FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1872.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners, to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, February 6, 1872.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AVAIL myself of the opportunity afforded by your re-assembling for the discharge of your momentous duties to renew the expression of my thankfulness to the Almighty for the deliverance of my dear son the Prince of Wales from the most imminent danger, and of my lively recollection of the profound and universal sympathy shown by my loyal people during the period of anxiety and trial.

I purpose that on Tuesday, the 27th instant, conformably to the good and becoming usage of former days, the blessing thus received shall be acknowledged on behalf of the nation by a Thanksgiving in the Metropolitan Cathedral. At this celebration it is my desire and hope to be present.

Directions have been given to provide the necessary accommodation for the Members of the two Houses of Parliament.

The assurances of friendship which I receive from Foreign Powers, continue to be, in all respects, satisfactory. I need hardly assure you that my endeavours will at all times be steadily directed to the maintenance of these friendly relations.

The Slave Trade, and practices scarcely to be distinguished from Slave Trading, still pursued in more than one quarter of the world, continue to attract the attention of my Government. In the South Sea Islands, the name of the British Empire is even now dishonoured by the connexion of some of my subjects with these nefarious practices; and in one of them, the murder of an exemplary prelate has cast fresh light upon some of their baleful consequences. A Bill will be presented to you, for the purpose of facilitating the trial of offences of this class in Australasia; and endeavours will be made to increase, in other forms, the means of counteraction.

Various communications have passed between my Government and the Government of France on the subject of the Commercial Treaty concluded in 1860. From a divergence in the views respectively entertained in relation to the value of protective laws, this correspondence has not brought about any agreement to modify that important Convention. On both sides, however, there has been uniformly declared an earnest desire that nothing shall occur to impair the cordiality which has long prevailed between the two nations.

Papers relating to these subjects will be laid before you.

The Arbitrators appointed pursuant to the Treaty of Washington, for the purpose of amicably settling certain claims known as the "Alabama" claims, have held their first meeting at Geneva.

Cases have been laid before the Arbitrators on behalf of each party to the Treaty. In the Case so submitted on behalf of the United States, large claims have been included, which are understood on my part not to be within the province of the Arbitrators. On this subject I have caused a friendly communication to be made to the Government of the United States.

The Emperor of Germany has undertaken to arbitrate on the San Juan Water Boundary; and the Cases of the two Governments have been presented to His Imperial Majesty.

The Commission at Washington has been appointed, and is in session. The provisions of the Treaty which require the consent of the Parliament of Canada await its assembling.

Turning to domestic affairs, I have to apprise you that, with very few exceptions, Ireland has been free from serious crime. Trade in that part of the United Kingdom is active, and the advance of agricultural industry is remarkable.

I am able also to congratulate you, so far as present experience allows a judgment to be passed, upon the perceptible diminution of the number both of the graver crimes, and of habitual criminals, in Great Britain.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The principal Estimates for the coming year have been prepared. They will at once be laid before you, and I trust that you will find them suitable to the circumstances of the country.

The state of the Revenue affords favourable indications of the demand for employment, and the general condition of the people—indications which are corroborated by a decline of pauperism not inconsiderable.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Your attention will be invited to several measures of acknowledged national interest. Among these there will be Bills for the improvement of Public Education in Scotland, for the regulation of Mines, for the amendment of what is known as the Licensing System, and in relation to the Superior Courts of Justice and Appeal.

In particular, a Bill, having for its main object the establishment of Secret Voting, together with a measure relating to corrupt practices at Parliamentary Elections, will be immediately presented to you.

Several measures of administrative improvement for Ireland will be laid before you.

There will likewise be laid before you Legislative Provisions founded on the Report of the Sanitary Commission.

You, my Lords and Gentlemen, will, I am confident, again apply your well-known assiduity to that work of legislation which, from the increasing exigencies of modern society, still seems to grow upon your hands. And I shall continue to rely, under Divine Providence, alike on the loyalty of my people and on your energy and wisdom, to sustain the constant efforts of the Crown to discharge the duties, to uphold the rights, and to defend the honour of the Empire.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1872:

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-ninth of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas your Majesty, by Order in Council of twenty-second February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, was graciously pleased to establish Regulations for the Promotion and Retirement of Officers of the Royal Navy; and whereas, we are of opinion, in view of the small number of promotions that have taken place during the past year, that it is expedient to provide for the immediate advancement of a limited number of the present Commanders and Lieutenants, and also to diminish the restrictions on the promotion of Commanders, Lieutenants, and Sub-Lieutenants, imposed by your Majesty's aforesaid Order in Council, until such time as the Active List of Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants shall be reduced to the numbers thereby established; and whereas, we are further of opinion that it is expedient to make other amendments in the temporary provisions of the said Order in Council, and also, that it is necessary to establish regulations for the retirement of Sub-Lieutenants :

"We would, therefore, most humbly submit to your Majesty—

"1. That we be empowered to promote ten Commanders to the rank of Captain, and ten Lieutenants to the rank of Commander, from this present date.

