SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March, 1873:

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Report from the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, dated the seventh of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following; viz. :—

“Your Majesty having been pleased by your Order in Council of the sixteenth of January last past, to refer unto this Committee a humble petition of your Majesty's Commissioners appointed under and for the purposes of the Endowed Schools Act, 1869 (thirty-two and thirty-three Victoria, chapter fifty-six), setting forth that, whereas by the seventeenth section of the said Act, it is directed that ‘in every scheme (except as in the said Act mentioned) relating to any educational endowment the Commissioners shall provide that the religious opinions of any person, or his attendance or non-attendance at any particular form of religious worship, shall not in any way affect his qualification for being one of the governing body of such endowment.’ And whereas doubts have arisen whether the bishop of a diocese, the dean of a cathedral, or the rector or vicar of a parish can, consistently with the said section, hold the position of an ex officio governor of any educational endowment to which the provisions of the said section apply. And whereas the petitioners humbly submit that it is highly desirable that such doubts may be removed by the highest legal authority, and humbly praying that your Most Gracious Majesty will be pleased to refer it to the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council to advise your Majesty hereupon, and to report to your Majesty whether the bishop of a diocese, the dean of a cathedral, or the rector or vicar of a parish can, consistently with the seventeenth section of the thirty-second and thirty-third Victoria, chapter fifty-six, hold the position of an ex officio governor of any educational endowment to which the provisions of the Act apply, and that the petitioners may be heard by counsel in support of their view of the construction of the Act. And your Majesty having likewise been pleased to refer to this Committee a representation of the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education to your Majesty, humbly representing to your Majesty, that it was highly expedient that the prayer of the said petition should be granted, the Lords of the Committee, in obedience to your Majesty's said order of reference, have taken the said humble petition and representation into consideration, and having been attended by counsel on behalf of the petitioners, and likewise by your Majesty's Attorney-General and Solicitor-General, their Lordships do this day agree humbly to report to your Majesty that the bishop of a diocese, the dean of a cathedral, or the rector or vicar of a parish cannot be appointed to hold, ex officio, the position of a governor of any educational endowment to which the provisions of the Act apply, but in their Lordships' opinion the personal appointment of any one being bishop, dean, rector, or vicar to be such governor, would not contravene in any way the provisions of the Act.”

Her Majesty having taken the said Report into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof.

Edmund Harrison.
