TUESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1871.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Monday, August 21, 1871.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE time has now arrived when I am enabled to release you from your attendance in Parliament, and to commend your unwearied labours for the public good.

I acknowledge with satisfaction the loyal readiness with which you have made provision for my beloved children, Princess Louise and Prince Arthur.

The great events and important changes, which have recently occurred on the Continent of Europe, have not compromised the friendly relations subsisting between the Crown of the United Kingdom and Foreign Powers. Whatever part I may take in those international questions which from time to time may arise, will continue to be taken with no other view than the maintenance of general concord and public right.

The Conference which was sitting in London at the commencement of the Session was joined during its deliberations by a French Plenipotentiary, and it considered and agreed upon a revision of those stipulations of the Treaty of 1856, which concerned the Black Sea and the Bosphorus. I trust that the unanimous decision of the Powers, which has been recorded in a new Treaty, may assist in securing the tranquillity and welfare of the East.

It is with a special satisfaction that I refer on the present occasion to our relations with the United States of America. By the Treaty of Washington, modes of settlement have been fixed for several questions, which had long remained in dispute.

My communications with the American Government have not been without the promise of advantage to other countries. The President has concurred with me in an application of that principle of amicable reference which was proclaimed by the Treaty of Paris, and which I rejoiced to have had an opportunity of recommending by example. And we have also agreed in the adoption of certain rules for guiding the maritime conduct of neutrals which may I trust ere long obtain general recognition and form a valuable addition to the code of International Law.

I place full reliance upon the disposition of the American Government to carry forward with cordiality and zeal the subsidiary arrangements which have been determined on for the execution of the Treaty.

I shall apprise the Parliament of Canada that the provisions which require its consent are, in my view, highly conducive to the interests of the Dominion. On these provisions, however, that Parliament will pass an independent and final judgment.

The Government of France has signified its desire to alter some of the provisions of the Commercial Treaty of 1860, which is now terminable, upon a notice of twelve months, by either of the Contracting States. I am anxious to meet the wishes of a friendly Power, and to give scope for any measures calculated to meet its fiscal exigencies; but I should witness with concern any change of a nature to restrict that commercial intercourse between the two countries which has done so much for their closer union.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberal supplies which, under the circumstances of the year, I directed my Government to ask from you; and for the sum of money you have voted in order to meet the charge of the compensations required by the abolition of Purchase in the Army.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I observe with concern that you have not been able to bring to a definitive issue the treatment of some of the subjects which were recommended to you in the Speech from the Throne at the opening of the Session.

But several important laws have been added to the Statute Book.

By the Army Regulation Bill you have made a liberal provision for the Officers of the Army, who will no longer be permitted on retirement to sell their commissions to their successors, and by transferring to the Executive Government powers in respect to the Auxiliary Forces, which have hitherto been vested in the Lords Lieutenants of Counties, you have laid the foundation for measures calculated to effect a closer union among the various Land Forces of the Kingdom.

The Act by which, after a full examination of the facts, you conferred extraordinary powers on the Viceroy of Ireland for the repression of agrarian outrage in Westmeath, has thus far answered its purpose. Elsewhere in that portion of the United Kingdom there is a gratifying immunity from crime, and agriculture and trade are prosperous.

By the measures relating to University Tests, to the repeal of the Ecclesiastical Titles Act, and to the laws which affect Trades Unions, you have brought to a conclusion long continued and serious controversies.

The Local Government Board Act will, I trust, prepare the way for important sanitary and administrative improvements: and the Act relating to the Judicial Committee will supply a much needed element of strength to an important tribunal, and afford a prospect of clearing away a serious arrear of appeals now before the Privy Council.

But there is every likelihood that for a long time to come, the great and varied interests of the United Kingdom and of the Empire at large, together with the extending demands of modern society, may prevent any lightening of the honourable but arduous burdens of legislation.

