

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1872.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 26, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 1st of June, instead of Wednesday, the 15th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 2, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 23rd of April next, and on Monday, the 6th of May, at three o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room on the 23rd of April, it being a Collar-Day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, April 11, 1872.

The Queen has been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal granting the dignity of a Knight of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland unto Albert Abdallah David Sassoon, of Bombay, Esq., C.S.I., Member of the Council of the Governor of Bombay for making Laws and Regulations.

Thames Embankment (Land) Bill.

(Authority for Metropolitan Board of Works to acquire land adjacent to Gardens of Fife House, Whitehall, for a price named in the Bill, or to be settled by arbitration. Provisions for the appropriation of such land as a public garden, and for the payment of the purchase money, either out of money to be borrowed on the security of the consolidated rate, or other rates, leviable by the said Board, or other monies coming to them, or by way of annuity. Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Bill has, in the present session of Parliament, been introduced into, and has been read a first time in, the House of Commons, under the title of "A Bill to authorize the acquisition and appropriation by the Metropolitan Board of Works of certain land reclaimed from the River Thames, in pursuance of "The Thames Embankment Act, 1862," and it is proposed by the said Bill to effect the following objects, that is to say:—First. For authorizing the Metropolitan Board of Works (hereinafter called the Metropolitan Board) to acquire for the purposes of the Bill, and for enabling the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to sell a piece of land, hereinafter called the prescribed land, situate adjacent to the gardens of Five House, Whitehall, in the city of Westminster.—Second. For enabling the Metropolitan Board to elect whether the purchase money shall be the sum of £40,000, or a sum to be ascertained by arbitration, in manner in the said Bill provided.—Third. For enabling the Metropolitan Board to elect whether the arbitrators or umpire on any such arbitration shall (1st.) ascertain the value for the time being of the prescribed land, and award such value as the price to be paid for the same; or (2nd) award as the price to be paid a sum equal to the value of the Crown land and frontage rights taken or interfered with for the purposes of "The Thames Embankment Act, 1862" (including the prescribed land, valued as if such last-mentioned land had been taken before reclamation), provided that credit shall be given to the Metropolitan Board for the improved value to the Crown consequent on reclamation of certain other Crown land.—Fourth. For providing for the costs, charges, and expenses of such arbitration.—Fifth. For the appropriation of the prescribed land as a public garden, except as to such portion thereof as the Metropolitan Board may appropriate as a public road or terrace.—Sixth. For enabling the Metropolitan Board, notwithstanding any limit in any Act of Parliament, to borrow on the credit of the consolidated rate leviable by the said Board, or on other rates, dues, revenues, or monies, leviable by or payable to them, a sum of money to pay for the prescribed land, and for enabling the said Board to create and issue consolidated stock, and to provide for the expenses consequent thereon.—Seventh. For enabling the Metropolitan Board to elect that the price of the prescribed land shall, in lieu of a capital sum, be a perpetual rent-charge or annuity, and for the payment of the same by the Metropolitan Board, and for making the same a charge on the prescribed land, and on the consolidated rate leviable by the said Board, or on other rates, dues, revenues, or monies leviable by or payable to them.—Eighth. For applying to the prescribed land certain of the provisions of section 77 of "The Thames Embankment Act, 1862."

And notice is hereby given, that the said Bill proposes to amend or alter the provisions of "The Thames Embankment Act, 1862," and of "The Metropolitan Board of Works (Loans) Acts, 1869 to 1871."

And notice is further given, that the Select Committee on Standing Orders of the Honourable the House of Commons, on Tuesday, the 9th day of April instant, presented a Report to the said House of a resolution of the said Committee, in the words following, that is to say:—"That in the case of 'The Thames Embankment (Land) Bill,' the Standing Orders ought to be dispensed with; that the Bill be permitted to proceed, provided that notices of the Bill be forthwith published once in the London Gazette, and for three successive weeks in some one and the same newspaper published in London six days in the week ; that the Bill be not read a second time before Tuesday, the 7th day of May; that the said notices do set forth the resolutions of the Select Committee on Standing Orders; that the Committee on the Bill do report how far such Orders have been complied with on the report of the Bill;" and such resolution was, on the said 9th day of April instant, agreed to by the Honourable the House of Commons.—Dated this 10th day of April, 1872.

