

day of February, 1873, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely.

At the said Meeting the Assignee will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupt's estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said meeting will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupt. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of an adjudication of Bankruptcy, made on the 20th day of August, 1867, against John Baker, of Stonesfield, near Woodstock, in the county of Oxford, Publican, Brewer, and Sise Merchant, did, on the 14th day of January, 1868, grant the Discharge of the said bankrupt; and that such Discharge will be delivered to the bankrupt, unless an appeal be duly entered against the judgment of the Court, and notice thereof be given to the Court.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Joseph Carvell, of 82, Shoe-lane, in the city of London, Dairyman, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading the report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 14th day of January, 1873, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt, as could, according to the joint opinion of the trustee and Committee of Inspection, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy had been realized, and a dividend of one shilling and four pence in the pound had been paid to the creditors who had claimed it, and the unclaimed dividends had been paid into the Bank of England, and upon hearing Mr. Grotorex, Solicitor for the trustee, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Joseph Carvell has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 4th day of February, 1873.
