*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 10, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 6th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

St. James's Palace, February 16, 1872.

(C. 180.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
February 19, 1872.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Decree of the Spanish Government, dated 25th ultimo, conceding habilitation to the Custom-house of Alcantara for the importation and exportation of every class of merchandize by the River Tagus in the same manner that it is habilitated for trade by land.

(C. 187.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
February 19, 1872.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, copies of three Decrees of the Spanish Government, relating to Custom-house arrangements. The first provides for the habilitation, from the 1st March next, of all the Custom-houses of the first class, both inland and on the coast, for the despatch of incoming and outgoing foreign merchandize in transit by the ordinary roads. The second permits the transit of tobacco, the produce of and proceeding from the Philippines, subject to the conditions laid down in Art. 6, Appendix No. 20, of the Customs ordinances, the certificate of which the same Article treats, being issued, however, by the Custom-house of exit. The third abolishes the certificates hitherto required to prove the origin of coffee, spirits, and sugar imported directly from the Spanish West Indian possessions and the Philippines, and renders this certificate obligatory for all other colonial produce from the 1st March next.

(C. 190.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
February 19, 1872.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Note addressed by the Spanish Government to Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, stating that vessels which have left Constantinople subsequent to the 23rd ultimo, will be admitted to free pratique in Spanish ports, if, counting from that day, they have fulfilled the 40th Reformed Article of the Health Law. The Note further states that orders have been issued for the exercise of the most vigilant care with regard to vessels from Amsterdam, Philadelphia, Tunis, Copenhagen, Milford Haven, and Newport, in consequence of the appearance of Small-pox at those ports.

EXCHEQUER BILLS.

Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, 16th February, 1872.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice to the holders of Exchequer Bills issued under the authority of the Act 24 Vict., cap. 5, and dated the 11th March, 1867, that the interest thereon for the half-year ending on the 11th March, 1872, will be payable at the Bank of England on and after the 11th day of March, 1872.

The said Exchequer Bills, dated the 11th March, 1867, will be paid off, either in New Bills or in money, on the 11th March, 1872, when the interest will cease. Such Bills will be received at the Bank of England daily from ten till two o'clock, until the 4th day of March, 1872, inclusive.

Printed forms, containing instructions for the preparation of the Lists and the arrangement of the Bills, may be obtained on application at the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

The holders must insert their names and addresses in each List; but where the names of holders are inserted in the body of the Bills, the indorsements of such holders must be obtained previously to their Lists and Bills being left for examination.

New Bills, prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Act 29 Vict., cap. 25, dated the 11th day of March, 1872, may be obtained in payment of the principal of the whole, or part of the Exchequer Bills advertised for payment, on the claimants specifying in their Lists the amount of New Bills required by them.

The interest of the said New Bills will be payable by coupons, half-yearly, on the 11th September and 11th March, at the Bank of England. The rate of interest will be advertised from time to time in the London Gazette. Such rate for the half-year to the 11th day of September, 1872, will be two pounds ten shillings per cent. per annum.

The Bills will be current from year to year, for a period of five years, commencing on the 11th March, 1872, at the option of the holders; and they will be payable for duties, aids, and taxes, at any time during the last six months of every year, viz., between the 11th September, in each year, and the 11th March following.

The New Bills in payment of the Bills left on or before the said 4th day of March for Exchange, will be issued on the 11th day of March, 1872, when the claimants must attend at the Bank of England to sign receipts for the payment of Principal.

Notice will be given yearly of the days on which holders of the New Exchequer Bills who may be desirous of being paid the principal moneys must send their Bills to the Bank of England for examination and payment.

Payment, in money, may be obtained at the Bank of England after the said 11th day of March next for any Exchequer Bills hereby advertised, and which may not be brought in for exchange or payment, as above, upon the claimants leaving the Bills for examination three days prior to that on which such payment is desired, between the hours of ten and two.

JOHN HOPGOOD, No. 14, King William-street, Strand, W.C.

In Chancery.—Between Frederick Harrison, Plaintiff; and William Watson and George Gerrard Martin, Defendants.

TAKE notice, that the plaintiff on the 31st day of January, 1872, issued a subpoena to hear judgment in this cause in the form following, that is to say, "Victoria by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to William Watson and George Edward Martin, Greeting, We command you and every of you that you appear before Our Lord High Chancellor on the 2nd day of March next, or whenever thereafter a certain cause now depending in Our High Court of Chancery, wherein Frederick Harrison is plaintiff, and William Watson and George Gerrard Martin are defendants, shall come on for hearing, then and there to receive and abide by such judgment and decree as shall then or thereafter be made and pronounced upon pain of judgment being pronounced against you by default. Witness Ourselves at Westminster the thirty-first day of January, in the thirty-fifth year of Our reign."

"ROMILEY, M.R."

