THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

WANTAGE FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated day of November, 1871, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Wantage Division of the county of Berks, that a Fair has been annually held on the 17th and 18th days of October, in the parish of Wantage, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 22nd day of January, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, January 2, 1872.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

STRADBROKE FAIRS.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices acting in the Petty Sessional Division of Hoxne, in the county of Suffolk, that Fairs have been annually held in the parish of Stradbroke, in the said Division of the said county, on the third Monday in the month of June, and on the 2nd day of October, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I should take the same into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871":

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fairs and the tolls thereof:

Now therefore I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fairs which have been annually held in the parish of Stradbroke, in the Petty Sessional Division of Hoxne, in the county of Suffolk, on the third Monday in the month of June, and on the 2nd day of October, shall be abolished, as from the date of this Order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 4th day of January, 1872.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER SETTLING THE BOUNDARIES OF A DISTRICT TO BE STYLED THE DISTRICT OF BARMOUTH, IN THE COUNTY OF MERIONETH.

WHEREAS a Petition has been presented to the Local Government Board from ratepayers resident within the town and neighbourhood of Barmouth, in the county of Merioneth, praying for the settlement of boundaries of a district to be styled the "Barmouth District," for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858:

And whereas the said Petition set forth the proposed boundaries of the district, and was signed by one-tenth of the ratepayers resident within such boundaries, and inquiry has since been made as to the genuineness of the said Petition, and the propriety of the proposed boundaries by Robert Morgan, Esq., the Inspector appointed by the Local Government Board for that purpose:

Now, therefore, we, the said Local Government Board, after consideration of the matter, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in us by the Local Government Act, 1858, make order as follows:—

1. That from and after the date of this present Order, the boundaries hereinafter set forth and described and delineated on the plan referred to in and accompanying the Report of the said Inspector, bearing date the 21st day of December, 1871, shall form and constitute the boundaries of
