It further affords the Governor-General in Council high gratification to express entire concurrence in the testimony borne by the Commander-in-Chief to the efficient and zealous support afforded to their Generals by the Officers Commanding Regiments and Corps, as named in the margin* and his Excellency in Council cordially recognizes the unfailing cheerfulness and good conduct of all ranks under circumstances of much fatigue and exertion. The Governor-General in Council especially thanks all those who are named by their Commanders.

His Excellency in Council desires to convey to Mr. Edgar and Captain Lewin, who accompanied the force in a civil capacity, a full expression of approbation for the valuable services rendered, and not less for their cordial co-operation with the Military Commanders.

The valuable results of the labours of the Officers of the Survey Department under Major Macdonald are fully appreciated by the Governor-General in Council.

The successful construction and maintenance by the Telegraph Department of its lines of communication demands full recognition.

The Governor-General in Council has pleasure in acknowledging the zeal and ability of Major Moore, whose exertions were most successful, Major Brown and Captain Hedayut Ali, who organized and superintended the Transport Coolie Corps, whose services were so valuable to the expedition, and his Excellency in Council fully recognizes the good service of the Police under Mr. Daly and Mr. Crouch.

The approbation of the Government of India will be communicated through the proper department to the Rajah of Munnipore for the ready assistance rendered by him to the British Government in furtherance of the object of the expedition.

1. The life interest of Edward Kerrison Harvey, Esq. (who attained the age of 45 years on or about the 26th December, 1871), under the will and codicils of his father, General Sir Robert John Harvey, deceased, in the several mortgages, stocks, funds, and securities specified in the particulars of sale (the same being part of the residuary personal estate of the said Sir Robert John Harvey, and the fund set apart to answer a reversionary legacy payable to the son or sons of the said Edward Kerrison Harvey on his decease, and the monies invested to answer certain life annuities amounting to one hundred and seventy-two pounds half yearly.)

The net income upon the investments as they stood from time to time, after payment of outgoings other than the annuities above-mentioned, produced for the half year, ending on the 18th June, 1871, the sum of £7,006, or thereabouts, and for the half year ending on the 18th December, 1871, the sum of £7,098, or thereabouts; but from an alteration of the investments by the Trustees in the autumn of 1871, by sale of certain stocks and securities, and investing the same on mortgage of real estate, the net income of the half year ending 18th June, 1872, is estimated to produce six thousand eight hundred and fifty pounds, subject to the annuities, and to deductions for legacy duties hereinafter mentioned.

N. B.—The above income is subject to the payment of the several life annuities above referred to (amounting in the aggregate to the half yearly sum of £172). As annuitants die, the available net income will be increased by the respective amounts of their annuities.

It is also subject to a contingent annuity of £200 (making £100 for a half year, payable to a lady now aged 53, or thereabouts) during the remainder of her life, commencing from the decease of her present husband (now aged 63, or thereabouts), should she happen to survive him, during the lifetime of the said Edward Kerrison Harvey.

It is also subject to legacy duty of £77 4s. 7d., payable in two yearly instalments, should the said Edward Kerrison Harvey so long live, and to £48 15s. 7d. payable in three yearly instalments should John Henry Drury so long live.

Also the net income which, in case the said Edward Kerrison Harvey shall be living on the 18th June, 1881, will thenceforth during his life arise from one-third of a fund and of its accumulations, the trusts for the accumulation of which under the said will and codicils will cease on that day, and which fund (with its accumulations) on the 1st January, 1872, amounted to, or was represented by a sum of, £10,648 16s. 9d., £3 cent. reduced annuities.

The whole of the above will be offered for sale in one lot, but if not so sold, will then be offered for sale in 20 equal lots, under the trusts of a deed approved by the Court of Chancery in the above-named suits.

2. The income which, in case the said Edward Kerrison Harvey shall be living on the 18th June, 1881, will thenceforth, during his life, arise from one other third part of the fund, and its accumulations above referred to, as having on the 1st January, 1872, amounted to, or been represented by a sum of, £10,648 16s. 9d., 3 per cent. reduced annuities.

3. The income which, after the decease of John Harvey, Esquire (aged 50 years or thereabouts, and who is a bachelor, and is, and has for many years been of weak mind), will thenceforth, during the life of the said Edward Kerrison Harvey, (if he be then living), arise from a sum of £4,255 6s. 9d. Consolidated £3 per cent. annuities, and from a sum of £1,494 14s. 3d., New 3 per cent. annuities, subject to the contingency of the said John Harvey marrying and having any children or child who may either survive him, or may in his lifetime attain a vested interest in the above funds.
