THIS day, Sir John Barnard Byles, Knight, late a Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education in Scotland, to appoint Alexander Dey, Esquire, M.A., Aberdeen, and Fellow of Saint Peter's College, Cambridge, and James Smith, Esquire, M.A., Glasgow, and B.A., of Saint Peter's College, Cambridge, to be two of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools in Scotland.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may

"in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said archbishop may approve, and the said archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne; and for other purposes," it is, amongst other things, further enacted, "That when, by any Order of Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as ‘ aforesaid ; but if such incumbent or incumbents shall not have so consented thereto, this last-mentioned provision shall not come into operation until the next avoidance of the benefice by the incumbent objecting thereto, or by the surviving incumbent objecting, if more than one shall object thereto, and in such case the last-mentioned provision shall forthwith after such avoidance come into operation, and shall be binding on all persons whatsoever.’

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Carlisle has drawn up, together with a scheme, a representation, in writing, bearing date the thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and has transmitted the same to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of York, in the words and figures following (that is to say) :

“ To the Most Reverend William, Lord Archbishop of York.

“ I, the Right Reverend Harvey, Lord Bishop of Carlisle, hereby represent to your Grace.

“ 1. That there is in the county of Westmorland, and my diocese of Carlisle, the vicarage of Heversham, the parish whereof adjoins the perpetual curacy or vicarage of Preston Patrick.

“ 2. That there is also within the said county and diocese the vicarage of Preston Patrick, the parish whereof adjoins the said parish of Heversham, as the same respectively appear on the plan which accompanies this representation.

“ 3. That the said parish of Heversham and the said parish of Preston Patrick have, each of them, a sufficiently commodious church within their respective limits.

“ 4. That a district part of the said parish of Heversham adjoining to the said parish of Preston Patrick, as the same is shown on the said plan and hereinafter particularly described, is situated considerably nearer to the church of Preston Patrick than to the church of Heversham, and it would be much more convenient for the inhabitants of the said portion to attend divine services at the church of Preston Patrick than to attend at the church of Heversham.

“ 5. That according to the last census the population of the said parish of Heversham is one thousand two hundred and eighty-one persons, and the population of the parish of Preston Patrick is five hundred and nine persons, and the population of the said district part of the said parish of Heversham, referred to in the last paragraph, is three hundred and sixty-four persons.

“ 6. That the patronage of the said vicarage of Heversham belongs to the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Trinity College, Cambridge, and the Reverend Thomas Morrell Gilbert, Clerk, is vicar of the said vicarage of Heversham, and the patronage of the said vicarage of Preston Patrick belongs to the see of Carlisle, and the Reverend James Henry Blackman, Clerk, is the vicar of the said vicarage of Preston Patrick, all of whom are consenting parties to the separation and annexation hereinafter proposed.

“ 7. That it appears to me that the said district part of the said parish of Heversham adjoining the parish of Preston Patrick, as before stated, may, under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty, chapter 106, and the second and third years of Her said Majesty, chapter 49, be advantageously separated from the said parish of Heversham and be united with the said parish of Preston Patrick for all ecclesiastical purposes.

“ 8. That pursuant to the directions contained in the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament I, the said Lord Bishop, have drawn up a scheme in writing, appended to this representation, describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration above proposed may best be effected with justice to all parties, and I do submit the same to your Grace, to the intent that your Grace, if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied of the said scheme, may certify the same and such consent to Her Majesty in Council.

“ Given under our hand this thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

“ Harvey Carlisle.”

“ SCHEME referred to in the foregoing Representation.