The condition of the Revenue, the revived activity of Trade, and the prospects of the Harvest, are subjects for congratulation; and I trust that these and all other bounties of Providence will ever meet their fitting acknowledgment in the hearts of a grateful people.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Tuesday, the seventh day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday, the seventh day of November next.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of Her Majesty's Order in Council, dated fourth June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, Her Majesty's Civil Service Commissioners therein named have framed, and the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have approved, sundry Regulations for testing the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments, and part of such regulations (viz., the regulations contained in the schedule hereto) relate to Temporary Writers, whose services are not confined to any single Civil Establishment, but who represent, to whatever establishment they may happen for the time being to be attached, the same description of labour ;

And whereas it is expedient to place at the service of every Department where Temporary Writers are for the time being needed, persons whose wages and conditions of employment are the same ;

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered as follows, viz. :—

I. That no Temporary Writers be attached henceforth to any Establishment of Her Majesty's Civil Service except in conformity with the annexed Regulations, or with such further Regulations as the said Civil Service Commissioners may, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, issue in execution of their powers in that behalf.

II. That a week's notice, which may, at the discretion of the Chief of the Department, be extended to a month's notice, be given to all acting writers (except such as fall within the terms of Clause III. of this present Order) who are not willing to continue their service upon the terms of the Regulations hereto appended.

III. That temporary writers heretofore certificated by the Civil Service Commissioners for service in any particular Department, and temporary writers now borne upon the Register of the Civil Service Commissioners, who have been respectively serving in the same Department continuously from a date preceding 4th June, 1870, be excepted from Clause II and be retained, but only so long as their services are required in the same Department, at the salary or wages, and on the other terms, which they were actually receiving, and were actually subject to, on 4th June, 1870, without any addition thereto, or alteration therein, on account of service following that date.

IV. That Departments connected immediately with Courts of Justice, or with the Registration of legal titles or instruments, be excepted from this Order so long as the Chiefs of such Departments shall not have signified their consent to be bound by it.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 19th day of August, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-eight; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twentieth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and six; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-eight; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty the following scheme for uniting the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, in the city of London, with the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, in the same city, and for effecting certain measures hereinafter specified with respect to the patronage and the endowment of the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Andrew by the wardrobe, with Saint Ann, Blackfriars, in the same city of London, the patronage of which last-named benefice is now exercised alternately by the Lord High Chancellor of England, on behalf of Your Majesty, in whom and in your successors the same patronage is vested in right of the Crown for every alternate turn or right of presentation and by the parishioners of the parish of Saint Ann, Blackfriars, in whom, as such parishioners, the same patronage is vested for the other alternate turn or right of presentation.

“Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has caused proposals for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two firstly hereinbefore-mentioned benefices to be laid before us, such proposals being prepared under the seventh and eighth sections of the lastly-mentioned Act, and being finally approved by the said John, Bishop of London, and being assented to by the patrons and by the vestries of the parishes to be affected thereby, that is to say, by the Right Honourable William Page, Baron Hatherley, Lord High Chancellor of England, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as patron, in right of his office, of the said vicarage of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, and by the said William Page, Baron Hatherley, acting as aforesaid as patron for every alternate turn of the said rectory of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, and by the wardens and commonalty of the Mystery of Mercers of the city of London, who are the patrons for the other alternate turn of the same rectory, and by the vestries of the four parishes of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, Saint Martin, Pomeroy, Saint Mildred, Poultry, and Saint Mary, Colechurch.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that the said proposed union should be effected.

“And whereas the said John, Bishop of London, and the said patrons and vestries of the said parishes to be affected by such union are willing that the scheme for carrying out the same union shall embody certain modifications of the said proposals.

“And whereas this present scheme embodies the said modifications, but otherwise is based upon and does not vary from what is proposed in the said proposals.

“Now therefore, with the consents of the said John, Bishop of London, of the said William Page, Baron Hatherley, Lord High Chancellor of England (testified by their respectively signing and sealing this scheme), and of the said wardens and commonalty of the Mystery of Mercers of the city of London (testified by their sealing this scheme with their common or corporate seal), and of the vestry of each of the said four parishes of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, Saint Martin, Pomeroy, Saint Mildred, Poultry, and Saint Mary, Colechurch (testified in the case of each vestry by the signature attached to this scheme in pursuance of a resolution to that effect of the Chairman of a vestry meeting duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent), we humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say:—

1. “That the said benefice of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, and the said benefice of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, shall be united and consolidated into, and shall become and be one benefice, by the name and style of ‘The United Rectory of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, Saint Mildred, Poultry, and Saint Mary, Colechurch.’

