THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having certified to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in pursuance of the Act 29 and 30 Vic., c. 39, sec. 16, that the actual surplus revenue of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, beyond the actual expenditure thereof for the year ended the 31st day of March, 1873, amounted to the sum of five million five hundred and eighty-six thousand three hundred and twenty-two pounds and five pence.

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that the sum of one million three hundred and ninety-six thousand five hundred and eighty pounds ten shillings and one penny, being one-fourth part of the said surplus of five million five hundred and eighty-six thousand three hundred and twenty-two pounds and five pence, will be applied under the provisions of the said Act, in the quarter ending the 30th day of September, 1873, towards the reduction of the National Debt.

C. Rivers Wilson, Comptroller-General.
National Debt Office, June 30, 1873.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

LEIGH FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Tonbridge Division of the county of Kent, that a Fair has been annually held on the 16th day of June, in the parish of Leigh, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas Samuel Morley, Esquire, as lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 16th day of June, in the parish of Leigh, in the Tonbridge Petty Sessional Division of the county of Kent, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 27th day of June, 1873.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.
