PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of County Coroner," it is (amongst other things) enacted, that when, and as often as, it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices, in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition shall be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as therein-after provided; and further, that the Clerk of the Peace shall give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said Justices into consideration, and the Justices shall confer with every such Coroner who shall attend the meeting of the Justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employments, and such other circumstances as shall appear to the Justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of the said Act; and that such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present when such petition shall be agreed to, and that the Clerk of the Peace for such county shall forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every Coroner of such county; and further, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any petition which may be presented to Her Majesty by any Coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a writ de Coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorising the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who have been theretofore customarily elected in such county, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts, for the purposes of that Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the Court for the election of the Coroner for such district shall be holden as thereinafter provided; and every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette:

And whereas it has seemed expedient to the Justices of the Peace of the said county of Berks, that the said county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of the said Act, and thereupon the said Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, did, on or about the seventeenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division might be made, and the said Justices thereupon adjourned the further consideration of such petition until an adjourned Quarter Sessions holden on third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one:

And whereas due notice of such resolution and adjournment, and of the time when such petition would be taken into consideration, was duly given by the Clerk of the Peace of the said county to every Coroner of the said county:

And whereas the Justices of the Peace of the said county have, pursuant to the aforesaid resolution, presented to Her Majesty a petition, certified under the hands and seals of two of the Justices present when the said petition was agreed to, setting forth amongst other things, that it having seemed expedient to the Justices at large of the said county, that the said county should be divided into four districts for the purposes of the said Act, it had been resolved as aforesaid, and that the Justices had adjourned the further consideration of such petition until the Easter Sessions, held at Reading on the said third day of April, and that such notice as aforesaid had been given, and that the Coroners of the said county had severally acknowledged the receipt thereof, but that neither of the said Coroners had attended the sessions and meeting of the Justices for and at which the aforesaid petition was further considered. And further stating that the county of Berks contained an area of about seven hundred and fifty-two square miles, or four hundred and eighty-one thousand two hundred and eighty acres, and had a population of about one hundred and thirty thousand four hundred and eighty-three, exclusive of those boroughs which had Coroners of their own, and being also a very long county (measuring in length from east to west about forty-five miles), it would be desirable to assign a district to each of the four Coroners, in order that there should be one within a reasonable distance of all parts of the county, and thus prevent the inconvenience of having two Coroners called in to hold the same inquest:

And further stating, that the municipal boroughs of Abingdon, Newbury, Reading, and Windsor, within the said county, had Coroners of their own, to the exclusion of the County Coroners:

And further stating, that having due regard to the size and nature of each district, the number of its inhabitants, the nature of their employments, and other circumstances which appeared to the Justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of the said statute, the said Justices humbly prayed Her Majesty, that the county of Berks might be divided into four districts, for the purposes of the said Act (that is to say), by drawing a line from east to west, commencing at the River Thames, between the parishes of Moulsoford and Streatley; and thence between Compton and East Ilsley; between Peasmore and Brightwalton; between Shefford and Chaddlesworth, and so on to Wilts, making Lamborne parish the boundary on the north side of the proposed line. All on the north of that proposed line, to be again subdivided, and to form the Abingdon and Wantage districts; and all on the south side to be subdivided, and form the Newbury and Reading districts; and to subdivide the northern part from the Abingdon and Wantage districts, by drawing a line, commencing from the River Thames, on the west side of Buckland parish; and thence between Pusey and Hatford; between Charney and Stanford; between Lyford and Garford; Hanney and Drayton; Ardington and Steventon; East Hendred and Harwell; and the Isoleys and Chilton up to the proposed line, running from Streatley to Lambourne, and to subdivide the southern part for the Reading and Newbury districts by drawing a line, commencing at the River Thames, between Basildon and Pangbourne, thence south between Tidmarsh and Sulham, between Englefield and Theale, between Blenheim and Sulhampstead Banister, and between Ufton and Sulhampstead Abbots, and so on by the east side of Aldermaston parish to the boundary of the county of Southampton, the parishes in which several districts are thereunder more particularly described; and further, that Her Majesty would be most graciously pleased to direct that the Courts to be holden for the purpose of elections of Coroners of the said districts, when and as often as the same should become necessary, should be at Didcot for the Abingdon district, at Speenhamland for the Newbury district, at Maidenhead for the Reading district, and at Wantage for the Wantage district; and that the Abingdon district should comprise the following parishes and places, and the several hamlets or tythings within the same; that is to say:—

