

December, 1869. A Final Dividend Meeting will be held on the 14th day of June instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely.

At the said Meetings the Assignees will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupt's estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said respective meetings will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what Dividend shall be made, and whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupts respectively. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of an adjudication of Bankruptcy, made on the 3rd day of August, 1868, against Robert Morton, of 28, Church-terrace, Kentish Town, in the county of Middlesex, Licensed Victuallers' Cellarman, did, on the 10th day of November, 1868, grant the Discharge of the said bankrupt; and that such Discharge will be delivered to the bankrupt, unless an appeal be duly entered against the judgment of the Court, and notice thereof be given to the Court.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of an adjudication of Bankruptcy, made on the 31st day of December, 1869, against James Osborne, late of No. 21, Coleman-street, in the city of London, and No. 17, Albany-terrace, Victoria Park, in the county of Middlesex, Accountant, then of No. 18, Lansdowne-terrace, Grove-road, Victoria Park, in the county of Middlesex, Attorney's Clerk, did, on the 17th day of May, 1870, grant the Discharge of the said bankrupt; and that such Discharge will be delivered to the bankrupt, unless an appeal be duly entered against the judgment of the Court, and notice thereof be given to the Court.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Robert Brown, of 53, Smith-street, Mile End, in the county of Middlesex, Draper, a Bankrupt.

UPON the application of Mr. William Haigh, Solicitor for the trustee of the property of the bankrupt, and upon reading a report of the said trustee, dated the 14th day of December, 1871, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could, according to the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection to the said report, in writing, under their hands annexed, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, had been realized, as shown by the statement thereto annexed, and that the requisite meetings for audit, and for explaining his reasons for not declaring a dividend, had been held, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 29th day of February, 1872, and the affidavit of Henry Rockett, with the notice of this application thereto annexed, sworn the 14th day of February instant, and no creditor appearing to oppose this application, this Court, being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can be realized, without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, has been realized, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Robert Brown has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 29th day of February, 1872.
