Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1871.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 6, 1871.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 28th of March next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 10, 1871.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 22nd of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at these Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 9th day of March, 1871.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord Privy Seal.
Mr. Secretary Bruce.
Mr. Forster.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1869,) and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one; and words in this Order have the same meaning as in the Act of 1869.

2. Cattle brought from any place in the territory of the French Republic or from any place in Belgium, shall not be landed at any port or place in Great Britain.

3. Cattle, sheep, or goats being or having been on board any vessel at the same time with any cattle brought from any such place as aforesaid, shall not be landed at any port or place in Great Britain.

4. The following articles brought from any such place as aforesaid, shall not be landed at any port or place in Great Britain;—

Fresh meat; fresh hides; unmelted fat; hoofs; horns; manure; or hay.

Whitehall, March 9, 1871.

The Queen has been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland constituting and appointing the Right Honourable George Joachim Göschen; Admiral Sir Sydney Colpoys Dacres, K.C.B.; Captain Robert Hall, R.N., C.B.; Captain John Hay (commonly called Lord John Hay), R.N., C.B.; and the Right Honourable Robert Adam Philips Haldane, Earl of Camperdown; to be Her Majesty's Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the said United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions, Islands, and Territories thereunto belonging.

Whitehall, March 9, 1871.

The Queen has been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal appointing the Right Honourable James Stansfeld to be Poor Law Commissioner for England.

St. James's Palace, March 6, 1871.

The Queen has been pleased, on the nomination of the Marquis of Normanby, to appoint Theodore Williams, Esq., late Lieutenant 10th Hussars, one of Her Majesty's Honourable Corps of Gentlemen - at - Arms, vice Captain Thomas Howard, resigned.

St. James's Palace, March 10, 1871.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint John Smith, Esq., M.D., to be Surgeon-Dentist to Her Majesty in Scotland.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the decoration of the "Albert Medal of the Second Class" on:—

LIEUTENANT WILLIAM BALFOUR FORBES, R.N.,
of Her Majesty's ship "Rapid."

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the decoration has been conferred:—

On the night of the 17th of September last, whilst Her Majesty's ship "Rapid" was proceeding from Tarrogon to Gibraltar, a boy fell from the main yard-arm, and in his fall struck his head against the gunwale of one of the boats, and was thereby rendered insensible. SUB-LIEUTENANT WILLIAM BALFOUR FORBES (now LIEUTENANT), at once, and in the dark, jumped overboard, and seized him and persisted in keeping him up at imminent risk to his own life, for when the ship's boat, which was lowered to pick them up, reached them, SUB-LIEUTENANT FORBES was quite exhausted, and with the boy was under water.

Had the boat arrived a minute later both would have been drowned.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 9, 1871.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, reporting that, in consequence of the appearance of small-pox at Havre, all vessels arriving thence at Spanish ports, and coming under the provisions of Article 30 of the Sanitary Law, will be subjected to three days' quarantine of observation. Vessels from Havre that are without the pale of the said Article will be sent to a foul lazaretto.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens,
March 9, 1871.*

THE Board of Trade have been informed, by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, that a Despatch has been received from Her Majesty's Consul at Havre, reporting that no impediment is placed by either the French or German authorities to vessels going up the Seine to Rouen, and that several vessels have gone up to that city and returned therefrom.

Admiralty, March 7, 1871.

NAVAL KNIGHTS OF WINDSOR.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby give notice to such Lieutenants in Her Majesty's Navy, and to such Lieutenants of the Royal Navy retired with the rank of Commander, as are desirous of being recommended for the appointment of Naval Knight of Windsor, under the will of the late Samuel Travers, Esq., that they must apply at this office, either personally or by letter, on or before the 7th day of April next, when they will be informed of the nature of the certificates and testimonials which are required to shew that they come within the meaning of the will, an extract from which is herewith appended.

"These gentlemen are to be superannuated or "disabled Lieutenants of English men-of-war, single men, without children, inclined to lead a virtuous, studious, and devout life; to be removed if they give occasion of scandal."

By the Act 30 and 31 Victoria, cap. 100, widowers are deemed single men within the meaning of the will in question.

“METROPOLITAN PUBLIC CARRIAGE ACT, 1869.”

