

discharge of, the annual sum or stipend of two pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, heretofore payable by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, in respect of certain estates formerly belonging to the Archbishoprick of Canterbury, to which substitution the Reverend Charles Morice, Clerk, the present Incumbent of the said vicarage, is consenting, and in token thereof has signed this instrument: And provided further that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-seventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal this sixteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.)

Charles Morice, B.D.

Vicar, River-cum-Guston.

Schedule.

All that piece of land containing one acre and two roods, or thereabouts, situate in the parish of River, in the county of Kent, and being part of a close of land called "Longfield," bounded on or towards the north-east by the turnpike-road leading from Dover to Canterbury, and containing in front on that side two hundred and forty-four feet, on or towards the south-west by the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway, and containing on that side two hundred and thirty-eight feet, on the north-west by land of Filmer Phipps, and on the south-east by land of James Robson, which said piece of land hereby expressed to be conveyed is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Oldham, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirtieth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.
