And whereas the said Petition set forth the proposed boundaries of the district, and was signed by one-tenth of the ratepayers resident within such boundaries, and inquiry has since been made as to the genuineness of the said Petition, and the propriety of the proposed boundaries by Robert Morgan, Esq., the Inspector appointed by the Local Government Board for that purpose:

the district to be called the "Barmouth District," for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858; and that the parts included in such boundaries so described and delineated shall, for the purposes of such Act, be deemed to be a place having a known and defined boundary, and may adopt the said Act accordingly.

The boundaries aforesaid commence at low water-mark in the estuary of Mawddach, opposite to a bridge or culvert where the Aberamffra Brook crosses under the turnpike-road leading from Barmouth to Dolgelly, and marked A on the plan appended to the Inspector's report; thence proceeding, westerly, along the shore of the said estuary at low water-mark, and northerly along the sea-shore of Cardigan Bay, at low water-mark to B, opposite the Toisoch Crossing of the Cambrian Railway; thence, easterly, by such crossing to C, on the turnpike-road leading from Barmouth to Harlech; thence, easterly, along the south side of an occupation road (and excluding it) that forms the north side of fields numbered 438, 437, 429, 451, and 452, to D; thence, easterly, along the south side of the parish road called Bwlch-y-clan (and excluding it) to its junction at E with the public footway leading to Cellfawr; thence, southerly, along the west side of the said road which forms the east side of fields numbered 877, 554, 558, 560, 719, 725, and 730, to F, at its junction with the public road leading from Barmouth to Cylfaen; thence south-westerly, along the south side of the said road (and including it) to G, at the point where the said road is crossed by the Aberamffra Brook; thence, southerly, along the Aberamffra Brook to the starting point at A, thus completing the boundaries of the Barmouth District.

2. That Griffith Williams, of Dolgelly, in the county of Merioneth, Gentleman, be Summoning Officer, and take forthwith all such steps as may be necessary, under the said Local Government Act, to decide as to the adoption of the said Act within the boundaries of the said district as fixed and settled by this present Order.
