“Whereas by an Act passed in the twenty-second year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Law relating to Municipal Elections,’ it is (amongst other things) enacted, that if two-thirds in number of the council of any borough shall agree to petition, and the council shall thereupon petition Her Majesty for the division of such borough into wards, or for the alteration in the number and boundaries of the wards into which any borough is or from time to time shall be divided, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, if she shall think fit, by advice of Her Privy Council, to fix the number of wards into which such borough shall be divided, and every borough shall be divided into the number of wards mentioned in the Order in Council made on such petition: provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same shall be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered. And whereas after the passing of the

“And whereas it is further enacted that on the division of the borough into wards the said barrister shall apportion all the councillors for such borough amongst the wards into which it shall have been so divided.

“And whereas, the said Act further enacts that the copy of the particulars of such division shall be transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and, if Her Majesty by advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council shall approve such determination, shall be published in the London Gazette, and another copy of such particulars shall be delivered to the Town Clerk of the said borough, to be by him safely kept among the public documents of such borough. And the said borough shall, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as shall be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division shall continue and be in force until the same shall be altered by authority of Parliament: Provided always, that if Her Majesty by the advice of Her Privy Council shall not approve such determination, such publication as aforesaid shall nevertheless be made, and such division be in force, for the purpose of any election under the provisions of the said Act, and until such time as Her Majesty shall, by advice of Her Privy Council, upon further information and report from such barrister, definitively approve the division of such borough into wards in manner hereinbefore mentioned.

“And whereas the Honourable Sir Charles Edward Pollock, Knight, one of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit next ensuing, nominated and appointed Charles James Coleman, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, for the purpose of determining the boundaries of such

"Whereas it is proposed by the above written representation and scheme that the chapelry of Hilton shall be separated from the parish and parish church of Fen Stanton, and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy and benefice, and whereas the said benefice of Fen Stanton with the chapelry of Hilton, is subject to an outstanding mortgage debt to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and it has been proposed that in the event of Her Majesty in Council issuing an Order for carrying the above-written scheme into effect, the said mortgage debt should be charged in manner hereinafter appearing.

"Now, we, the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, as such mortgagees as aforesaid, do hereby signify our consent to the said outstanding mortgage debt being charged exclusively on the said benefice of Fen Stanton, and in exoneration of the said chapelry of Hilton.

"We, the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Trinity Hall, Cambridge, being the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said vicarage of Fen Stanton with the said chapelry of Hilton, in case the same were now vacant, and I, the Reverend Stanley Walton, the vicar of the said vicarage of Fen Stanton with the said chapelry of Hilton, do hereby severally consent to the foregoing scheme, and to every matter and thing therein proposed and set forth.

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury hath, pursuant to the provisions of the said first-recited Act duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate, bearing date the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following (that is to say):—

“To the QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to your Majesty in Council, that the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Lord Bishop of Ely, has represented unto us (amongst other things):—that to the vicarage and parish church of Fen Stanton, in the county of Huntingdon, and diocese of Ely, belongs an ancient parochial chapelry, known by the name of Hilton, the limits and boundaries whereof are well known and defined. That there is in the said chapelry of Hilton, a church or chapel distant from the parish church of Fen Stanton aforesaid, two miles or thereabouts. That it appears to the said Lord Bishop, that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of your Majesty’s reign, chapter one hundred and six, and of the second and third years of your Majesty’s said reign, chapter forty-nine, the said parochial chapelry of Hilton may be separated from the said vicarage and parish church of Fen Stanton, and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, of which parish the said church or chapel, in the said parochial chapelry, shall be the parish church. That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme, in writing, describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alterations may best be effected, and now the changes consequent on such alterations, in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme, together with the consents thereto of the patrons of the said vicarage and parish church of Fen Stanton with the said chapelry of Hilton, and of the Incumbent of the said parish church, has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration. The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

“And we, the said Archbishop, being, on full consideration and enquiry, satisfied with the said scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the said Act of the first and second years of your Majesty’s reign, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid, to the intent that your Majesty in Council, may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

“As witness our hand, this thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

“A. C. Cantuar.”

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight the 17th day of July, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and six; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-eight; of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two; and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and six; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-eight; of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two; and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for uniting the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle, in the city of London, and in the diocese of London, with the benefice (being also a rectory) of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, in the same city and diocese, and for effecting certain other measures hereinafter mentioned.

“Whereas under the provisions of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has caused proposals for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two benefices to be laid before us, such proposals being prepared under the provisions of the said lastly-mentioned Act, and being finally approved by the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and being assented to by the patrons and by the vestries of the parishes to be affected thereby, that is to say, by the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, the patron for every alternate turn of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle, and by the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in the said city and diocese of London, who are the patrons for every other alternate turn of the same rectory, and by the Right Honourable William Ewart Gladstone, the First Lord of your Majesty’s Treasury, acting in right of his office on behalf of your Majesty as patron for every alternate turn of the said rectory of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, and by the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, who are the patrons for every other alternate turn of the lastly-named rectory, and by the vestries of the several parishes of Saint Mary, Aldermary, Saint Thomas Apostle, Saint Antholin, and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such union should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto, and to the patronage of the said two benefices, and to the other matters hereinafter contained, should be made as are hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and the said patrons and vestries of the several parishes to be affected by the said union, are willing that the scheme for carrying out the same union shall embody certain modifications of the said proposals.

