The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Philip, situate in the new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of May, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for endowing the archdeaconry of Westmoreland, in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, dated the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of the same month, it was ordered that there should be paid by us, as therein mentioned and until the occurrence of the event therein mentioned, to the Archdeacon of Westmoreland for the time being the annual sum of one hundred and ninety-six pounds.

"And whereas such annual sum was duly paid by us accordingly down to the sixth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, when by the terms of the said Order the same annual sum ceased to be payable.

"And whereas the amount of the said annual sum was fixed at one hundred and ninety-six pounds as aforesaid, because it had been made to appear to us that (as in the said Order is recited) the said archdeaconry of Westmoreland was at that time entitled to receive an average nett annual income not exceeding four pounds, and such income was derived from the payment of certain fees.

"And whereas the right of the Archdeacon of Westmoreland for the time being to claim the payment of the said fees has now ceased.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, we shall be authorized to pay to the Venerable John Cooper, now Archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Westmoreland, and to his successors, in the same archdeaconry, the annual sum of two hundred pounds, payment of such annual sum to commence and accrue as from the sixth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy (being as aforesaid the day on which the said annual payment now determined as aforesaid ceased to be payable by us); and that such annual sum of two hundred pounds shall be payable to the present and every future archdeacon of Westmoreland, on the first day of January, in each and every year, every such yearly payment being apportionable between any archdeacon resigning or otherwise avoiding the said archdeaconry, on any day of the year other than the first day of January, or (as the case may be) the representatives of the same archdeacon, and the archdeacon who shall next thereafter be appointed to the same archdeaconry: Provided always, that every such yearly payment shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the archdeacon applying for it has complied with the conditions as to residence which are specified in the said Act.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the said Act or with any other Act of Parliament."

prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Christ Church, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and published in the London Gazette upon the thirteenth day of the same month, a part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a chapelry district to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, and the same chapelry district was called 'The Chapelry District of Christ Church, Plymouth.'

"And whereas the boundaries of the said chapelry district of Christ Church, Plymouth, have, by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and published in the London Gazette upon the thirteenth day of the same month, been altered, by way of extension, so as to include within its limits a further portion of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth.

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Christ Church, Plymouth, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Plymouth, should be further altered by way of extension, so that they shall include an additional part of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose, that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Plymouth, shall be further altered by way of extension, so that they shall include all that part of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink, and that from and after the day of the same date, and without any other assurance in law, the said part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, so to be included as aforesaid shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Plymouth.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be annexed to the new parish of Christ Church, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which is bounded on the west by the said new parish of Christ Church, Plymouth, on the north-east by the parish of Charles, otherwise called Charles the Martyr, Plymouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth aforesaid, at the point where Coburg-street is joined by James-street and by Richmond-street; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street, to the point where it joins York-street, Morley-street, and Russell-street, such point being upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, from the new parish of Christ Church, Plymouth aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme or representation has been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures thereby affected, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Laxton is vested, for an estate in fee simple in possession, in Philip Saltmarshe, of Saltmarshe, in the said county of York, Esquire, and his heirs and assigns.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 15, 1871.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following translation of a Portuguese Law dated the 27th ultimo, imposing increased import duties on tobacco:—

ART. 1. The following duties upon tobacco are to be substituted for those imposed in virtue of the 7th Article of the Law of May 13, 1864:

Tobacco in rolls, per kilogramme, Reis 1200=5s. 4d.

Tobacco in leaf, per kilogramme, Reis 1400=6s. 2'66d.

Tobacco in cheroots, per kilogramme, Reis 2200=9s. 9'33d.

Any other kinds of tobacco manipulated, per kilogramme, Reis 1800=8s.

Upon the powder and residue of the leaves and of the stem of the tobacco plant, the duty shall be paid as upon tobacco in leaf, and in case the stem should be chopped, the duty payable thereupon shall be that of manipulated tobacco.

ART. 2. All legislation to the contrary is hereby revoked.

(C. 402.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 15, 1871.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Correspondence which has taken place between Her Majesty's Minister at Lisbon, Her Majesty's Consul at Funchal, and the Portuguese authorities at Lisbon and Madeira, relating to the treatment of two British ships which had arrived, with clean bills of health, at the port of Funchal, for the purpose of landing mails, cargo, and passengers. In consequence of a single case of small-pox having occurred on board these vessels respectively, they were placed in quarantine, and no lazaretto being provided on the island, permission was refused to land the cargo and passengers, both having, therefore, to be conveyed to the coast of Africa. The remonstrances of Her Majesty's Government with the Portuguese authorities having failed as yet to bring about any alterations in the quarantine arrangements at Madeira, the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade think it right to warn Merchants trading with that island, or persons about to proceed there, that no vessel will be allowed to land goods or passengers in the event of any case of sickness of an infectious nature occurring during the voyage.

(C. 410.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,

Polivar, with destination to the United States of Colombia, shall be subject to the same laws, decrees, and dispositions, and shall pay the same duties as merchandize introduced for the consumption of Venezuela.

ART. 2. The Government of Venezuela will always be disposed to come to an understanding with that of the United States of Colombia, for the celebration of the agreement on customs, to which reference is made in Article 14 of the law of that Republic, bearing date of the 10th of June of 1870, with the object of settling and guaranteeing conveniently and permanently the interests of both countries in the matter of transit.

ART. 3. This decree shall be put into execution from the date of its publication at Ciudad Bolivar, the laws, decrees, and dispositions regarding transit trade remaining in force only with respect to the Port and Custom-house of Maracaibo.
