*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 3, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 24th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 3, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Thursday, the 8th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

It is not expected that Gentleman will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force, for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Westminster, April 24, 1873.

NOTICE TO MARINERS:

(No. 34.)—ENGLAND—SOUTH COAST.

(1.) Alteration in Owers Light.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 92, dated 10th October, 1872, on the intended alteration in the Owers Light:—

The Trinity House, London, has given further notice, that the new light-vessel has been placed in position, and that the light now exhibited is a revolving light, showing white and red flashes at intervals of half a minute, in the order of two white and one red.

In thick or foggy weather a powerful fog trumpet will be sounded six blasts every minute.

Mariners should remember, that the fog trumpet at St. Catherine's gives three blasts every minute.

WEST COAST.

(2.) Intended Light on Holyhead Breakwater.

The Trinity House, London, has also given notice, that the lighthouse on Holyhead Breakwater being now nearly completed, it is intended to exhibit a light therefrom early in June.

The light will be a flashing red light, showing a flash every fifteen seconds, elevated 66 feet above the level of high water.

On the exhibition of the light, the temporary light now exhibited will be discontinued.

In thick or foggy weather a bell will be sounded three times in quick succession, at intervals of fifteen seconds.

Also, that further notice will be given when the light is exhibited.

EAST COAST.

(3.) Intended Leading Lights, Yarmouth Roads.

Also, that in order to facilitate the navigation of the entrance to Yarmouth Roads from the northward, it is intended, early in the ensuing summer, to exhibit two fixed red leading lights, as night marks to clear the Caistor Shoal.

The upper light will be exhibited from a window in the Sailors' Home, Yarmouth, elevated 50 feet above high water. The lower light will be a gas lamp, about one-third of the length out, on the Britannia Pier, elevated 20 feet above high water.

Also, that further notice will be given when the lights are exhibited.
