

Engelbert Horley, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Sefton shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Philip, situate at Litherland, as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Engelbert Horley; And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Philip, Litherland, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Sefton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-east and on the south by the parish of Saint Mary, Walton-on-the-Hill, in the said county and diocese, on the south-west by the new parish of Saint Thomas, Seaforth, in the same county and diocese, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the north-west, on the north, and on the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Seaforth, from the parish of Sefton aforesaid, and opposite to a boundary stone inscribed (in relation to the new parish of Saint Thomas, Seaforth) 'S. St. T. N. P. 1870, No. 2,' and placed on the western side of the towing-path on the western bank of the said canal; and extending thence, for a distance of one hundred and thirty-five chains, or thereabouts, first northward, then north-eastward, and then eastward, along the middle of the same canal, to a point in the centre of Moss Side Bridge, which carries Moss-lane over the said canal; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the said bridge, to the point at the south-eastern end of the same bridge where Moss-lane aforesaid is joined by Blindpool-lane; and extending thence, first south-westward, then south-eastward, and then again south-westward, along the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction with Captain's-lane; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named lane and along the middle of Hughes-lane, to the boundary near Wattons House, which divides the said parish of Sefton from the parish of Saint Mary, Walton-on-the-Hill aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Goff's Oak, in the parish of Cheshunt, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate at Goff's Oak as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Cheshunt, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James, situate at Goff's Oak as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Goff's Oak.'

"And with the like consent of the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint James, situate at Goff's Oak as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend William Walter Kirby, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Cheshunt shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint James, situate at Goff's Oak as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said William Walter Kirby; and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commis-
