*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 10, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 3rd of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 24, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 12th of March next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE LEVEE AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to The Queen, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

ADDRESSES.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to The Queen at Her Majesty's Levee, are to deliver a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come), to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock two clear days previous to the Levee: and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee: one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to The Queen; and on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed Four Persons.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 24, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Friday, the 14th of March next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

It is not expected that Gentleman will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force, for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

Whitehall, December 9, 1872.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Joseph Langham Dale, of No. 8, Furnival's Inn, Holborn, Gentleman, to be a London Commissioner to administer oaths in the High Court of Chancery.

October 29, 1872.

The Right Honourable Sir William Bovill, Knt., and Sir William Robert Grove, Knt., two of the Justices of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, have appointed Joseph Langham Dale, of No. 8, Furnival's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, to be a London Commissioner for administering oaths in Common Law in the said Court.

May 31, 1872.

The Right Honourable Sir FitzRoy Kelly, Knt., and Sir George Bramwell, Knt., two of the Barons of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, have appointed Joseph Langham Dale, of No. 8, Furnival's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, to be a London Commissioner for administering oaths in Common Law in the said Court.

Whitehall, February 1, 1873.

The Right Honourable Sir William Bovill, Knt., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed Samuel Stephenson Booth, of Holmfirth, in the county of York, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the West Riding of the county of York.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

UGLEY FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 2nd day of February, 1873, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Walden Division of the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on or about the 1st and 2nd days of July, in the parish of Ugley, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 25th day of March, 1873, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 21.)—WEST INDIES—GREAT BAHAMA BANK.

Intended Alteration in Gun Cay Light.

THE Colonial Government of the Bahamas has given notice, that the following alterations will shortly be made in the light on Gun Cay:

The light will be changed from a revolving white catoptric light to a revolving red dioptric light, attaining its greatest brilliancy, as at present, every minute and a-half; and also, that during the time this change is being effected, in the months of April and May, 1873, a temporary light of the same character as the present light, but of less power, will be exhibited. The temporary light will therefore not be seen from so great a distance as the present one.

Also, that further notice will be given of the exhibition of the new light.

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer,
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
24th February, 1873.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—West Indies, Nos. 390 and 392 d; Florida Channel, No. 1217; Great Bahama Bank, No. 1496, and Providence Channels, Banks, &c., No. 269: Also, West Indies Lights List, No. 63; and West India Pilot, Vol. II, Second Edition, page 491.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of North Kelsey, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of North Kelsey, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, one capital sum of one hundred and forty-two pounds eighteen shillings and one penny, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said vicarage, which was effected by a deed bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of North Kelsey.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Saint James, Westgate, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint James, Westgate.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Lonsdale Ward, in the county of Westmoreland, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Magistrates' Room, Kirkby Lonsdale, on Thursday, the 13th day of March, 1873, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts for the division of Lonsdale Ward aforesaid.

450. To Samuel William Maquay, of Charlemont-terrace, in the city of Dublin, Ireland, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of furnace retorts, to be employed in connection with other apparatus for the manufacture of gas."

452. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in valves and parts connected therewith, for direct-acting steam-engines."—A communication to him from abroad by George F. Blake, of Boston, Massachusetts, United States of America.

454. And to William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in valves and parts connected therewith, for direct-acting steam-engines."—A communication to him from abroad by George F. Blake, of Boston, Massachusetts, United States of America.

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 7th day of February, 1873.

478. To Alfred Storrey, of Bramley, near Leeds, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in rivetting machines, employed in the manufacture of boots and shoes."

491. And to John Banting Rogers, of Hope Cottage, Robertsbridge, in the county of Sussex, for the invention of "improvements in rockets and similar signals, and in apparatus for propelling the same."

On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 10th day of February, 1873.

493. To Henry Michael Lee, of the city of London, Decorative Artist, for the invention of "an improved method of preserving ferns, plants, and grasses, and the preparation of the material or materials and ingredients employed therein."

495. To Walter Chidwick Nangle, of Bull Point, near Devonport, in the county of Devon, late Captain Royal Artillery, now Assistant-Controller, Bull Point Establishment, for the invention of "a new or improved composition or paint to be used for coating metal and other substances."

497. To David Fiske, of Stamfordham, in the county of Northumberland, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in rope porters for steam ploughing machinery."

499. To George Frederick Chantrell, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Sanitary Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in and apparatus for storing, cleansing, and facilitating the removal of 'house refuse' and fecal matter."

501. To Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in sewing machines."—A communication to him from abroad by Charles Rhodes Goodwin, of Paris, France.

503. To Lorenzo Dow Newell, of the "Castle and Falcon," Aldersgate-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in ships berths and sofas."

505. To Henry Deacon, of Appleton House, Widnes, in the county of Lancaster, Alkali Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of chlorine."

