FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1871.

Whitehall, December 29, 1871.

THE Secretary of State for the Home Department has received Her Majesty the Queen's commands to make public the following Letter :—

Windsor Castle, December 26, 1871.

THE Queen is very anxious to express Her deep sense of the touching sympathy of the whole Nation on the occasion of the alarming illness of Her dear Son, the Prince of Wales. The universal feeling shown by Her people during those painful, terrible days, and the sympathy evinced by them with Herself and Her beloved Daughter, the Princess of Wales, as well as the general joy at the improvement in the Prince of Wales's state, have made a deep and lasting impression on Her heart which can never be effaced. It was, indeed, nothing new to Her, for the Queen had met with the same sympathy when just ten years ago a similar illness removed from Her side the mainstay of Her life, the best, wisest, and kindest of Husbands.

The Queen wishes to express at the same time on the part of the Princess of Wales her feelings of heartfelt gratitude, for she has been as deeply touched as the Queen by the great and universal manifestation of loyalty and sympathy.

The Queen cannot conclude without expressing Her hope that Her faithful subjects will continue their prayers to God for the complete recovery of Her dear Son to health and strength.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of December, 1871.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, in pursuance of sections 28 and 29 of The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, (in this Order called the Act of 1869,) and by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Act of 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do declare, and it is by this Order declared, as follows :—

The Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London have provided and opened for public use a Market for the purposes of Part III of the Act of 1869 to the satisfaction of the Privy Council.