And further take Notice, that by an Order of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins made in this cause on the 15th day of February, 1872, it was Ordered that the above named plaintiff should be at liberty to insert in the London Gazette a notice of such subpoena having been issued, and that publication of such notice in manner aforesaid should be deemed from the time when the insertion thereof in the London Gazette should have been made good service upon you the defendant William Watson.—Dated this 17th day of February, 1872.

HARRISON, BEAL, and HARRISON, No. 19, Bedford-row, Holborn, London, Plaintiff's Solicitors.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Act 19th and 20th Vic., chapter 120, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and of an Act 21st and 22nd Vic., chapter 77; and in the Matter of eight Freehold Houses devised by the Will of Charles Frewin, deceased, situate on the west side of Duck-street, otherwise Duke-street, in the parish of Henley-on-Thames, in the county of Oxford.

PURSUANT to the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament and the Consolidated General Order of this Court in that behalf, notice is hereby given, that on the 9th day of January, 1872, Hannah Frewin, of Lavender-road, Battersea, in the county of Surrey, Widow, Charles Frewin, of Grove-road, Battersea aforesaid, Gentleman, and Ellen, his wife, Duncan Travers, of St John's Hill, near Wandsworth, in the said county of Surrey, Currier and Leather Dresser, and Isabella, his wife, George Duncan Travers, son of the said Duncan Travers and Isabella his wife, an infant, by Duncan Travers, his special guardian and next friend, and Thomas Frewin, of Lavender-road aforesaid, infant, by the said Hannah Frewin, his special guardian and next friend, presented their Petition to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (to be heard before his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Wickens), whereby, after stating, among other things, that under an agreement dated the 6th day of June, 1871, the Local Government Board for the District of Henley-on-Thames had agreed to purchase the above-mentioned hereditaments upon obtaining the sanction of this Court, and to pay all costs of and incident to such purchase and the now-recting Petition, the said petitioners prayed that the above-mentioned hereditaments, more particularly described as all those five messuages or tenements, with the yard thereto belonging, behind and adjoining the same, situate in Henley-on-Thames aforesaid, on the west side of a certain street there called Duck-street, otherwise Duke-street, at the lower end of the said street, having the ware-room, shops, and yards, now the property of Edmund Chamberlain, on the south side thereof, the said street called Duck-street, otherwise Duke-street, lying on the east side thereof, and a road or way leading to the Three Tuns-yard lying on the west part thereof, also all those three cottages or tenements situate on the west side of Duke-street aforesaid, having a gateway opening into the messuages or tenements now occupied by Henry Geere on the north side thereof, and a messuage or tenement now in the occupation of William Bye on the south side thereof, may, in pursuance of the said agreement dated the 6th of June, 1871, be sold by this Court under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, and that all proper inquiries may be made and directions given for effecting such purpose, and that such further or other Order might be made in the premises as to this Court should seem meet. And notice is also hereby given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or of the Judge in Chambers, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the offices of Messrs. Davies, Campbell, Reeves, and Hooper, situate at No. 17, Warwick-street, Regent-street, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 19th day of February, 1872.

DAVIES and CO., 17, Warwick-street, Regent-street, W., Solicitors for the Petitioners.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of the 19th and 20th Victoria, chapter 120, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and of an Act of the 21st and 22nd Victoria, chapter 77, intituled "An Act to extend and amend the Settled Estates Act, 1856;" and of an Act of the 27th and 28th Victoria, chapter 45, intituled "An Act to further amend the Settled Estates Act of 1856;" and in the Matter of three undivided fourth shares of certain Lands and Hereditaments in the parish of Mold, in the county of Flint, containing 87 acres, or thereabouts, commonly called Caia, devised by the Will and two Codicils of Edward Jones Edwards, deceased.

PURSUANT to the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament and the Consolidated General Order of this Court in that behalf, notice is hereby given, that on the 9th day of January, 1872, Jane Williams, of Oswestry, in the county of Salop, Widow, and Mary Ann Edwards, an infant of the age of 18 years and upwards, by Samuel Thomas Baugh, of Plaspenyddole, in the parish of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, Gentleman, her next friend, presented their Petition to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (to be heard before his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Wickens), praying that an Order might be made vesting in Peter Henry Edlin and William D'Alton, or in such other persons as might be approved of by the Court, power of granting mining leases of three undivided fourth shares of the minerals in and under the above-mentioned hereditaments, upon the terms mentioned in the 24th paragraph of the said Petition, and that the said Peter Henry Edlin and William D'Alton, or such other persons as might be approved of, might be appointed trustees for the purpose of exercising the said power, and of setting aside and duly applying, according to the provisions of the first of the said Acts, the rents and payments reserved on any of such leases. And notice is also hereby given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or of the Judge in Chambers, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the office of Mr. Edward Arthur Hughes, situate at No. 2, Gray's-inn-square, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 15th day of February, 1872.
