FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1872.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th day of September, 1872.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Mr. Hammond.
Mr. Forster.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Notwithstanding anything contained in Article 5 of The Cattle Plague Order of 1872, which prohibits the holding of all markets, fairs, exhibitions and sales of cattle within the City of York, and within the East Riding of Yorkshire, and all the boroughs therein, except under licence of the Privy Council; the following sales of cattle may be held without such licence:—

- a. Cattle belonging to the owner or occupier of premises not in an Infected Place may be sold on those premises if the cattle are not affected with Cattle Plague, and have been on those premises in possession of the owner or occupier thereof, not less than twenty-eight days immediately before the sale.
- b. Cattle within a defined part of a port, which have been delivered to the owner or his agent, may be sold within such defined part.

Markets, exhibitions, and sales may be held under licence of the Privy Council.

Arthur Helps.