“ It is proposed to separate from the parish of Heversham to which it now belongs, and to add to the parish of Preston Patrick such district, a portion of the parish of Heversham, as hereinafter described (that is to say), so much of the parish of Heversham as is coloured red on the map attached hereto, within a line commencing at Wath Sutton-bridge, and thence, northwards, up Peasey Beck, which divides the parish of Heversham from the parochial district of Preston Patrick, to the centre of the bridge which crosses the said Peasey Beck, near Gate Beck, and thence along the road leading towards Summerlands, to the turnpike-road from Kendal to Lancaster ; and thence, along the said turnpike-road, southernly, to a point fifty yards or thereabouts south of the fifth mile-stone from Kendal ; from thence, along a lane which turns from the said turnpike-road, to the south-west by Lauramer Gate, till it meets a lane leading from Old Hall to Common-mire ; thence following the last-named lane to a point about half-way between Low Common-mire and High Common-mire, at which point another lane called Common-mire-lane, turns off nearly westwards, and following Common-mire line, to the centre of the bridge by which the lane crosses the canal near Field End ; thence, along the central line of the canal to the bridge near High-lane, and crossing the said bridge, then from the centre thereof, along an occupation road which passes to the north of the old farmhouse at High-lane to another lane, which leads from Crosscracke and Stainton to Milton and Wath Sutton ; and thence, along the said last-mentioned lane, southwards, through the Five Lane Ends to the before-mentioned Wath Sutton-bridge across Peasey Beck.

“ 2. That the said district shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish of Preston Patrick, and the vicarage of the last-mentioned parish, shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

“ 3. That all fees and payments arising from baptisms, churchings, marriages, and burials, and for all such other ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed in respect of the said district, and all such other ecclesiastical dues, offerings, and emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within or in respect of the said district shall henceforth belong to and be received by the incumbent of the said parish of Preston Patrick, but no change is to be made by this scheme, in regard to the glebe land, tithe, rent-charges, or other endowments of the said parish of Heversham.

“ 4. That no alteration shall be made in the patronage of either of the said benefices of Heversham and Preston Patrick.

“ 5. That the inhabitants of the said district shall henceforth be exempt from all liability in respect of the repair and maintenance of the parish church of Heversham, but shall henceforth be liable in common with the inhabitants of the said parish of Preston Patrick, to the repair and maintenance of the church of the said last-mentioned parish, and the expenses incident to the due performance of Divine service therein.

"6. That the inhabitants of the said district shall not henceforth be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of Heversham, but shall be entitled to accommodation in the parish church of Preston Patrick, saving the rights of all others (if any) possessing a legal right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in the said parish church of Heversham, and who may not be willing to relinquish and give up the same.

"Harvey Carlisle."

"To the Most Reverend William, Lord Archbishop of York.

"We, the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, within the town and University of Cambridge, of King Henry the Eighth's foundation, patrons of the vicarage of Heversham, in the county of Westmorland, and diocese of Carlisle, do hereby signify to your Grace our consent to the foregoing scheme proposed for separating a portion of the parish of Heversham, and uniting such portion with the parochial district of Preston Patrick, in the same county and diocese.

"Given under our seal this twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two."

I. S.

"To the Most Reverend William, Lord Archbishop of York.

"We the Reverend Thomas Morell Gilbert, Clerk, Vicar of the parish church of Heversham, in the county of Westmorland, and diocese of Carlisle, and the Reverend James Henry Blackman, Vicar of the parochial district and church of Preston Patrick, in the same county and diocese, do hereby severally signify to your Lordship, our consent to the foregoing scheme, proposed for separating a portion of the parish of Heversham, and uniting such portion with the parochial district of Preston Patrick.

"Witness our hands this twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two."

"Thomas Morrell Gilbert.
"James Henry Blackman."

And whereas his Grace the Lord Archbishop of York, hath, pursuant to the provisions of the said Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate and report, in writing, bearing date the twenty-third day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following (that is to say):

"To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned, William, by Divine Providence, Lord Archbishop of York, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council, that the Right Reverend Harvey, Lord Bishop of Carlisle, has represented to us, that it appears to him that a portion of the parish of Heversham (more particularly described in the map and scheme hereto annexed), in the county of Westmorland, and diocese of Carlisle, may be advantageously united and consolidated with the contiguous vicarage or parish of Preston Patrick, in the same county and diocese, for ecclesiastical purposes; that the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a representation and scheme in writing, and has transmitted the same to us for our consideration, describing the mode in which it appears to him that the separation and union may be best effected with justice to all parties; that the patronage of the said vicarage of Preston Patrick is vested in the said Lord Bishop of Carlisle in right of his Bishoprick, and that the patronage of the said vicarage of Heversham is vested in the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity within the town and University of Cambridge, of King Henry the Eighth's foundation; that the respective patrons and incumbents of the said parish churches of Heversham and Preston Patrick are consenting parties to the scheme hereinafter proposed; the representation of the said Lord Bishop, together with the scheme in writing, and the consents of the patrons and incumbents, are hereunto annexed; and the said Archbishop, being, on full consideration and enquiry, satisfied with such scheme, doth hereby certify the same and such consents as aforesaid, to the intent that your Majesty in Council, may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying such scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand and seal this twenty-third day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and in the eleventh year of our translation."