ORDER made in pursuance of “The Metropolitan Public Carriage Act, 1869,” 32 & 33 Vict. cap. 115, by the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State.

March 10, 1871.

In pursuance of the Metropolitan Public Carriage Act, 1869, I order as follows :

1. In this Order the terms “Hackney Carriage” and “Stage Carriage” are used as respectively defined in the Metropolitan Public Carriage Act, 1869.

The term “Public Carriage” includes both a Hackney Carriage and a Stage Carriage.

The term “Commissioner” means Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis.

The term “Fare” means the total sum which the driver of a Hackney Carriage, that has been hired, is entitled under this Order to charge for the hiring at the close thereof.

The term “Four Mile Circle” shall mean a circle of which the centre is Charing Cross, and the circumference is described by a radius of four miles in length.

Regulations as to Licensing Hackney and Stage Carriages.

2. A Hackney Carriage Licence or a Stage Carriage Licence shall be granted to any person by the Commissioner, subject to the following exceptions :

(a.) A Licence shall not be granted to any person under the age of 21 years, or to any person who shall have been previously convicted of felony ; and any Licence so granted shall be void.

(b.) The Commissioner may at his discretion refuse a Licence to any person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor, or who, having previously held a Licence for a Hackney or Stage Carriage, has had such previous Licence revoked or suspended.

3. A person desirous to obtain a Hackney Carriage Licence, or a Stage Carriage Licence, shall make application to the office of the Commissioner.

Such application, if for a Hackney Carriage Licence, shall be in the form contained in Schedule A hereto ; or, if for a Stage Carriage Licence, shall be in the form contained in Schedule B hereto.

4. The price of a Hackney Carriage Licence or a Stage Carriage Licence is £2.

5. The applicant, on presenting his application for a Licence, shall pay the said sum of £2 to the Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District, or to some person whom such Receiver shall appoint.

6. The said Receiver shall then cause such application to be returned to the applicant, together with a receipt for the sum of £2.

7. The applicant shall then bring the carriage to which he desires that the Licence shall attach to the Police Station of the District, for examination by the Inspector of Public Carriages ; and shall, at the same time, deliver to the said Inspector the said application and receipt. The said Inspector, if he shall find such carriage fit for public use, shall cause a metal plate, bearing the number which is to distinguish such carriage, and hereinafter called the number plate, to be affixed thereto in his presence, and shall sign a certificate in the form contained in Schedule C. hereto.

Such number plate shall be fixed, in the case of a four-wheeled Hackney Carriage, on the back panel thereof ; in the case of a two-wheeled Hackney Carriage, on the spring-block on the back, under the driver’s seat ; and, in the case of a Stage Carriage, on the back thereof.

8. In the case of a Hackney Carriage, the said Inspector shall at the same time cause to be affixed to the carriage a plate (hereinafter called the fare plate) setting forth such particulars as to fares as are to be set forth upon the obverse side of the ticket hereinafter required to be delivered by the driver to the hirer. Such fare plate shall be affixed in the case of a four-wheeled Hackney Carriage in the inside underneath the front windows ; in the case of a two-wheeled Hackney Carriage on the inside of the splash board.

9. A Licence shall thereupon be issued to the applicant.

10. A Hackney Carriage Licence shall be in the form contained in Schedule D to this Order ; and a Stage Carriage Licence shall be in the form contained in Schedule E hereto.

11. An application for a Licence on behalf of any Co-partnership or Company shall be made by and such Licence shall be issued to the senior partner, or to the Secretary or Manager of the Company, as the case may be ; and the person to whom a Licence shall be so issued shall be responsible for the observance of the conditions under which the Licence is granted, and shall be liable to all penalties for breeches of such conditions as if he were the person solely interested in the Licence.

12. A Licence for a Hackney or Stage Carriage shall continue in force for one year from the date of such Licence, unless suspended or revoked ; and such Licence shall be subject to revocation or suspension for any period by the Commissioner in any of the events in which any Hackney or Stage Carriage Licence might have been suspended or revoked at the time of the passing of the said

Metropolitan Public Carriage Act, 1869 ; and shall also be subject to revocation and suspension by the Commissioner in the event of the Licencee (hereinafter called the Proprietor) committing a breach of the said Metropolitan Public Carriage Act, 1869, or of this Order, or being convicted of felony or a misdemeanour.