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of that Act, it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section :

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of certain benefices, three in number, that is to say, firstly, the benefice (being a vicarage by statute) of Saint Olave with Saint Giles, in the suburbs of the city of York, and in the diocese of York; secondly, the benefice (being a perpetual curacy) of Skelton-cum-Newby, which benefice is a parochial chapelry within the parish of Ripon, in the West Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon; and thirdly the benefice (being a vicarage) of Bilton, in the said West Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of the last will of the late Right Honorable Thomas Philip Weddell, Earl de Grey, deceased, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, the advowson and patronage of, and the right of presentation to the vicarage of Saint Olave, with Saint Giles aforesaid, was devised (inter alia) by the said Earl, either to one or to both of his two surviving daughters, the Right Honorable Anne Florence, Dowager Countess Cowper, and the Honorable the Lady Mary Gertrude Vyner, to be held either by them jointly as tenants in common, or by one of them as sole Patron, as the case may be.

"And whereas the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Ripon, are seized to them and their successors of the advowson or perpetual patronage of, and right of presentation to, the said benefice of Skelton-cum-Newby, and the church thereof.

"And whereas the Right Honorable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, is seized to him and his successors in the See of York, of the advowson or perpetual patronage of, and right of presentation to, the said benefice of Bilton, and the church thereof.

"And whereas the said Anne Florence, Dowager Countess Cowper, and the said Lady Mary Gertrude Vyner, and the Very Reverend Hugh McNeile, the Dean and the Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Ripon, and the said William, Archbishop of York, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said three benefices, and of the churches thereof respectively, may be re-arranged by way of exchange in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Anne Florence, Dowager Countess Cowper, and of the said Lady Mary Gertrude Vyner, and of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Ripon, and of the said William, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof to this scheme the said Anne Florence, Dowager Countess Cowper and the said Lady Mary Gertrude Vyner have set their respective hands and seals, and the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Ripon, have set their corporate or capitular seal, and the said William, Archbishop of York, hath set his hand and affixed his Archiepiscopal seal), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the following arrangement, by way of exchange, shall take effect; that is to say, firstly, the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of presentation to the said benefice of Saint Olave with Saint Giles in the suburbs of the city of York, and the church thereof shall be transferred from the said Anne Florence, Dowager Countess Cowper and the said Lady Mary Gertrude Vyner, either as tenants in common or from the one of them, in whom the same is vested, solely under the before-mentioned will of the said Right Honourable Thomas Philip Weddell, Earl de Grey, as the case may be, to and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be wholly and absolutely vested in the said William, Archbishop of York, and his successors, Archbishops of York, for ever, by way of exchange, as hereinbefore mentioned; and secondly, the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of presentation to the said benefice of Skelton-cum-Newby, in the said county of York and diocese of Ripon, and the church thereof shall be transferred from the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Ripon, and from their successors to, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be wholly and absolutely vested in either the said Anne Florence, Dowager Countess Cowper, and the said Lady Mary Gertrude Vyner, as tenants in common, or in one of them, as the case may be, as sole patron in such manner and form and according to such estate and interest as the advowson and patronage of, and the right of presentation to, the aforesaid vicarage of Saint Olave with Saint Giles is now vested in or enjoyed by them, or either of them, under and by virtue of the before-mentioned will of the said Thomas Philip Weddell, Earl de Grey, the same advowson or right of patronage being transferred and vested by way of exchange as hereinbefore-mentioned. And thirdly, the advowson or perpetual patronage of, and right of presentation to, the said benefice of Bilton, in the said West Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and the church thereof, shall be transferred from the said William, Archbishop of York, and his successors to, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be wholly and absolutely vested in the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Ripon aforesaid, and their successors for ever, by way of exchange as hereinbefore mentioned.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Trinity, Maidstone (some time part of the original parish of Maidstone), in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Trinity, Maidstone, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth:

“And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Maidstone have become vested in us, under the provisions of and for the purposes of the hereinmentioned Acts, or of some of them; and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund, created by the firstly hereinmentioned Act, to the Incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinmentioned Act, and to his successors a grant of two hundred pounds per annum, and such grant as aforesaid will be made by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

