LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER SETTLING THE BOUNDARIES OF A DISTRICT TO BE STYLED THE DISTRICT OF DALTON-IN-FURNESS, IN THE COUNTY OF LANCASTER.

WHEREAS a Petition has been presented to the Local Government Board from owners and ratepayers resident within the parish of Dalton-in-Furness, in the county of Lancaster, praying for the settlement of boundaries of a district to be styled the district of "Dalton-in-Furness," for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858 :

And whereas the said Petition set forth the proposed boundaries of the district, and was signed by one-tenth of the ratepayers resident within such boundaries, and inquiry has since been made as to the genuineness of the said Petition, and the propriety of the proposed boundaries, by Arnold Taylor, Esq., the Inspector appointed by the Local Government Board for that purpose :

Now, therefore, we, the said Local Government Board, after consideration of the matter, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in us by the Local Government Act, 1858, and the Local Government Board Act, 1871, make order :—

That from and after the date of this present Order, the boundaries hereinafter set forth and described shall form and constitute the boundaries of the district to be called the "Dalton-in-Furness District," for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858 ; and that the parts included in such boundaries so described, shall, for the purposes of such Act, be deemed to be a place having a known and defined boundary, and may adopt the said Act accordingly :

The boundaries hereinbefore referred to commence at the point of junction with the boundary of the borough of Barrow-in-Furness, at Billing Gate ; thence the said boundaries extend along the boundary fence between the lands of His Grace the Duke of Devonshire and the landowners of Newton, until the said fence meets the boundary line between the parishes of Dalton and Urswick ; thence along the boundary line between the parish of Dalton and the parishes of Urswick, Pennington, and Kirkby Ireleth to the estuary of the River Duddon ; thence down such estuary to the road leading from Rouhead to Dalton ; thence along such road to the boundary of the said borough at the railway gates at Thwaite Flatt ; and thence along the northern and eastern boundary of the said borough, to the said point at Billing Gate.

And we do hereby appoint Francis Clarke, of Dalton-in-Furness, Assistant-Overseer, to be Summoning Officer, under the provisions of section 16 of the Local Government Act, 1858, and to take such steps as may be necessary for convening a meeting to decide as to the adoption of the said Act within the said District, and to discharge all other duties which devolve on him, as such Summoning Officer.

Given under our Seal of Office this 15th day of August, 1872.

(Signed) James Stansfeld,
President.