13. The Proprietor of a Public Carriage, who shall during the currency of the Licence change his Address, shall, within seven days from such change, bring his Licence to the Office of the Commissioner, and the Commissioner shall thereupon endorse the Licence with the new Address, and erase the former Address therefrom.

The address mentioned in the Licence shall, for all purposes connected with the Licence, be deemed to be the address of the Proprietor of the Public Carriage to which such Licence refers.

The words "mentioned in the Licence" shall, according as the Licence bears no endorsement of alteration of address, or bears one such endorsement, or bears several such endorsements, mean mentioned in the body of the Licence, or mentioned in such endorsement, or mentioned in the last of such endorsements.

14. In case of the death of any Proprietor during the currency of his Licence, the Licence may be brought to the Office of the Commissioner, and the Commissioner may by endorsement thereon transfer the Licence to the personal representatives of the deceased Proprietor, or to his widow or child, if such child is of age. In like manner in case of the Marriage of a Female Proprietor during the currency of her Licence, her Licence may be transferred to her Husband.

15. The Proprietor of a Public Carriage—

- (1.) Shall not knowingly permit his Public Carriage to be used for any illegal purpose.
- (2.) Shall not erase or deface his Licence.
- (3.) Shall at all times, when required, produce his Licence to the Commissioner.
- (4.) Shall at all reasonable times allow to all persons appointed by the Commissioner, and producing a special order from the Commissioner, free access to his premises, for the purpose of inspecting the Public Carriage to which the Licence relates, the horses used for drawing the same carriage, and their harness.
- (5.) Shall within three days after a Notice shall have been delivered to him personally, or left at the address mentioned in his Licence, or otherwise within three days after the expiration of the period for which his Licence shall have been granted, deliver up his Licence to the Inspector of Public Carriages at the Police Station of the District within which the place of his address, mentioned in the Licence, is situate, and shall bring the Public Carriage to the same Police Station, in order that the Number Plate may be unfixed and delivered up to the Inspector of Public Carriages.

If any Proprietor act in contravention of, or fail to comply with any of the Regulations contained in this section, he shall be deemed to have committed a breach of this Order.

16. Any Licence erased or defaced shall be void.

17. It shall not be lawful for the Proprietor, or Driver, or Conductor of a Stage Carriage to conceal or remove the Number Plate, or to alter or obliterate any number or mark thereupon.

It shall not be lawful for the Proprietor or the Driver of a Hackney Carriage to conceal or remove either the Number Plate or the fare Plate thereof, or to alter or obliterate any number or mark on either such Number Plate or fare Plate.

If any Proprietor of a Public Carriage, Driver or Conductor of a Stage Carriage, or Driver of a Hackney Carriage act in contravention of any of the Regulations contained in this section he shall be deemed to have committed a breach of this Order.

Regulations as to Hackney Carriages.

18. The Proprietor shall cause to be painted at the back of the Hackney Carriage, on the outside, the number of persons which the Hackney Carriage is licenced to carry.

If the Proprietor suffers his Hackney Carriage to ply for hire without such number so painted, he shall be deemed to have committed a breach of this Order.

19. If a Hackney Carriage carry a greater number of persons than the number which it is licensed to carry, the Driver, and also the Proprietor, if he be cognizant of the fact, shall be deemed to have committed a breach of this Order.

For the purpose of this Regulation, two Children under 10 years of age shall count for one person.

20. The Hiring shall be by Distance or by Time as the Hirer may express at the commencement of the Hiring, but unless so expressed to be by Time, shall be taken to be by Distance.

21. The Fare for the hiring of a Hackney Carriage which is both hired and discharged within the Four Mile Circle shall be regulated as follows :

- (1.) Where the hiring is by Distance, then, whether the Hackney Carriage is a four-wheeled Carriage or a two-wheeled Carriage, the fare shall be—

	s.	d.
(a.) If the distance does not exceed two miles—
For the whole distance - - - - -	1	0
(b.) If the distance exceeds two miles—
For each mile of the whole distance - - - - -	0	6

Regulations as to Stage Carriages.

