

the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the annual sum of two hundred pounds, which said grant will be made by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Shields, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mark, South Shields.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mark, South Shields, being :

"All that part of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Shields, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, wherein the present Incumbent of such new parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north and on the east by the parish of Saint Hilda, South Shields, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the south and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Hilda, South Shields, from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Shields, aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Laygate-lane, on the north-western side of the line of the Pontop Branch of the North-Eastern Railway where it crosses the said lane, and extending thence north-westward, for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the same lane to a point in the middle of the viaduct which carries the line of the South Shields Branch of the said North-Eastern Railway over the same lane, and extending thence north-eastward, for a distance of eight and a quarter chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named branch line of railway, to the point where it crosses the line of the Saint Hilda's waggon way, and continuing thence still north-eastward, for a distance of eleven and a half chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the line of the said waggon way to the boundary in the centre of the viaduct which carries the line of the same waggon way, over Clay Path-lane, which boundary divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Shields, from the parish of Saint Hilda, South Shields, aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme, has in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbent of the cure out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbent have respectively signified their consent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

T. M. Biddulph.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate near Westgate, in the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called Margate, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate near Westgate, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archbishop Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called Margate, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James, situate near Westgate, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Westgate.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Archbishop Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical
