Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 4, 1873.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 3, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 24th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 3, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Levee announced to be held, on behalf of Her Majesty, by His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, at St. James's Palace, on Tuesday, the 22nd instant, is postponed until Thursday, the 24th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 3, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Thursday, the 8th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

It is not expected that Gentleman will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force, for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

MONKS ELEIGH FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices acting in the Melford Petty Sessional Division of the hundred of Babergh, in the county of Suffolk, that a Fair has been annually held on Whit Monday and Whit Tuesday, in the parish of Monks Eleigh, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on Whit Monday and Whit Tuesday, in the parish of Monks Eleigh, in the Melford Petty Sessional Division of the hundred of Babergh, in the county of Suffolk, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 1st day of April, 1873.

Calcott Maximilian Stevens.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of Saint Mary, Cefn, in the county of Denbigh, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said rectory, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Cefn.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage or benefice of All Saints, Clayton-le-Moors, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage or benefice one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and thirty-six pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and to be receivable, in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage or benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of six hundred and twenty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Ashwick, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Ashwick, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of six hundred and twenty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Ashwick.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Scamblesby, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

Schedule.

"All that plot of land situate in the parish of Scamblesby, in the county of Lincoln, and containing three acres, or thereabouts, on which a parsonage or house of residence has recently been erected, for the benefice of Scamblesby aforesaid; which said plot of land is bounded on the north by the Village-street, on the south and west by land belonging to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and now occupied by Mr. William Martin, and on the east by the church and churchyard of the said parish of Scamblesby."

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Binsted with Kingsley, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with the messuage or tenement and buildings standing and being thereon, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said pieces or parcels of land, hereditaments, and buildings, with the appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of two hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Luke, Nutford-place, London, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act, of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Luke, Nutford-place, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of two hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Luke, Nutford-place.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Yatton, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, one capital sum of two hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of enlarging and otherwise improving the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Yatton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Waghen, otherwise Wawne, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-three pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Saint Mark, Witton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Mark, Witton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

1035. To Francis Fleming, of Halifax, in the county of York, Card Manufacturer, and Joseph Milner, of Halifax aforesaid, Card Manufacturer, for the invention of "an improved apparatus for flattening or shaping wire to be used in the manufacture of wire cards and reed wires for looms for weaving."
1037. To John William Augustus Taylor, of the Rookery, Headington, in the county of Oxford, Clerk, for the invention of "certain improvements in the construction of fire places specially adapted for economizing fuel and diffusing heat."

