"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 21st day of February, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

His Royal Highness Prince ARTHUR.

Lord President.

Lord Steward.

Mr. Forster.

WHEREAS it would greatly promote the convenience of all Her Majesty's subjects, and others resident or being in Her city, garrison, and territory of Gibraltar, if one uniform standard of value there were established; it is therefore hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that—

1. All Orders in Council, and all Proclamations of Her Majesty and Her predecessors, and of the officer administering the Government of Gibraltar, and his predecessors, fixing the rates at which Spanish and other coins shall circulate in Gibraltar, and ordering the manner in which accounts shall be kept in Gibraltar, are, and each of them is, hereby repealed.

2. The standard of value in Gibraltar shall henceforth be a certain gold coin of Spain heretofore coined from time to time, and commonly called a doblon d'Isabel, or by whatsoever other denomination the same may, from time to time, be known, and of the fineness and weight described in the Schedule to this Order in Council annexed.

3. The said coin so ordered to be the standard of value in Gibraltar, and the several other Spanish coins not being clipped, pierced, or otherwise disfigured, nor being defaced otherwise than by lawful wear, and being of the denominations and relative proportion each to the other and others of them, and of the metal, fineness, and weight described in the Schedule to this Order in Council annexed, shall, in Gibraltar be a good and valid tender, and shall be the only sufficient tender in payment of duties, fines, forfeitures, penalties, judgments, bonds, bills, or of any sum or sums of money which may be or become due there to Her Majesty, Her heirs, or successors, or to any of Her or their subjects, or to any person whatsoever there, and shall respectively be and may be known and described as Her Majesty's lawful current gold, and silver, and copper coin, within the meaning of the law in force for the time being in Gibraltar.

4. Provided always that no greater number of pieces of the said several coins described in the Schedule to this Order in Council annexed, than the number inserted opposite to each of such coins in the column of the said Schedule, headed "number of pieces of each coin to be a legal tender at such rates," shall be, or be deemed, or taken to be a legal tender, nor shall the bronze coins described in the said Schedule be a legal tender for any sum exceeding one twenty-fifth part of a doblon d'Isabel.

5. Her Majesty, and every person who, if this Order in Council had not been made and passed would have been entitled to take, have, and receive any sum of money in the currency, and according to the denominations now used in Gibraltar, namely, dollars, reals of Gibraltar, and copper coins called quartos, of which a dollar is estimated to contain about 400 grains of silver of .9 fineness, and 12 such reals, and 192 such copper coins are estimated to be equal to each such dollar, shall be entitled to take, have, and receive and recover the same as follows, but not otherwise:—

For every 24 quartos, 25 cents of an escudo.

For every quarto in every amount less than 24 quartos, 1 cent of an escudo.

6. Subject to the provisos and exceptions hereinafter contained, Her Majesty, in every case whatever in which she would, if this Order in Council had not been made and passed, have been entitled to take, have, receive, and recover from any person in Gibraltar, and every person who, if this Order in Council had not been made and passed, would have been entitled to take, have, receive and recover from Her Majesty in Gibraltar any sum of money assessed in the denominations of the lawful money of Great Britain, whether in either case or any case, or in any of such cases, also assessed in any other denomination or denominations of coin or not, shall be entitled to take, have, receive, and recover the same in Gibraltar, as follows, and not otherwise:—

	Doblon d'Isabel.
For every £1 sterling	98
And so in proportion for every fraction of £1 sterling, being, or being the multiple of, 1s.
For the sum of 6d.	025
For every ¼d. in every amount less than 6d.	001

7. Provided and excepted that nothing herein contained, shall vary or alter the rate at which payment shall be made at Gibraltar of any sum of money due or payable or to become due or payable by or to Her Majesty's Deputy Postmaster at Gibraltar, under and by virtue of any Act of Parliament, Order in Council, or instructions of the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury or Her Postmaster-General.