“And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by certain persons to be applied in and towards the provision of a church for the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been paid to us as aforesaid, upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, should be assigned in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Trinity, Maidstone, which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Faith, Maidstone.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, or (as the case may be) of the incumbent of the new parish which such district will or may hereafter become, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, as aforesaid, be assigned to and be vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and by his successors Archbishops of Canterbury for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Faith, Maidstone, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Trinity, Maidstone, sometime part of the original parish of Maidstone, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is bounded on the north by the new parish of Saint Paul, Maidstone; also sometime part of the original parish of Maidstone aforesaid; on the west by the new parish of Saint Peter, Maidstone; also sometime part of the original parish of Maidstone aforesaid, or, in other words, by the river Medway; on the south by that part of the said parish of Maidstone wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, or in other words, by High-street, Maidstone; and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the east, by an imaginary line, commencing on the boundary which divides the said parish of Maidstone from the new parish of Trinity, Maidstone, aforesaid, at the point where the said High-street is joined by Week-street, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street, to the boundary at the junction of the same street with the County Road, which boundary divides the said new parish of Trinity, Maidstone, from the new parish of Saint Paul, Maidstone aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron, and to the incumbent of the new parish, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas such patron has signified his assent to the said scheme, and such incumbent has made certain objections to the same scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1871.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of All Saints, Fleet, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester:

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Fleet, is vested in Charles James Maxwell Lefroy, of Itchell, in the said county of Southampton, Esquire, and his heirs and assigns absolutely.

"And whereas the said Charles James Maxwell Lefroy is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Fleet, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Winchester.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Samuel, now bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the bishop which by the Acts in the herein-before mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said Samuel, bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of All Saints, Fleet, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the district in, or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, arises or exists, that is to say in the consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Fleet.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Charles James Maxwell Lefroy (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Samuel, bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Fleet, now vested in him the said Charles James Maxwell Lefroy as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him the said Charles James Maxwell Lefroy, and from his heirs and assigns to the said Samuel, bishop of the said diocese of Winchester and his successors, bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Samuel, bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and by his successors bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation for altering the boundaries of the district chapelry of Riverhead, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the second day of August, in the same year, a part of the parish of Sevenoaks, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church, situate at Riverhead, in the same parish, and such district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Riverhead.'

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Riverhead should be altered as hereinafter is mentioned.

"And whereas William Lipscomb, of Lees House, Thornhill, near Dewsbury, in the county of York, Esquire, and Philip Oxenden Papillon, of Lexden Manor, near Colchester, in the county of Essex, Esquire, are the persons who under, and by virtue of the will of the Reverend Thomas Curteis, deceased, are now the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Sevenoaks aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, with the consents of the said William Lipscomb and Philip Oxenden Papillon, as such patrons as aforesaid, with the consent of the Reverend Henry Francis Sidebottom, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Sevenoaks, and as such rector or incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the district chapelry of Riverhead aforesaid, and with the consent of the Reverend James MacGibbon Burn-Murdoch, the incumbent of the same perpetual curacy (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent, that, in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Riverhead should be altered and extended so as to include within the limits of such district chapelry all that additional part of the said parish of Sevenoaks, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, and that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, and without any other assurance in the law, the said additional part of the parish of Sevenoaks aforesaid so to be included within the limits of the said district chapelry of Riverhead should become and be and form part of such district chapelry.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be annexed to the District Chapelry of Riverhead, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Sevenoaks, in the county and diocese aforesaid, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the west and on the north by the district chapelry of Riverhead aforesaid, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the east and on the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary at the foot of Tubs Hill which divides the said district chapelry of Riverhead from the parish of Sevenoaks aforesaid, at a point near the northern end of the Sevenoaks Station on the line of the South-Eastern Railway, in the centre of the Tubs Hill railway bridge which carries the turnpike-road leading from Sevenoaks to London over the said line of railway; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of thirty-four chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the same line of railway, thereby passing through Sevenoaks Station aforesaid, to a point opposite to the eastern end of the fence forming the northern boundary of Kippington-park; and extending thence, generally westward, to and along the middle of the said park fence, thereby passing by the Kippington New Lodge gate, to a boundary stone inscribed ‘R. D. C. 1871,’ and placed at the western end of the same park fence, on the eastern side of the road leading from Riverhead, past the house called the Cross Keys, towards Sevenoaks Common; and continuing thence, still westward and in a direct line, to the boundary in the middle of the last-described road which divides the said parish of Sevenoaks from the district chapelry of Riverhead aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of Wokingham, in the county of Berks, now vested in us.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, made between Laurence Robert Cotterell, of Wokingham aforesaid, Gentleman, of the one part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments described in the schedule hereunto annexed became and are now vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

SCHEDULE.