1039. To Alfred Heaven, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Embroiderer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of table covers and covers for other articles of furniture."
1041. To James Langton Clarke, of The Common, Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders, for the invention of "improvements in means and apparatus for fitting candles to candlesticks."
1043. To Newton Athow, of Plaskynaston, in the county of Denbigh, for the invention of "improvements in the production of colors for dyeing, printing, and staining."
1047. To Henry Harrison Doty, of Bury-street, Saint James's, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements applicable to burners for railway and other lamps."
1049. To John Thomas and Herbert Llewellyn-Morris, both of Penclawdd, in the county of Glamorgan, Tin Plate Manufacturers, for the invention of "improvements in cleaning or finishing metal plates, after they have been coated with tin or other metals or alloys."
1051. And to William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for supplying locomotive-tenders with water."—A communication to him from abroad by William Edgar Prall, of Washington, District of Columbia, United States of America.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 20th day of March, 1873.
1053. To John Towlson, of Norwich, in the county of Norfolk, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for decorticating and cleaning grain."
1054. To John William Gray, of the Office for Patents, 16, Southampton-buildings, in the county of Middlesex, Consulting Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in paving-blocks or flags."—A communication to him from abroad by Charles Felix Sebile, of Paris, in the Republic of France, Civil Engineer.
1055. To Peter Jensen, of 89, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer and Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in manures."—A communication to him from abroad by Edmond Julius Erichsen, of Copenhagen, in the Kingdom of Denmark.
1057. To William Morgan-Brown, of the firm of Brandon and Morgan-Brown, Engineers and Patent Agents, of 38, Southampton-buildings, London, and 13, Rue Gaillon, Paris, for the invention of "improvements in combination or permutation padlocks, either alone or in adaptation to locks of any usual construction."—A communication to him from abroad by Hugo, Count Von Seilern, of 13, Rue Gaillon, Paris, France.
1058. To John Wain, of Levenshulme, near Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Machinist, for the invention of "improvements in mules for spinning and doubling."
1059. To Thomas Henderson Forrest, of Irvine, in the county of Ayr, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in steam pumps."
1060. To Horace James Fairchild, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "an improved pressure gauge."—A communication to him from abroad by John Wesley Stiles, of the city of New York, in the United States of America,
1063. To George Britain Palmer, of Hammer-smith, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in ball valves."
1064. To William Edward Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in fog signals for railways."—A communication to him from abroad by Eugene François Désiré Ruggieri, of Paris, in the Republic of France.
1065. To David Gilbert, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in buttons."
1066. To Edgar Williman Jobson, of Derby, in the county of Derby, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for controlling the supply of water to water-closets, urinals, and such like places, and in effecting the measurement of the water supplied for such and other purposes."
1067. To Isaac Louis Pulvermacher, of 168 and 194, Regent-street, in the county of Middlesex, Electrical Engineer, for the invention of "improved means of and appliances for the application of magnetism in connection with electricity for curative purposes."
1069. And to Francis Healy, of the city of Dublin, Ireland, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of machinery for raising and treating peat, and for the manufacture of the same into fuel."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 21st day of March, 1873.
1070. To Henry Martin, of 13, Surrey-square, Old Kent-road, in the county of Surrey, Land Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of concrete and other bricks or blocks applicable to building purposes, and a machine or apparatus for such purpose worked on the lever principle and arranged throughout so as not to be costly in its construction."
1071. To Richard William Attwood, of 85, Gracechurch-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "an improved hydraulic motive power machine."
1072. To Charles Weightman Harrison, of High Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for charging or impregnating atmospheric air with the vapour of hydrocarbon liquids."
1073. To Peter Jensen, of 89, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer and Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the construction and arrangement of coke ovens, and of salt evaporating pans heated therefrom."—A communication to him from abroad by Edmond Julius Erichsen and Jörgen Geörg Maardt, both of Copenhagen, in the Kingdom of Denmark.
1075. To Charles Parkinson, of Accrington, in the county of Lancaster, Manager, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for beaming or warping yarn."
1076. And to Henry Bessemer, of Denmark Hill, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus to be employed on board ship for controlling, regulating, and indicating the motions of suspended saloons, floors, or platforms, applicable also for the discharge of marine artillery."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 22nd day of March, 1873.
1077. To James John Myers, of Orchard-street, in the town and county of the town of Southampton, Engineer and Machinist, for the in-