2. “That if, when this scheme shall have been confirmed by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, both of the said present benefices of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, and Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, shall be vacant, the union shall forthwith take effect, and if one only of the same two benefices shall be vacant, the union shall also forthwith take effect if the incumbent of the other of the said two present benefices shall consent to become the incumbent of the united benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then that the union shall take effect upon the then next vacancy of his benefice, and that the then incumbent of the other of the said two present benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; and if, when this scheme shall be confirmed as aforesaid, both of the said present benefices shall be full, then that the union shall take effect upon the next vacancy of either of them if the incumbent for the time being of the other of the said present benefices shall consent to become the incumbent of the united benefice, and that he shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice, but if he shall not so consent then that the union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his benefice, and that the then incumbent of the other of the said present benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefices. And that in any case it shall be lawful for the Bishop to admit to the united benefice such first incumbent (if an incumbent for the time being of either of the existing benefices) without any form or fee of presentation, and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the united benefice; and that, until the time of the union taking effect, the said two present benefices shall remain separate, and the rights and liabilities of each of them and of the incumbent of each of them, as such, shall remain unaffected.

3. “That if, after the confirmation of this scheme, as aforesaid, and before the union shall have taken effect, the incumbent for the time being of either of the said two present benefices shall, with the consent of the Bishop, retire from his incumbency, in order that the union may take immediate effect, the incumbent so retiring from his incumbency shall be entitled, during the period hereinafter specified, to receive out of the annual income of the united benefice, and by way of compensation, a yearly sum equal in amount to the net annual value of the tithes, tithe rent charge, and endowments annexed to his incumbency, computed on the average receipts of the three years immediately preceding the year in which he shall so retire, which annual sum shall commence as from the day on which the union shall take effect, and shall be payable by equal half yearly payments in every year; the first half yearly payment thereof to become due at the end of six calendar months next after the day on which the union shall have taken full legal effect. And that the said annual sum shall be payable to the retiring incumbent during the remainder of his life, or until he shall accept any other Church preferment of an annual value equal to or greater in amount than the said annual sum to be so made payable to such retiring incumbent, and that upon his accepting such preferment the said annual sum shall thenceforth (that is to say, as from the date of his becoming entitled to the revenues of such preferment) absolutely cease to accrue and be payable; but that if the other church preferment so accepted by him be of a net annual value (to be ascertained without reference to, and exclusively of the house of residence, if any,) less than the said annual sum, then, that whilst he shall hold such other preferment the said annual sum shall in each year be reduced by a sum equal in amount to the net annual value of such preferment, to be ascertained as aforesaid. And that if the same annual payment shall cease by his death, or shall cease or be diminished by his acceptance of such church preferment (as the case may be), on any other than one of the half yearly days of payment, he or his executors or administrators shall be entitled to a proportionate part of the said annual sum for the period which, at the time of such cesser or diminution, shall have elapsed of the current half year, which proportionate part shall be payable at the end of the current half year.

4. "That the annual sum in the clause last foregoing mentioned, shall be charged upon the annual income of the united benefice, and shall be payable out of the same by the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice. And that, as between the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice and the retiring incumbent and his assigns, the said annual sum shall be a first charge at law and in equity upon the income of the united benefice, the incumbent of which benefice shall be deemed to have accepted the same, subject to a trust to pay to the retiring incumbent or his assigns the said annual sum out of the income of such benefice, and for that purpose to use all due diligence to receive and collect the income of the said united benefice; and that if such annual sum, or any part thereof, shall at any time be in arrear and unpaid for more than twenty-one days after any of the said half-yearly days of payment, and the fact of the same being so in arrear, shall be verified by the declaration of the incumbent who shall have so retired, or his assigns, or in such other manner as shall be required by the Bishop, then that it shall be lawful for the Bishop to make an order upon the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice, requiring him to pay the amount in arrear within a time to be specified in such order, and if the same be not paid within such period, then that it shall be lawful for the Bishop to sequester the profits of the benefice until all such arrears and the costs of the sequestration shall have been paid and satisfied; but that the power to be so conferred upon the Bishop shall not in anywise abridge or interfere with the rights of the incumbent who shall have so retired, or his assigns, to recover the said annual sum and all arrears thereof by proceedings at law or in equity, or with the legal and equitable rights of the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice, to recover from the preceding incumbent of the united benefice, his executors or administrators, any arrears of the said annual sum which ought to have been paid by such preceding incumbent.

