AT the Court at Balmoral, the 15th day of October, 1872.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate at Woodside, in the district-chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, some time part of the parish of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Woodside as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district-chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Woodside as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Woodside.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Woodside as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend John George Hodgson, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Croydon, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Woodside as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said John George Hodgson: And provided also, that if the Reverend Henry Campbell Watson, the present incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, shall continue to be such incumbent at the date of the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said parish of Croydon, then and thereafter, so long as he, the said Henry Campbell Watson, shall remain incumbent of the same perpetual curacy, all the said fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Woodside as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Henry Campbell Watson. And provided further that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Woodside, Croydon, being:

"All that part of the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, sometime part of the parish of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is bounded on the north by the district chapelry of Saint Mark, South Norwood, sometime part of the said parish of Croydon, on the east by the parish of Beckenham, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury aforesaid, on the south, partly by the new parish of Shirley, sometime part of the parish of Croydon aforesaid, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the remaining part of the south and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Shirley from the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common aforesaid, at the point where Stroud Green-road is joined by Wood-
