And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, on the ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the seventeenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, to make, by Orders in Council dated on those days respectively, provision for the exercise of Her power and jurisdiction aforesaid:

That such trial shall be held at Goldsmiths' Hall, in the city of London, or if from any cause it cannot be held there, then at such other convenient place in the city of London as the said Lords Commissioners shall appoint.

That the aforesaid Warrant of the Lords of the Treasury shall, at some time before the commencement of the proceedings, be delivered to and received by the Queen's Remembrancer for the time being, and he shall preside at the trial, and shall administer the oath to the Jury, who shall be sworn upon the trial, and shall reduce the verdict of the Jury to writing, and after it is so reduced to writing, it shall be read aloud publicly and in the hearing of the Jury, and after the same shall have been so read, each of the Jury and also the Queen's Remembrancer shall authenticate the written verdict by signing the same, and the verdict and the said Warrant of the said Lords Commissioners shall thereupon be attached one to the other.

That the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, when they shall, by their said Warrant, have appointed a day for the trial of the Pyx, shall, at a convenient time before the day so appointed, cause a written notice of the time appointed for the trial to be given to the Queen's Remembrancer, requiring him to attend at the time and place appointed, to preside at the trial, and perform the other duties assigned to him by this Her Majesty's Order.

That at the time and place appointed when the Jury have been called and have appeared, the Queen's Remembrancer, or the Master of the Court of Exchequer, as the case may be, shall administer to all of the them an oath in the words following:—"You shall well and truly, after your knowledge and discretion, make the assays of these moneys of gold and silver, and truly report if the said moneys be in weight and fineness according to the standard weights for weighing and testing the coins of the realm, and the standard trial plates of gold and silver used for determining the justness of the gold and silver coinage of the realm in the custody of the Board of Trade, and be in conformity with the first schedule of the Coinage Act, 1870, so help your God."

That when the Jury shall have been so sworn the trial shall proceed.

That the Jury shall ascertain the number of coins in each packet produced to them, and that it corresponds with the number the officers of the Mint represent it to contain, and there shall then be taken by the Jury from each packet as many coins as they think necessary for the purpose of the trial.

That the Jury shall weigh or cause to be weighed in their presence each of the coins so taken out so as to ascertain whether they are within the prescribed remedy as to weight.

That the Jury shall then melt the coins so taken out and weighed into an ingot, and shall assay such ingot, comparing it with the standard trial plate, in the custody of the Board of Trade and produced at the trial, so as to ascertain whether the metal is within the remedy as to fineness.

They shall weigh the residue of the coins in bulk, so as to ascertain whether they are within the remedy as to weight.

They shall then take from such residue, such a number of pieces, both of gold and silver coin, as they shall think fit, and assay them separately.

They shall find by their verdict, whether the ingot composed of the coins which they shall have melted as aforesaid, is or is not within the remedy or variation from the standard of weight and fineness specified in the first schedule of the Coinage Act, 1870, and shall specify in their verdict the amount of variation, and they shall, in and by their verdict, declare the weight and millesimal fineness of the coins which they shall have separately weighed and assayed as aforesaid.

That after the verdict shall have been reduced to writing and authenticated as aforesaid and attached to the said warrant, the same shall be taken possession of by, or delivered to the Queen's Remembrancer, who shall file or deposit the same of record in his office, amongst the other records of his office, and shall forthwith cause a copy thereof to be made which he shall cause to be delivered to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and the same shall be kept and preserved in the Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall cause two other copies to be made, one whereof they shall cause to be delivered to the Board of Trade, and the same shall be kept and preserved by such Board in their office, and the other of such copies shall be delivered to the Deputy Master of the Mint, and the same shall be kept and preserved by him at the Mint.

That the said Lords Commissioners shall cause the said verdict to be published in the London Gazette.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein-mentioned, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and to each of the two cures hereinafter named, and the churches thereof respectively, that is to say, the district parish of Gornal, and the district parish of Christ Church, Coseley; each of which said two cures is situate in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and was sometime part of the parish of Sedgley, in the same county and diocese; which same two cures, and the churches thereof, are hereinafter described as the said benefices of Gornal and Christ Church, Coseley.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said benefices of Gornal and Christ Church, Coseley, and each of them is vested, for an estate of inheritance in fee simple, in the Right Honourable William, Earl of Dudley.

"And whereas the said William, Earl of Dudley, is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said benefices of Gornal and Christ Church, Coseley, and each of them, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to, and be vested in, the Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, as such Bishop.

"And whereas the Right Reverend George Augustus, now Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, is willing to accept for himself and his successors the said proposed transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act mentioned, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said benefices of Gornal and Christ Church, Coseley, respectively, and each of them which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson of the same benefices, respectively, arises or exists, that is to say, in the district parish of Gornal, and in the district parish of Christ Church, Coseley, respectively, by rendering the said benefices of Gornal and Christ Church, Coseley, respectively, eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William, Earl of Dudley (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said benefices of Gornal and Christ Church, Coseley, and each of them, now vested in the said William, Earl of Dudley as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said William, Earl of Dudley, and from his heirs and assigns, to the said George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and to his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, and that each of the said two advowsons or perpetual rights of patronage and presentation shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Liverpool, appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain bye-laws, bearing date the fourteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, numbered 1.

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Arthur Helps.

Bye-Laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT, 1870.

Borough of Liverpool.

BYE-LAWS OF THE LIVERPOOL SCHOOL BOARD.

Recital of 74th Section of Education Act, authorising School Boards to make Bye-laws as to attendance at School.