- vention of "a new method of removing and neutralizing noxious smells in dwelling houses and other buildings arising from water closets, drains, dead wells, sewers and sinks, by assisting the sewer gases therein to escape outside the buildings, and facilitating the egress of atmospheric air into and for the purpose of ventilating the sewer pipes and their several connections."
1080. To Henry Henkel, of Circus-place, London-wall, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in breech loading fire arms."—A communication to him from abroad by Messieurs Dresse, Laloux, and Company, of Liège, in the Kingdom of Belgium.
1082. To Thomas Parkin Moorwood, of the firm of Marshall, Watson, and Moorwood, Harlestone Iron Works, Sheffield, in the county of York, for the invention of "an improved construction of domestic fire-stove for economizing fuel and producing a better radiation of heat."
1083. To William Lawrence, of St. Mary Axe, in the city of London, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for cooling and for heating liquids and for condensing vapors."
1084. To James Cocker, of Tonge, near Middleton, in the county of Lancaster, Manager, for the invention of "certain improvements in self acting mules for spinning and doubling."
1085. To William Ero Potter, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "an improved fastening for holding the cords of window blinds."
1087. To Friederich Theodore Krauth, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Watchmaker, for the invention of "improvements in escapements for watches and other time keepers."
1088. To Benjamin Hewitt, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Pattern Maker, and Samuel Goff, of Birmingham aforesaid, Pattern Maker, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for raising and lowering weights or heavy bodies."
1089. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in steam generators."—A communication to him from abroad by Louis Marie Théophile Riot and Philippe Roux, both of Paris, in the Republic of France.
1090. To Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improved combined apparatus for sawing mitres and bevels, obtaining levels, and determining angles."—A communication to him from abroad by James Henry Carpenter, of Paterson, in the county of Passaic, and State of New Jersey, United States of America.
1091. And to John Garrett Tongue, of the firm of Tongue and Birkbeck, Patent Agents and Engineers, of 34, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in musical instruments named the pyrophone."—A communication to him from abroad by George Eugène Frédéric Kastner, Member of the Committee for Inventions, Paris, France.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 24th day of March, 1873.
1094. To the Baron Thornton de Mouncie, of Paris, France, now of Denmark-hill, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for cutting wood."
1095. To John James and Samuel Burden, both of Leicester, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for gathering and tying wheat and other cereals in the field, and part of which may be applied to a reaping machine."
1096. To Hesketh Hughes, of Homerton, in the county of Middlesex, and of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Engineer, for the invention of "improved means of and appliances for marking, creasing and cutting textile fabrics, for facilitating the sewing or the placing of devices thereon, such appliances being also applicable for marking, creasing, and cutting papers and metals."
1097. To Simeon Sampson, of St. Thomas's-road, Finsbury Park, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "an improved rotary and multiply printing and numbering machine."
1100. To John McElroy, of Sale, in the county of Chester, Clerk, for the invention of "improvements in the slide valve gear of steam engines."
1102. To Sydney Lawson, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Manager of Works, for the invention of "improvements in carriage axles and axle boxes."
1103. To Henry Holden, of Harborne, in the county of Stafford, Accountant Clerk, for the invention of "improvements in carriage axles and axle boxes."
1104. To Frederick Brampton, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in fire grates or stoves for warming apartments."
1105. To Edward Charles Vickers, of Compton-street, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, Hat Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in the preparation and treatment of paper to be used as a substitute for leather."
1106. To Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture and preservation of beer, and in the treatment of yeast and wort, together with apparatus for the same."—A communication to him from abroad by Louis Pasteur, of Paris, France, Chemist, Member of the Institute.
1107. And to John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in devices for threading needles."—A communication to him from abroad by George Penrice Farmer, of Brooklyn, in the county of Kings, State of New York, United States of America.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 25th day of March, 1873.

1109. To Thomas Arthur Nield, of Dukinfield, in the county of Chester, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in fuel-economizers, adapted to be employed in the heating of feed-water for steam-generators."
1110. To Matthew Vickers, of Tynemouth, in the county of Northumberland, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for producing motive power."
1111. To William Morgan-Brown, of the firm of Brandon and Morgan-Brown, Engineers and Patent Agents, of 38, Southampton-buildings,