"W. Ebor."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to approve of the said scheme of the Lord Bishop of Carlisle, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be carried into effect.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things, enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said

“Archbishop shall enquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement, in writing, of the facts, and in all other cases a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately, on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the term of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent, in writing, of the patron or patrons thereof.”

And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Norwich, hath represented to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, by a representation, in writing, bearing date the ninth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, that it appears to the said bishop that the disunion of the united benefice, consisting of the vicarage of Ranworth, and the vicarage of Upton, in the county of Norfolk, and diocese of Norwich, by the separation of the said vicarage of Ranworth from the said vicarage of Upton may be made with advantage to the interests of religion, which representation is in the words following:

“To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

“I, John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Norwich, do hereby represent to your Grace, that it appears to me that the disunion of the united vicarage of Ranworth with the vicarage of Upton, in the county of Norfolk, and my diocese of Norwich, by the separation of the said vicarage of Ranworth from the said vicarage of Upton, may be made with advantage to the interests of religion.

“Witness my hand, this ninth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

“John T. Norwich.”

And whereas His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, hath, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, by a certificate, in writing, bearing date the eleventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, certified to Her Majesty such enquiry, which certificate is in the words following:

“To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council:

“That the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Norwich, as bishop of the diocese within which is situate the united benefice, consisting of the vicarage of Ranworth with the vicarage of Upton, in the county of Norfolk, having represented to us that the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the said vicarage of Ranworth from the said vicarage of Upton, might be made with advantage to the interests of religion, we enquired into the circumstances of the case, and upon such enquiry it appeared to us that such disunion might be usefully made; that the said Lord Bishop is the patron or person entitled, in right of his bishoprick, to present to the said united benefice, if the same were now vacant; that the said benefices of Ranworth and Upton were united in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety; that six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry to your Majesty in Council, we caused a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of each of the parish churches of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might, within such six weeks, show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hand or hands, to us, the said Archbishop, against such disunion, and no such cause has been shown; the representation of the said Lord Bishop of Norwich, our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, and the copies of the representation and notice before-mentioned are hereto annexed; and we do hereby certify the inquiry and matters aforesaid to your Majesty in Council, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for disuniting the aforesaid united benefice, consisting of the vicarage of Ranworth and the vicarage of Upton. As witness our hand, this eleventh day of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

“A. C. Cantuar.”

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the consent of Her said Council is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said vicarage of Ranworth, in the county of No be separated from the said united benefice, consisting of the vicarage of Ranworth and the vicarage of Upton, in the county of Norfolk, and diocese of Norwich.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate in the township of Plumpton Wall, in the parish of Lazonby, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Lazonby, of the parish of Hesketh-in-the-Forest, in the said county of Cumberland, and in the said diocese of Carlisle, of the parish of Penrith, in the same county and diocese, and of the district chapelry of Christ Church, Penrith, also in the same county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes and district chapelry respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Lazonby, of the said parish of Hesketh-in-the-Forest, of the said parish of Penrith, and of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Penrith, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate in the township of Plumpton Wall as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, as such Bishop, and also as the patron, in right of his see, of the rectory of the said parish of Lazonby, of the vicarage of the said parish of Penrith, and of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Penrith (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity in Carlisle, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Hesketh-in-the-Forest (in testimony whereof they, the said Dean and Chapter have affixed their common or capitular seal to this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Lazonby, of the said parish of Hesketh-in-the-Forest, of the said parish of Penrith, and of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Penrith, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John, situate in the township of Plumpton Wall as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Plumpton Wall.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Plumpton Wall, being:

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Lazonby, of the parish of Hesketh-in-the-Forest, of the parish of Penrith, and of the district chapelry of Christ Church, Penrith, some time part of the last-named parish, all in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, which said portions of such parishes and of such district chapelry, are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Penrith, from the parish of Penrith aforesaid, at or near to the Check Turnpike-gate, distant about two miles and a half from Penrith, at the point where the Carlisle and Penrith Turnpike-road is intersected by the road which leads from Catterlen past the three houses, called or known as Hasty Brow, Crabtree Bank, and Kitchenhill respectively, and also past the Bowscar Quarries towards Great Salkeld; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of one mile and a quarter, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to its intersection near the Bowscar Quarries aforesaid, by the boundary which divides the said parish of Penrith from the parish of Great Salkeld, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of about one mile and a half, along the last-described boundary (thereby passing to the east of the said Bowscar Quarries, and passing over Wan Fell), to the point on Long Moss, where the same boundary joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Salkeld from the parish of Lazonby aforesaid; and extending then, north-eastward, for a distance of rather more than half a mile, along the last-mentioned boundary to a point near to the house, called or known as East Brownrigg, in the middle of the road which leads from Great Salkeld, past Greengill and East Brownrigg aforesaid, towards Plumpton; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-mentioned road to its junction with the road which leads from Lazonby past Scalehill to Plumpton aforesaid, and continuing thence, in the same direction, and in a straight line, for a distance of rather more than two and a half miles (thereby passing to the north-east of Inglewood Cottages, and crossing over Lazonby Fell, and passing between the site of an ancient camp on the one hand and the site of an ancient fort on the other hand), to a point in the centre of the bridge which carries the cross road leading from Castlerigg into the Carlisle and Penrith Turnpike-

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the maintenance of the fabric of the cathedral church of Chester.

"Whereas, by the sixty-sixth section of the firstly-mentioned Act, it was enacted, that as soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority in the same Act provided, that is to say, by an Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council ratifying a scheme or schemes to be prepared by us, such annual sums should be determined upon to be paid, and should accordingly be paid by us, as, after due enquiry and calculation, should, among other things, enable the Chapter of Chester to provide for the efficient performance of all the duties of the said cathedral church of Chester, and for the maintenance of the fabric thereof.

"And whereas, by the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, it was enacted that, notwithstanding anything contained in the said firstly hereinbefore-mentioned Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, relating to the payment of annual sums for the purposes specified in the said sixty-sixth section of the same firstly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, it should be lawful to carry such purposes, or any of them, into effect, by any mode of payment, contribution, augmentation, or endowment which might be deemed fit, as well as by the modes specified in such firstly hereinbefore-mentioned Act.

"And whereas, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of the same month, we were (inter alia) authorized, under the circumstances set forth in such Order, to expend, in effecting such repairs as might be necessary for the due sustentation of the said cathedral church of Chester, any sum not exceeding ten thousand pounds; provided always, that the works, the cost of which should be defrayed out of such sum, should be executed to our satisfaction.

"And whereas the said sum of ten thousand pounds has been expended by us, in accordance with the provisions of the Order last hereinbefore mentioned, in effecting such repairs as, at the date of the same Order, were required for the due sustentation of the fabric of the said cathedral church of Chester.

"And whereas we have satisfied ourselves that the execution of further works is necessary for the sustentation of the same fabric, and have also satisfied ourselves as to the nature and probable cost of such further works, and have thereupon determined, subject to the approval of your Majesty in Council, to pay and expend, under the powers aforesaid, upon or towards the cost of the same works, a further capital sum of five thousand pounds; it being, in our opinion, desirable, with a view to economy and efficiency in the execution of such works, that the cost thereof should be provided by an immediate appropriation, out of the funds under our control, of the said capital sum of five thousand pounds, rather than by the annual expenditure of yearly sums to that amount or more, during a period of years.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that in addition to the said sum of ten thousand pounds, so provided and expended as aforesaid, there shall be expended by us, upon or towards the cost of the said further works of sustentation at or in the fabric of the said cathedral church of Chester, the further sum of five thousand pounds; provided always, that the works, the cost of which shall be defrayed out of such lastly-mentioned sum, shall be such as we may consider necessary or desirable for the sustentation of the same fabric, and shall be executed to our satisfaction.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter twenty-six, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the Law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter twenty-six, intituled 'An Act to alter and amend the Law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence," have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme:—

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us by the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Worcester, that the house of residence heretofore attached to the ninth canonry in the said cathedral church, situate near the west end of the said cathedral, is inconvenient for the residence of a canon, and its removal would much improve the cathedral church and the precincts thereof, and also enable the Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church, until some other more suitable and proper place shall have been provided, to enlarge the space of ground at present appropriated and used as the play-ground of the King's scholars and other boys at the cathedral school, and that a certain other house and premises, situate in the College Green, and adjoining the house of residence of the canon of the eighth canonry of the said cathedral church, and late in the occupation of Miss Kilvert, which are vested in us, could, if purchased by the Dean and Chapter from us, be advantageously made the house of residence for the canon of the said ninth canonry.