"2. That until the list of Captains is reduced to one hundred and fifty, we be authorised to promote officers to vacancies caused by retirement according to the following scale :—

"(a) One Commander in every vacancy which now exists, or which shall hereafter arise, on the List of Captains, due to the retirement of Admirals.

"(b) One Commander in every two vacancies which now exist, or shall hereafter arise, on the List of Captains, due to the retirement of Vice-Admirals, Rear-Admirals, or Captains.

"(c) One Lieutenant in each vacancy arising on the List of Commanders from the above promotions.

"3. That we be further authorised, until the List of Commanders is reduced to two hundred, to promote one Lieutenant in every two vacancies now existing, or in future arising, from the retirement of Commanders.

"4. All vacancies arising from deaths, resignations, &c., to be filled up as they occur.

"5. That until the List of Sub-Lieutenants is reduced to two hundred and fifty, we be authorised to confer promotion on any Sub-Lieutenant who is, in our opinion, worthy of advancement, although such promotions may cause the List of Lieutenants to be temporarily in excess of the numbers authorised by your Majesty's aforesaid Order in Council.

"6. Captains who were promoted to that rank before the first April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and who elected the new regulations for retirement, to be allowed, if physically unfit, or if they have not served for seven years, on retirement, an amount of retired pay not less than that to which they would have been entitled to receive under the regulations which were in force prior to the first April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

"7. Sub-Lieutenants to be compulsorily retired at the age of forty, or at any age if physically unfit for service.

"8. Until the List of Sub-Lieutenants is reduced to two hundred and fifty, any such officers to be allowed, with their consent and at our discretion, to retire irrespective of age.

"9. Retired Pay to be granted as follows :— After three years' seniority, 3s. 6d. per diem, an additional 6d. being given for each complete year beyond three served as Sub-Lieutenant until the maximum is reached, viz., 6s. per diem.

"10. Officers who, in our opinion, are not deserving of receiving retired pay on the above scale, to be granted such lower rate of pay as we may think fit to award them.

"11. Service for retired pay to be calculated in accordance with the provisions of your Majesty's Order in Council of twenty-second February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, relating to Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants; time during which a Sub-Lieutenant may be on half-pay after he has served three years in that rank to reckon in the proportion fixed by the Order in Council.

"12. Sub-Lieutenants to be allowed at their own request and with our consent to commute their retired pay under the rules laid down by the Lords Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury, for administering the Act Vic. 34 and 35, cap. 56.

"13. The existing rules as to half-pay to Sub-Lieutenants while on the Active List to remain in force.

"We therefore most humbly submit that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to sanction these arrangements, which have received the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed, and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-ninth of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas your Majesty was, by your Order in Council of twenty-second February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, most graciously pleased to sanction certain alterations in regard to the retirement of Officers in your Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, whereof the effect is that service will not reckon for retirement until after 20 years of age ; and whereas we are of opinion that the Regulations in respect of age should be modified in favour of those Officers who entered the Royal Marine Forces previous to the first April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the day on which, by your Majesty's Order in Council before mentioned, the said Regulations came into force ; and whereas we deem it expedient, with the view of increasing the efficiency of your Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, to provide, as a temporary measure, for the Retirement upon Annuities of a limited number of Officers whose services are not of sufficient length to bring them within the scale established by your Majesty's Order in Council aforesaid ; we do, therefore, most humbly submit that your Majesty will be pleased to sanction, with reference to the aforesaid Officers, the following modifications and temporary extension of the aforesaid Order in Council :—

“1. That all Officers who entered the Royal Marines before first April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and who obtained their first Commission before attaining 18 years of age, be allowed to reckon their service for retirement from the age of 18 ; those who entered at or after 18 years of age, to reckon their service from the date of their first Commission, but the maximum rates of Retired Pay, fixed by Clause 14 of the aforesaid Order in Council, shall, under no circumstances, be exceeded.

“2. That until the Royal Marine Forces shall be reduced to numbers proportionate to the requirements of your Majesty's Service, we be authorized to permit Officers of 12 years' service or upwards to retire permanently, if we see fit, upon Annuities in accordance with the following scale :—

“3. That we be permitted to extend to any Colonel Commandant, whose command dates prior to first April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, when placed on the Reserved List, the advantage of receiving the amount of his present rate of pay. The Lords Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence with these proposals.”

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed, and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the nineteenth of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas your Majesty was pleased, by your Order in Council of twenty-second February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, to establish Regulations for the Retirement of Chaplains, and Chaplains and Naval Instructors of your Majesty's Navy ; and whereas we are of opinion that it is expedient, in the interests of your Majesty's Service, to allow such Officers to cease to serve your Majesty at a period earlier than that laid down by the Order in Council ; and whereas we are also of opinion that the services of such Officers, if of a certain duration, should not be unrecognized. We do, therefore, most humbly submit that Clause 6, paragraph 3, of the said Order in Council be cancelled, and that we be authorized to make the following Regulations :—

“1. That any Chaplain who obtains from us permission to accept a living, or desires to retire from your Majesty's Service may, provided that he has not less than ten years' service, be retired with pay on the following scale, viz. :—
