

of the Factory Acts, or of the Workshop Regulation Act, 1867.

4. Where a child shall have attained the age of ten years, and it shall be certified by one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools that such child has reached the third standard of education, as set forth in the said New Code of 1871, such child may be exempted from attending school more than one half of the whole time for which the school shall be open.

5. Where the parent of any child shall satisfy the said School Board of his or her inability, from poverty, to pay the whole or any part of the fees of such child, the said School Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board, shall remit the whole or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period not exceeding six calendar months.

6. Any parent who shall, without some reasonable excuse, neglect to cause any child to attend a school, as required by Bye-law No. 1, or who shall neglect to cause any child to attend a school during the time required by Bye-law No. 3, shall for every such offence be subject to a penalty not exceeding two shillings and sixpence.

7. No parent shall be proceeded against or convicted in respect of more than one offence committed in one and the same week, and no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such a sum as, with the costs, will amount to five shillings for each offence.

8. The Board may, from time to time, revoke or alter these or any other Bye-laws hereafter made, or any one or more of such Bye-laws, provided that seven clear days' written notice shall be given to every member of the Board (such notice pointing out every Bye-law it is intended to revoke or alter as the case may be) and that the precise terms of any proposed new Bye-law, whether the same be by way of addition to, or substitution for, or alteration of any then existing Bye-law be clearly contained in such notice; and that such revocation, substitution, alteration, or addition shall be voted by not less than two-thirds of the members present at an ordinary meeting; and that until any altered or new Bye-law shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty in Council (as directed by the Elementary Education Act), the then existing Bye-laws shall continue in full force. Provided also, that in all other respects not inconsistent with this Bye-law, the regulations of the Board for the time being, with respect to the summoning, notice, place, management, and adjournment of the meetings of the Board shall apply to the consideration and determination of such revocation, substitution, alteration, or addition.

9. In these Bye-laws the term "Education Department" means The Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education.

The term "Her Majesty's Inspectors," means The Inspectors of Schools appointed by Her Majesty on the recommendation of the Education Department.

The term "School Board," or "Board," means The School Board of the district comprising the borough of Swansea.

The term "Borough of Swansea," or "Borough," means the Municipal Borough, as defined and set forth in the Charter of Incorporation of the said borough, and in the Municipal Corporations Act, 5 and 6 Wm. IV, c. 76, and includes any enlargement or extension of such Municipal Borough.

The term "School" or "Public Elementary School," means a Public Elementary School as defined by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and includes a free school, but not an Industrial School.

The term "Parent" includes guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain or has the actual custody of any child, but does not include the mother of a child when the lawful father is living with the mother, and is residing within the borough of Swansea.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the School Board of the district of the borough of Swansea, by Charles Thomas Wilson, Chairman of the said School Board, in the presence of—

Board of Trade, (Harbour Department), Whitehall Gardens, S.W., February 8, 1873.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Calais, enclosing copy of an Order from the Director-General of Customs in Paris to the President of the Chamber of Commerce of Calais.

The Order refers to a Law of the 22nd January, 1872, by which every package entering or leaving France, including passengers luggage, is liable to a duty of 10 centimes.

The Order, after referring to the exemption which had already been made in favour of articles carried in the hand by passengers, directs that
