NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, S.W., December 1, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of the tonnage bounty and proceeds for a slave dhow, name unknown, captured on the 23rd April, 1869, by Her Majesty's ship "Daphne," will commence on Tuesday, the 13th instant, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Personal applications by persons entitled to share, and by agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor serving in the above-named ship, are to be made at the Prize Branch of the Admiralty, Somerset House.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person, who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, S.W.," (enclosing his certificate of service, or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of Commissioned Officers),—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of prize money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes:—

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of certain tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting to eleven pounds and sixteen shillings per annum, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Ruishton, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Ruishton, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of eight pounds twelve shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, and of "The Bishop Wearmouth Rectory Act, 1867" (30 Victoria, chapter 26, section 13), do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Thomas, Bishop Wearmouth, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

[This Instrument is substituted for that relating to the same Benefice, which was published in the London Gazette on the 18th November, 1870, page 4933.]

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the incumbent of the vicarage of Upleadon, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those annual tithe commutation rent charges which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said tithe commutation rent charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always that the said tithe commutation rent charges shall be and be held to be charged and chargeable at all times for ever hereafter in exoneration of all other property whatsoever, now or formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Gloucester, with the liability to repair and maintain the chancel of the church of the parish of Upleadon aforesaid; and provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said tithe commutation rent charges as from the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

West Bromwich and Walsall Railway (Abandonment).

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850," and "The Railway Companies Act, 1867," Arthur Pratt Barlow, one of the persons named in "The West Bromwich and Walsall Railway Act, 1866," incorporating the West Bromwich and Walsall Railway Company as a member or Director thereof, and the sole person named in the Warrant or Order directing payment of the Parliamentary deposit for securing the completion of the undertaking called "The West Bromwich and Walsall Railway" has made application in writing to the Board of Trade, setting forth that the said Arthur Pratt Barlow is desirous that the said Railway by the said Act authorized to be made should be abandoned.

The Railway is further described as:—

"No. 1. A Railway (three miles five furlongs and about eight chains in length), commencing by a junction with the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Dudley Line of the Great Western Railway, in the parish of West Bromwich, at or near a point about seventy-three yards north-west of an occupation bridge on the said Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Dudley Line, and terminating in the parish of West Bromwich, in a certain wood called Friars Park Wood.

"Railway No. 2 (four furlongs and 3·37 chains in length) commencing in the said parish of West Bromwich, by a junction with Railway No. 1, at the termination of that Railway, and terminating in the said parish of West Bromwich, by a junction with the Grand Junction Line of the London and North-Western Railway, at a point shown upon a certain plan signed by the respective Engineers of the two Companies."

And notice is hereby further given, that any person who may think himself aggrieved by such proposed abandonment of the said Railway, and who may desire to object thereto, may bring such objection before the Board of Trade, by sending a written statement thereof by post on or before the 18th day of January next, addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, London, S.W.

Dated this 29th day of November, 1870.
