

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments, heretofore belonging to the said Bishoprick of Saint Asaph, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds thereof from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be assigned as the endowment for the said see, or to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

At the Court at Windsor, the 25th day of June, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for compensating a certain spiritual person, to wit, the Reverend Charles Lee, Clerk, lately the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill, in the diocese of London, whose emoluments have been diminished by reason of proceedings under the said Acts, or of one of them, that is to say, by the constitution of the district (now the new parish) of Saint Martin, Kentish Town, in the said diocese of London, by the constitution of the district (now the new parish) of Saint Andrew, Haverstock-hill, in the same diocese, and by the constitution of the district (now the new parish) of Saint Luke, New Kentish Town, also in the same diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said Charles Lee, as such vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill as aforesaid, have been diminished in the manner aforesaid, and that the payment to the said Charles Lee of the several sums in that behalf hereinafter mentioned would provide a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us to the said Charles Lee, as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid of the vicarage of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill aforesaid, and in respect of the period of his incumbency of the same vicarage, a sum of one pound per annum in respect of the said new parish of Saint Martin, Kentish Town, and a further sum of six pounds per annum in respect of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Haverstock Hill, and also a further sum of twelve pounds per annum in respect of the said new parish of Saint Luke, New Kentish Town; and that the right of the said Charles Lee to receive the said annual sums, and every part thereof, shall, in each case, be held to have commenced and accrued as from the day on which the cure in respect of the formation of which such compensation is made became a new parish, that being the day upon which, in each case, the vicar or incumbent of the new parish became empowered to perform in the church thereof those offices, and became entitled to retain for his own benefit those fees, in consideration of the loss of which the amount in each case of the compensation grant in this scheme recommended and proposed, has been fixed by us, and that the payment of such annual sums shall in each case be held to have determined as from the day when he, the said Charles Lee, ceased to be the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased
