; 30 Vict., cap. 58; 33 and 34 Vict., cap. 129, and any other Acts relating to the borough; also the following Acts relating to the Company of Proprietors of the Mersey and Irwell Navigation, 7 Geo. I, cap. 15, and 34 Geo. III, cap. 37, and any other Acts relating to that Company; also the following Acts relating to the Trustees of the late Duke of Bridgewater, 32 Geo. II, cap. 2; 33 Geo. II, cap. 2; 2 Geo. III, cap. 2; 35 Geo. III, cap. 44; 45 Geo. III, cap. 81; 3 and 4 Vict., cap. 35; 5 and 6 Vict., cap. 30; 8 and 9 Vict., cap. 29; 10 and 11 Vict., cap. 2; 11 and 12 Vict., cap. 12; 14 and 15 Vict., cap. 12; 20 and 21 Vict., cap. 4; 27 and 28 Vict., cap. 308; 28 and 29 Vict., cap. 1; and any other Acts relating to those trustees; also "The Mersey, &c., Protection Act, 1862;" also the following Acts relating to the city of Manchester:—6 Vict., cap. 17; 7 and 8 Vict., caps. 40 and 41; 8 and 9 Vict., cap. 141; 9 and 10 Vict., cap. 219; 10 and 11 Vict., cap. 203; 11 and 12 Vict., cap. 101; 14 and 15 Vict., caps. 79 and 119; 16 and 17 Vict., cap. 91; 17 Vict., cap. 38; 17 and 18 Vict., cap. 28; 18 and 19 Vict., cap. 44; 20 and 21 Vict., cap. 117; 21 and 22 Vict., caps. 25 and 87; 23 Vict., cap. 93; 23 and 24 Vict., cap. 48; 26 and 27 Vict., cap. 68; 28 and 29 Vict., caps. 90 and 145; 29 Vict., cap. 29; 30 and 31 Vict., cap. 36; 31 and 32 Vict., cap. 130; and any other Acts relating to that city.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November, in the present year, duplicate plans and sections of the said intended works and plans of the lands proposed to be acquired under the proposed Act, and a book of reference to such plans, together with a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster at his office in Preston; and that on or before the same day a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, together with a copy of this notice will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of Manchester, at his place of abode, and with the Parish Clerk of Eccles, at his place of abode; and that on or before the 21st day of December, in the present year, printed copies of the proposed Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1870.

Northallerton Borough Gas Works.

(Incorporation of Company for carrying on existing Gas Works, with powers to light Northallerton, Romanby, and Brompton with Gas. Powers to Northallerton Local Board of Health and other local Authorities.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following purposes, that is to say:—

1. To incorporate a Company, and to transfer, and to vest, or to provide for the transferring to and vesting in the Company (for such price or consideration, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Company and James Malam, Esquire, the owner of the works, or as may be settled by arbitration, or as may be fixed or prescribed in or otherwise provided for by the Bill) the existing gas works at Northallerton, together with all the estate, property, rights, and interests of the said James Malam in the said works, and to confer upon the Company all necessary powers to enable them to carry on, improve, and extend those works, and to thereby light with gas the townships and places of Northallerton, Romanby, and Brompton, in the parish of Northallerton, in the North Riding of Yorkshire.

2. To authorize the Company to purchase and hold lands, and to maintain, alter, enlarge, and improve the said existing works, and to erect additional works on the lands, or any part of the lands now held and used by the said James Malam for the purposes of the said works, and upon any lands which may be purchased or taken by the Company under the powers of the Bill, and to enable them to manufacture gas and any residual products arising in the manufacture of gas, and to sell and dispose of gas, coke, coal tar, and other residual and manufactured products, matters, and things.

The lands to be held and used for the manufacture of gas and for gas works, and for the manufacture and sale of residual products arising from the manufacture of gas, or of the materials used therein, are the lands now belonging to the said James Malam, and on which the existing gas works have been erected or immediately adjoining thereto, and are situate in the township of Northallerton and bounded as follows:—On the north and east by a field belonging to Mrs. Barbara Fairbairn, and occupied by Mr. Charles Fairbairn; on the south side by a field belonging to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and in the occupation of William Oliver; and on the west by the public highway leading from Northallerton aforesaid to Romanby.

3. To enable the Company to acquire and hold patent rights and licences to use or exercise patent rights, and to carry on the business usually carried on by gas companies, or which is or may become incident thereto, and to maintain, alter, or renew any existing mains and pipes within the limits to be supplied with gas, and to lay down and maintain mains and pipes through, across, along or under streets, roads, lanes, rivers, waters, bridges, and other passages and places within the limits of the Bill, and to break up and interfere with such streets, roads, lanes, bridges, and other passages and places, and also with any sewers, drains, and pipes in, over, or under the same.

4. To empower the Company to manufacture, purchase, or hire gas-meters, fittings, and other gas apparatus, and to sell or let the same, and to levy and collect rates, rents, and charges for the sale and supply of gas and gas-meters and fittings and other gas apparatus, and to alter the existing rates, rents, and charges.