5. "That if the union shall have taken immediate effect by reason of the incumbent for the time being of either of the existing benefices having retired from his incumbency, and such incumbent shall be living when the united benefice shall for the first time after such union become vacant, the incumbent who shall have so retired, shall (if in the opinion of the Bishop not disqualified by age or otherwise) be entitled to fill such vacancy, and may be admitted by the Bishop to the united benefice without any form or fee of presentation, and shall upon such admission become the incumbent of the united benefice, and that the annual sum hereinbefore proposed to be made payable to him, shall thenceforth absolutely cease to be payable.

6. "That upon the union taking effect, the present church of the parishes of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the united benefice.

7. "That after the union, the expense of maintaining the fabric of the parish church of the united benefice and providing the things requisite for Divine Service therein, shall be defrayed by the four parishes of the united benefice, and shall as between the same four parishes respectively be provided in the following proportions (that is to say): that the amount to be provided by each parish shall bear the same proportion to the whole amount to be provided as the total amount of the annual rateable value of the property in such parish as assessed for the time being for the purposes of the Consolidated or Police Rate, shall bear to the aggregate amount of the like rateable annual value of the property in all the parishes.

8. "That upon the union taking effect, the font, communion table, and sacramental plate used in the church of the parishes of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, shall be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice, but that if in the opinion of the Bishop the same, or any part thereof be not needed for such church, then the same or such of them or so much of the said plate as shall not be so needed, shall be transferred to such other church or chapel within the diocese as the Bishop shall select.

9. "That upon the union taking effect, if the tables of fees used in the two churches be alike in all particulars, the table of fees used in the church which will become the church of the united benefice, shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the four parishes of the united benefice, but if such tables of fees be not alike in all particulars, then that the same shall be of no authority, and a new table of fees shall be made by the proper authority for the use of the same four parishes, as if the same were one parish.

10. "That upon the union taking effect, the persons who at that time shall hold the offices of parish clerk of the parishes of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, and parish clerk of the parishes of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, shall without any further appointment, become the joint parish clerks of the united benefice. And that the persons who at the time of the union taking effect shall hold the offices of sexton of the parishes of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary Colechurch, and sexton of the parishes of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, shall without any further appointment, become the joint sextons of the united benefice, and that upon the death, retirement, or removal of either of the joint parish clerks, the other of them shall become the parish clerk of the united benefice, and upon the death, retirement, or removal of either of the joint sextons, the other of them shall become the sexton of the united benefice, but that no parish clerk or sexton of the united benefice, shall have any larger estate or interest in his office than he possessed in his original office before the union; and that the parish clerk of the united benefice shall afterwards upon any vacancy in that office be appointed by the incumbent of the united benefice, and that any future vacancy in the office of sexton shall be filled up by the joint vestry of the four parishes of the united benefice, and may at the discretion of such vestry be filled up by the appointment of a woman as such sexton.

11. "That upon the union taking effect, the persons who at that time shall respectively hold the offices of clerk and sexton of the parishes of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, and who shall respectively become one of such joint clerks and sextons of the united benefice, shall respectively cease to hold the office of clerk and sexton respectively of such last-mentioned parishes; and the clerk so ceasing to hold such office, shall by way of compensation, so long as he shall be one of the joint clerks of the united benefice, receive from the vestry of the parishes of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, during the pleasure of such vestry, a salary equal in amount to his present salary; and that in like manner the sexton so ceasing to hold such office, shall by way of compensation, so long as he shall be one of the joint sextons of the united benefice, receive from the vestry of the parishes of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, during the pleasure of such vestry, a salary equal in amount to his present salary, the receipt of such salary in the case of the said clerk and sexton respectively, to be conditional upon the performance by such clerk and sexton respectively of such duties appertaining to the offices of parish clerk and sexton respectively in the parish church of the united benefice, or otherwise connected with such parish church and the performance of the services therein, as the rector and churchwardens may from time to time require.