"All that messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, situate in Broad-street, in Wokingham aforesaid, with a small garden in front and a larger garden in the rear, with shed formerly used as a Plumber's shop, stable, chaise-house, wood-shed, and other outbuildings adjoining or belonging thereto, and numbered 31 on the title commutation map for the said parish of Wokingham, and stated in the terrier to the said map to contain one rood and seven perches, but on recent admeasurement found to contain one rood and thirteen perches, little more or less; and also all that close, piece, or parcel of land adjoining the last-mentioned garden, and numbered 195 on the said map and stated in the said terrier to contain one acre and twenty-four perches, but on recent admeasurement found to contain one acre and twenty-nine perches, be the same more or less, which said messuage, dwelling-house, garden, land, and premises were formerly in the occupation of Anne Emma Cotterell, and are now or were lately in the occupation of the said Laurence Robert Cotterell, and which said premises are delineated and further described in the plan drawn in the margin of the Indenture referred to in this scheme and are in such plan distinguished by a pink colour."

"And whereas the said district of Christ Church, Saint George's-in-the-East, has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Saint George's-in-the-East, should be altered by way of limitation in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop, of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose, that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Saint George's-in-the-East, shall be altered by way of limitation so as to dis sever therefrom all that part thereof which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink; and that from and after the day of the same date, and without any other assurance in the law, the said part of the new parish of Christ Church, Saint George's-in-the-East, so to be dis severed as aforesaid, shall be restored, and be re-annexed to, and shall again become and be, and form part of the said parish of Saint George-in-the-East.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dis severed from the new parish of Christ Church, Saint George's-in-the-East, sometime part of the parish of Saint George-in-the-East, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and to be restored and reannexed to the said parish of Saint George-in-the-East, being:

the point where Spencer-street joins Charles-street aforesaid; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Little Union-street; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Morris-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Lower Chapman-street; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named street, to the boundary, at the junction of the same street with Cannon-street-road aforesaid, which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Saint George's-in-the-East, from the district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist in the East aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme or representation has been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patron and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation:

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing certain alterations and improvements at the episcopal residence belonging to the see of London, which is situate at Fulham, in the county of Middlesex, and is known as Fulham Palace.

"Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the diocese of London, is desirous that certain permanent improvements, which, according to estimate, can be effected at a cost of six hundred and fifty pounds, or thereabouts, should be made at the said episcopal residence known as Fulham Palace, and has submitted to us the particulars of such proposed improvements, and we have approved the same.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the cost of effecting the said proposed improvements, that is to say, the sum of six hundred and fifty pounds (being a sum not exceeding two years' income of the see), should be defrayed by means of a mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments or endowments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the bishoprick.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, the sum of six hundred and fifty pounds, and that as a security for the same, the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments and endowments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said see, to the said Governors, by deed, for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum of six hundred and fifty pounds, with the interest for the same, as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid, with interest, in manner following, that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly, at the end of the second year and of every year thereafter, pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one thirtieth part of the said principal sum, until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall, at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof, by distress and sale, in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants, by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said John, now Bishop of the said diocese of London, as every succeeding Bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest, costs, and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said sum of six hundred and fifty pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our Joint Treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof; and that upon the receipt of the said sum of six hundred and fifty pounds, the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the Bishop of the diocese of London for the time being shall, at his personal charge and expense, insure and keep insured the episcopal house of residence aforesaid from loss or damage by fire, in one of the public Offices of assurance in London or Westminster, to be approved by us, in a sum of not less than thirteen thousand and nine hundred pounds, and that such Bishop shall, within fourteen days after any premium for such assurance shall have become due and payable, deliver to us the receipt for the same, and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house, any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us, in trust, to be applied, and the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said house or of any part thereof which may have so suffered loss or damage, in such manner as shall be determined on by us with the concurrence of the Bishop of the diocese of London for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein named Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of that part of the parish of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Canterbury, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and out of the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, some-time part of the said parish of Croydon.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Croydon and of the said district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, hereinafter mentioned and described, such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and set forth.