5. To authorize the Company and any of the trustees, local boards, or other local authorities within the said limits, to make and carry into effect contracts and agreements for lighting and for supplying all things, and for performing all acts incidental to lighting any streets, roads, places, or buildings within such limits, upon such terms and conditions as they shall respectively agree upon, and if necessary to enable such trustees, local boards, or other local authorities for any of the purposes of the Bill to appropriate and apply any funds belonging to them respectively or under their control, and to raise moneys by rates and by borrowing upon the credit thereof.

6. To enable the Company on the one hand, and any local board of health or other public authority within the limits of the intended Act on the other hand, to contract and agree for the purchase of the undertaking, works, and property of the Company, and to confer upon the purchasing body all necessary powers for enabling them to purchase and to carry on the said undertaking and works, and to borrow money, with power also to effect such purchase in consideration of the granting of permanent or terminable annuities, and the Bill will confirm any agreement which may be made prior to the passing of the Bill with respect to any such purchase; and it will, if necessary, amend any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to any local authority with whom any such agreement as aforesaid may be made.

7. The Bill will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869;" and "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847;" and it will confer upon the Company all other rights and privileges necessary for carrying into effect the objects of the Bill; and it will vary and extinguish all such existing rights and privileges as may interfere with the attainment of any of those objects.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1870.

Metropolis Gas.

(Amendment of Acts relating to the Supply of Gas in the Metropolis and adjacent Districts; To secure Uniformity in the Price, Illuminating Power, and Purity of Gas; Amalgamation of all or some of the Metropolitan Gas Companies, and adjustment of Capitals; Reducing or Altering rates; Charges, and Dividends of Gas Companies; Regulating future Price, Purity, Illuminating Power, and Pressure of Gas; Levying Rates; Borrowing of Money, and other purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to introduce a Bill and to pass an Act for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes:—

To secure uniformity in the price, illuminating power, and purity of gas throughout the Metropolis as defined by "The Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855," and in the districts adjacent, and for that purpose to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, and if need be to repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of "The City of London Gas Act, 1868," and to ensure uniformity in decisions upon questions arising under the said Act and the intended Act.

To alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or if need be to repeal the whole or some of the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the 23rd and 24th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 125, intituled "An Act for better Regulating the Supply of Gas to the Metropolis," and of an Act passed in the 31st and 32nd years of Her present Majesty, cap. 125, amending the last-mentioned Act; and also to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or repeal the whole or some of the powers and provisions of the several local and personal Acts of Parliament following, or some of them, that is to say, 31 and 32 Vic., cap. 106; and 33 and 34 Vic., cap. 121; and all other Acts relating to the Gas Light and Coke Company. 57 Geo. III., cap. 23; 22 and 33 Vic., cap. 52; and all other Acts relating to the City of London Gas Light and Coke Company. 1 and 2 Geo. IV., cap. 74; 10 Geo. IV., cap. 127; 10 and 11 Vic., cap. 53; 13 and 14 Vic., cap. 82: 15 and 16 Vic., cap. 155; 19 and 20 Vic., cap. 59; and all other Acts relating to the Commercial Gas Light and Coke Company. 5 and 6 Vic., cap. 36; and all other Acts relating to the Equitable Gas Light Company. 14 and 15 Vic., cap. 69, and all other Acts relating to the Great Central Gas Consumers Company. 10 Geo. IV., cap. 118; 27 and 28 Vic., cap. 162; and all other Acts relating to the Independent Gas Light and Coke Company. 15 and 16 Vic., cap. 82; 20 and 21 Vic., cap. 73; the London Gas Light Act, 1866: and all other Acts relating to the London Gas Light Company. 5 Geo. IV., cap. 78; 27 and 28 Vic., cap. 159; and all other Acts relating to the Phoenix Gas Light and Coke Company, 4 Geo. 4, cap. 98; 17 and 18 Vic., cap. 213; 18 and 19 Vic., cap. 12; and all other Acts relating to the Ratcliffe Gas Light and Coke Company. 15 and 16 Vic., cap. 42; 17 and 18 Vic., cap. 94; 18 and 19 Vic., cap. 186; 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 37; and all other Acts relating to the Surrey Consumers' Gas Company; 5 and 6 Vic., cap. 79; 28 and 29 Vic., cap. 14; 32 and 33 Vic., cap. 130; and all other Acts relating to the South Metropolitan Gas Light and Coke Company; 1 and 2 Geo. IV., cap. 117; 4 Geo. IV., cap. 95; 10 Geo. IV., cap. 12; 17 and 18 Vic., cap. 55; 29 and 30 Vic., cap. 352; 32 and 33 Vic., cap. 128; and all other Acts relating to the Imperial Gas Light and Coke Company. The Crystal Palace District Gas Company's Acts, 1858 and 1862; and all other Acts relating to that Company. The Woolwich, Plumstead, and Charlton Consumers' Gas Company's Acts, 1855 and 1865; and all other Acts relating to that Company; and the Wandsworth and Putney Gas Act, 1856, the Wandsworth and Putney Gas Act, 1866; and all other Acts relating to the Wandsworth and Putney Gas Company. The Woolwich Equitable Gas Company's Act, 1855; and all other Acts relating to that Company. The Brentford Gas Act, 1858; The Brentford Gas Act, 1868; and all other Acts relating to the Brentford Gas Company. The West Ham Gas Company's Act, 1856; The West Ham Gas Company's Act, 1869; and all other Acts relating to the West Ham Gas Company. The Mitcham and Wimbledon Gas Act, 1867; and any other Act relating to the Mitcham and Wimbledon Gas Company. The several articles of association and Acts relating to the Western Gas Light Company Limited. The articles of association of, and all Acts relating to the Eltham Gas Light and Coke Company Limited. The articles of association of, and all Acts relating to the Mitcham, Merton, and Tooting Gas Company. Also to repeal all contracts and agreements entered into between the Companies, or any of them, and any body or persons for supplying gas, or for any other purpose.

