

consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 25th day of January, on the village green, in the parish of Weasenham St. Peter's (commonly known as "Powells" or "Paul's Mart"), in the Launditch Petty Sessional Division of the county of Norfolk, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 21st day of February, 1873.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.
