

from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct, among other things, that all or any part of the provisions set forth in the schedule to the said Act shall apply to all or any Local Court or Courts of Record in England or Wales, and that within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette such provisions shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order, and that any such Order may be, in like manner, from time to time altered and annulled, and that in and by such Order Her Majesty may alter and modify such provisions as are mentioned in the schedule, so as to adapt the same to the constitution, jurisdiction, and procedure of any such Court or Courts, and may direct by whom and at what time or times any powers and duties incident to the provisions applied under the said Act shall and may be exercised with respect to matters in such Court or Courts, and may make any orders or regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court or Courts the provisions so applied :

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that, subject to the following alterations and modifications, the provisions set forth in the said schedule should be extended and applied to the Court of Record for the trial of Civil actions in the county and borough of Poole, in manner hereinafter directed.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, subject to the alterations and modifications hereinafter set forth and to such orders, rules, and regulations as Her Majesty, by Order in Council, shall from time to time direct, as to the appointment of a Deputy or Assistant-Judge under section 7 of the said Borough and Local Courts of Record Act, 1872, all the provisions contained in the schedule to the Borough and Local Courts of Record Act, 1872, shall be extended and apply to the said Court of Record for the trial of Civil actions in the county and borough of Poole: Provided always, and it is hereby ordered, that the powers given by the second clause of the said schedule to the said Act shall in every case be exercised either by the Judge himself or by a Deputy or Assistant-Judge duly appointed under section 7 of the said Act or otherwise, such Deputy or Assistant-Judge being a barrister of not less than seven years' standing; but that none of such powers shall be capable of being exercised by any Deputy or Assistant-Judge not being such barrister. And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to direct that the powers and duties incident to the above-mentioned provisions hereby to be applied which are exercisable by the Court, or a Judge thereof, shall and may, with respect to matters in the said Court of Record, be exercised by the Recorder of the borough of Poole, or save as aforesaid by his Deputy duly appointed, and that the powers and duties incident to the above-mentioned provisions which are exercisable by the Master or Registrar shall and may, with respect to matters in the said Court of Record, be exercised by the Registrar thereof.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and, from time to time, to alter such districts, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, in the twenty-second, in the twenty-ninth, and in the thirty-first years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it has been represented that it would be of advantage to the public, if the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Ulverstone, were ordered to be holden at Barrow-in-Furness, as well as at Ulverstone:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Ulverstone, shall be holden at Barrow-in-Furness, as well as at Ulverstone.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section, and to "repeal or alter any bye-law made in exercise of the above powers, and to make a new bye-law in lieu thereof:"

And whereas the Sunderland Pilotage Commissioners, being the Pilotage Authority for the Port of Sunderland within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have, in exercise
