

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 23, 1872.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th day of August, 1872.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Mr. Forster.
Mr. Hammond.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1869,) and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two; and words in this Order have the same meaning as in the Act of 1869.

2. The Order described in the Schedule to this Order is hereby revoked to the extent in that Schedule mentioned.

3. Nothing in this Order shall invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order, before this Order takes effect, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the Act of 1869, or the said Order.

Arthur Helps.

SCHEDULE.

The Order of Council of the eighth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, prohibiting the landing in Great Britain of cattle, manure, and hay brought from any place in Belgium or France, and regulating the landing in Great Britain of sheep, goats, and certain articles brought from any place in Belgium or France

So much of the Order as is in force.

Privy Council Office, Veterinary Department, Princes Street, Westminster, S.W.

THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES (ANIMALS) ACT, 1869.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by virtue of various Orders of Council issued by the Lords of the Council, in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, the Second Schedule to The Foreign Animals Order of 1871, has been, from time to time, altered, so that in effect it now stands as follows:—

- The Austrian Hungarian Empire.
- The Empire of Germany.
- The dominions of the Sultan.
- The dominions of the King of Italy.
- The dominions of the King of the Hellenes.
- Belgium.
- France.

All cattle imported from the countries scheduled must be slaughtered within ten days after the landing thereof (unless landed at Southampton for quarantine).

The landing in Great Britain of cattle brought from any place in the dominions of the Emperor of Russia is prohibited.

The landing of cattle from no other country is prohibited.

The landing of cattle from any country other than scheduled countries and Russia is unrestricted, and healthy cattle after twelve hours' detention may be moved alive from the place of landing.

Civil Service Commission,

August 21, 1872.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING TEMPORARY WRITERS IN PUBLIC DEPARTMENTS.

1. A Register of Writers will be kept by the Civil Service Commissioners. Such Writers will be employed in the Public Departments when wanted. When not wanted, they will have no claim to employment; refusing to serve when called upon, they will be removed from the Register.

2. Writers will be subject to the orders of the Departments in which they are serving during the time of their actual employment; but they will be under the Civil Service Commissioners, and paid by them from week to week, or day to day, as circumstances may require.*

3. Writers must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they are of good health and character, and that they are duly qualified under the following regulations (4 and 5).

4. The limits of age will be:—

- (a) For Men Writers,—over 18.
 (b) For Boy Writers,—14 to 18.

* For the present, Writers engaged for more than a week at a time in one Department will be paid by that Department, and not by the Civil Service Commissioners, except in respect of holidays (see Regulation 13), for which no payments will be made but by the Commissioners.

5. The subjects in which Candidates will be tested are:—

MEN WRITERS:

OBLIGATORY.*

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Copying Manuscript.
4. Copying Figures and Tabular Statements.

OPTIONAL.

5. Arithmetic.

BOY WRITERS:

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Elementary Arithmetic.

6. Examinations, for the purpose of testing the qualifications of Candidates in the above-mentioned subjects, will be held by the Civil Service Commissioners from time to time as may be necessary, and a certain number, regulated by the probable demand from the Public Departments, of those who display the requisite amount of proficiency, will be placed upon the Register kept by the Commissioners.

7. The fee payable by persons attending these examinations will be 5s. for each person in class (a), and 2s. 6d. for each person in class (b).

8. Writers placed upon the Register will be eligible for employment in any Department. They will be summoned for employment when and for such time as their services may be needed; the order in which they may be employed, and the Departments to which they may be assigned, being determined on each occasion by the Civil Service Commissioners.

9. The engagement of all Writers, not engaged for a shorter period, will be by the week. Writers may also be engaged by the day, or the hour, as may be found advisable. Boy Writers will not be retained, as such, after they shall have reached the age of 19.

10. The pay of Men Writers engaged by time will be at the rate of 10d. per hour. No greater number of hours than those constituting an official day in each Department may be charged for without previous authority from the chiefs of the Department. Those engaged by the piece will be paid at the rate of 1½d. for every 100 words well and correctly copied, or at such other rates for special kinds of work as may be determined by the Civil Service Commissioners, with the approval of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

11. No service, however much it may happen to be prolonged, will confer any claim to superannuation or compensation allowance.

12. The remuneration of Boy Writers engaged by time will be at the rate of 4d. per hour; an addition of ½d. per hour being allowable by the Civil Service Commissioners at the end of each year of approved service. Should any Boy Writers be engaged by the piece they will be paid at such rates as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

13. When a Writer has a week's pay to receive he shall lose no part of it for days on which the office is shut for public holidays. Writers who have been on the register at least twelve months may, with the consent of the Department in which they are serving, be allowed leave, without loss of pay, at the rate of one day for every twenty-four full days of actual and approved service previously rendered; provided that no Writer shall be allowed to take more than twelve days leave under these conditions at one time. In calculating the leave to be allowed, no service previous to 19th August, 1871, will be counted.

14. No person who has been trained, either wholly or partially, at the public expense, for the occupation of a teacher in schools in connexion with the Committee of Council for Education, or the Board of National Education, Ireland, is eligible for employment as a Writer, unless he shall have first obtained the consent of the Treasury.