8. Provided also and excepted that nothing herein contained shall vary or alter, or be deemed or taken to vary or alter, the rate at which payment shall be made in Gibraltar by Her Majesty of any sum of money now due, or which hereafter may become due, under and by virtue of any contract made and entered into in Gibraltar by the proper officer there, in the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, whereby a rate of payment in the depreciated and unauthorized coins current at the time of the making such contract, was in such contract expressly, or by necessary implication, agreed, unless such contract shall be determinable at the will of Her Majesty and of the person who shall be a party thereto, without notice.

9. Neither shall anything herein contained be deemed or taken to prejudice, vary, alter, annul, or prohibit any contract made or to be made between any subjects of Her Majesty or other persons for the payment of any sum of money in any coin whatsoever agreed between themselves, and being at the time of the making of such contract lawful current coin of Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, or of any foreign Prince, Power, State, or Potentate, or to annul, prejudice, or derogate from any legal or equitable right or remedy appertaining to such contract or to any breach thereof.

10. It shall be lawful for the Governor, subject, nevertheless, to such general and other instructions for his guidance as he may from time to time receive, to make and pass such ordinances, and to make and publish such proclamations, as to him shall seem necessary for the purpose of preventing the making or circulating in, or introducing into, Gibraltar any false or counterfeit coin whatsoever, or any matter or thing resembling, or apparently intended to resemble, or to pass for any of Her Majesty's lawful current gold, or silver, or copper coin, and to prevent the commission of offences, and to punish offenders against the prerogative of Her Majesty relating to coin, and otherwise to carry this Order in Council into effect.

11. So much of the Sanitary Order in Council, Gibraltar, 1865, as requires that every rate by the said Order in Council authorized should, until the making of bye-laws relating to the currency be made and assessed, at the rate of one or more quart or quarts in every dollar of the net annual value of all premises liable to be assessed and rated, is hereby repealed; and instead thereof it is hereby ordered that every such rate shall be made and assessed at the rate of five, or some multiple of five millesimas of an escudo in every doblon d'Isabel of such net annual value.

12. This Order in Council shall come into operation and take effect on and from the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

And the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Earl Kimberley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary instructions herein accordingly.

Arthur Helps.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c., Act, 1861," it is, among other things, enacted as follows; viz. :—

"All rates, dues, duties, and imposts (hereinafter included in the term Shipping Dues) leviable by any of the Charitable Authorities named in the first schedule annexed hereto, on ships or on goods carried in ships, shall, except so far as the same may be required for the execution of such shipping purposes as have hitherto been executed by means of the said dues, cease to be levied on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two :"

And whereas, by the same Act, it is further enacted as follows; viz. :—

"During the period prior to the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, the shipping dues levied by each of the Authorities named in the said first schedule shall, subject to the execution of any shipping purposes to which the same, or any part thereof, may be applicable, be applied in payment of any pensions which have been lawfully granted, or in which a vested interest, absolute or contingent, has been lawfully created before the fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one; and any surplus arising from the said dues during the said period, after providing for the said shipping purposes and payment of the said pensions for the time being, and such payments for charitable or other purposes as have heretofore ordinarily been made by the said Authority out of the said dues, shall, with the interest thereon, after the termination of the said period, be applied in payment of such, if any, of the said pensions as have not then ceased; and, subject to such payment, the said surplus shall become part of the charitable funds of the said Authority, and shall be held and administered by them upon the same trusts and for the same purposes upon and for which the said dues would have been held and applied if this Act had not passed: If at any time after the expiration of the said period it is made to appear to Her Majesty in Council that any of the said pensions are still in existence, and that after duly accounting for the surplus aforesaid, the Authority by which such pensions were granted is unable, either out of the said surplus or out of their other funds applicable to charitable purposes, to pay the said pensions, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, to declare that the shipping dues theretofore levied by the said Authority shall continue for such time and to such extent as may by such Order be declared to be necessary for payment of the said pensions; and thereupon the said shipping dues shall continue to be leviable according to the terms of such Order: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall enable any of the said Authorities to apply any part of the said dues to any purposes to which they could not lawfully have applied the same if this Act had not passed :"

