Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CLXXVI.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

BYE-LAWS OF THE GREAT BENTLEY SCHOOL BOARD, ESSEX.

At a meeting of the Great Bentley School Board, duly convened and now held at the Lion Inn, Great Bentley, on Wednesday, the 4th day of September, 1872, at which meeting a quorum of the members of the Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers to them given by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and subject to the approval of the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

I. In these Bye-laws—

Terms importing males include females.

The term "School" means either a Public Elementary School, or any other school at which efficient elementary instruction is given.

The term "Public Elementary School" means a school or department of a school, at which elementary education is the principal part of the education given, and at which the ordinary payments in respect of instruction do not exceed ninepence a week, and which is conducted in accordance with the regulations contained in the 7th section of the Elementary Education Act.

II. The parent of every child of not less than five years, nor more than ten years of age, is required to cause such child to attend school, unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

III. Except as hereinafter provided, the time during which every such child is required to attend school, is the whole time for which the school selected shall be opened for the instruction of children, not being less than twenty-five hours a week, except on Sundays; and except also that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs.

IV. Provided always, that if and whenever Bye-law III. shall be contrary to, or inconsistent with, the regulations affecting any child subject thereto contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour, the said Regulations shall prevail, and the said Bye-law shall affect such child only to such extent as they are consistent with the said Regulations.

V. In addition to the reasonable excuses for the non-attendance of a child at school mentioned in the Act, viz.:—

(1.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.

(2.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause, it shall be (3) a reasonable excuse for his non-attendance that there is no Public Elementary School open which such child can attend within two miles, measured according to the road, from the residence of such child.

VI. Every parent who shall not observe, or shall neglect or violate these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, including costs, for each offence.

In testimony whereof, the Common Seal of the Great Bentley School Board is hereunto affixed, this 4th day of September, 1872.

William Delf, Chairman of the said Board.

David Mustard, Clerk to the Board.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of March, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Lenham appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the 20th of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, numbered 177.

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CLXXVII.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT
1870.

School District of the Parish of Lenham.

BYE-LAWS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF THE SAID PARISH.

Bye-laws.

WE, the School Board of the parish of Lenham, under and by virtue of the power and authority given to and vested in us by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, at a meeting held at the Board Room, in the said parish, on Monday, the 20th day of January, 1873, do, with the approval of the Education Department, make the following Bye-laws:—

Interpretation of Terms.

1. The terms hereinafter used, when they are the same as those defined in the 3rd section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, shall have the same definition as therein given to each of them respectively.

Bye-laws subject to Elementary Education Act.

2. These Bye-laws are subject to the clauses and provisos contained in the said Elementary Education Act, 1870.

Requiring Parents to cause Children to attend School.

3. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Act, and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child not less than five years of age, nor more than thirteen years of age, residing within the said parish of Lenham, shall cause such child to attend such Public Elementary School within the said parish as its parent may select.

Subject to the following Exceptions.

4. A child shall not be required to attend such Public Elementary School as aforesaid—

- (a.) If such child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (b.) If such child is prevented attending school by sickness, or any other unavoidable cause.
- (c.) If there is no Public Elementary School which such child can attend, within three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.
- (d.) If such child is receiving instruction in pursuance of any Act regulating the education of children employed in labour, or of "The Industrial Schools Act, 1866."

5. The time during which every child shall attend school shall be the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children.

Determining Time during which Children shall attend School.

Provided that in case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the sixth standard of education mentioned in the Revised Code of Regulations of the Education Department, made on the 7th day of February, 1871, such child shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school, and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the fifth standard of education mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than half the school meetings in any one week.

Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance, or instruction in religious subjects, or inspection in such subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.

Providing for Remission or Payment of School Fees in case of Poverty.

6. If the parent of any child satisfies the said School Board that the reason that his child does not attend school is that he is unable from poverty to pay the whole or any part of the school fees of such child, the said School Board will, in the case of a school provided by the said Board, remit, and, in the case of any other Public Elementary School, will pay, the whole or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the said Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period to be fixed by the said Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

Provided that in no case shall the fees paid by the Board be in excess of those usually charged for children under the same standard of education by the Public Elementary School to which the parent shall elect to send such child.

Requiring Notice to Parent to cause Child to attend School.

7. An officer of the said Board, appointed under Section 36 of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, shall visit the parent of any child, who, according to his information and belief, is not attending school, or under efficient instruction, and shall then, or at a subsequent time, serve upon such parent a notice in the form or to the effect prescribed in the Schedule to these Bye-laws; and the said officer shall read over and explain such notice, and the consequences of neglecting to comply therewith, to the parent at the time of service.

Requiring Particulars of Notice to be recorded.

8. The particulars of all notices served upon parents shall be recorded by the officer serving the same in a book to be provided by the Board, which shall be laid before the Board at each meeting; but the said officer shall not, without the consent of the Board, disclose the fact of service of any such notices, or any information relating thereto, to any person not a member or officer of the said Board.

Providing that no Proceeding be taken until after fourteen days from Service.

9. No proceeding against any parent for breach of any Bye-law, shall be taken until after the expiration of fourteen days from the service of the notice prescribed by Bye-law No. 7, nor until such parent has had an opportunity of attending a meeting of the Board, or of a committee thereof, to state his or her reasons for not complying with the same notice.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

10. Any parent committing an offence in breach of any of these Bye-laws, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding, including the cost of conviction, the sum of five shillings for each offence.

Date on which Bye-laws shall come into operation.

11. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the 3rd day of March, 1873, if the same shall then have received the sanction of Her Majesty in Council, or from and after any day after such last-mentioned day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Order in Council.

Sealed with the Corporate Common Seal of the School Board of the parish of Lenham, this 20th day of January, 1873.

Charles Parkin, Chairman.

Sealed in the presence of Frederick Day, Clerk.

Bye-Laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CLXXVIII.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT, 1870.

Parish of Woodford.

BYE-LAWS OF THE WOODFORD SCHOOL BOARD.

Preamble.

At a Meeting of the School Board for Woodford, duly convened and held at the Railway Tavern, Snake's-lane, Woodford, on Wednesday, the 4th day of December, 1872, at which meeting all the members of the Board were present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers to them given by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and subject to the approval of the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

Interpretation of Terms.

I. In these Bye-laws—

The term "School," or "Public Elementary School," means a Public Elementary School as defined by the said Act, and includes a Free School but not an Industrial School.

The term "Parent" includes Guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain or has the actual custody of a child.

The term "Board," or "School Board," means the School Board for Woodford.

Requiring Parents to cause Children to attend School.

II. The parent of every child of not less than five years, nor more than thirteen years of age, is required to cause such child to attend school, unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

Determining Excuses for Non-Attendance of a Child at School.

III. Any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, viz.:—

- (1.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (2.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness, or any unavoidable cause.
- (3.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within two miles (measured according to the nearest road) from the residence of such child.

Determining Time during which Children shall attend School.

IV. The time during which every child shall attend school shall be the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child during the time or times in which any religious observance is practised, or instruction in religious subjects is given, and that no child shall be required—

- (a.) To attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.
- (b.) To attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a Day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving.
- (c.) To attend school on any day fixed for the inspection of the school and the examination of the scholars therein in respect of religious subjects.

Provided also, that any requirement herein contained shall not be held or construed to apply to any child employed in labour and receiving instruction in conformity with the provisions of the Factory Acts or of the Workshops Regulation Act, 1867.

Proviso for Total or Partial Exemption of a Child from attending School.

V. (1.) A child of not less than ten years of age, who has obtained from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools a certificate that he has reached a standard equivalent to the fifth standard of the Government New Code of 1871, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school.

(2.) A child of not less than ten years of age who shows to the satisfaction of the Board that he or she is beneficially and necessarily at work, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school during the whole time for which the school shall be opened as aforesaid, but every such child is required to attend school for at least 150 days in one year.

Providing for Remission or Payment of School Fees in case of Poverty.

VI. If the parent of any child satisfies the Board that the reason of his child's non-attendance at school is that he is unable from poverty to pay the school fees for such child, the Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board, will remit, and in the case of any other Public Elementary School will pay, the whole or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months, provided that the amount of fees to be remitted or paid shall not exceed the ordinary payment at the school selected by the parent, and shall in no case exceed the scale of payment at the schools established by the Board.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

VII. Every parent who shall not observe, or shall neglect or violate these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, including costs, for each offence.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the School Board of the parish of Woodford, this 4th day of December, 1872, in the presence of David Francis, Chairman.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

UGLEY FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Walden Division of the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on or about the 1st and 2nd days of July, in the parish of Ugley, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on or about the 1st and 2nd days of July, in the parish of Ugley, in the Walden Petty Sessional Division of the county of Essex, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 26th day of March, 1873.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the rectory of Hope, or Estyn, in the county of Flint, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-second day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and to be receivable in four equal portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Hope, or Estyn, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, that an Assistant Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Hope, or Estyn aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said rectory and parish of Hope, or Estyn.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of seven hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Barnabas, Oxford, in the county of Oxford, and in the diocese of Oxford, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Barnabas, Oxford, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of twenty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Minister or Incumbent of the district of Shevington, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, Ministers or Incumbents of the same district, one yearly sum or stipend of three hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said district, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the benefice of Saint Martin, Low Marple, in the county and diocese of Chester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Martin, Low Marple, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also, in further consideration of the aforesaid benefaction, hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said benefice of Saint Martin, Low Marple, one capital sum of five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Martin, Low Marple: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.)

G. A. CLAUDIUS,

In person.

Date of Gazette containing notice, February 25, 1873.

No. 109 of 1864.

In the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors at Madras.

PRESENT,

The Honourable Mr. Justice James Kernan, Puisne Justice and one of the Commissioners of this Court.

Thursday, the 6th day of February, 1873, and in the 36th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria. In the matter of the Petition and Schedule of George Albert Claudius, a discharged Insolvent Debtor.

Upon the personal application of George Albert Claudius, the Insolvent in this matter, and upon reading the schedule of the said Insolvent, filed on the 24th day of November, 1864, and the affidavit of the said Insolvent sworn and filed this day, and upon hearing what was urged by the said Insolvent and Benjamin Brooks, Esq., Official Assignee of this Court, and as such the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, and upon the said Official Assignee admitting that all the creditors of the said Insolvent had been paid the full amount of the principal of their debts. It is ordered that the said official assignee do re-convey and re-assign over to the said Insolvent all his estate and effects now remaining undistributed amongst the creditors of the said Insolvent, unless cause be shown to the contrary by affidavit by any party desiring so to do within ten days from the service of this order on the several creditors of the said Insolvent respectively; and it is hereby further ordered that this order and a notice that a motion will be made to make the same absolute be inserted in the Port Saint George Gazette and in one of the daily newspapers once. Date of Gazette containing notice, February 25, 1873.

(By the Court.)

(Signed) A. Macdonald Ritchie, Chief Clerk.