To provide for the amalgamation into one or more Companies, by compulsion or agreement, of all or any of the before-mentioned gas Companies, upon terms (failing agreement) to be settled by arbitration, and if Parliament shall so think fit to authorize all or any two or more of the amalgamating Companies to enter into any agreement or agreements in relation to any of the objects of the said Act, and to confirm all or any such agreements as may have been or may be entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges which might in any way prevent or interfere with any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges, and to make such other provisions as may be necessary, proper, or convenient for carrying out the objects of the intended Act, and if need be to dissolve all or some of the Companies, so to be amalgamated and to incorporate a new Company or new Companies, and to vest or provide for the vesting in the new Company, or each of the new Companies respectively, all or some, or some part or parts respectively, of the undertakings, buildings, lands, machinery, mains, pipes, plant, property, and effects of every description of the amalgamating Companies, and all or some of the rights, powers, and privileges of, or belonging to or enjoyed by, the amalgamating Companies respectively, of what nature or kind soever, including the making and recovering of the rates, rents, and charges now leviable by those Companies or any of them, or other rates, rents, and charges in lieu thereof; and for enabling the new Company, or each new Company, to use, exercise, and enjoy all or any of those rights, powers, and privileges.

To make provisions with respect to all or some of the mortgage or bond, or other debts of all or some of the amalgamating Companies respectively, and for the security of all or some of their respective creditors and share and stockholders, and to regulate and define the rights and priority of such creditors, share and stockholders.

To alter the limits of the districts of the Companies or some of such districts, and extend, contract, define, and fix or provide for the extension contraction, and fixing of the limits of the district of the new Company, or of each new Company, and to provide for the reduction, regulation, fixing, and determining of the capital and borrowing powers of the new Company, or of each new Company, and the rights, privileges, preferences, and priorities of the proprietors therein, and of the different classes of such proprietors, as amongst themselves, in the capital of the new Company, or of each new Company, and the application of the revenues of the new Company, or of each new Company, from whatever source derived, and the fulfilment and discharge by the new Company, or by each new Company, of all or some of the contracts, agreements, or arrangements entered into, and liabilities incurred, by the amalgamating Companies, or any of them, or in any way relating to or affecting the limits or district of the new Company, or of each new Company, or any part or parts thereof, or the supply of gas therein.

To regulate and improve the quality and illuminating power of the gas to be supplied within the metropolis and adjacent districts, and the mode in which, and the pressure under which, and the price at which the gas shall be supplied, and the terms and conditions of the supply.

To regulate and improve the mode of testing: the illuminating power and quality of the gas, and to provide for charging the expense attending the same on the gas Companies, or some of them, and local authorities.

To regulate the voluntary and compulsory supply of gas, and meters, and the amount and payment and recovery of gas rents and meter rents.

To alter and regulate the mode of keeping and rendering the accounts of the said Gas Companies, or some of them, and to provide for the inspection, analysis, audit, and publication of their accounts.

To reduce and regulate the capital and borrowing powers of the said Gas Companies, or any of them, and to limit their profits and dividends, and rates of dividend and rates of interest, and to repeal the power to apply surplus profits in the augmentation of previously declared dividends, and to alter and reduce the respective rates, rents, and charges of the said Gas Companies, and to create exemptions from the payment of such rates, rents, and charges.

To appoint officers for all or some of the purposes of the intended Act, and to confer on those officers full powers to enforce the provisions thereof, and to provide for the payment of such officers by the Companies or otherwise; and to repeal, alter, or amend the Act of 1868, with reference to the appointment of a chief gas examiner, and other gas examiners and gas referees, and other officers.

To regulate the property in and the execution of works relating to gas pipes, meters, lamps, and other apparatus for public lighting, and to compel the Companies to supply gas for public purposes by average meter indication.

To provide for the settlement, by arbitration or otherwise, of all differences relating to any of the subject matters of the intended act or incidental thereto.

To authorize the making of bye-laws by an Order in Council or otherwise, for the better regulation of the said Gas Companies, and for ensuring a cheaper and better supply of gas to the metropolis; and to impose penalties for any breach of such bye-laws.

To provide for the more summary recovery of penalties against the Gas Companies.

And all other necessary powers will be inserted in the said Bill for carrying into complete effect the objects and purposes aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that in the event of the proposed Bill being introduced on petition, printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 14th day of November, 1870.

Walsall Improvement and Markets.