- London, and 13, Rue Gaillon, Paris, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of hydraulic hose, and in machinery for that purpose."—A communication to him from abroad by Everett Preston Richardson, of Lawrence, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, United States of America.
1112. To Andreus Cornelius Sonntag, of Peckham, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in or applicable to platforms of railway stations for preventing accidents to passengers entering or alighting from railway carriages."
1113. To Laurence McDonald and Michael Lenehan, both of the city of Dublin, Ireland, for the invention of "an improved machine for harrowing, rolling, and sowing corn and seeds."
1114. To John Goettler, of 45, Spencer-street, Northampton-square, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in keyless watches."—A communication to him from abroad by Olivier Courvoisier, of 1, Rue de Seyon Neuchâtel, in the Republic of Switzerland.
1115. To Thomas Maxted, of Newnham, in the county of Kent, Builder, for the invention of "improvements in fuel and in the manufacture thereof."
1117. To John Bracewell and William Pennett, both of Leeds, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in the means or method employed for staining or producing on wood or other surfaces imitations of inlaid work, also for producing designs of any character or colour on such surfaces."
1119. To Frederick Alonzo Woodcock, of Chorltoncum-Hardy, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in the preparation of india rubber."
1120. To George Huddleston Dana, of Rochester, New York, United States of America, now of No. 8, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in machinery to be used in the manufacture of flour, for separating the bran and other dark coloured portions from the white or farinaceous portions of sharps or middlings."—A communication to him from abroad by George Thomas Smith, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, United States aforesaid.
1121. To Charles Roberts, F.R.C.S., of No. 2, Bolton-row, Mayfair, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in the preparation of powders for the destruction of animal and vegetable parasites, applicable also as disinfectants and deodorisers."
1123. To Edward Toms Moody, of Templecombe, in the county of Somerset, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of illuminating gas."
1124. To James Joseph Harvey, of Kidderminster, in the county of Worcester, Wine Merchant, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for washing bottles."
1125. To Joseph Shuttleworth, of Lincoln, in the county of Lincoln, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in steam boilers and furnaces."
1126. To John Hamilton, of Dromore, county Down, Ireland, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in sewing machines."
1127. To Benjamin Harlow, of Macclesfield, in the county of Chester, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in wringing, mangling, and washing machinery, part of which improvements are applicable to other purposes."
1129. And to Henry Bernoulli Barlow, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in pneumatic pumps."—A communication to him from abroad by Nicolas Joseph Galland, of Paris, France, Engineer.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 26th day of March, 1873.
1132. To Richard Sedgwick and Henry Harris Lake, both of Great Tower-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for preventing fraud by the conductors or other persons in charge of omnibuses and other public conveyances."
1133. To William Stratford, of Leyton, in the county of Essex, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in furnace grates."
1135. To Franz Wirth, of the firm of Wirth and Company, Patent Agency, residing at Frankfurt o. Maine (Germany), for the invention of "improvements in the construction of steel-rails."—A communication to him by Friederich Asthower, of Witten (Prussia), Engineer.
1136. To John Owen, of Oldham, in the county of Lancaster, Manager, for the invention of "certain apparatus to be used for the purpose of passing the thread of the weft through the eye of the shuttle, in shuttles to be used in manufacturing."
1137. To John Lidgley Nancarrow, of Gram-pound, in the county of Cornwall, for the invention of "improvements in roofing, and in tiles for the same."
1138. To George Ramsay Hay, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Flour Miller, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of wheaten flour."
1139. To Thomas McDonald, of Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county of York, Seed Crusher, for the invention of "improvements in wrappers or envelopes for seed crushing."
1141. To Stephen Alley, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in wheels."
1142. To Charles Thackray, of Brigg, in the county of Lincoln, Blacksmith, for the invention of "improved means for securing metal nuts on bolts."
1146. To William Rae McKaig and James Carlton Stitt, both of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in floating baths."
1147. To Eli Heyworth, of Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, Manufacturer, and Nathan Wilkinson, of the same place, Manager, for the invention of "improvements in steam boilers."
1150. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the treatment of certain vegetable fibrous substances, and in the application of the same to the manufacture of spun or twisted threads or cords, and also to the manufacture of paper and cardboard."—A communication to him from abroad by Ignacio Tito-Vignolo, of Paris, in the Republic of France, Merchant.
1151. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the drawing rollers of spinning mules."—A communication to him from abroad by Marc Passieux, of Paris, in the Republic of France.
1152. And to Edmond Nicolas Lacroix, of Minneapolis, in the county of Hennepin and State of Minnesota, United States of America,

Machinist, for the invention of "improvements in machines for separating and purifying mid-dlings."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 27th day of March, 1873.

1156. To Thomas William Kennard, of No. 7, Cromwell-road, South Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in aquaria, and apparatus connected therewith."

1158. To Joseph Henry West, of No. 4, King Edward-street, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for refrigerating or producing cold for the manufacture of ice and other purposes."

1160. To Alfred Davies, of 109, Ellesmere-road, Sheffield, in the county of York, Furnaceman, for the invention of "improvements in dampers for furnaces."

1164. To Joseph Bullows and Alfred Bullows, of Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Malleable Ironfounders, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for clipping horses and other animals."

1166. And to James Harrop, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Millwright, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for the manufacture of what is commonly called india rubber hose and india rubber piping, and other tubular articles composed of similar materials."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 28th day of March, 1873.

PATENTS WHICH HAVE BECOME VOID.