"And whereas we are willing to sell to the said Dean and Chapter the last mentioned house and premises for the sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds.

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of Worcester, in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their corporate seal, and also with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Worcester, as visitor of the said cathedral church, testified by his affixing hereunto his corporate seal, that it shall be lawful for the said Dean and Chapter of Worcester to purchase from us, for the price or sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds, the said house and premises situate in the College Green, and adjoining the house of residence of the canon of the eighth canonry of the said cathedral church, and late in the occupation of Miss Kilvert, the same house and premises, when so purchased and conveyed, to become and be the residence of the canon of the said ninth canonry, and that when the said last-mentioned house and premises shall have been so purchased, the said house of residence, heretofore attached to the said ninth canonry, shall, as from the date of such conveyance by us as aforesaid, be detached from the same canonry, and that the said Dean and Chapter may be at liberty to cause the same to be taken down, and the materials thereof to be sold and disposed of, and the proceeds of such sale to be applied, according to the discretion of the said Dean and Chapter, in the improvement of the house so to be purchased as aforesaid, and the site of the said present house of residence to be appropriated to the improvement of the said cathedral and the precincts thereof, and (until some other more suitable and proper place shall have been provided) in the enlargement of the present play-ground of the King's scholars and other boys at the cathedral school aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Leonard, situate within the limits of the parish of Newark-upon-Trent, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Leonard, situate within the limits of the said parish of Newark-upon-Trent.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Newark-upon-Trent which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Leonard, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Leonard, Newark-upon-Trent.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Leonard, situate within the limits of the parish of Newark-upon-Trent as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Garrett Bussell, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Newark-upon-Trent, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Leonard, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said John Garrett Bussell; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Leonard, Newark-upon-Trent, being:

"All that part of the parish of Newark-upon-Trent, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north-east partly by the parish of Coddington and partly by the parish of Winthorpe, on the north-west partly by the parish of South Muskham, and partly by the parish of Kelham, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Kelham from the parish of Newark-upon-Trent aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the canal called or known as the River Trent Navigation, opposite to the north-eastern end of the Town's Wharf, and extending thence south-eastward to and along the wall which forms the north-eastern boundary of the said wharf, and of the street or road which leads from the same wharf into the street called or known as Northgate, to the south-eastern extremity of such boundary wall on the north-western side of Northgate aforesaid, opposite to the north-western end of Slaughter House-lane; and extending thence, first south-eastward to, and then north-eastward for, a distance of nine chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of Northgate aforesaid, to its junction with the Queen's-road; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of half-a-mile, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, and along the middle of the Lower Sleaford-road, to the junction of the said Lower Sleaford-road with the Sleaford Turnpike-road; and extending thence, eastward, for a distance of one mile, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road (thereby passing over the line of the Great Northern Railway), to the boundary on the eastern side of the same road at the point where it bends sharply towards the north, which boundary divides the said parish of Newark-upon-Trent from the parish of Coddington aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Peter, Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and published in the London Gazette upon the twentieth day of September, in the same year, a part of the parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, in the said county of Lancaster, and at that time in the diocese of Chester, was assigned as a district to the church of Saint Peter, situate in the town of Blackburn, in the said parish, and the same district was called 'The Chapelry District of Saint Peter, Blackburn.'

