At the Court at Windsor, the 25th day of June, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at New Beckenham, in the parish of Beckenham, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at New Beckenham, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Beckenham which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at New Beckenham as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, New Beckenham.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, New Beckenham, being:

"All that part of the parish of Beckenham, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north by the district parish of Christ Church, Forest Hill, in the said county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester, on the north-east by the parish of Lewisham, in the last-named county and diocese, and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the east, on the south-west, and on the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Lewisham from the parish of Beckenham aforesaid, at a point near the house called or known as Oakleigh, in the middle of the road which leads from Southend through Beckenham to Croydon, and which is called or known as Beckenham-lane or Southend-road; and extending thence southward for a distance of three quarters of a mile or thereabouts along the middle of the said road (thereby crossing the line of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway) to the junction of such road, at or near to the southern entrance to the Beckenham Junction Railway Station Yard, with a certain private road called Rectory-road, which separates the said station yard from the land forming the grounds attached to the rectory house of the parish of Beckenham aforesaid, and which leads to the close numbered 325 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Beckenham and upon the map hereunto annexed; and extending thence north-westward for a distance of two hundred and forty-five yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said Rectory-road to the point where it strikes the southern side of the line of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway aforesaid, at or near to the junction of the same line of railway with the line of the Mid Kent Railway; and extending thence northward and in a direct line across the line of the said London, Chatham, and Dover Railway to a point in the middle of the line of the Mid Kent Railway aforesaid; and extending thence for a distance of rather more than one mile, first north-westward and then northward, along the middle of the last-named line of railway to the point a little to the south of the Lower Sydenham Station on the same line of railway where it is crossed by the boundary which divides the said parish of Beckenham from the district parish of Christ Church, Forest Hill aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.