WHEREAS, by the 74th Section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, it is enacted that every School Board may, from time to time, with the approval of the Education Department, make Bye-laws for all or any of the following purposes:—

1. Requiring the parents of children of such age, not less than five years nor more than thirteen years, as may be fixed by the Bye-laws, to cause such children (unless there is some reasonable excuse) to attend School.
2. Determining the time during which children are so to attend School, provided that no such Bye-law shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend School on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or shall be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.
3. Providing for the remission or payment of the whole or any part of the fees of any child, where the parent satisfies the School Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the same.
4. Imposing penalties for the breach of any Bye-laws.
5. Revoking or altering any Bye-laws previously made.

Provided, that any Bye-law under this Section requiring a child between ten and thirteen years of age to attend school, shall provide for the total or partial exemption of such child from the obligation to attend school if one of Her Majesty's Inspectors certifies that such child has reached a standard of education specified in such Bye-law.

Reasonable excuses for Non-attendance.

And by the said 74th Section, it is further enacted, that any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, namely:—

1. That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
2. That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
3. That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend, within such distance, not exceeding three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child, as the Bye-laws may prescribe.

Penalties for breach of Bye laws.

And by the said 74th Section, it is further enacted, that any proceeding to enforce any Bye-law may be taken, and any penalty for the breach of any Bye-law may be recovered in a summary manner; but no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such amount as with the costs will amount to five shillings for each offence, and such Bye-laws shall not come into operation until they have been sanctioned by Her Majesty in Council.

Recital of Section 17, providing for payment of School fees to School Board, and for remission of fees in case of poverty.

And whereas, by the 17th Section of the said Act, it is enacted, that every child attending a school provided by any School Board, shall pay such weekly fee as may be prescribed by the School Board, with the consent of the Education Department; but the School Board may, from time to time, for a renewable period not exceeding six months, remit the whole or any part of such fee in the case of any child when they are of opinion that the parent of such child is unable from poverty to pay the same, but such remission shall not be deemed to be parochial relief given to such parent.

Recital of Section 25, authorising School Board to pay School fees in case of poverty.

And whereas, by the 25th Section of the said Act, it is enacted, that the School Board may, if they think fit, from time to time, for a renewable period not exceeding six months, pay the whole or any part of the school fees payable at any Public Elementary School by any child resident in their district, whose parent is, in their opinion, unable from poverty to pay the same, but no such payment shall be made or refused on condition of the child attending any Public Elementary School other than such as may be selected by the parent; and such payment shall not be deemed to be parochial relief given to such parent.

Recital of Section 26, authorising the establishment of Free Schools in special cases.

And whereas, by the 26th Section of the said Act, it is enacted, that if a School Board satisfy the Education Department that, on the ground of the poverty of the inhabitants of any place in their district, it is expedient for the interests of education to provide a school at which no fees shall be required from the scholars, the Board may, subject to such rules and conditions as the Education Department may prescribe, provide such school, and may admit scholars to such school without requiring any fee.

Recital of Section 36, authorising School Board to appoint Officers to enforce Attendance at School.

SCHOOL OF NAVAL ARCHITECTURE, &c.

Admiralty, June 20, 1871.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby give notice, that the arrangements for the admission of persons, not already in the Government service, to the Royal School of Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering, as Admiralty Pupils, will, for the present year, be as follows:—

Candidates must not be less than 18 or more than 21 years of age, and must have served at least two years in private shipbuilding or engineering establishments, or must give satisfactory proof that they have in some way been so connected with shipbuilding or engineering operations as to become well-grounded in the elementary principles and practice thereof.

The pupils will be selected by competitive examination, the subjects for which, and numbers of marks assigned for each, are as follows:—

	Mark.
Pure mathematics, including arithmetic, mensuration, geometry (plane and descriptive), plane trigonometry, and the elements of the differential and integral calculus	2,500
Applied mathematics, including mechanics and hydrostatics	1,000
Practical shipbuilding, including laying-off (for shipwright candidates only) ...	2,500
Practical marine engineering (for engineer candidates only)	2,500
French	500
Elements of physics and chymistry ...	750
English grammar and composition ...	750
Geography and history	750

No candidate will be admitted who does not obtain at least two-thirds of the full number of marks in the two first-named subjects, and three-fifths of the full number, either for practical shipbuilding or marine engineering.

The last four subjects, although counting in the competition, will not be considered obligatory.

The candidates who may be selected will be treated, while attached to the school, in all respects as the Admiralty pupils; they will receive wages the same as dockyard apprentices, commencing at 1s. 6d. per day for six days per week for first year, and increasing yearly 3d. per day till it reaches 2s. per day; and in addition a subsistence allowance of 3s. per day for seven days per week while away from their homes, either at the school or in the dockyards.

Seven months of each year—viz., from October till May—will be devoted to study at the school, and the remaining five months to actual work and the acquirement of practical knowledge in the dockyards.

It is to be understood that the Admiralty make no engagement to employ these pupils after the completion of their course of study; and they must rely on their own worth, as educated naval architects, for obtaining employment in their subsequent career.

The number of such pupils to be selected this year is one shipwright and one engineer.

Persons desirous of competing must forward their names, with a certificate of birth, and on the grounds on which they consider themselves practically qualified, enclosing proper certificates to that effect to the Secretary of the Admiralty, not later than the 11th July.

The candidates should also state whether they wish to be examined as engineers or shipwrights.

The examination will take place on the 18th July and three following days.

By command of their Lordships,
G. Shaw Lefevre.