"And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the same district, certain persons have subscribed a sum of two thousand five hundred and sixty-two pounds and ten shillings sterling, and have caused the same to be expended in the purchase of the several pieces or parcels of land, messuages, hereditaments, and premises hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas by a certain deed or indenture, bearing date on or about the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and made or expressed to be made under the provisions of 'The New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,' or some or one of them, between James May Stroud and Alfred William Stroud, both of Woodville-road, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, Brick Makers, of the first part, Frederick Lambert, of Brighton-road House, Croydon, in the said county of Surrey, Merchant, George Miller, of Church-street, Croydon aforesaid, Esquire, William Parker Hamond the younger, of Pampesford Hall, Cambridge, Esquire, Francis Philip Barraud, of Addiscombe-road, Croydon aforesaid, Artist, and Charles Newton, of Croydon aforesaid, Bookseller, of the second part, Julius Alexander Pearson, of Number 46, Hyde Park-square, in the said county of Middlesex, Gentleman, of the third part, and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said James May Stroud and Alfred William Stroud, in consideration of the sum of two thousand five hundred and sixty-two pounds and ten shillings sterling before mentioned, and at the request, and by the direction of the said several persons named above as parties to the said deed or indenture, of the second part, did appoint and also grant, and the same several persons, parties of the second part as aforesaid, did release and confirm unto the said Julius Alexander Pearson and his heirs a certain piece or parcel of ground, situate on the east side of the Newington-road, Stoke Newington-green, in the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, in the said county of Middlesex, formerly part of the gardens belonging to two houses known as numbers 1 and 2, Newington-green, as the said piece or parcel of ground, with the abutments, boundaries, and dimensions thereof, is more particularly delineated in the plan drawn in the margin of the said deed or indenture, and thereon coloured pink, and also the messuages, dwelling-houses, stables, and premises lately erected on the said piece or parcel of ground by one John George Bishop, and which said messuages or dwelling-houses were recently known as numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12, Bishop's-terrace, Newington-road, but are now known as number 1A, Newington-green, and numbers 128, 126, 124, 122, 120, 118, 116, 114, 112, 110, and 108, Newington Green-road, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of ground, messuages, hereditaments, and all and singular other the premises expressed to be appointed, granted, and released unto the said Julius Alexander Pearson and his heirs, to the use of the said several persons, parties of the second part, and their heirs, until an incumbent shall have been appointed and licensed to the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and when and so soon as such incumbent shall have been appointed and licensed, then to the use of the incumbent of the said district and his successors, incumbents thereof for the time being for ever, subject, nevertheless, to several indentures of lease (the particulars whereof, and the yearly rents, amounting together to the yearly sum of one hundred and two pounds and ten shillings, or thereabouts, which are reserved thereby, are set forth in the first schedule appended to such deed or indenture), and subject to a declaration in the same indenture contained, that no use shall arise in favour of any incumbent under the limitation thereinbefore contained and hereinbefore mentioned, unless he should be appointed and licensed before the expiration of twenty-one years from the date of the same indenture.

"And whereas the persons who subscribed to effect the purchase of the land, messuages, or dwelling-houses, stables, and premises hereinbefore referred to, did so upon the understanding that we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, should, out of our common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, pay to the incumbent for the time being of the said district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our Common Seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by, the said Frederick Lambert, George Miller, William Parker Hamond the younger, Francis Philip Barraud, and Charles Newton, their heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
ACT, 1870.

Borough of Birmingham.

BYE-LAWS OF THE BIRMINGHAM SCHOOL BOARD.

Recital.

WHEREAS, by the 74th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, it is enacted that every School Board may, from time to time, with the approval of the Education Department, make Bye-laws for all or any of the following purposes:—

1. Requiring the parents of children of such age, not less than five years nor more than thirteen years, as may be fixed by the Bye-laws, to cause such children (unless there is some reasonable excuse) to attend School.
2. Determining the time during which children are so to attend School, provided that no such Bye-law shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend School on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parents belong, or shall be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.
3. Providing for the remission or payment of the whole or any part of the fees of any child, where the parent satisfies the School Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the same.
4. Imposing penalties for the breach of any Bye-laws.
5. Revoking or altering any Bye-laws previously made.

Provided, that any Bye-law under this section requiring a child between ten and thirteen years of age to attend school, shall provide for the total or partial exemption of such child from the obligation to attend school if one of Her Majesty's Inspectors certifies that such child has reached a standard of education specified in such Bye-law.

And by the said 74th section, it is further enacted, that any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, namely:—

1. That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
2. That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
3. That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend, within such distance, not exceeding three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child, as the Bye-laws may prescribe.

