Oakengates and St. George's Gas.

(Application under "The Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870," to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order for Power to maintain and continue Gas Works; to extend Limits of Supply; Power to break up Streets and Levy Rents; to raise additional Capital; and for other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 23rd day of December next, by the Oakengates and St. George's Gas and Water Company Limited (hereinafter called the Company), for a Provisional Order under "The Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870," for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1.—To enable the Company to maintain and continue in and upon the lands now belonging to and occupied by them and hereinafter described, gas works at Oakengates, in the parish of Wombridge, in the county of Salop, and to manufacture and store and supply gas, and sell the same, and to manufacture and sell all residual and other products thereof, and carry on there all the business usually carried on by gas companies, or which is or may become incident thereto.

2.—To carry into effect the said powers in and upon certain lands now belonging to and occupied by the Company, containing by admeasurement 2,824 square yards or thereabouts, situate at Oakengates, in the parish and county aforesaid, bounded on the north by land belonging or reputed to belong to St. John Chiverton Charlton, Esquire; on the west partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to the said St. John Chiverton Charlton, Esquire, and partly by the Great Western Railway; on the south by land and premises belonging or reputed to belong to James Robinson, Eliza Powis, and the Trustees of Wombridge Parish Schools; and on the east by the road leading from Oakengates aforesaid to Wombridge.

3.—To authorize the Company to acquire and hold patent rights and licenses in relation to the manufacture or distribution of gas, and the utilization of the residual products obtainable therefrom.

4.—To supply gas for public and private lights, and other purposes within such parts of the parishes and places of Wellington, Wrockwardine, Wombridge, Shifnal, Lilleshall, and Dawley, in the county of Salop, as lie within the boundary hereinafter described, viz.:—From the railway bridge situate on the road leading from Oakengates to Wrockwardine Wood, in a straight line to the Wombridge Water Engine; thence, in a straight line to the public house called the Unicorn Inn, in the occupation of Caroline Gallier, situate on the Holyhead-road at Potter's Bank, near Ketley; thence across the Holyhead-road, and along the road leading to Red Lake, Mossy Green, and Malinslee Hall; from Malinslee Hall in a straight line to the house occupied by Mr. William Summers, situate at Dark-lane; thence in a straight line to the turnpike gate called Priorslee Gate, situate on the Holyhead-road, near to Priorslee; thence in a straight line to a cottage in the occupation of David Parbutt, situate at Limekiln Bank, on the Watling-street-road, near St. George's; thence in a straight line to a toll gate belonging to the Lilleshall Iron Company, near the Queen's Head Inn, on the road leading from St. George's to Donnington; and thence in a straight line to the railway bridge aforesaid.

5.—To enable the Company to lay down and maintain pipes in, through, across, and under streets, roads, lanes, bridges, rivers, and other public passages and places within the limits above defined, and to break up and interfere with, such street, roads, lanes, bridges, rivers, and other public passages and places, and also with any sewers, drains, pipes, telegraph wires, or posts, in, over, or under the same.

6.—To authorise the Company to manufacture, purchase, sell, or let gas meters, fittings, and other gas apparatus; and to levy and recover rates, rents, and charges for the sale and supply of gas for public and private lights, and for other purposes, and of gas meters, pipes, apparatus, and fittings; to alter existing rates or rents; to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates or rents; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights or privileges.

7.—To raise additional capital by shares or stock, and by borrowing, with power to issue any new shares or stock with a preference or priority of dividend, and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed in the Order.

8.—To incorporate with the intended Provisional Order, the provisions or some of the provisions of the "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847," "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871," "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," respectively.

9.—In so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the said Provisional Order, to amend, enlarge, vary, or repeal the existing powers of the Company.

10.—To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with the powers to be sought for as aforesaid.

On or before the 30th day of November, 1872, a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Salop, at Shrewsbury, in the said county, and at the Office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

Printed copies of the Draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade; and copies of the said Draft Order, when so deposited, and of the same Order, when made, can be obtained at the office of Messrs. Knowles and Son, Solicitors, Wellington, Salop; or of Messrs. Martin and Leslie, 27, Abingdon-street, Westminster, on payment of one shilling for each copy.

All persons desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objections respecting the application, may do so by letter, addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, on or before the 15th day of January next; and copies of such objections must at the same time be also sent to the Solicitors or Agents for the Company, as undersigned.

Dated this 1st day of November, 1872.

Knowles and Son, Wellington, Salop, Solicitors.

Martin and Leslie, 27, Abingdon-street, Westminster, Parliamentary Agents.

Thames Conservancy Fisheries.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Conservators of the River Thames propose to make the following Bye-law for the regulation of the Fisheries in the River Thames from the City Stone, near Staines, to Cricklade, so far as relates to angling during a part of the fence season:—

"The Conservators of the River Thames, in exercise of the powers and authority vested in them by the 'Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864,' and the 'Thames Navigation Act, 1866,' and of every other authority them hereunto in anywise enabling, do order and direct as follows, that is to say:—

"Notwithstanding the eighth Bye-law passed under the seal of the Conservators of the River Thames the 14th day of June, 1869, and allowed by Her Majesty in Council at the Court held at Windsor, on the 11th day of November, 1869, for regulating (amongst other things) the fisheries in the River Thames, whereby it is provided that the fence season in the upper river for pike and all other river fish, except salmon, salmon trout, and trout, shall be the period between the 14th of February in each year and the 31st of May following. It shall be lawful to fish for and take by angling, but not otherwise, pike and other river fish, except salmon, salmon trout, and trout, between the 14th of February and the 1st of March in every year."

Any objection to, or representation respecting the above-proposed Bye-law should be sent to, or left with, the Secretary of the Conservators, at No. 41, Trinity-square, Tower-hill, on or before the 14th day of December next.

E. Burstal, Secretary.