And whereas, during the period prior to the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, the shipping dues levied by the Fraternity of Masters and Seamen in Dundee (one of the Authorities named in the said schedule to the said Act, and hereinafter called the Dundee Trinity House), have, subject to the execution of certain shipping purposes to which part of the same had, before the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, been applicable, been applied in payment of certain pensions which had been lawfully granted, or in which a vested interest, absolute or contingent, had been lawfully created, before the said fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that some of the pensions so lawfully granted by the Dundee Trinity House are still in existence, and that in certain other pensions a vested interest absolute or contingent has been lawfully created before the said fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in favour of certain persons who had before the last mentioned date been admitted members of the Dundee Trinity House, and of their widows and certain relatives, and that, after duly accounting for the surplus before referred to, the Dundee Trinity House are unable either out of the said surplus, or out of their other funds applicable to charitable purposes, to pay the said pensions :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare that the shipping dues heretofore levied by the Dundee Trinity House shall, so far as the same are not required for the execution of such shipping purposes as had before the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, been executed by means of the same, continue until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and no longer, unless further continued by Order in Council; and the said dues shall, subject as aforesaid, be applied only for the purposes following that is to say :

1. For the purpose of paying to the persons named in the first schedule annexed hereto, during their respective lives the pensions set forth in the same schedule.
2. For the purpose of paying any pension which may hereafter be lawfully granted to any of the persons named in the second schedule annexed hereto.
3. For the purpose of paying any pension which may hereafter be lawfully granted, in pursuance of the charter of the Dundee Trinity House, to the widows or relatives of any decayed and reduced members admitted into the Incorporation before the fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that the Dundee Trinity House shall, on or before the seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, furnish to the Board of Trade a full statement of their accounts for the year ended the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, showing all sums received by them, and all payments made by them during such year; and shall, on or before the seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, furnish to the Board of Trade a statement showing :—

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of certain benefices, that is to say, an exchange of the patronage of five benefices, namely, the benefice (being a vicarage) of Dalton-in-Furness, in the county of Lancaster; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Hawkshead, in the said county of Lancaster; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Pennington, in the said county of Lancaster; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Millom, in the county of Cumberland; and the benefice (being a vicarage) of Beetham, in the county of Westmoreland; all which said five benefices are in the diocese of Carlisle, for the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of Rothbury, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham.

“Whereas the advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to each of the said five benefices of Dalton-in-Furness, Hawkshead, Pennington, Millom, and Beetham, and the churches thereof respectively is vested in your Majesty in right of your Duchy of Lancaster.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, is seized in right of his see to him, and his successors in fee simple of the advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Rothbury, and the church thereof.

“And whereas the Right Honourable Frederick Temple, Earl of Dufferin, Chancellor of your Majesty’s said Duchy, and (as such Chancellor) the person by whose signature in accordance with the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act, the assent of your Majesty as patron as aforesaid of the said five first mentioned benefices to the exchange hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed, is to be testified as herein-after is mentioned, and the said Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, acting as the patron as aforesaid, of the said benefice of Rothbury, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said five benefices of Dalton-in-Furness, Hawkshead, Pennington, Millom, and Beetham; and the patronage of the said benefice of Rothbury should respectively be assigned and transferred by way of exchange in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage; and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices respectively are, as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

“Now, therefore, with the assent of your Majesty as such patron as aforesaid (testified by the signature of the said Frederick Temple, Earl of Dufferin being affixed to this scheme), and with the consent of the said Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (in testimony of which consent he has set his hand and his [Episcopal seal to this scheme): We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that, upon, and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to the said benefice of Rothbury; and the church thereof shall be assigned and transferred from the said Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, and from his successors, Bishops of the said diocese, unto your Majesty, your heirs and successors in right of the said Duchy, and shall, and may from time to time for ever, thenceforth be exercised in the same manner in all respects as the patronage of the said five benefices of Dalton-in-Furness, Hawkshead, Pennington, Millom, and Beetham hath heretofore been exercised; and that, in exchange for the same, the whole advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to each of the said five first mentioned benefices, and the churches thereof respectively, that is to say, the benefice of Dalton-in-Furness, the benefice of Hawkshead, the benefice of Pennington, the benefice of Millom, and the benefice of Beetham shall, in like manner, upon, and from the day aforesaid be assigned and transferred from your Majesty, and your heirs and successors unto, and shall, and may from time to time be exercised by the said Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and of the Acts therein mentioned, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Tredegar (Saint George), in the county of Monmouth, and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas the advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to the said benefice of Tredegar (Saint George) is vested in the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the parish of Bedwelty, in the said county of Monmouth, and in the said diocese of Llandaff.