Power to Borrow Money; to Widen and Improve Streets; To Purchase Lands by Compulsion; To Compel Sewerage by Owners; Extension of Market; Alteration of Tolls and Regulation and Holding of Markets and Fairs; to Sell and Manufacture Residual Products from from Gas; To Light Streets, &c., beyond Limits; Regulation of Hawkers, &c.; To Remove Nuisances; Consolidation of Debts and Exemption from Rates; To Alter Composition for Rates; Incorporation and Repeal and Amendment of Acts, and other purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following amongst other purposes.

To alter and amend and extend and in part or wholly to repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of "The Walsall Improvement and Market Act, 1848" (hereinafter called "the Act of 1848"), and "The Walsall Improvement and Market Amendment Act, 1850" (hereinafter called "the Act of 1850"), or either of them, and to grant to and confer on the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Walsall (hereinafter called "the Corporation"), and the Commissioners under the Walsall Improvement Act, 1848 (hereinafter called "the Commissioners"), respectively such further and other powers as may be deemed necessary for effecting the several objects and purposes hereinafter mentioned.

To authorize the Commissioners to manufacture all matters and things producible from the residual and other products arising from the manufacture of gas, and to acquire and hold patent rights or licences for the manufacture and distribution of gas, and the realisation and utilisation of residual and other products from gas.

To authorize the Commissioners to light streets, roads, and other public places situate without the limits defined by the Act of 1848 (hereinafter called the limits), where any of the houses or buildings in or adjoining to such streets, roads, or places are, or may be subject to be rated to the Improvement Rate, or are within the said limits, and for such purposes to lay down and fix mains, pipes, lamp posts, and other apparatus in, through, across, upon, under and along any turnpike or other public or private roads, bridges, streets, lanes, canals, railways, watercourses, and other public and private passages and places, and to break up or otherwise interfere with the same.

To confer on the Commissioners further and additional powers for enforcing the payment of arrears of gas rents and charges.

To authorize the Commissioners to execute the following works, namely:—

(a.) To widen Green-lane, in the township of the Foreign of Walsall, in the parish of Walsall, on the eastern side thereof, from a dwelling-house numbered 328, and occupied by Thomas Skellon, for a distance of 115 feet or thereabouts to a dwelling-house occupied by John Roberts.

(b.) To widen Lower Hall-lane, in the township of the borough of Walsall, in the said parish of Walsall, on the south-eastern side thereof from its junction with the street called Digbeth, for a distance of 78 feet or thereabouts, to premises occupied by Joseph Beebe, and from a dwelling-house occupied by John Barnsley (situate about 137 feet from the corner of Digbeth) for a distance of 73 feet or thereabouts, to a dwelling-house occupied by Peter Aspinall.

(c.) To widen and improve Corporation-street, in the said township of the Foreign of Walsall, on the north-eastern side thereof, from a garden in the occupation of Joseph Sadler, situate opposite to the centre of Rutter-street, for a distance of 285 feet or thereabouts, to the termination of such street with Caldmore-road.

(d.) To widen Caldmore-road, in the said township of the foreign of Walsall, on the northern side thereof, from the point of junction of such road with Corporation-street, for a distance of 225 feet or thereabouts, to premises occupied by Joseph Sadler.

(e.) To widen and improve West Bromwich-road, in the said township of the Foreign of Walsall, on the north-eastern side thereof, from the western corner of a dwelling-house, numbered 20, in the occupation of Isaac Stanton, for a distance of 104 feet, or thereabouts, to a dwelling-house numbered 21, in the occupation of Peter Fullard; also from gardens occupied by Elizabeth Phillips and John Longstaff, for a distance of 80 feet or thereabouts, to a dwelling house in the occupation of Thomas Woodward, and to widen the same road on the south-western side thereof, from its junction with Spout-lane, for a distance of 170 feet or thereabouts to a dwelling house numbered 39, in the occupation of Sarah Dutton, all of which said streets, roads, lanes, and places, are situate in the parish of Walsall, in the said county of Stafford.

And to purchase by compulsion or agreement lands, houses, and buildings, for the purposes of widening, enlarging, altering, and improving such streets, roads, lanes, and places, and for other purposes.

To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges in any way connected with the lands, houses, and property proposed to be purchased, which would in any manner impede or interfere with any of the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To deviate laterally from the lines of the intended works to the extent shewn on the plans hereinafter mentioned.

To extend and enlarge the limits of the market place, within which the present market for the sale of meat, vegetables, and other like commodities is by the Act of 1850 authorized to be held, and to extend to such market, when so extended or enlarged, all the powers now in force for the taking, receiving, and levying of stallage, rents, tolls, and other charges for the use and occupation of, and sale within such market or market place.

To authorize the Corporation to let spaces within the said market or market place for stalls or standings for limited periods, and to fix the terms and conditions of such letting, and from time to time to fix and determine the limits and the situation and placing of all standing places, stalls, booths, waggons, carts, trucks, stands, and other conveniences and appliances for the sale and exposure of goods for sale within the said market or market place, and to provide, and fix such open spaces in the said market or market place free and clear from stalls and other obstructions as from time to time may be deemed necessary or expedient, and to fix and regulate the use, conduct, and management of the markets and fairs, the holding and duration of the same, the sale and disposition of animals and goods, and the conduct of persons having the charge thereof, and to prevent the bringing in, driving, or conveying of any diseased cattle or animal within the said borough or the limits of the said Act, and the exposure and offering for sale thereof.