31. No printed or written bill shall be affixed against the window of any Stage Carriage.

32. The proprietor of a Stage Carriage shall keep it and all its furniture and appointments, and the harness of the horses drawing the same, in perfect order and repair; and if, with regard to any Stage Carriage, whilst it is plying for hire, there is defect in any of these particulars, the Proprietor shall be deemed to have committed a breach of this Order.

{ Regulations as to Property accidentally left in Hackney and Stage Carriages.

33. Immediately after the termination of any hiring, the Driver of a Hackney Carriage, and immediately after the completion of any journey, the conductor of a Stage Carriage, shall carefully search the Carriage for any property which may have been accidentally left therein.

34. If any property found in a Hackney or Stage Carriage, and brought to any Police Station by the Driver, or by the Driver or Conductor thereof respectively, under the Statute 16 and 17 Vict., cap. 33, sect. 11, be not, within three months, claimed and proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to belong to the claimant, the Commissioner shall forthwith sell such property, and out of the proceeds shall award to such Driver or Conductor as follows :

For Property consisting of or comprising any gold or silver money, bank note, jewellery, or watch, and being of less value than £10. - - - - -	} A sum equal to 3s. in the £1 on the value of the Property.
For Property of any other kind, and being of less value than £10 - - - - -	} A sum equal to 2s. 6d. in the £1 on the value of the Property.
For Property of the value of £10 or up- wards - - - - -	} Such a sum as the said Commissioner shall deem reasonable.

Provided that the Commissioner may, if he think fit, at the expiration of the said period of three months, deliver the property to such Driver or Conductor, instead of awarding to him a sum of Money.

35. If the property which shall have been so brought to a police station be claimed before the expiration of the said period of three months, and the claimant prove to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he is entitled thereto, the same shall be delivered to him on payment by him of all expenses incurred, and of a remuneration to the Driver or Conductor. The amount of such remuneration shall be determined by the Commissioner with reference to the character and value of the property in accordance with the foregoing section.

Regulations as to licensing Drivers of Hackney Carriages, and the Drivers and Conductors of Stage Carriages.

36. Licenses to Drivers and Conductors of Stage Carriages, and to Drivers of Hackney Carriages, shall be granted by the Commissioner.

37. Licenses so granted to Drivers and Conductors of Stage Carriages, and to Drivers of Hackney Carriages, shall be respectively in the forms contained in the Schedules F., G., H., to this Order, and shall, if not revoked or suspended, be in force one year from the date thereof; and for every such Licence there shall be paid to the Receiver of the Metropolitan Police, or to such person as he shall appoint, the sum of Five Shillings.

38. Every Licence granted to a Driver or Conductor shall be subject to revocation or suspension for any period of time by any Justice of the Peace in any of the events in which a License granted to a Driver or Conductor of a Hackney or Stage Carriage in pursuance of any Act of Parliament might, at the passing of the Metropolitan Public Carriage Act, 1869, be revoked or suspended, and shall also be subject to revocation or suspension by any Justice of the Peace in the event of any breach of this Order or of the said Metropolitan Public Carriage Act, 1869.

39. A penalty, not exceeding Forty Shillings, is hereby annexed for any act or default which is a breach of this Order, save only in those cases where a higher penalty may lawfully be enforced for the same act or default as an offence under the provisions of any other Act of Parliament now in force.

40. The Order made by me in virtue of the said Metropolitan Public Carriage Act, 1869, and dated the 1st day of February, 1870, is hereby revoked.

41. The provisions herein relating to fare plates shall not come into operation until the 1st day of May, 1871, and in the meantime Proprietors of Hackney Carriages shall cause such carriages to attend at the office of the Commissioner, at such time as he shall direct, in order that the fare plates may be duly affixed thereto.

If after the 1st day of May, 1871, a Hackney Carriage is found plying for hire without a fare-plate affixed thereto, the Driver and also the Proprietor, if he be cognizant of the fact, shall be deemed to have committed a breach of this Order.

42. Save as mentioned in the foregoing section this Order shall come into operation on the 24th day of March, 1871, and shall apply to all Licenses granted under the said Metropolitan Public Carriage Act, 1869: Provided that every License already granted in pursuance of the said Order of the 1st of February, 1870, under the said Act, shall be as valid as if it had been granted in pursuance of, and in accordance with, the provisions of this Order.