"And whereas the Reverend Edward Jones, Clerk, now Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Bedwelty, is desirous that the whole advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to the said benefice of Tredegar (Saint George), now vested in him, as aforesaid, as such Vicar or Incumbent, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Llandaff.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Alfred, now bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which, by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, is consenting to the transfer of patronage hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed, and in token of his consent thereto (which, by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is in this case made necessary), he, the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the income of the said benefice of Tredegar (Saint George) is of larger amount than that of the said benefice of Bedwelty, and this circumstance is likely to operate as an inducement to the person who may be Incumbent of the last-mentioned benefice to nominate and present himself to the Incumbency of the said benefice of Tredegar (Saint George), with less regard than the Bishop of the diocese, if he were the patron of the last-mentioned benefice, might have to the interests of the parishioners of the new parish of Tredegar (Saint George) aforesaid.

"And whereas it therefore appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Tredegar (Saint George), which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish or district in, or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred, as aforesaid, arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Tredegar (Saint George).

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Edward Jones, Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Bedwelty, acting as such Vicar or Incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he hath signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Tredegar (Saint George) now vested in him, the said Edward Jones, as such Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Bedwelty, as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him, the said Edward Jones, and from his successors, Vicars, or Incumbents of the said parish of Bedwelty, to the said Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 21st day of February, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the chapelry district of Dalston, of the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, and of the new parish of, Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney, all in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and published in the London Gazette, upon the twenty-fifth day of the same month, a part of the parish of Saint John, Hackney, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district to the consecrated church of Saint Philip, situate at Dalston, in the said parish, and such district was named 'The Chapelry District of Dalston.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and published in the London Gazette upon the same day, a part of the district parish of Saint Mary, Haggerston, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Haggerston, in the last-named district parish, and such district chapelry was named "The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston."

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and published in the London Gazette, upon the fourth day of April in the same year, certain contiguous portions of the parish of South Hackney, and of the new parish of Saint Jude, Bethnal Green, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate in the said parish of South Hackney, and such consolidated chapelry was named "The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney."

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said chapelry district of Dalston, of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, and of the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney, should be respectively altered as hereinafter is mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and also as patron in right of his see of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, with the consent of the Reverend William Stone, the Incumbent of the same perpetual curacy, with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Oliver Goodchild, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Saint John, Hackney aforesaid, and as such rector or incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry district of Dalston, with the consent of the Reverend Alexander Gordon, the incumbent of the last-named perpetual curacy, with the consent of the Reverend Ridley Daniel Tyssen, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of South Hackney, aforesaid, and as such rector or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney, and with the consent of the Reverend John Buckley Podmore, the vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said chapelry district of Dalston, of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, and of the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney, should be respectively altered in the manner following, that is to say:

"Firstly. That there shall be dissevered from the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, and annexed to the said chapelry district of Dalston, all that portion of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, which is described in the First Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth upon the map hereunto annexed and is thereon numbered 1, and coloured yellow.

"Secondly. That there shall be dissevered from the said chapelry district of Dalston, and annexed to the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, all that portion of the said chapelry district of Dalston, which is described in the Second Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth upon the said map hereunto annexed and is thereon numbered 2, and coloured blue.