To prohibit and restrict, or better regulate the hawking, sale, and exposure for sale on market days of any articles or things in streets and other public places not within the authorized market place, and to alter the times at which fairs are now held, and for fixing the times and providing for the holding of future fairs.

To authorize the Corporation to alter and vary the existing rents, tolls, stallage, and other charges now demanded or taken for the use of the markets and fairs, and to take other tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the markets and fairs as may be authorized or extended, or held under the powers of the proposed Bill, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rents, tolls, stallage, and other charges, and to vary or extinguish any rights and privileges which can in any way interfere with the objects and purposes of the said Bill, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

To compel the owners of lands and houses in any street, road, or place (not being a highway repairable by the Commissioners) to sewer, drain, flag, pave, and macadamize such street, road, or place to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, and in default to enable the Commissioners to sewer, drain, flag, pave, and macadamize such streets, roads, or places, and to charge and levy the costs and expenses thereof on such owners.

To alter the mode of making, levying, and assessing of the improvement rates within the limits of the said Act so far as relates to tenements let to weekly or monthly tenants or ready furnished or in separate apartments, where the rateable value of such tenements shall be above eight pounds per annum, and to exempt and exclude such tenements, and the owners and occupiers thereof from the provisions of the 29th section of the Act of 1850, and to repeal, alter, or amend the provisions of such Act, so far as may be necessary for effecting such objects.

To prevent nuisances from smoke and noisome gases, gambling, pitch and toss, and offences against decency and morality, and other nuisances and offences within the said limits, and to make sanitary and other regulations and provisions for the good government of the district within the said limits and of the said borough.

To borrow further money for the several objects and purposes mentioned in the said Bill, and for the purpose of drainage and sewerage works and other general purposes of the Commissioners upon the security of their lands and property, and upon the improvement rates, and to charge such money when borrowed, together with the money already borrowed, and the interest on such moneys on such improvement rates, and to provide for the repayment of such moneys by a sinking fund or otherwise, within a limited period, and to exempt the property within the said limits from all liability to sewer rates.

To incorporate or extend and make applicable to the purposes and objects of the said Bill, all or some of the existing powers and authorities now vested in the Corporation and the Commissioners respectively, under "The Walsall Improvement and Market Act, 1848;" "The Walsall Improvement and Market Amendment Act, 1850," and the several Acts incorporated therewith, also all or some of the powers and provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1860 and 1869;" "The Railways Clauses Act, 1845;" "The Public Health Act, 1843," "The Local Government Act, 1858;" and all other Acts amending or extending all or any of the Acts hereinbefore specified, or any of the provisions thereof respectively.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the several street widenings and other improvements, and of the lands, houses, and buildings to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees and occupiers of such lands, houses, and buildings, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, at his office at Stafford, in the said county, and that a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, together with a copy of the said Gazette notice will, on or before the said 30th day of November instant, be deposited with the parish clerk of the parish of Walsall, at his residence.

Printed copies of the said intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 10th day of November, 1870.

A Railway (to be called the Bettws and Festiniog Railway No. 2"), to be situate wholly in the parish of Festiniog, in the county of Merioneth, and to commence by a junction with the said intended Bettws and Festiniog Railway No. 1, at or near the intended termination thereof above described, and to terminate by a junction with the Rhiw Bach Tramway, at a point thereon three hundred and twenty yards or thereabouts in a northerly direction from the Weighing Machine House between the middle and lower inclines on that Tramway ;

To authorise the construction of the said intended Bettws and Festiniog Railways No. 1 and No. 2 on a gauge of two feet, or such other gauge as may be provided for by the intended Act, and so far as may be necessary to alter and amend the provisions of the Act 9 and Vict., cap. 57 :

To empower the Company to widen and improve and lay down an additional line of rails upon or in connection with their Bangor and Carnarvon Railway, the same to commence in the parish of Bangor, in the county of Carnarvon, at or near the junction of that Railway with the Chester and Holyhead Railway of the Company, and to terminate in the parish of Llanbeblig, in the same county, near to and on the south-east side of the engine-house at the Carnarvon Station of the Company, and to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them (that is to say) : Bangor, Llanfair-ys-gaer, and Llanbeblig, all in the county of Carnarvon :

To empower the Company to levy, demand, and recover tolls, rates, and charges for or in respect of the said intended Railways, and to grant exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and charges :

To empower the Company (for the purpose of connecting their station land at the North Wall, Dublin, with the Railways of the Dublin and Drogheda Railway and the Midland Great Western Railway (of Ireland) Companies) to alter and raise the levels of so much of the carriage way and footpaths of Upper Sheriff-street, in the parish of Saint Thomas, in the county of the city of Dublin, as extends from a point on that street one hundred yards or thereabouts east of the junction of that street with Wapping-street, to another point thereon fifty yards or thereabouts east of the point where Upper Sheriff-street crosses the Royal Canal, and to carry the same over the present site of that portion of Upper Sheriff-street partly by means of arching or other openings and partly by embankment ; and to appropriate to and use for the purposes of their undertaking the present site of the portion of Upper Sheriff-street above described, and to extinguish all rights of way over the same ; and to empower the Company to alter and raise the levels of so much of Wapping-street, in the said parish of Saint Thomas, Dublin, as extends for a distance of eighty yards or thereabouts from the junction of that street with Upper Sheriff-street, and of so much of Abercorn-road, in the same parish, as extends for a distance of seventy yards or thereabouts from the junction of that road with Upper Sheriff-street :