12. "That so long as a salary shall under the provisions of this scheme be payable by the parishes of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, to one of the joint clerks of the united benefice, those parishes shall not be required to contribute any proportion of the salary of the other of the joint clerks of the united benefice; and that in like manner so long as a salary shall under the provisions of this scheme be payable by the last-mentioned parishes to one of the joint sextons of the united benefice, those parishes shall not be required to contribute any proportion of the salary of the other of the joint sextons of the united benefice, but that whilst such salaries by way of compensation shall continue payable to such joint clerk and joint sexton respectively the salaries of the other joint clerk and joint sexton of the united benefice shall be paid exclusively by the parishes of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, and as between those parishes shall be so paid in proportion to such rateable annual value of the property in such parish assessed as aforesaid.

13. "That upon and as from the day when the union hereinbefore recommended and proposed of the said two benefices of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, and Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, shall have taken full legal effect as hereinbefore mentioned, all the tithe or money in lieu of tithe, and all other (if any other) the hereditaments constituting the endowments of the benefice of Saint Mildred, Poultry, with Saint Mary, Colechurch, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council confirming this scheme, by virtue of which Order such union will so take effect be transferred and annexed to the said church of the said parishes of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy (which church will as from the same day become and be as aforesaid the church of the said proposed united benefice), in order that the same endowments, together with the endowments now belonging to the church and benefice of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, with Saint Martin, Pomeroy, may become and be, and we recommend and propose that the same shall thereupon and thereafter become and be, the endowments of the united benefice and of the incumbent thereof.

14. "That, nevertheless, the said endowments of the united benefice may at any one time after the said union be made subject to the payment of any annual rent-charge in perpetuity not exceeding the annual sum of one hundred and thirty pounds, in favour of the benefice of Saint John, Clerkenwell (being a benefice in the patronage of the Lord Chancellor acting on behalf of Your Majesty), which said lastly-mentioned sum may be charged upon any part or parts of the same endowments by virtue of any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying a scheme prepared under the eleventh section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, and to any lawful powers and remedies for the recovery of the same annual rent-charge, such rent-charge not to commence until the annual sum hereinbefore proposed to be provided for a retiring incumbent as aforesaid shall have ceased to be payable and until the united benefice shall have ceased to be held by either of the persons now incumbents respectively of the two benefices hereinbefore proposed to be united as aforesaid.

15. "That upon the union taking effect, the church of Saint Mildred, Poultry, shall (subject, nevertheless, to and in accordance with the provisions of the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two) be taken down and its materials and site sold; the sale thereof (except so far as relates to that part of the premises which is to be purchased by the Commissioners of Sewers under the provisions hereinafter proposed) to be by public tender, and to be made at one time, or at more than one time, as may be convenient to the vendors; the pulpit, bells, clocks, organ, and other furniture and fittings (other than as aforesaid) being reserved to be appropriated, if required, for the use of the church to be provided as hereinafter proposed for the district of Saint

Paul, Clerkenwell, but (if not so required and appropriated) to be sold; and that all monies arising from such sale or sales shall be paid over to us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

16. "That before the site of the church of Saint Mildred, Poultry, shall be offered for sale, as aforesaid, the Commissioners of Sewers for the City of London shall have the option of purchasing, at the price of Four thousand pounds, for the purpose of widening the street called or known as "The Poultry" so much of the site of the same church fronting on the same street as is coloured pink on the plan annexed to this scheme; provided that and only if such option be declared to us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in writing, within twenty-one days next after we shall have required the Commissioners of Sewers to declare the same; provided also that such last mentioned portion of the site of the same church shall, if so purchased by the said Commissioners of Sewers, be applicable and applied to no purpose other than the use of the public as a public road, and for the widening as aforesaid of the said street called or known as 'The Poultry;' and provided also that the said sum of Four thousand pounds shall be paid by the said Commissioners of Sewers to us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, and that such sum shall be so paid before the said Commissioners of Sewers shall be put into possession of the land.