932. To William Henry Dilnutt, of Mawbey-road, Old Kent-road, in the county of Surrey, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in furnace fire bars."
933. To George Westinghouse, Junior, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, United States of America, but at present of No. 20, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in pneumatic apparatus for working brakes, and communicating signals in railway trains."
934. To William Parel Butchart, of Dundee, in the county of Forfar, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in snipping, combing, and beating jute, flax, and other fibrous substances, and in the machinery or apparatus employed therefor."
935. To Edward Meldrum, of Dechmont, in the county of Linlithgow, North Britain, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the purification of paraffine oils and paraffine."
936. To Nathaniel Hobson Hughes, of Ashgrove House, in the county of Ayr, North Britain, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in cultivating land, and in the machinery or apparatus employed therefor."
937. And to Philip Charles Evans, of Brimscombe, in the county of Gloucester, Woollen Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for feeding scribblers, carding engines, willies, and other opening machines employed in the treatment of fibrous materials."

On their several petitions recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 28th day of March, 1872.

938. To Andrew Munro, of 52, Russell-road, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the extraction of oil and other hydrocarbons from bituminous substances, and for the production of coke and charcoal, and for the means and apparatus employed therefor."
939. To Noah Dunn, of Burntree, in the parish of Tipton, and county of Stafford, Engineer, for the invention of "an improved pump for draining mines."
940. To John Watts Elliott, of 51, Regent's Park-road, Primrose-hill, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for cleaning table cutlery."
941. To Ernest Charles Rippin, of Clissold-road, Stoke Newington, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for steering, hoisting, and giving motion through short spaces, by water, steam, or fluid."
942. To Joseph Buchanan Robertson, of Lurgan, in the county of Antrim, Ireland, for the invention of "improvements in sewing machinery, more particularly applicable to the production of French vein or hem stitch."
943. To Alexander Beveridge, of the firm of A. and J. Beveridge, Merchants, both of Leith, in the county of Edinburgh, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in preparing, cleansing, and refining animal fats, and in the means and apparatus employed therefor."—A communication to him from abroad by Anton Jurgens, of Oss, North Brabant, Holland.
944. To Dugald Campbell, Consulting and Analytical Chemist, 7, Quality-court, Chancery-lane, London, Middlesex, for the invention of "an improved process for the treatment of sewage, and the production of manures therefrom."
945. To Thomas Arthur Middleton, of Loman-street, in the borough of Southwark, Mechanical Engineer, for the invention of "an improved arrangement of feed applicable to envelope machines."
946. To William Peebles, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Merchant, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for regulating the admission of steam to Corliss and other steam engines."—A communication to him from abroad by Rudolf Steiner, residing at Crimmitschân, in Saxony.
947. To Hazelton Robson Robson, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in bearings for shafts and other revolving parts of machinery."
948. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in laying the permanent way of railways, and in apparatus employed therein."—A communication to him from abroad by Philippe Vitali, of Paris, in the Republic of France, Engineer.
949. To William Henry Bailey, of the Albion Works, Salford, in the county of Lancaster, Turret Clock Manufacturer and Brass Founder, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for indicating heat."
951. To Pearce Wolstenholme, of Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, Engraver and Printer, for the invention of "a rotary lithographic printing machine."
953. To William Edward Gedge, of No. 11, Wellington-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "an improved meter and motive power apparatus."—A communication to him from abroad by Jean Baptiste Piau, of No. 37, Boulevard Bonne-Nouvelle, Paris, France.
954. To Vincent Caratti, of Belle Vue, Pulcross-road, Brixton, in the county of Surrey, Professor of Chemistry, and Samuel King Church, of Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in heating and in generating hydrogen for that purpose."
955. And to William Weldon Symington, of Colne Valley Iron Works, Halstead, in the county of Essex, Engineer, for the invention of "apparatus for measuring the flow of sewage, and regulating the flow of liquid mixtures used in the purification and deodorization of such sewage, which apparatus is also applicable to other similar purposes."
- On their several petitions recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 30th day of March, 1872.
956. To John Garrett Tongue, of the firm of Tongue & Birkbeck, Patent Agents and Engineers, of 34, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of 'tapestry' and 'Brussels' carpets and similar pile fabrics."—A communication to him from abroad by George Crompton, of Worcester, Massachusetts, United States of America.
958. To Charles Denton Abel, of No. 20, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "an improved process for the preparation of acid phosphate or superphosphate of lime."—A communication to him from abroad by Georges Ville, of No. 23, Boulevard de Strasbourg, Paris, France, Chemist.
959. To James Coulter, of Dewsbury, in the county of York, Engineer, and Herbert Harpin, of Thongsbridge, near Huddersfield, in the same county, Quarry Owner, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for dressing or facing and shaping stones, marble, granite, or other minerals, and for cutting mouldings thereon."
962. And to William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "an improved process and composition for producing patterns or figures upon textile fabrics."—A communication to him from abroad by Edouard Auguste Desiré Guichard, Decorative Architect, and Louis Dupont, Merchant, both of Paris, France.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 1st day of April, 1872.
964. To William Edward Gedge, of No. 11, Wellington-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "a new or improved system of hygienic elastic spring-bed or mattress."—A communication to him from abroad by Henry Hordé, of 37, Boulevard Bonne-Nouvelle, Paris, France, Joiner.
966. To Joseph Rodney Croskey, of No. 43, Portsdown-road, Maida-hill, London, for the invention of "an improved system or process for making asphaltic or bituminous pavements."
967. To Carlos Delatre, of Roubaix, France, Manufacturer, for the invention of "applying potatoe starch or its derivatives, for the sizing of woollen or worsted warps or yarn."
968. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in paper-rag engines."—A communication to him from abroad by Newton W.