To empower the Company to stop up and discontinue and extinguish all rights of way over and appropriate to the purposes of their undertaking the portions of road and footpath in the parish of Saint Thomas, in the county of the city of Dublin, next hereinafter described, or some part or parts thereof (that is to say) :—

So much of Church-road as extends from a point thereon twenty-five yards or thereabouts south-west of the junction of Blythe's-avenue with the said road to the junction of that road with Upper Sheriff-street, and so much of the public footpath from West-road to Church-road as lies contiguous to, and on the eastern side of the Liffey Branch of the Midland Great Western Railway (of Ireland) :

To empower the Company to stop up and discontinue and extinguish all rights of way over so much of a certain footpath in the township and parish of Prescot, in the county of Lancaster, leading from Shaw-lane to and into the turnpike-road from Prescot to Rainhill, at a point on that road near the bridge by which it is carried over the Huyton and Saint Helen's Branch Railway of the Company now in course of construction as extends from a point on that footpath one hundred and thirty-five yards or thereabouts, in a northerly direction, from its junction with Shaw-lane four hundred yards or thereabouts east of the bridge carrying Shaw-lane over the said Branch Railway to another point on the same footpath four hundred and fifty yards or thereabouts, in a northerly direction, from its said junction with Shaw-lane, and so much of another footpath, in the same township and parish, as extends from the last-mentioned point on the footpath first above described to and into Hall-lane, at a point thereon one hundred and seventy yards, in a northerly direction, from the said bridge; and to provide for the substitution in lieu of the portions of footpath so to be stopped up of other footpaths from the point first above described, and from Hall-lane, respectively, to the point secondly above described, and there joining the footpath leading to the turnpike-road above-mentioned:

To empower the Company to make a new footpath or highway to be wholly situate in the township of Clifton, in the parish of Runcorn, in the county of Chester, commencing from and out of the public highway leading from Clifton or Rock Savage to the public road from Weston to Heath House and Runcorn, at a point thereon a quarter of a mile or thereabouts north-west of Clifton or Rock Savage aforesaid, and terminating by a junction with the footpath from Weston to Halton, which, after crossing over the Aston and Runcorn Railway of the Company, falls into the first-named highway half-a-mile or thereabouts north-west of Clifton or Rock Savage aforesaid at a point on the said footpath from Weston to Halton five hundred and fifty yards or thereabouts north-east of the said crossing of the Aston and Runcorn Railway; and another new footpath in the same township commencing from and out of the before-mentioned intended footpath, at a point thereon ninety yards or thereabouts north-east of the point above described as the commencement thereof, and terminating by a junction with an existing footpath at the authorised junction of the Company's Frodsham Branch Railway (now in course of construction) with their Aston and Runcorn Railway; and to empower the Company to stop up and continue as footpaths or public highways so much and such parts of the existing footpaths or public highways as lie between or within the points aforesaid, or as may be rendered unnecessary by reason of the construction of the said intended new footpaths; and to vest in and appropriate to the purposes of the Company so much and such parts of the said existing footpaths or highways as lie between the boundaries of the Company's property:

To empower the Company to make two new roads, to be wholly situate in the township of Hatton, in the parish of Waverton, in the county of Chester, one of such roads commencing from and out of the public road leading from Hatton to Hargrave at a point thereon one hundred and seventy-six yards or thereabouts south-west of the bridge carrying that road over the Chester and Crewe Railway of the Company, and terminating by a junction with the public carriage road from Hatton Heath to the public carriage road from Hatton to Newton at a point thereon two hundred yards or thereabouts east of Hatton Hall Farm House; and the other of such new roads commencing by a junction with the said public carriage road from Hatton Heath at or near the termination above described of the first of such new roads, and terminating by a junction with the said public carriage road from Hatton Heath at a point thereon four hundred and forty yards or thereabouts west of the junction of that road with the before-mentioned public road from Hatton to Newton; and to empower the Company to stop up and discontinue as public roads or highways, and extinguish all rights of way over so much and such parts of the before-mentioned existing public roads or highways as lie between the commencement and termination of the two intended new roads respectively, or as will be rendered unnecessary by reason of the construction thereof; and to appropriate to the purposes of the Company such part or parts of the said public road from Hatton to Hargrave as lie between the boundaries of the Company's property:

To empower the Company to alter the levels of so much of the public carriage road leading from Bilston to Sedgley, in the township and parish of Sedgley, in the county of Stafford, as extends from a point thereon twenty-five yards or thereabouts east of the level crossing of that road by the Stour Valley Railway of the Company known as the Teu Score level crossing to another point thereon twenty-five yards or thereabouts west of the said level crossing; and also to alter the levels of so much of the public highway leading out of the said public carriage road on the east side of and adjoining the said Railway towards Deepfields, as extends from the said public carriage road for a distance of thirty yards or thereabouts; and to empower the Company to stop up and discontinue, and to vest in and appropriate to the purposes of the Company, so much of the said public carriage road as lies between the boundaries of the Company's property:

