FELSHAM FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me as Secretary of State for the Home Department by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Thingoe and Thedwastre, in the county of Suffolk, that a Fair has been annually held on the 16th and 17th days of August, in the parish of Felsham, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished :

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871."

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished :

And whereas Fiske Goodeve Fiske Harrison, of Copford Hall, in the county of Essex, Esquire, Lord of the Manor of Felsham, in the county of Suffolk, as lord or owner of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished :

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 16th and 17th days of August, in the parish of Felsham, in the Petty Sessional Division of Thingoe and Thedwastre, in the county of Suffolk, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 3rd day of May, 1872.
