*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, May 15, 1872.*

THE Board of Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy, forwarded by Her Majesty's Ambassador at St. Petersburg, of an Official Notice of the Russian Government, notifying that the reduction of harbour dues accorded last year to vessels arriving at the port of Libau will be maintained during the navigation of the present year, and that the same privilege may be extended to Windau, Revel, and Port Baltic, in the event of a desire to that effect being expressed by the mercantile and municipal bodies of those localities.

(H. 2356.)

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, May 15, 1872.*

THE Board of Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, respecting the appointment of a Commission to superintend the works for the improvement of the port of Santander.

The substance of the Despatch is subjoined:—

By a Royal Decree, published in the Official Gazette, a special "Junta" or Commission has been appointed to superintend the works necessary for the improvement of the port of Santander. The expenses incurred in these works will be defrayed by the imposition in that port of the following additional dues:—

1. 75 per cent. of the dues received by the State per metrical ton of goods discharged from vessels measuring more than 20 tons; and 38 per cent. as regards smaller ships.

2. 25 centimes of a peseta per metrical ton of goods loaded on vessels employed in the coasting trade; 45 centimes as to vessels used in trade with Europe, the coasts of Asia and Africa in the Mediterranean, and the African coast in the Atlantic as far as Cape Mogador; and 95 centimes as to vessels trading with all other countries.

Vessels loading or discharging coal and iron ore will only pay the half of the above.

These additional dues will be collected by the Custom House Administration and handed over to the Junta, and they will continue to be exacted, and the Junta to exist, as long as may be necessary for the complete payment for the port works now approved, and which may be approved hereafter.

The exaction of the additional dues will commence when the Junta is constituted.

(H. 2334.)

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, May 16, 1872.*

THE Board of Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, enclosing an extract from a newspaper published in Washington relative to a Decree issued by the Mexican Government, on the 16th of March last, laying down regulations for vessels employed in fishing or pearl-diving on the coasts of Mexico.

The newspaper extract which contains the substance of the Decree can be seen at the Harbour Department of the Board of Trade.

(S. & C. 486.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens,
May 16, 1872.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Lima, inclosing a translation of a Decree of the Peruvian Government, dated 21st March last, annulling a previous Decree raising the Port of Eten to be a port of entry in the place of San José de Lambayeque, and re-instating the latter port in its former rank; but providing that vessels which may have left foreign ports destined for Eten are to be allowed, up to the 1st of July next, to go into that port as if it were still a port of entry.

(M. 5420.)

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

PATMORE HEATH FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Albury, in the county of Herts, that a Fair has been annually held on the 12th and 13th days of July, on Patmore Heath, in the parish of Albury, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 14th day of June, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed)

H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, May 14, 1872.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

BAYTHORNE END FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 7th day of May, 1872, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of North Hincford, in the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the 29th day of July at Baythorne End, in the parish of Birdbrooke, in the said Division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 15th day of June, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed)

H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, May 15, 1872.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

WALTON FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Tendring, in the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the 2nd day of July, and usually continued for one or two following days, in the parish of Walton-on-the-Naze, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 15th day of June, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, May 15, 1872.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

GREAT CRESSINGHAM FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me as Secretary of State for the Home Department by the Justices of the Peace sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of South Greenhoe, in the county of Norfolk, that a Fair has been annually held on the first Wednesday in the month of August, in the parish of Great Cressingham, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas Charles Taylor, Clerk, Rector of Great Cressingham, as lord or owner of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the first Wednesday in the month of August, in the parish of Great Cressingham, in the Petty Sessional Division of South Greenhoe, in the county of Norfolk, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 14th day of May, 1872.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

GREAT BENTLEY FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Tendring, in the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the Monday after St. Swithin's Day, and usually continued for two or three following days, in the parish of Great Bentley, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas William Alderley Francis, Clerk, of Little Tey, in the county of Essex, Lord of the Manor of Great Bentley, as lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof, has consented, in writing, that the said fair should be abolished:

Now therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the Monday after St. Swithin and usually continued for two or three following days, in the parish of Great Bentley, in the Petty Sessional Division of Tendring, in the county of Essex, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 16th day of May, 1872.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.