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 11th day of February, 1871.

359. To Henry Joseph Francis Hubert Roveaux, of No. 62, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Surgical Instrument Maker, for the invention of "an improved automatic valve for arresting the discharge of liquid from a reservoir while the level of the liquid is yet above the outlet."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 13th day of February, 1871.

365. To Albert Reginald Parks Smith, of Arundel-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, and Charles Wedderburn Granville, of Mansfield-chambers, St. Ann's-square, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Merchant, for the invention of "an improved process of making paper pulp from wood."

366. To Arthur Clegg, of 31, Finsbury-place, in the parish of Saint Luke's, Middlesex, Manufacturer of Sewing Machines, for the invention of "improvements in sewing machines."

367. To Victoria Ellen Procter, of Bradstone, in the county of Devon, Widow, for the invention of "improved apparatus for splitting and breaking ice for domestic purposes."

369. And to Jean François Pironet, of the town and county of the town, of Nottingham, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for separating the pulp from the textile fibre of the abaca, and other trees and plants in which the textile fibre is surrounded by a fleshy pulp."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 14th day of February, 1871.

379. To Hector Clause, of Rue de Bretagne, Paris, temporarily resident at Hatton-garden, in the county of Middlesex, Watch and Clock Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in taps or valves for gas, water, and other fluids."

381. And to Sydney Dawson, of No. 49, Hermitage-street, Wapping, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in steam and other safety valves."—A communication to him from abroad by Walter Dawson, of Scranton, Pennsylvania, in the United States of America.

On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 15th day of February, 1871.

414. To Benjamin Charles Badham, of No. 4, Tentercroft-street, in the city of Lincoln, Mechanical Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in skates."

427. And to David Smith, of Sedgley, in the county of Stafford, Coal Master, for the invention of "a new compound iron and steel railway rail, and the mode of manufacturing the same."

On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 17th day of February, 1871.

443. To George Eveleigh, of 16, Asylum-road Peckham, in the county of Surrey, Consulting Chemist, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture and purification of gas, and in certain parts of the apparatus employed therein."

447. And to Samuel Holmes, of No. 12, Brunswick-terrace, Lower-road, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in optical instruments."

On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 21st day of February, 1871.

453. To Edgar Williman Jobson, of Derby, in the county of Derby, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in annealing ovens and furnaces."

457. To Joseph Alexander Franklin and Alexander Caesar Frederick Franklin, both of Abingdon-street, in the city of Westminster, Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in engines worked by steam or other elastic fluids."

459. To William Henry Glover, of the city of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Manufacturer, and James Hargreaves, of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the same county, Manager, for the invention of "improvements in looms for weaving."

