In Chancery.—Master of the Rolls.—Wednesday, the 8th day of May, 1872.—Between Sidney William Borrell, Plaintiff; Donald Barr, Defendant.

UPON motion this day made unto the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, by Counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that the plaintiff hath filed his Bill in this Court against the defendant, and that it appears by the affidavit of John William Bull, filed the 1st May, 1872, that the defendant has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the defendant with a copy of the said Bill, but without effect, and that the defendant is beyond the seas, and that upon enquiry at the usual place of abode of the defendant, and at other places where, at the time when the said Bill was filed, he might probably have been met with, he was not found, so as to be served with a copy of the said Bill, and that there is just ground to believe that the defendant has gone out of the realm, or otherwise absconded, to avoid being served with such copy, and upon reading the said affidavit, his Lordship doth order that the defendant, Donald Barr, do appear to the plaintiff's Bill on or before the 8th June, 1872. And the plaintiff is to cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the tenth of the Consolidated Orders, Rule 6, in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette within twenty-one days from the date hereof, and in one newspaper published in New York on or before the 1st day of July, 1872.

NOTICE.—“Donald Barr, Take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may grant an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own showing.”

PATRICK JOHNSTON, 35, Bedford-row, London,
