THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

HACHESTON FAIR, SUFFOLK.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by Frederick Corrance, Esq., and the Reverend Charles Thomas Corrance, that a Fair has been annually held in the parish of Hacheston, in the county of Suffolk, on the 12th and 13th days of November, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished :

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871.:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished :

And whereas the said Frederick Corrance and the said Reverend Charles Thomas Corrance, as lords or owners of the said Fair and the tolls thereof, have consented, in writing, that the said Fair should be abolished :

Now therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held in the parish of Hacheston, in the county of Suffolk, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 12th day of June, 1872.