"Thirdly. That there shall be dissevered from the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney, and annexed to the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney, which is described in the Third Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth upon the said map hereunto annexed, and is thereon numbered 3, and coloured pink; and "Fourthly. That there shall be dissevered from the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, and annexed to the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney, all that portion of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, which is described in the Fourth Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth upon the said map hereunto annexed, and is thereon numbered 4 and coloured green; and that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this representation and without any other assurance in the law, the said portions of the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, aforesaid, so described in the said First and Fourth Schedules, and numbered respectively 1 and 4 on the said map, and thereon coloured yellow and green respectively as before mentioned, shall be dissevered from the same district chapelry, and shall be annexed to and shall become, and be, and form part of, the said chapelry district of Dalston, and of the new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney, aforesaid respectively; and the said portion of the chapelry district of Dalston aforesaid, so described in the said Second Schedule, and numbered 2 on the said map, and thereon coloured blue as before mentioned, and also the said portion of the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Hackney, so described in the said Third Schedule and numbered 3 on the said map, and thereon coloured pink as above mentioned, shall be dissevered from such chapelry district, and from such new parish respectively, and shall both be annexed to, and shall become, and be, and form part of, the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, aforesaid.

"And we humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

The FIRST SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dissevered from the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Haggerston, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to be annexed to the chapelry district of Dalston, in the same county and diocese, being:—

Parish of Stoke-upon-Trent.

BYE-LAWS OF THE STOKE-UPON-TRENT SCHOOL BOARD.

Recital.

WHEREAS, by the 74th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, it is enacted that every School Board may from time to time, with the approval of the Education Department, make Bye-laws for all or any of the following purposes :—

1. Requiring the parents of children of such age, not less than five years nor more than thirteen years, as may be fixed by the Bye-laws, to cause such children (unless there is some reasonable excuse) to attend school.
2. Determining the time during which children are so to attend school, provided that no such Bye-law shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or shall be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.
3. Providing for the remission or payment of the whole or any part of the fees of any child, where the parent satisfies the School Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the same.
4. Imposing penalties for the breach of any Bye-laws.
5. Revoking or altering any Bye-laws previously made.

Provided, that any Bye-law under this section, requiring a child between ten and thirteen years of age to attend school, shall provide for the total or partial exemption of such child from the obligation to attend school if one of Her Majesty's Inspectors certifies that such child has reached a standard of education specified in such Bye-law.

And by the said 74th section, it is further enacted, that any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, namely :—

1. That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
2. That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
3. That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend, within such distance, not exceeding three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child, as the Bye-laws may prescribe.

And by the said 74th section, it is further enacted, that any proceeding to enforce any Bye-law may be taken, and any penalty for the breach of any Bye-law may be recovered, in a summary manner; but no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such amount as, with the costs, will amount to five shillings for each offence, and such Bye-laws shall not come into operation until they have been sanctioned by Her Majesty in Council.

And whereas, by the 17th section of the said Act, it is enacted, that every child attending a school provided by any School Board, shall pay such weekly fee as may be prescribed by the School Board, with the consent of the Education Department; but the School Board may, from time to time, for a renewable period not exceeding six months, remit the whole or any part of such fee in the case of any child when they are of opinion that the parent of such child is unable, from poverty, to pay the same, but such remission shall not be deemed to be parochial relief given to such parent.

And whereas, by the 25th section of the said Act, it is enacted, that the School Board may, if they think fit, from time to time, for a renewable period not exceeding six months, pay the whole or any part of the school fees payable at any Public Elementary School by any child resident in their district, whose parent is in their opinion unable from poverty to pay the same; but no such payment shall be made or refused on condition of the child attending any Public Elementary School other than such as may be selected by the parent; and such payment shall not be deemed to be parochial relief given to such parent.

And whereas, by the 36th section of the said Act, it is enacted that every School Board may, if they think fit, appoint an officer or officers, to enforce any Bye-law under this Act with reference to the attendance of children at school and to bring children who are liable under the Industrial Schools Act, 1866, to be sent to a certified Industrial School, before two Justices, in order to their being so sent, and any expenses incurred under this section may be paid out of the School Fund.

And whereas, in pursuance of a requisition sent by the Education Department to the Clerk of the Board of Guardians for the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, a School Board for the district of the said parish, was duly elected on the 20th day of March, 1871.

Now, at a meeting of the School Board of the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, duly convened and held at the Parish Offices, in High-street, in the said parish, this 16th day of October, 1871, at which meeting a quorum of the members of such Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the aforesaid powers, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make the following Bye-laws, to come into effect forthwith, after the same shall receive the sanction of Her Majesty in Council:—
