TUESDAY, APRIL 8, 1873.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 3, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 24th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 3, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Levee announced to be held, on behalf of Her Majesty, by His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, at St. James's Palace, on Tuesday, the 22nd instant, is postponed until Thursday, the 24th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is

Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 3, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Thursday, the 8th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

It is not expected that Gentleman will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force, for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

Valuable Colliery and Coal Field and Freehold Farms, at Dronfield, near Sheffield.

TO be sold by auction at an early date, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the cause of Johnson v. Gamble, by Messrs. Davis and Shoemsmith, under and subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced, in the following lots, or in such other lots as shall be decided upon:—

Lot 1. The Black Shale seam of coal, under and within about 80 acres of land, situate at Dronfield, near Sheffield, in the county of York.

Thirty-eight acres of the above unworked coal are freehold, and are within and under Stubby Farm, the estate of Henry Stephenson Johnson, Esquire, deceased, and the remaining 42 acres in the adjoining lands are held under a lease from C. F. Cecil, Esquire, for a term of which 30 years is unexpired.

The purchaser will have the privilege of placing a tramway over other parts of Mr. Cecil's estate, so as to connect the workings of coal now offered for sale by tramway with the Midland Railway.

A term of 30 years will be allowed for getting the coal, and the purchase money may be paid, if the purchaser should so desire, by instalments, in the proportion of six acres yearly, unless a greater quantity than six acres shall be got in any one year, and in that case the instalment will be augmented in proportion. The conditions and stipulations will be guided for the most part by those contained in the said lease from Mr. Cecil's trustees, dated 1st August, 1872, and which lease may be seen at the offices of Messrs. Wavell, Philbrick, Foster, and Wavell, Solicitors, Halifax.

The purchaser will be required to purchase the steam-engine, coke ovens, machinery, and colliery plant, and other effects of the subsisting colliery adjoining the coal now offered for sale, and of which a catalogue will be supplied, at a valuation, to be made before the day of sale by Mr. John Thomas Woodhouse, a Mineral Engineer and Mineral Estate Valuer, at Derby, and at No. 11, Great George-street, Westminster.

Lot 2. All that capital freehold farm called Stubble, with the farmhouse, barn, cowhouse for 18 head of cattle, stable, stackyard, cart-shed, pig-cotes, and other outbuildings, and all those several closes of arable and pasture land, containing together about 40 acres, occupied by Joseph Creswick as tenant; and also seven cottages (now occupied as six) with the garden, outbuildings, and conveniences.

The land is in good cultivation and lies to the south, about 20 acres of this land are nearly in a ring fence.

Lot 3. All those 6 closes of freehold land lying together, and containing together 29½ acres, or thereabouts, part arable and part pasturo, occupied by Mr. George Firth as tenant.

Lot 4. All those valuable freehold works called Totley Forge, with the water wheelrace, head and fall of water, also the smith's shop and outbuildings, together with a close of land called Paper Mill Field; also all those other works in connection with the above called the Grinding Wheel, with the iron water wheel, head and fall of water, glazing shop, warehouse and office, cart shed and outbuilding, dwelling house, stable, garden, and plot or parcel of land adjoining thereto, situate in the township of Totley, and in the occupation of the executors of the late Henry Stephenson Johnson.

Lot 5. All that cottage or dwelling-house, situate in the village of Dronfield aforesaid, and now in the occupation of Joseph Hoyles.

For plan and particulars and catalogues of colliery plant, and to inspect the said lease from Mr. Cecil, apply at the offices of Messrs. Wavell, Philbrick, Foster, and Wavell, Solicitors, Halifax; and Messrs. W. and B. Wake, Solicitors, Sheffield.

In Chancery.—Grellet v. Wilkinson.

WHEREAS the Reverend Thomas Sheppard, formerly of Penton-street, Pentonville, in the county of Middlesex, England (who died on the 31st August, 1839), by a codicil to his will, appointed on the happening of certain events that half of his property should be given to the children of his late brother, Edward Sheppard, in equal shares, and the other half to the societies therein mentioned, but if on the happening of the events none of the children of his said brother should be alive, then he appointed the whole of his property to the societies therein mentioned. Now, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery in England, made in the above cause, for the administration of the estate of the said testator, Thomas Sheppard. All persons claiming to be interested in the appointment made by the said codicil in favour of the said children of the said testator's late brother, Edward Sheppard, are by their Solicitors, on or before the 9th day of June, 1873, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Wickens, situate, No. 13, Old-square, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, England, or in default thereof, they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Decree. William Edward Sheppard, one of the children of the said Edward Sheppard (and who if living is entitled to share in the said testator's estate under the said appointment), left England for America, and in the year 1839, was living at New Orleans, as stated in a letter dated 22nd September, 1839, from his son William Henry Sheppard, and which said William Henry Sheppard, was at that time as mentioned in the said letter, an Import Clerk in the