465. To Alexander Bewicke Blackburn, of York-buildings, Adelphi, in the city of Westminster, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in metallic pens."
469. To William Alfred Telling, Gas Meter Maker, of 49, Wellgate, Rotherham, in the county of York, and Samuel Johnson, Draughtsman, of 13, Clifton-bank, Rotherham, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of dry gas meters."
471. And to George Haseltine, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in spectacles or eye glasses."—A communication to him from abroad by William Augustus Leggo, of Montreal, Canada, Gentleman.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 22nd day of February, 1871.
473. To John Thomas, of the firm of John Thomas and Son, of Bangor, North Wales, Slate Merchants, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture and construction of slate ridges for roofs."
474. To Robert Heyworth, of the city of Manchester, Plumber and Sanitary Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for supplying water to wash basins, and for flushing water closets and urinals."
475. To George Haseltine, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in gas burners."—A communication to him from abroad by Antoine Ernest Dupas, of New Orleans, Louisiana, United States of America.
476. To George Haseltine, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "an improved combined knife and glass-cutting instrument."—A communication to him from abroad by Thelesphore Spénard, of Coaticooke, Jeweller, and C. H. Lebourneux, of Montreal, Merchant, both in the Province of Quebec, Canada.
477. To George Haseltine, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in machines for separating magnetic iron from sand and other substances."—A communication to him from abroad by Alfred Holme Balch, Gentleman, and Wolfred David Emelius Nelson, Medical Student, both of Montreal, Canada.
478. To Henry Crichley, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Ironfounder, for the invention of "improvements in cooking ranges."
479. To George Clarke, of No. 16, Argyle-square, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in fire-escapes."
480. To Thomas Whitehead, of Holbeck, in the parish of Leeds, in the county of York, a Partner in the firm of Taylor, Wordsworth, and Company, of the same place, Machine and Tool Makers, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for combing wool, cotton, flax, silk, and other fibrous substances."
482. To Henry Claudius Gautier, of Halifax, in the county of York, Designer, for the invention of "improvements in looms for weaving, and in means or apparatus to be employed in connection therewith."
483. To William Lloyd Wise, of Chandos-chambers, Adelphi, in the city of Westminster, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in breech loading ordnance."—A communication to him from abroad by Thomas Wacha, Foreman of the First Class in the Cannon Foundry of the Imperial Royal Arsenal, of Vienna, in the Empire of Austria.
484. To William Morris the younger, of Kent Water Works, Deptford, in the county of Kent, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for regulating and controlling the supply of water for domestic and other purposes."
485. To John Tullis, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in tubes for carrying yarn in spinning, winding, and weaving machinery."
486. To Alfred Priest and William Woolnough, both of Ceres Iron Works, Kingston-on-Thames, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in implements for drilling land by steam power."
487. And to James Robert Liston, of New Malden, in the county of Surrey, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, for the invention of "an improved glove to be used in certain medical and other operations where it is necessary to preserve the skin from danger and yet retain the sense of touch."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 23rd day of February, 1871.
488. To George Henry Ellis, of No. 20, High Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of rails for railways."
490. To John Lowthian, of No. 38, Lowther-street, Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, for the invention of "improvements in water flushing apparatus."
491. To Thomas James Smith, of the firm of Robertson, Brooman, and Company, of 166, Fleet-street, in the city of London, Patent Agents, for the invention of "improvements in the nitrication of ammonia."—A communication to him from abroad by Cyprien Marie Tessié du Motay, of Paris, France, Chemist.
492. To Edwin Eagling Glaskin, of No. 17, Queen's-square, in the city of Westminster, and county of Middlesex, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in safety-valves."
493. To William Moscrop, of Red Lumb, near Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, Cotton Spinner and Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for spinning and doubling."
494. To John Macleod, of Renton, in the county of Dumbarton, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for dyeing, washing, and clearing yarns."
495. To Arthur Barraclough, of Boys Mills, Halifax, in the county of York, Woollen Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for dewing, damping, stiffening, and oiling fabrics and fibrous materials."
496. To George Ritchie and Jessy Gertrude Ritchie, both of Belmont Villa, Tyrwhitt-road, Upper Lewisham-road, in the county of Kent, for the invention of "improvements in weather protectors or small tents, and in umbrellas, sunshades, and parasols."

499. And to John Wilkinson, of Bethnal Green-road, in the county of Middlesex, Saw Maker, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for grinding and polishing circular saws and knives, or discs of metal."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 24th day of February, 1871.

