Buoys in Port Morant.

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 81, dated 27th October, 1871, on the buoys in Port Morant, Jamaica, the following information has been received:—

CAUTION.—With the Port open, several houses are visible on the hills, but three are much more conspicuous than the others. The easternmost of these conspicuous houses is on the hill-slope, a little below its crest; the middle, which is the house to be used as the leading mark, is the easternmost on the hill summit. By keeping this house on the east side of the Red Cliff, it leads up the eastern side of the Channel. Caution is necessary, as the East Entrance buoy is now removed, and the colour of the West Entrance buoy is that of the former East Entrance buoy.