To empower the Company to make a new road to be situate wholly in the parish of Bulkington, in the county of Warwick, commencing from and out of the public carriage road from Bulkington to Bedworth at a point thereon two hundred yards or thereabouts east of the booking office of the Bulkington Station on the Trent Valley Railway of the Company, and terminating at another point on the same road four yards or thereabouts west of the said booking office; and to empower the Company to stop up and discontinue as a public carriage road, and to vest in and appropriate to the purposes of the Company, so much of the said public carriage road as lies between the points aforesaid; and to empower the Company to acquire, by compulsion or agreement, and to hold certain lands, houses, and buildings in the said parish of Bulkington lying between the points aforesaid, and adjoining the portion of road so intended to be stopped up:

to pass an Act for one or more of the following purposes; that is to say:—

1. To empower the Justices of the Peace for the county of Surrey to erect and maintain upon the lands belonging to the said Justices, in or adjoining to Union-road, formerly called Horse-monger-lane, in the parish of St. Mary, Newington, in the said county, or upon other lands belonging to or to be purchased and acquired by the said Justices in the said county, an office or building for depositing the records and other documents of the said county, and for the discharge by the Clerk of the Peace of the said county of his official duties.

2. To enable the said Justices to enlarge and improve the present Sessions House, County Gaol, and the several offices connected therewith, in the said parish of St. Mary, Newington, and to purchase and acquire lands by agreement in the said county.

3. To empower the said Justices to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the present County Record Office and residence of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Surrey; and the several offices and buildings connected therewith, and the yards, gardens, and appurtenances thereto belonging, respectively situate in the parish of St. Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and bounded on the north by the road or street called North-street, on the south by the road or street called Lambeth-road, on the east by the road or street called Kennington-road, and on the west by the road or street called Morton-place or North-street; or to pull down and remove the said offices, residence, and buildings respectively, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the site thereof.

4. To enable the said Justices to levy a county rate, or other rates and charges, or to apply monies in their hands, or rates now leviable by them, for the several objects and purposes of the intended Act, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payments of rates and charges; and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

5. To empower the said Justices to borrow money upon the credit of the rates now leviable within the county by the said Justices, or upon the credit of the rates and charges to be levied under the powers of the intended Act; and to apply any moneys belonging to the said Justices, or which shall be under their control, for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the intended Act, and particularly the monies to arise by the sale of the site of the said Record Office and Residence of the said Clerk of the Peace, or to raise money by way of annuity or otherwise.

6. To repeal or consolidate, alter, amend, extend and enlarge, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the said intended Act, the several Acts following, or some of them, that is to say:—an Act passed in the 31st year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building a new Common Gaol and Session House, with accommodations thereto, for the county of Surrey, and for disposing of the present County Gaol, and the Ground thereto belonging;" an Act passed in the 55th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable the Justices of the Peace for the county of Surrey to provide a proper place for depositing and preserving the Public Records of the said county, together with a Residence for the Clerk of the Peace, for the safe custody of such Records, and convenient Offices for transacting his business, and also to settle a Table of Fees to be taken by such Clerk of the Peace;" and all other Acts, charters, or grants which may be necessary for the objects and purposes of the said Bill. And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 21st day of December, 1870, printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Hornsey Local Board.

(Power to construct a Main Sewer from Tottenham-lane to the Northern High Level Sewer; Agreements with the Metropolitan Board of Works; Extension of Provisions of the Acts relating to the Government of the Metropolis, the Public Health and Local Government Acts, to the District of the Local Board; Contributions by the parish of Hornsey or the Hornsey Local Board, and the South Hornsey Local Board, towards the Maintenance of the Metropolitan Main Drainage; Powers to the Metropolitan Board of Works; Power to levy Rates and to alter existing Rates; Amendment of Acts; and other Purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Hornsey Local Board (hereinafter called "the Local Board") propose to apply to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to introduce a Bill and to pass an Act to effect the objects and purposes following, or some of them; viz. :—

To empower the Local Board to make and maintain a sewer to be wholly situate in the parishes of Stoke Newington and Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex, and to commence at or near a point in Tottenham-lane, 216 feet or thereabouts measured in an easterly direction from Hornsey Park-road, in the said parish of Hornsey, and terminating by a junction with the Northern High Level Sewer of the Metropolitan Board of Works, at a point about 28 feet west of the Ordnance Bench-mark on the pillar of the gateway to No. 8, Manor-road, in the said parish of Stoke Newington, and to make and maintain all necessary outfalls, sluices, flood-gates, catch-water drains, banks, and other works and conveniences connected with the said intended sewer, and for draining and cleansing the district under their control, and to alter the existing sewers and drains within or adjoining their district.

To enable the Local Board and the Metropolitan Board of Works to enter into contracts and agreements with reference to the proposed new sewer and the junction thereof with the Northern High Level Sewer of the Metropolitan Board of Works, and for the use of such last-mentioned sewer by the Local Board, and generally for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the intended Act, and to confirm any existing agreements with reference thereto.