17. "That out of the net proceeds which shall be realized by the sale or sales, to be effected as hereinbefore mentioned, of the materials, site, furniture, and fittings, or any of them, of the said church of Saint Mildred, Poultry, there shall be appropriated, firstly, a sum of Nine thousand pounds (to be expended at such time or times as we shall think fit) for or towards the erection of a new church within the limits of the said district of Saint Paul, Clerkenwell, and the acquisition of a site for such church; and, secondly, such a sum as we shall determine, not exceeding Two thousand pounds (to be expended as and when we shall think fit) towards altering or re-building the house hereinafter proposed to be appropriated as the residence of the rector of the united benefice; and, thirdly, a sum which invested in three per centum annuities of the Bank of England would produce a clear annual income of Fifty pounds, such last-mentioned sum to be appropriated (when and as we shall think fit) towards the permanent increase of the endowment of the said benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Andrew by the Wardrobe with St. Ann, Blackfriars; and, fourthly, a sum of Four thousand pounds, to be paid by us to the vestry or persons exercising the powers of vestry of the united benefice, such sum, or the interest thereof only, or some portion of the capital, with or without interest, to be applied by them at their discretion in repairing and keeping in repair the said church of Saint Olave, Old Jewry, and in putting the same into a fit and proper condition to become the church of the united benefice, and in re-seating the same under the provisions of the twenty-eighth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two; and that the remainder of the net proceeds of the sale of the said site and materials as aforesaid shall (except as in clause 20 of this scheme is excepted) constitute part of the fund to be provided under, and for the purposes of the twenty-second section of the same Act.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing a transfer of the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of presentation to the benefice (being a rectory) of Hungerton-cum-Wyville, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of presentation to the said benefice of Hungerton-cum-Wyville is vested in and belongs to the bishop of Lincoln, in right of his see.

"And whereas John Sherwin Gregory, of Harlaxton Manor, in the said county of Lincoln, Esquire, now deceased, did, on or about the eighth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, transfer to us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, a sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, in aid of the endowment of the said benefice of Hungerton-cum-Wyville, the augmentation of the same endowment thereby made being so made upon the understanding and condition that we, the said Commissioners should, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, recommend to your Majesty in Council a transfer of the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of presentation to the said benefice of Hungerton-cum-Wyville to him, the said John Sherwin Gregory, his heirs and assigns, for ever, and upon the further condition that such recommendation should be duly ratified by Order of your Majesty in Council.

"And whereas on or about the seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, the said John Sherwin Gregory departed this life, having by a codicil (dated on or about the twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and duly executed and attested) to his last will and testament, devised the said advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of presentation to the said benefice of Hungerton-cum-Wyville (if and when the same should be transferred to him as above-mentioned), to certain uses in the said codicil mentioned or referred to.

"And whereas the said will and testament with the said codicil thereto have been duly proved.

"And whereas the said proposed transfer has not yet been effected.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Christopher, now bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, is desirous that the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of presentation to the said benefice of Hungerton-cum-Wyville, now vested in him in right of his see as aforesaid, should be transferred as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas it appears to us that such transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish in, or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish or united parish of Hungerton-cum-Wyville, by confirming and securing to and for the use of the incumbent thereof for the time being, the annual income to arise from the said sum of stock so conditionally transferred to us to that end as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (within whose province the said diocese of Lincoln is situate), and with the consent of the said Christopher, Bishop of the same diocese of Lincoln (in testimony of which consent they the said archbishop and bishop have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any other assurance in the law, the advowson and perpetual patronage of and right of presentation to the said benefice of Hungerton-cum-Wyville, now vested in him the said Christopher, bishop of Lincoln as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him the said Christopher, bishop of Lincoln, and from his successors, bishops of the said diocese, and shall become and be absolutely vested, and shall from time to time go, remain, and be in such person or persons to such uses, and upon and for such trusts, and with, under, and subject to such powers, provisoes, and declarations as are declared and contained of and concerning the same, in the said codicil to the last will and testament of the said John Sherwin Gregory, deceased.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 19th day of August, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the particular district of Saint Peter, Bournemouth (some time part of the parish of Christchurch, with the chapelry of Holdenhurst), in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said particular district of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas a capital sum of five thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by Edmund Christy, of Bournemouth, in the said county of Southampton, Esquire, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being; and we have in respect thereof agreed with the said Edmund Christy, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein mentioned Act, the yearly sum of one hundred and fifty pounds in each and every year during which the said capital sum shall continue in our hands.