507. And to William Gilchrist, of the firm of Gilchrist & Goldie, Brick Makers, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, and Moses Thomas, in the employment of the said firm, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of bricks, tiles, and other similar articles, and in the machinery or apparatus employed therefor."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 11th day of February, 1873.

511. To Samuel William Maquay, of Charlemont-terrace, in the city of Dublin, Ireland, for the invention of "an improved process to be employed in the manufacture of manures, and machinery or apparatus therefor."

513. To Hugh Campbell, Physician, of 38, Queen Anne-street, Cavendish-square, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of manure, and apparatus therefor."

517. To William Campion, of the town and county of the town of Nottingham, Sewing Machine Manufacturer, and William Campion, of Speinton, in the county of Nottingham, Mechanic, for the invention of "improvements in the mode of turning the welts of knitted or looped fabrics, and in instruments to be employed therefor."

519. To John Carter Ramsden, of Smith House, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York, for the invention of "improved means or method of, and apparatus for, transmitting heat from furnace or other dry heated gases to atmospheric air or to other gases."

521. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in automatic regulating valves."—A communication to him from abroad by George Laving Kitson and George Washington Carr, both of the city and county of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, United States of America.

523. To Reuben Lyon, of Bristol, in the county of Gloucester, Silversmith, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for communicating between the passengers and guards, and between the guards and engine driver of a railway train."

526. To Stephen Henry Emmens, of 8, Old Jewry, in the city of London, Scientific Referee, for the invention of "a new and improved construction of railway for locomotive purposes."

527. And to James Jeffs, of Bromley-by-Bow, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "certain improvements in mechanism or apparatus to be employed for ironing and glazing textile fabrics, paper, or other similar and like substances."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 12th day of February, 1873.

529. To John Wyatt, of Slapton, in the county of Devon, for the invention of "improved apparatus for signalling between the different parts of railway trains, and applicable also as a general alarm."

531. To William James Dunderdale, Surveyor, and Thomas Millner Holt, Woollen Merchant, both of Huddersfield, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in tables."
533. To Godfrey Ermen, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for economising fuel in house fire grates."
535. To Alfred John Parker, of No. 27, Queen Margaret's-grove, Mildmay Park, in the county of Middlesex, Printer, for the invention of "improvements in machines for printing."
537. To Stephen Alley, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in dressing shirts, and in apparatus therefor."
539. To James Noad, of Bower-road, Hackney Wick, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of sulphurated lead, in apparatus therefor, and in its application to various useful purposes."
541. To Edmund Edwards, of 38, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer and Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of engines driven by steam, compressed air, or other elastic fluid, or by water, especially applicable to rock boring engines."
543. To Jules Viault, of Melun, Department of the Seine et Marne, Mechanician, and Claude Noel Bernier, Son, of the Department of the Loire, Merchant, both in the Republic of France, for the invention of "an electric detonating disc and other signals for preventing railway accidents, applicable to railways."
545. And to Henry Highton, M.A., of Putney, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in electric telegraphs."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 13th day of February, 1873.
547. To Jacob Geoghegan Willans, of 9, Saint Stephen's-crescent, Bayswater, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of iron and steel."
548. To Phil. Dr. Karl Ludwig Hartwig Gercke, from Berlin, in Prussia, at present residing 14, Alfred-place, Bedford-square, London, for the invention of "a new cartridge for breech-loading small arms, with a new form of bullet and a greased paste-board bullet-cup, to prevent fouling."
549. To Henry Kershaw, of Laister Dyke, near Bradford, in the county of York, Worsted Spinner, for the invention of "improvements in means or apparatus employed in spinning worsted and other fibres."
550. To Francis Goold Morony Stoney, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in sluices or stop valves."
551. To David Hutchison, of Mile End, and William George Bridges, of Stepney, both in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "an improved composition for removing and preventing incrustation in boilers."
552. To John Adams, of Landport, Portsmouth, in the county of Hants, Naval Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus to be applied to steam or hot air engines, for using the steam or air expansively."
553. To Alfred Vincent Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Mechanical Draughtsman, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of extension ladders."—A communication to him from abroad by Michele Uda and Mary Bella Scott Uda, both of Milan, in the Kingdom of Italy.

554. To William Henry Shepherd, of Bradford, in the county of York, Spinner and Manufacturer, and James Scott, of Bradford aforesaid, Overlooker, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for combing wool and other fibres."
555. To Allen Chappell, of Linthwaite, near Huddersfield, in the county of York, Working Engineer, and John Charlsworth, of Linthwaite aforesaid, Carding Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for feeding wool or other fibrous material to carding or other machines of a like class."
556. To Francis Henry Atkins, of 62, Fleet-street, in the city of London, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus and in the materials and appliances employed for the filtration of water, sewage, and other fluids, whereby manure and other valuable products are separated, precipitated, and obtained therefrom."