To extend to the district of the Local Board, all or any of the provisions of the several Acts empowering the Metropolitan Board of Works; and of such other Acts relating to the government of the Metropolis as the said Local Board shall think fit, or which may be necessary for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the intended Act, and which provisions (with or without modification) will be set forth or referred to in the said Bill.

To purchase, and if need be by compulsion, the lands which may be required in the making and maintaining of the above-mentioned sewer and works, and to alter, vary, and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which may in any way interfere with the attainment of all or any of the before-mentioned objects, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To levy and collect rates and charges upon the lands and property within the district of the Local Board for constructing the works to be authorized under the powers of the intended Act, and for paying compensation to the Metropolitan Board of Works for the right of draining into their Northern High Level Sewer, and for otherwise carrying into effect the hereinbefore-mentioned objects and purposes of the said Bill, and to apply existing rates and any monies under the control of the Local Board to any of such objects and purposes; and to borrow money upon the credit of such rates and charges respectively for such objects and purposes.

To enable the South Hornsey Local Board to levy and collect rates and charges within their district (in addition to any rates and charges which they are now empowered to levy and collect), for contributing towards the before-mentioned compensation to the Metropolitan Board of Works and the Main Drainage of the Metropolis, and to create exemptions from the payment of rates and charges, and to extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates and charges; and to enable the said South Hornsey Local Board to borrow money upon the credit of such rates and charges respectively, for any of the objects and purposes aforesaid.

To enable the Metropolitan Board of Works to levy and collect a rate or rates throughout the whole of the parish of Hornsey forming the district of the Local Board and the district of the South Hornsey Local Board, or any part of such parish, such rates to be limited to the amount to be set forth in the said Bill, or determined by Parliament, as a fair and proper contribution by the said parish, or portion of the said parish, towards the maintenance of the Main Drainage of the Metropolis, and for that purpose and for all other purposes of the intended Act, the several powers vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works within the Metropolis, may be exercised in all or any part of the said parish; and to enable the Metropolitan Board of Works, and the Local Board and the South Hornsey Local Board, or any two of them, to enter into contracts and agreements with respect to the levying and collecting of such last-mentioned rates, or for paying an annual rent or sum in gross in lieu of such rate or rates, and for that purpose to enable the Local Board and the South Hornsey Local Board, or either of such Boards to levy and collect rates and charges, in addition to the rates and charges which they are now respectively empowered to levy, or to apply any authorized rates for that purpose, and to alter the existing rates and charges leviable in the said parish, and to create exemptions from the payment of rates and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

The Act will or may incorporate with itself the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869, or some parts of those Acts.

So far as may be necessary for all or any of the objects and purposes aforesaid the intended Act will repeal, alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, or some of them; that is to say:—18 and 19 Vic., cap. 120; 21 and 22 Vic., cap. 104; 25 and 26 Vic., cap. 102; 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 68; 28 and 29 Vic., cap. 19; and 32 and 33 Vic., cap. 102, relating to the Metropolitan Board of Works, and any other Acts relating to that Board.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant duplicate plans, shewing the line and situation of the proposed new sewer, and duplicate sections shewing the levels thereof, and a book of reference containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the property for the purchase of which powers will be sought, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office, at Clerkenwell; and that, on or before the same day, a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, and notice, will be deposited for public inspection with the respective parish clerks of Stoke Newington and Hornsey, at their respective places of abode.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1870.

Tees Conservancy.

(Alteration of the Constitution of "The Tees Conservancy Commissioners;" Amendment of Acts, and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill, and to pass an Act to carry into effect all or some of the following, amongst other purposes:—

To alter the constitution of the Tees Conservancy Commissioners," as constituted and appointed by "The Tees Conservancy and Stockton Dock Act, 1852" (hereinafter called "the Act of 1852"), and the qualification of such Commissioners, and to increase or reduce the number of the said Commissioners, and the number of the Commissioners to be appointed under the Act of 1852, or any Act or Acts amending the same by the Council of the Borough of Middlesbrough, the Council of the Borough of Stockton, the persons rated to the relief of the poor of the parish of Yarm in Vestry assembled, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or any of them, and to repeal or extinguish the right of any of the last-mentioned bodies and persons to appoint Commissioners under the Act of 1852, or to reduce the number which they are respectively empowered to appoint, and to enable the said Bodies and Persons to appoint additional Commissioners, and to confer upon other bodies and persons the power of appointing Commissioners under the said Acts, and to make such other provision with reference to the appointment and qualification of Commissioners for the Conservancy of the River Tees, as shall be defined in the said Bill.

To vary or extinguish all rights, powers, or privileges which would be inconsistent or interfere with the objects or purposes of the intended

Act, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

So far as may be necessary for the objects and purposes of the proposed Bill, it is intended to amend or repeal, wholly or in part, the provisions of the Local and Personal Acts following (that is to say), "The Tees Conservancy and Stockton Dock Act, 1852," "The Tees Conservancy Act, 1854," "The Tees Conservancy Act, 1859," "The Tees Conservancy Act, 1863," and "The Tees Conservancy Act, 1867," and any other Act or Acts relating to the River Tees or to the election or appointment of Tees Conservancy Commissioners.

And Notice is hereby further given, that on or before the twenty-first day of December next printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.