"And whereas the said sum of five thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid as aforesaid, upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said particular district of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Clement, Bournemouth.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, as aforesaid, be assigned to and be vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edmund Christy, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Clement, Bournemouth, being:—

"All that part of the particular district of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, (some time part of the parish of Christchurch, with the chapelry of Holdenhurst), in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, which is bounded on the south-east and on the north-east by the district chapelry of Pokesdown, some time part of the parish of Christchurch aforesaid, on the north-west by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Bournemouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining side that is to say on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Bournemouth, from the particular district of Saint Peter, Bournemouth aforesaid, at the point where Holdenhurst-road, is joined by Saint John's Wood-road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Christchurch-road; and extending thence eastward for a distance of about one third of a mile along the middle of the last-named road to the point where it crosses Boscomb Stream; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said stream to the boundary at Boscomb Chine which divides the said particular district of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, from the district chapelry of Pokesdown aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, been transmitted to the patron, and to the incumbent of the said particular district of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken; and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 19th day of August, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty, King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing certain alterations and improvements at the episcopal residence belonging to the see of Chichester, which is situate in the city of Chichester.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of the diocese of Chichester, is desirous that certain permanent improvements should be made at the said episcopal residence at Chichester, and has submitted to us the particulars of such proposed improvements, and we have approved the same.

"And whereas the said bishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said proposed improvements a sum of one thousand pounds (being a sum which together with a sum of one thousand pounds already borrowed upon the same security by the said bishop under the authority of the statutes hereinbefore mentioned does not exceed two years income of the see), should be provided by borrowing the same by way of further mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments or endowments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the bishoprick of Chichester.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that the said bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts the sum of one thousand pounds, and that as a security for the same the said bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments and endowments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said see to the said Governors by deed for the term of thirty-five years or until the said sum of one thousand pounds with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following, that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term computed from the day of the date of the mortgage no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said bishop or his successors shall yearly at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed and at the end of every such like period thereafter pay to the said Governors their successors or assigns one thirtieth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid and shall at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors, and assigns to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us and shall bind as well the said Richard, now bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, as every succeeding bishop of the same diocese until the principal money and interest, costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of one thousand pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of one thousand pounds, the whole, or any part or parts thereof, shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal residence aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose that the bishop of the diocese of Chichester for the time being shall at his personal charge and expense insure and keep insured the episcopal house of residence aforesaid from loss or damage by fire in one of the public offices of assurance in London or Westminster to be approved by us in a sum of not less than six thousand pounds and that such bishop shall within fourteen days after any premium for such assurance shall have become due and payable, deliver to us the receipt for the same, and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us in trust to be applied, and the same together with any interest and accumulations thereof shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said house, or of any part thereof, which may have so suffered loss or damage in such manner as shall be determined on by us, with the concurrence of the bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, for the time being.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Bray Wood, in the parish of Bray, in the county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford.

"And whereas the said church of All Saints, situate at Bray Wood as aforesaid, has been erected upon the estate called New Lodge, in the parish of Bray aforesaid, which estate belongs to Elizabeth Ann Sturgis Van de Weyer, the wife of His Excellency Sylvain Van de Weyer, late Ambassador at your Majesty's Court, from the Kingdom of Belgium, under and subject to the Will of her father, Joshua Bates, formerly of the STATUTES for the Government of Westminster School, otherwise called St. Peter's College, Westminster.

CHAPTER I.—FOUNDATION. CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION.

1. Admission to the Foundation of Westminster School shall be wholly dependent on proficiency in an annual competitive examination, except as hereinafter provided.