A LIST of the Letters Patent for Inventions which have become void by reason of the non-payment of the additional Stamp Duty of £50, before the expiration of the third year from the date of such Patents, pursuant to the Act of the 16th Vic., c. 5, sec. 2, for the week ending the 29th day of March, 1873.

851. James Bradbury and John Bradbury, of Denton, in the county of Lancaster, Fur Clearers, and John Roberts, of Hyde, in the county of Chester, Hat Manufacturer, for an invention of "improvements in machinery for felting hat bodies."—Dated 23rd March, 1870.

853. John Baker Colbran and William Pollard, both of Holloway, in the county of Middlesex, for an invention of "an improved trap for catching mice, rats, and other vermin or animals."—Dated 23rd March, 1870.

854. Charles Farrow and Richard Brooker Jackson, of Great Tower-street, in the city of London, Mechanical Engineers, for an invention of "improvements in the construction of iron wine bins."—Dated 23rd March, 1870.

862. James Gilchrist, of the city of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineers' Ironmonger, for an invention of "a new or improved ratchet, brace, or ratchet drill brace and grab combined."—Dated 24th March, 1870.

868. Edwin Cambridge, of the city of Bristol, Engineer, for an invention of "improvements applicable to steam boilers or generators."—Dated 24th March, 1870.

869. Thomas Claridge, of Bilston, in the county of Stafford, and Joshua Jeavons, of Sheffield, in the county of York, for an invention of "improvements in the manufacture of armour plates, and in the machinery or apparatus employed in such manufacture."—Dated 24th March, 1870.

870. William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, Consulting Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in turbine water-wheels."—Communicated to him from abroad by Henry Allen Chadwick, of Burnet, Texas, United States of America, Millwright.—Dated 24th March, 1870.

872. William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, Consulting Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in the preparation of ammoniated sulphuric acid for the manufacture of manure."—Communicated to him from abroad by Charles U. Shepard, junior, of Charleston, South Carolina, United States of America.—Dated 24th March, 1870.

873. Alexander Baumann, of Heilbronn, in the Kingdom of Wurtemberg, Civil Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in steam engines."—Dated 25th March, 1870.

875. Thomas Gibb and Charles Gelstharpe, both of Jarrow-on-Tyne, in the county of Durham, for an invention of "improvements in extracting copper from ores and compounds."—Dated 25th March, 1870.

876. Thomas James Smith, of the firm of Robertson, Brooman, and Company, of 166, Fleet-street, in the city of London, Patent Agents, for an invention of "a new or improved docimastic process and methods for the treatment of the simple sulphurets, the complex sulphurets, and the arsenio-sulphurets of lead, antimony, copper, and iron, as well as coppery matts and coppers containing precious metals, in order to extract silver and gold therefrom."—Communicated to him from abroad by Cyprien Marie Tessié du Motay, of 23, Boulevard de Strasbourg, Paris, France.—Dated 25th March, 1870.

882. Bristow Hunt, of No. 1, Serle-street, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for an invention of "improvements in valves."—Communicated to him from abroad by Gerard Sickels and John Hill Thorndike, of Boston, Massachusetts, in the United States of America.—Dated 25th March, 1870.

885. William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, Consulting Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in the valves of steam engines, and in the mechanism for operating the same."—Communicated to him from abroad by George Enoch Noyes, of Washington, District of Columbia, United States of America.—Dated 25th March, 1870.

889. Charles Denton Abel, of No. 20, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for an invention of "improvements in machinery for grinding and polishing saws, also applicable for grinding and polishing sheets or plates of steel and other metals."—Communicated to him from abroad by William Jackson Lippincott, of Cincinnati, county of Hamilton, State of Ohio, United States of America.—Dated 26th March, 1870.

890. Joseph Watson, Charles Watson, and George Watson, of the firm of Joseph Watson and Sons, Tallow Chandlers and Candle Makers, of Woodhouse-lane, Leeds, in the county of York, for an invention of "improvements in machinery for making dip candles."—Dated 26th March, 1870.

893. James Clifford Morgan, Henry Macaulay, and Francis William Waide, of Rotherham, in the county of York, Ironfounders, for an in-