And by the said 74th section, it is further enacted, that any proceeding to enforce any Bye-law may be taken, and any penalty for the breach of any Bye-law may be recovered in a summary manner; but no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such amount as with the costs will amount to five shillings for each offence, and such Bye-laws shall not come into operation until they have been sanctioned by Her Majesty in Council.

And whereas, by the 17th section of the said Act, it is enacted, that every child attending a school provided by any School Board, shall pay such weekly fee as may be prescribed by the School Board, with the consent of the Education Department; but the School Board may, from time to time, for a renewable period not exceeding six months, remit the whole or any part of such fee in the case of any child, when they are of opinion that the parent of such child is unable from poverty to pay the same, but such remission shall not be deemed to be parochial relief given to such parent.

And whereas, by the 25th section of the said Act, it is enacted that the School Board may, if they think fit, from time to time, for a renewable period not exceeding six months, pay the whole or any part of the school fees, payable at any Public Elementary School, by any child resident in their district, whose parent is, in their opinion, unable from poverty to pay the same; but no such payment shall be made or refused on condition of the child attending any Public Elementary School other than such as may be selected by the parent; and such payment shall not be deemed to be parochial relief given to such parent.

Now at a Meeting of the School Board of the said borough of Birmingham, duly convened and held at the Parish Offices, in Paradise-street, in the said borough, this 24th day of May, 1871, at which meeting a quorum of the members of such board are present; the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the aforesaid powers, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make the following Bye-laws, to come into effect forthwith, after the same shall receive the sanction of Her Majesty in Council.

The 29th day of July, 1871.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Secretary Bruce.
Mr. Forster.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any vessel arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessel shall not have come from any place from which His Majesty, his heirs and successors, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the Plague, or any such infectious disease or distemper may be brought, and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandize, and other articles, as aforesaid, on board the same; and in case of any infectious disease or distemper appearing or breaking out in the United Kingdom or the islands aforesaid, to make such Orders and give such direction, in order to cut off all communication between any persons infected with any such disease or distemper, and the rest of His Majesty's subjects, as shall appear to the Lords or others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to be necessary and expedient for that purpose, and likewise to make such Orders as they shall see fit, for shortening the time of quarantine to be performed by particular vessels or particular persons, goods, wares, merchandize, or any other articles, or for absolutely or conditionally releasing them, or any of them, from quarantine; and all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any two or more of them, as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as well with respect to the Commander, Master, or other person, having the charge of any vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable, as any Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council concerning quarantine, notified by Proclamation or published in the London Gazette."

And whereas by "The Sanitary Act, 1866," it is (among other things) enacted (section fifty-two) at follows:—

"Every vessel having on board any person affected with a dangerous or infectious disorder shall be deemed to be within the provisions of the Act of the sixth year of King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, although such vessel has not commenced her voyage, or has come from or is bound for some

“place in the United Kingdom; and the Lords and others of Her Majesty’s Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council or one of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State being one), may by Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, make such rules, orders, and regulations as to them shall seem fit, and every such Order shall be certified under the hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty’s Privy Council, and shall be published in the London Gazette, and such publication shall be conclusive evidence of such Order to all intents and purposes; and such Orders shall be binding and be carried into effect as soon as the same shall have been so published, or at such other time as shall be fixed by such Orders, with a view to the treatment of persons affected with cholera and epidemic, endemic and contagious disease, and preventing the spread of cholera and such other diseases, as well on the seas, rivers, and waters of the United Kingdom, and on the high seas within three miles of the coasts thereof, as on land; and to declare and determine by what Nuisance Authority or Authorities such Orders, Rules, and Regulations shall be enforced and executed; and any expenses incurred by such Nuisance Authority or Authorities shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by it or them in carrying into effect the Nuisances Removal Acts.”

And whereas Cholera is now prevailing in certain parts of Continental Europe, with which this country has communication, and it is requisite to take precaution, as far as practicable, against the introduction of that disease into this country;—

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty’s Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the recited enactments or otherwise in them vested, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

2. It shall be lawful for any Nuisance Authority having reason to believe that any ship arriving in its district comes from a place infected with cholera, to visit and examine such ship before it enters any port, or lands any person or thing in the district, for the purpose of ascertaining whether such ship comes within the operation of this Order.

3. The Master of every ship within the district of a Nuisance Authority, having on board any person affected with Cholera, or the body of any person dead of Cholera, or anything infected with or that has been exposed to the infection of Cholera, shall, as long as the ship is within such district, moor, anchor, or place her in such position as from time to time the Nuisance Authority directs.