2. The examination shall be conducted by such persons, in such manner, and at such times as the Governing Body shall from time to time direct.

3. No boy shall be admitted to this examination unless he shall have been entered and shall have attended at the School on or before a certain day preceding the election, to be fixed from time to time by the Governing Body, so always that such day be not more than one year before the day of the election.

4. The names of the Candidates, hereinafter called Minor Candidates, together with their parentage, place of birth, and age, shall be recorded.

5. The Minor Candidates recommended by the Examiners for admission on the Foundation shall be presented in order of merit by the Head Master to the Dean of Westminster for admission; and prior to such admission, the names of such Minor Candidates shall be placed in order as aforesaid upon Indentures signed by the Dean of Westminster.

6. The names of the Minor Candidates, beyond the number required to fill the vacancies on the Foundation, who shall satisfy the Examiners of their general fitness, shall be placed upon the Indentures in order of merit as prælecti for admission to such casual vacancies as may occur in the course of the ensuing year.

7. In the event of any casual vacancy on the Foundation occurring before the 25th of March next following the execution of the Indentures, the highest of the prælecti in the above order shall be presented by the Head Master to the Dean of Westminster for admission; unless the Head Master shall, in the exercise of his discre-

8. In the event of any casual vacancy occurring between the twenty fourth of March and the next annual election, the Head Master may either present to the Dean the highest (in the above order) of the prælecti or the highest in order in such examination as aforesaid, or reserve the vacancy to be filled up at the next election.

9. If in any year the vacancies on the Foundation at election shall exceed the number of Minor Candidates recommended by the Examiners for admission as hereinbefore provided, or if the casual vacancies occurring in any year, other than vacancies which under the preceding powers the Head Master may reserve to the next election, shall exceed the number of prælecti on the Indentures, then in any such case the Governing Body may make arrangements for reserving such vacancies or for opening them to competition on any conditions which they may think fit.

10. Except in the cases specially provided for in the last preceding section, no boy shall be admitted on the Foundation unless he shall have been under fifteen years of age on the twenty fifth of March preceding the entry of his name upon the Indentures.

11. In every case of admission of a Minor Candidate the Head Master may object to such admission on the ground of character or conduct, and the Dean of Westminster shall then suspend such admission until he shall have consulted the Governing Body, whose decision thereupon shall be final. If the Governing Body shall decide that such candidate be not admitted, then the next candidate in order shall be presented by the Head Master to the Dean in like manner.

12. If at any time the Dean of Westminster shall be absent when a candidate is to be presented for admission on the Foundation, he may appoint a Deputy for the purpose of such admission, If the Dean fail for any cause to nominate a Deputy, the Governing Body may nominate one for him.

3. The Head Master may at any time alter the position of any Queen's Scholar in his election, whether in accordance with the results of the examination referred to in Chapter VIII. or for the purposes of discipline, as he may see fit; provided that the Governing Body shall have power to forbid such alteration or to annul it when made.

4. In case of the grave misconduct of any Queen's Scholar upon the Foundation, the Head Master shall have power to expel such Queen's Scholar, subject to an appeal to the Governing Body.

2. From and after the abrogation of the said trusts, the said Exhibitions and other emoluments shall be consolidated and formed into one fund, to be called the School Exhibition Fund.

3. The income of such Exhibition Fund shall be applied by the Governing Body for the creation of Exhibitions, tenable at the School, such Exhibitions to be of such number and with such stipends, either of one uniform amount or of different amounts, and to be held for such time or times, and subject to such rules and regulations as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine.

10. The Fees of Examiners (not being Masters of the School) appointed to conduct the said examination, and any other necessary charges attendant thereupon, may be defrayed in whole or in part out of the income of the School Exhibition Fund.

11. The residue of income, if any, in each year shall be stated at the passing of the yearly accounts as unapplied surplus; and whenever the said surplus shall amount to the sum of one hundred pounds, such portion of the same as the Governing Body may determine shall be invested to the credit of the School Exhibition Fund, in such securities as the Court of Chancery may authorize for the investment of trust funds in general.
