THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

LYNG FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 8th day of July, 1872, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Eynsford Division of the county of Norfolk, that a Fair has been annually held on the 20th day of November, except when that day falls on a Sunday, it is held on the following Monday, in the parish of Lyng, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 21st day of October, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER SETTLING THE BOUNDARIES OF A DISTRICT, TO BE STYLED THE DISTRICT OF SHEVINGTON, IN THE COUNTY OF LANCASTER.

WHEREAS a Petition has been presented to the Local Government Board from ratepayers resident within the several townships of Wrightington and Farbold, in the parish of Eccleston, and Shevington, in the parish of Standish, all in the county of Lancaster, praying for the settlement of boundaries of a district, comprising the said three townships, for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858:

And whereas the said petition was signed by one-tenth of the ratepayers resident within the said townships, and inquiry has since been made as to the genuineness of the said petition and the propriety of the proposed boundaries by John Thornhill Harrison, Esquire, the Inspector appointed by the Local Government Board for that purpose:

Now, therefore, we, the said Local Government Board, do hereby in pursuance of the powers vested in us by the Local Government Act, 1858, and the Local Government Board Act, 1871, make Order, that from after the date of this present Order, the boundaries of the district comprising the townships of Wrightington and Parbold, in the parish of Eccleston, and the township of Shevington, in the parish of Standish, shall form and constitute the boundaries of the district to be called the "District of Shevington," for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858, and that the parts included in such boundaries shall, for the purposes of such Act, be deemed to be a place having a known and defined boundary, and may adopt the said Act accordingly:—

And we do hereby appoint Thomas Woosnam, of Shevington aforesaid, Yeoman, to be Summoning Officer under the provisions of section 16 of the Local Government Act, 1858, and to take such steps as may be necessary for convening a meeting to decide as to the adoption of the said Act within the said district, and to discharge all other duties which devolve on him as such summoning officer.

Given under our Seal of Office, this 20th day of September, 1872.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 28th year of Her Majesty, cap. 30, for granting to Her Majesty certain duties of Customs and Inland Revenue, power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed under the provisions made by the Act passed in the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, cap. 35, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Hemlingford, in the county of Warwick, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Income Tax Act, the said Board hereby authorise the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Government Offices, New-street, Birmingham, on Thursday, the 3rd day of October, 1872, at one o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulation of the said Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Hemlingford, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

THE LAND DRAINAGE ACT, 1861.

ALTERATION OF LOCAL BOUNDARIES.

WHEREAS the Commissioners of Sewers, acting in and for the several Wapentakes of Loveden, Beltisloe, Winnibriggs and Threo, and Flaxwell and Soke of Grantham, in the county of Lincoln, and for part of the county of Nottingham, have reported to the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales that they, the said Commissioners of Sewers, have straightened and altered the ancient course of part of a certain sewer, drain, and also of part of the River Witham, heretofore dividing certain lands in the parish of Brant Broughton from certain other lands in the parish of Stapleford, so as to affect their character as boundary lines.

And whereas the Commissioners of Sewers for the city of Lincoln and county of the same city, and also for the several Wapentakes of Lawress, Wraggoe, Boothby-Graffoe, Langoe, Flaxwell, and Well, in the county of Lincoln, have also reported to the said Inclosure Commissioners that they, the said Commissioners of Sewers, have straightened and altered the ancient course of part of the River Witham, heretofore dividing certain lands in the parishes of Brant Broughton and Carlton-le-Moorland from certain other lands in the adjoining parish of Stapleford, so as to affect its character as a boundary line.

Now the said Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, in pursuance of the power vested in them by the "Land Drainage Act, 1861," having satisfied themselves that the new boundary lines may be adopted with convenience, do, by this notice, declare that the water-courses, as altered and shown on plans annexed to the reports of the aforesaid Commissioners of Sewers, copies whereof are deposited with the churchwardens and overseers of the said parishes, shall be substituted for the former boundary lines between the said parishes of Brant Broughton and Carlton-le-Moorland, and the adjoining parish of Stapleford.

Witness my hand, this 21st day of September, in the year of our Lord 1872.

H. Pyne,
By order of the Board.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Capelyrwrw, situated at Erw, in the parish of Cellan, in the county of Cardigan, in the district of Lampeter, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 11th day of September, 1872, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 14th of September, 1872.