4. No person shall land from any such ship until the examination hereinafter mentioned has been made.

5. The Nuisance Authority shall, immediately on the arrival of such a ship, cause all persons on board of the same to be examined by a legally qualified Medical Practitioner, and shall permit all persons who shall not be certified by him to be suffering from Cholera to land immediately.

6. All persons certified by the examiner to be suffering from cholera shall be dealt with under any rules that may have been made by the Nuisance Authority under the twenty-ninth section of the Sanitary Act, 1866; or where no such rules shall have been made, shall be removed, if their condition admits of it, to some hospital or place to be designated for such purpose by the Nuisance Authority; and no person so removed shall quit such hospital or place until some physician or surgeon shall have certified that such person is free from the said disease.

7. In the event of any death from Cholera taking place on board of such vessel, the body shall be taken out to sea, and committed to the deep, properly loaded, to prevent its rising.

8. The clothing and bedding of all persons who shall have died, or had an attack, of Cholera, on board such vessel, shall be disinfected, or (if necessary) destroyed, under the direction of the Nuisance Authority.

9. The ship, and any articles therein which may be infected with Cholera, shall be disinfected by the Nuisance Authority.

1. That from and after the date of this present Order, the boundaries hereinafter set forth and described and delineated on the plan referred to in, and accompanying, the said Inspector's Report to me, bearing date the 26th day of July, 1871, form and constitute the boundaries of the district to be called the "Whitby District," for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858; and that the parts included in such boundaries so described and delineated shall, for the purposes of such Act, be deemed to be a place having a known and defined boundary, and may adopt the said Act accordingly.

The boundary line commences on the map accompanying the Report of the Inspector at the point A, on the boundary line which divides the townships of Newholm-cum-Dunsley and Ruswarp, and passes thence in a southerly direction along such boundary line to the point B, at the junction between the boundaries of the townships of Newholm-cum-Dunsley, Ruswarp, and Aislaby; thence in a southerly direction, and passing along the line which divides the townships of Aislaby and Ruswarp, to the point C, near Sleight's Bridge, at the point of junction between the townships of Ruswarp, Aislaby, Eskdaleside, and Uggelbarby; thence north-easterly along the line which divides the township of Ruswarp from the township of Uggelbarby, the parish of Sneaton, and the township of Hawsker-cum-Stainsacre respectively, to the point D; thence easterly along and including the new bed of the River Esk, known as the "New Cut," to the point E, on the line which divides the townships of Ruswarp and Hawsker-cum-Stainsacre; thence in an easterly direction along the course of such last-named boundary line, to the point F; thence south-easterly along the boundary fence between Turton's and Turnbull's lands, to the point G, on the east side of Larpool-lane; thence northerly and easterly along and including Larpool-lane, and passing along the walls on the south and east sides of the Whitby Cemetery, to the point H; thence easterly along the boundary fence between Wardale's and Noble's lands, and crossing Stainsacre-lane, to the point I, on the east side of the same lane; thence northerly along and including such lane, and following the line of a watercourse or ditch, through lands belonging to David Barclay Chapman, in the occupation of James Cliff, to the point K, where the last-mentioned watercourse or ditch joins Spital Beck; thence crossing the same beck, and passing in a northerly direction along the fence on the east side of certain gardens belonging to the devisees of John Chapman, occupied by George Frank and others, to the point L; thence north-westerly along the fence on the north side of the same gardens, to the point M, on the line defining the limits of the District of the Commissioners for the Improvement of the town of Whitby; thence northerly along the same defining line to the point N, at the north-eastern boundary of the last-mentioned district; thence along an imaginary line taken to be drawn due northward from point N to point O, at low-water mark of lowest spring tides; thence westerly in a straight line to the starting-point at A, so completing the boundary of the proposed District of Whitby.

2. That Robert Elliott Pannett, Solicitor, Whitby, be Summoning Officer, and take forthwith all such steps as may be necessary, under the hereinbefore recited Local Government Act, for convening a meeting of the ratepayers of the said district, to decide as to the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, within the boundaries of such district as fixed and settled by this Order; and in case of the failure or inability of the said Robert Elliott Pannett to discharge such duty of Summoning Officer, that Mathew Gray, Solicitor, Whitby, act in his stead.

Given under my hand this 28th day of July, 1871.
