"3. Notwithstanding anything in the said bye-laws, contained, eels may be taken during the fence months as well as at all other times of the year, but no person shall, between the 1st day of March and the 31st day of May inclusive in any year, take or attempt to take eels otherwise than in eel weels, bucks, or baskets; and any fish that may be caught in such eel weels, bucks, or baskets other than eels shall forthwith be restored uninjured, as far as can be, to the river by the person catching the same.

"4. Any person committing any breach of or in any way infringing any of these bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty of, and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding, £5, which said penalty shall be recovered, enforced, and applied according to the provisions of the 'Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864.'"
