THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

THRANDESTON FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Eye, in the county of Suffolk, as owners, that a Fair has been annually held on the last day of July and first day of August, formerly in the parish of Thrandeston, but latterly within the borough of Eye, both in the county of Suffolk, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the last day of July and first day of August, formerly in the parish of Thrandeston, latterly within the borough of Eye, both in the county of Suffolk, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 27th day of September, 1872.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.