502. To John Scaife and Thomas Carr Younger, both of Leeds, in the county of Yorkshire, for the invention of "an improved packing for pistons, rams, piston rods, and other rods."
503. To William Green, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Machinist, for the invention of "improvements in conical bullets."
505. To Ebenezer Boyes, of Mark-lane, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in means or apparatus for roasting coffee, and for cooling it when roasted."
506. To John Paterson Smith, Civil Engineer, Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, Scotland, for the invention of "improvements in artizans' and mechanics' tools."
508. To William Henry Brown and William Lockwood, both of Sheffield, in the county of York, Steel Manufacturers, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of cast steel or other metallic tubes or cylindrical articles."
509. To Thomas Aveling, of Rochester, in the county of Kent, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in steam road rollers."
510. To Frederick Arthur Paget, of 1, Seymour-chambers, Adelphi, W.C., in the county of Middlesex, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for the manufacture of malleable cast iron."
512. To Ellis Rowland, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the fire-bars or fire-grates of steam boiler and other furnaces."
513. To James Jackson, of Sheffield, in the county of York, Manager of Steel & Iron Works, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of spades, & shovels, and other like implements, and in the machinery and tools to be used in the said manufacture."
515. To Charles Akin, of Pesth, in Hungary, Doctor in Philosophy and Member of the Hungary Academy of Sciences, for the invention of "an improvement in 'post cards' or tablets for the transmission of messages by post or otherwise."
516. To Edward Wright, of Cannon-street, in the city of London, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for applying brakes to the wheels of carriages, parts of which apparatus are also applicable to other purposes."
518. And to George Haseltine, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "an improved electro-typing process and apparatus used therefor."—A communication to him from abroad by William Augustus Leggo, of Montreal, Canada, Gentleman.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 25th day of February, 1871.
519. To Charles Duff, of Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in the treatment of certain fibrous substances to be used in the manufacture of paper-pulp for paper, and for conversion into textile fabrics."
520. To Arthur Auckland Cochrane, of the city of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the application of bituminous compositions for sanitary and other useful purposes."
521. To Isaac Jones of Swatsea, in the county of Glamorgan, Boiler Maker, and Thomas Hacking, of Newport, in the county of Monmouth, Inspector of Boilers, for the invention of "improvements in steam boilers."
522. To William Millard, of Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, Engineer, and Machine Maker, for the invention of "improvements in jacquard looms."
524. To Isaac Roberts, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Contractor and Builder, for the invention of "improvements in retorts and kilns employed in the manufacture and re-burning of animal charcoal."
525. To Samuel Wilkinson Snowden and James Moffat, both of Barking, in the county of Essex, Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in safety valves."
526. To Richard Fennelly, of Wellington-chambers, London Bridge, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in preserving animal substances for use as food."
527. To John Patterson, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for beetling woven fabrics and fibrous or other materials."
529. To James Carver, of the firm of Messieurs Carver and Mosley, of "the Butcher-street Works," in the town and county of the town of Nottingham, Bobbin and Carriage Manufacturers and Machine Builders, for the invention of "improvements in machinery employed in the manufacture of bobbin net or twist lace."
530. And to Johannes Heinrich Ludwig Theodor Pörtner, of Regent-street, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in sewing machines."—A communication to him from abroad by Pollack, Schmidt, and Company, of Hamburg, Germany.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 27th day of February, 1871.
533. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improved sand, glass, or emery paper, or emery cloth."—A communication to him from abroad by George Carpenter Taft, of Worcester, Massachusetts, and Jacob Henry Armbruster, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, United States of America.
534. To Samuel Wilson, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in braces or suspenders, belts, straps, and other similar articles of wearing apparel."

one lot, by Mr. William Tayler, the person appointed by the said Judge at the White Hart Inn, Tetbury, Gloucestershire, on the 30th day of March, 1871, at four o'clock in the afternoon precisely:—

A compact freehold Estate, situate close to the village of Avening, near Stroud, Gloucestershire, consisting of a barn, farm buildings, and about 41 acres of arable and pasture lands.

Particulars, with plans and conditions of sale, may be obtained of Messrs. Wood, Street, and Hayter, No. 6, Raymond-buildings, Gray's-inn, London, W.C.; of the Auctioneer, at Chipping Sodbury; at the place of sale; and of Messrs. J. T. and R. C. Paul and Rogers, Tetbury.

In Chancery.—Clissold v. Cook.

WHEREAS by a Decree made in the above-named cause, and dated the 17th day of December, 1870, it was, amongst other things, ordered that an enquiry should be made whether anything and what was due to the several persons who executed the indenture of 2nd June, 1830 in the Bill mentioned as creditors of Matthew Saunders, late of Avening, in the county of Gloucester, Gentleman, or any of them, on account of their respective debts mentioned in the schedule to the said indenture,

And whereas it appears by the schedule to the said indenture that the several persons or firms whose names are hereunder written executed such indenture as creditors for the amounts set opposite to their names respectively.

Pursuant to the said Decree, all persons named in the said schedule, or the legal personal representatives of such of them as are dead, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 14th day of April, 1871, to send by post, prepaid, to Messrs. J. T. and R. C. Paul and Rogers, of Tetbury, in the county of Gloucester, the Solicitors for the defendants in the cause, the trustees of the said indenture, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Decree.

Every creditor holding any security is to produce the same before the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart (the Judge to whose Court the said cause is attached), at his chambers, situated No. 12, Old-square, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, on Monday, the 24th April, 1871, at one o'clock in the afternoon, being the time appointed for adjudicating on the said claims. Dated this 6th day of March, 1871.