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Saint Peter, Blackburn, has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Blackburn should be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include a certain additional portion of the said parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint

Peter, Blackburn, shall be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include all that portion of the said parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink, and that from and after the day of the same date, and without any other assurance in law, the said portion of the parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, so to be included as aforesaid, shall become, and be, and form part of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Blackburn.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Peter, Blackburn, sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, being:

"All that portion of the said parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-east by the new parish of All Saints, Nova Scotia, Blackburn, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the south-west by the new parish of Immanuel, Feniscowles, in the same county and diocese, on the north-west by the new parish of Saint Peter, Blackburn aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter, Blackburn, from the parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn aforesaid, at a point in the centre of the bridge which carries Freckleton-street over the River Blackwater, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said street for a distance of two chains, or thereabouts, to the boundary at the intersection of the same street by Canterbury-street, which boundary divides the said parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, from the new parish of All Saints, Nova Scotia, Blackburn aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

A red sector of light, of 5 degrees of arc, is exhibited as a mark for Outer Rock, during the period the fixed light is seen, the centre of the sector then bearing S.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W.; the light will further show red from E.S.E. towards the land until shut in with the high land at the back of Point Richards.

Two additional small white lights are also exhibited to the south-eastward of the lighthouse, which are so placed as to be in one from Outer Rock.

When vessels passing Bustard Head are in the 5 degree sector of red light they will be in line with Outer Rock, and when the south or back light, of the two additional lights, is seen over the north light (allowing for height of eye) they will be outside Outer Rock.

Between Bustard Head and Gatcombe Head, by keeping in the white light of Bustard Head vessels will keep clear of the out-lying dangers off Rodd Peninsula and the east banks at the entrance to Port Curtis.

In clear weather, when the light can be seen from the north channel into Port Curtis, vessels from the southward should not come within the red light of Bustard Head until Gatcombe Head light shows red and is steered for on a W.S.W. bearing.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation  $8\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  easterly in 1872.]

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Sheerness Public Rooms Company Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins has fixed the 13th day of March, 1873, at twelve o'clock at noon, at his chambers, No. 3, Stone-buildings, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, as the time and place for the appointment of an Official Liquidator of the above-named Company.

METROPOLITAN BOARD OF WORKS.

AT a Meeting of the Board, at their Office, Spring-gardens, this twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, amongst the Orders is as follows:—

Whereas, by the Metropolitan Management Amendment Act, 1862, it is enacted that when at any time, upon any account taken of the population by the authority of Parliament, any of the parishes within the metropolis not then divided into wards, for the purpose of electing vestrymen, should be found to contain more than two thousand rated householders, it should be lawful for the Metropolitan Board of Works, upon the application, in writing, of the Vestry, or of not less than five hundred rated householders of the parish, to divide such parish into wards, and to determine and set out the number, extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, but so, nevertheless, that no ward shall contain less than five hundred rated householders, and that the whole number of wards shall not exceed eight; and the Metropolitan Board should apportion among the several wards the number of vestrymen to be elected for such parish, and should, in assigning the number of vestrymen to each ward, have regard, as far as in their judgment was practicable, as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all such persons are rated, and the number of vestrymen assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three: And whereas the parish of Saint John, Hampstead, is comprised within the limits of the Metropolitan Local Management Act, and is one of the parishes in Part II of Schedule A of that Act, and at the passing of the same Act the parish did not contain two thousand rated householders and consequently was not divided into wards, and the Vestry of the parish of Hampstead having now applied to us, the Metropolitan Board of Works, to divide the parish of Hampstead into wards, pursuant to the 41st section of the Metropolitan Local Management Amendment Act, 1862, and to take such measures as may be requisite for legally carrying into effect the several other provisions of that section: And whereas it appears from the census of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, made by authority of Parliament, that the number of inhabited houses in the parish was returned at four thousand three hundred and forty-eight, the number of rated householders at four thousand two hundred and eight, and the rateable annual value of property at two hundred and sixty-nine thousand three hundred and fifty-four pounds: Now, the Metropolitan Board of Works, having ascertained, by the account of the population taken by authority of Parliament, as contained in the Census Return for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, that the number of rated householders for the parish of Saint John, Hampstead, is four thousand two hundred and eight and having taken into consideration the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in the same parish, and the aggregate amount of the rating, and all the circumstances connected with such application, doth hereby order that the said parish of Saint John, Hampstead, be divided into four wards, to be distinguished by the numbers mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto. And we do hereby set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said wards, as the same are described in the second column of the Schedule hereto, in conjunction with the numbers distinguishing such wards respectively, and having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all such persons are rated, do hereby apportion the number of vestrymen to be elected for the said parish among the said wards, according to the respective numbers mentioned in the third column of the Schedule hereto, in conjunction with such wards respectively.

The SCHEDULE above referred to.
