

Marylebone, from the new parish of Saint Luke, Nutford-place aforesaid, at the point where Crawford-street aforesaid joins the said Shouldham-street, and continuing thence, first north-westward, along the last-named street, and then south-westward, along John-street West (thereby following the last-described boundary), to the Edgware-road, and extending thence, north-westward, along the last-named road (thereby following the boundaries which divide the said district parish of Saint Mary, in Marylebone, from the new parish of Saint John, Paddington, and from the new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Paddington, both in the county and diocese aforesaid), to the Marylebone-road aforesaid, and extending thence, north-eastward, along the last-named road (thereby following the boundaries which divide the said district parish of Saint Mary, in Marylebone, from the new parish of Saint Barnabas, in Saint Marylebone, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and from the district parish of Christ Church, Saint Marylebone as aforesaid), to the first-described point where the said Marylebone-road is joined by Seymour-place as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 15th day of October, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the parish of Wellingborough, in the county of Northampton, and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the said parish of Wellingborough.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Connor, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Wellingborough which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Wellingborough.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Connor, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Wellingborough, being:

"All that part of the parish of Wellingborough, in the county of Northampton, and in the diocese of Peterborough, which is bounded on the east by the parish of Finedon, in the same county and diocese, by the parish of Irthlingborough, in the same county and diocese, and by the parish of Irchester, in the same county and diocese, or in other words partly by the river Ise, and partly by the river Nene, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the south-west and on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Irchester from the parish of Wellingborough aforesaid, at a point in the centre of the bridge called Long Bridge, which carries the Kettering and Newport Pagnell turnpike road over the river Nene, and extending thence north-westward for a distance of sixty-nine chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said turnpike road to its junction with Sheep-street, in the town of Wellingborough, and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the said street to its junction with Market-street, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Cambridge-street, Church-street, and Park-road, and extending northward to and along the middle of the said Park-road for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to the junction of the last-named road with Park-street, and extending thence in a direction generally north-eastward along the middle of
