*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 26, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 1st of June.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, April 26, 1872.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 13th of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.EARLSHAM FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 26th day of April, 1872, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Framlingham, in the county of Suffolk, that a Fair has been annually held on the 23rd and 24th days of July, in the parish of Earlsbam, in the said Division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 8th day of June, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed)

H. A. Bruce.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, May 9, 1872.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the slave bounty and proceeds for a slave dhow, name unknown, captured on the 12th January, 1871, by Her Majesty's ship "Nymphé."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said bounty are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Saint Matthew, Lower-road, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest, after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Matthew, Lower-road, Islington.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Saint Peter, Sandwich, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same rectory, and to his successors, a yearly sum of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Saint Peter, Sandwich, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable, in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of eight hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Market Rasen, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Market Rasen, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of twenty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable, in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Chipping, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing certain buildings on the glebe land belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Chipping: Provided always, that the said capital sum of one hundred pounds shall be and be held to be in lieu of and in substitution for a portion amounting to three pounds six shillings and eight pence of an annual sum or stipend of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, heretofore payable by us the said Commissioners to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us on the twentieth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and published in the London Gazette of the first day of January then next following.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage or benefice of Caerau, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those tithe commutation rent charges particularly described in the first part of the Schedule hereunto annexed, and also all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with its appurtenances, together with the tithe commutation rent charge arising and issuing thereout, which said piece or parcel of land and tithe commutation rent charge is particularly described in the second part of such Schedule: To have and to hold the said tithe commutation rent charges, and piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said tithe commutation rent charges and piece or parcel of land and hereditaments shall be and be held to be in lieu of and in full substitution for an annual sum or stipend of eight pounds heretofore payable by us, the said Commissioners, to the Incumbent of the said vicarage in respect of the said tithe commutation rent charges and other property formerly belonging to the prebend of Cairra, in the Cathedral Church of Llandaff aforesaid: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said tithe commutation rent charges, and piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

All that piece or parcel of land comprising four acres three roods and fourteen perches, or thereabouts, being the close known as "Cawsa Grebin," and numbered 29 upon the tithe map of the parish of Cairra, in the county of Glamorgan, together with the tithe commutation rent charge of seven shillings and sixpence arising thereon, and payable in respect thereof.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint John the Evangelist, Kilburn, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November, in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate, out of our said common fund, to the said vicarage, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands, at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Skerton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Skerton, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the benefice of Saint Andrew, Sharrow, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
