NOTE.

In case the Arbitrators should think it worth while to study the subject attentively, we refer them to the following documents, which clearly prove the spontaneous activity of the Executive at all times to prevent equipments and expeditions in contravention of the law of nations, attempted in the ports of the United States:—

I.—Counter-Case of the United States and Appendix. (French Translation.)

	Pages
Mr. McCulloch to Mr. Monroe	15
" "	30
Mr. Monroe to Mr. Glenn	31
Mr. Glenn to Mr. Monroe	33
Mr. Rush to Mr. McCulloch	41
Mr. McCulloch to Captain Beard	43
" "	45
Mr. Ingersoll to Mr. Adams	48
Mr. Robbins to Mr. Adams	53
Mr. Monroe to Mr. Fish	58
Mr. Wirt to the President	58
Mr. Swift to Mr. McCulloch	62
Mr. McCulloch to Captain Beard	63
" "	69
Mr. McCulloch to Lieutenant Marshall	72
" to Captain Daniels	82
" to Mr. Lowry	85
" to Mr. Jackson	86
" to Captain Webster	87
" "	88
" "	89
Mr. Adams to Mr. Glenn	94
Mr. McCulloch to Captain Webster	96
" "	100
" "	105
Mr. Sterling to Mr. Williams	106
Mr. Graham to Commodore McCauley	107
Mr. Fillmore to General Hitchcock	108
Mr. Conrad to General Hitchcock	109
Mr. Davis to General Wool	115
Mr. Cushing to Mr. Inge	115
" to Mr. McKeon	118
" to the President	119
" to Mr. McKeon	348
Expedition of Walker	360–368
Mr. Clayton to Mr. Hall	374
Correspondence of Messrs. Clayton and Hall	378–382
Mr. Hall to Mr. Clayton	387
Mr. Clayton to Mr. Hall	391
Mr. Preston to Captain Tattnall	394
" to Commodore Parker	397
Report of Commander Newton	408–700
Mr. Meredith to the Collectors of Customs	418
Various Proclamations	116–419–422
Correspondence relative to the monitors	425–440
" " to the Florida	441–452

II.—Correspondence relative to the Affairs of Cuba in the English Supplement to the Counter-Case of the United States.

The Spanish gun-boats	454–485
The case of the Orientale	3–6
" R. R. Cuyler	12–16
Mr. Herron to Mr. Browning	17
Mr. Evarts to Mr. Courtney	22
Mr. Fish to Messrs. Pierrepont and Barlow	98
" " "	103
Correspondence of Messrs. Potestad, Davis, Milledge, and Hoar.	107–116