- Taylor and Joseph W. Brightman, both of Cleveland, Ohio, United States of America.
970. And to Thomas Don, of Redhill, in the county of Surrey, Engineer, and Robert Alfred Wright, of Homerton, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in treating fibrous, ligneous, and textile substances and fabrics for the production of substitutes for leather, gutta percha, papier mâché, and other manufacturing materials, and for other useful purposes, also in manufacturing articles from such substitutes, and in preparing agents used in the said treatment, and in apparatus employed in the said manufacture."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 2nd day of April, 1872.
971. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in liqueurs or cordials and other beverages, and in apparatus to be employed in their manufacture."—A communication to him from abroad by François Antoine (surnamed Antonin) Joannon, of Paris, in the Republic of France.
972. To William Benson, of Allerwash House, in the county of Northumberland, and John Johnson Hetherington, of Stonecroft, in the same county, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for washing and dressing ores."
973. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the treatment of hair, bristles, and feathers."—A communication to him from abroad by William Adamson, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, United States of America.
974. To James Ashbury, of Sussex-place, Hyde Park, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for propelling and steering vessels for inland navigation."—A communication to him from abroad by Charles Hemje, of the city of Hoboken, county of Hudson, and State of New Jersey, United States of America.
975. To Francisco Prudencio and Joseph Francis Cotterell, both of Bath, in the county of Somerset, Soda Water Manufacturers, for the invention of "an improved apparatus for stoppering bottles."
978. To James Gowans, of Edinburgh, in the county of Mid Lothian, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in machinery used in the construction of tramways and railways, and applicable to other purposes."
979. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "an improved compound for cleansing carpets and other woven fabric."—A communication to him from abroad by Louis Stern, of Boston, Massachusetts, United States of America.
981. To Henry Young, Gas Inspector, and Alfred Kitt, Manager, both of the Gas Light and Coke Company, Horseferry-road, in the city of Westminster, for the invention of "improvements in the purification of illuminating gas, and in apparatus to be used therefor."
982. To Robert Boby, of Bury St. Edmunds, in the county of Suffolk, Agricultural Engineer, for the invention of "an improved construction of cultivator or scarifier."
983. To Joseph François Marie Rigod, of Boulevard de Strasbourg, No. 23, à Paris, for the invention of "an improved apparatus for carbureting air."
984. To Joseph Louis Casartelli, of the city of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Engineering Instrument Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in pyrometers."
986. And to Charles Grey Hill, of the town of Nottingham, Bonnet Front Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for goffering, fluting, and crimping fabrics."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 3rd day of April, 1872.
988. To John George Pembro, of Carlisle-street, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, Boat Builder, for the invention of "a new or improved application of machinery or apparatus for propelling canoes and small boats generally."
994. To Jules François Lafrogne, of Paris, Boulevard de Strasbourg, No. 23, Mechanist, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of gas for lighting and heating, and in apparatus employed therein."
996. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for sewing boots and shoes."—A communication to him from abroad by Charles Goodyear the younger, of New Rochelle, Westchester county, in the State of New York, United States of America.
998. And to John Baynes, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in headings and borderings for woven fabrics."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 4th day of April, 1872.