"And whereas this present scheme embodies the said modifications, but otherwise is based upon what is proposed in the said proposals.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme), and of the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London (in testimony of which consent the said Dean and Chapter have affixed their common or corporate seal to this scheme), and of the Right Honourable William Ewart Gladstone, the First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), and of the vestry of each of the said four parishes of Saint Mary Aldermary, Saint Thomas Apostle, Saint Antholin, and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook (testified in the case of each vestry by the signature attached to this scheme in pursuance of a resolution to that effect of the chairman of a vestry meeting duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose all that is in this scheme set forth under the several parts or headings hereinafter mentioned as follows:—

" PART I.

"As to the said proposed union and the immediate incidents thereof we humbly recommend and propose:—

"1. That the said benefice of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle and the said benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook shall be united and consolidated into and shall become and be one benefice, by the name and style of 'The United Rectory of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle, Saint Antholin, and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook.'

"2. That if, when this scheme shall have been confirmed by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, both of the said present benefices of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle and Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, shall be vacant, the union shall forthwith take effect, and if one only of the same two benefices shall be vacant, the union shall also forthwith take effect, if the incumbent of the other of the said two present benefices shall consent to become the incumbent of the united benefice; but if he shall not so consent, then that the union shall take effect upon the then next vacancy of his benefice, and that the then incumbent of the other of the said two present benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice, and if, when this scheme shall have been confirmed as aforesaid, both of the said present benefices shall be full, then that the union shall take effect upon the next vacancy of either of them, if the incumbent for the time being of the other of the said present benefices shall consent to become the incumbent of the united benefice, and that he shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; but, if he shall not so consent, then that the union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his benefice, and that the then incumbent of the other of the said present benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; and that in any case it shall be lawful for the Bishop to admit to the united benefice such first incumbent (if an incumbent for the time being of either of the existing benefices), without any form or fee of presentation, and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the united benefice; and that, until the time of the union taking effect, the said two present benefices shall remain separate, and the rights and liabilities of each of them, and of the incumbent of each of them, as such, shall remain unaffected.

"3. That if, after the confirmation of this scheme as aforesaid, and before the union shall have taken effect, the incumbent for the time being of either of the said two present benefices shall, with the consent of the Bishop of the said diocese of London, retire from his incumbency, in order that the union may take immediate effect, the incumbent so retiring from his incumbency shall be entitled, during the period hereinafter specified, to receive out of the annual income of the united benefice, and by way of compensation, a yearly sum, equal in amount to the net annual value of the tithe, tithe-rent charge, and endowments (not reckoning a house of residence, if any, as an item of value), annexed to his incumbency, computed on the average receipts of the three years preceding the year in which he shall so retire, which annual sum shall commence as from the day on which the union shall take effect, and shall be payable by equal half-yearly payments in every year, the first half-yearly payment thereof to become due at the end of six calendar months next after the day on which the union shall have taken full legal effect; and that the said annual sum shall be payable to the retiring incumbent during the remainder of his life, or until he shall accept any other church preferment of a net annual value equal to or greater in amount than the said annual sum to be so made payable to such retiring incumbent; and that upon his accepting such preferment, the said annual sum shall thenceforth (that is to say, as from the day of the date of his becoming entitled to the revenues of such preferment) absolutely cease to accrue and to be payable, but that if such retiring incumbent shall accept other church preferment of a net annual value (to be ascertained without reference to and exclusively of the house of residence, if any, belonging to such other church preferment) less than the said annual sum, then that, whilst he shall hold such other church preferment, the said annual sum shall in each year be reduced by a sum equal in amount to the net annual value (to be ascertained as aforesaid) of such preferment; and shall, subject to such reduction, continue to be payable to him, the said retiring incumbent, in manner aforesaid. And that, if the same annual payment shall cease by his death, or shall cease or be diminished by his acceptance of such other church preferment (as the case may be), on any other than one of the half-yearly days of payment, he or his executors or administrators shall be entitled to a proportionate part of the said annual sum for the period which, at the time of such cesser or diminution, shall have elapsed of the current half year, which proportionate part shall be payable at the end of the current half year.

"4. That the annual sum mentioned in the clause lastly foregoing shall be charged upon the annual income of the united benefice, and shall be payable out of the same by the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice. And that as between the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice and the retiring incumbent, and his executors, administrators, or assigns, the said annual sum shall be a first charge at law and in equity upon the income of the united benefice, the incumbent of which benefice shall be deemed to have accepted the same, subject to a trust and liability to pay to the retiring incumbent, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, the said annual sum out of the income of such united benefice, and for that purpose to use all due diligence to receive and collect the income of the said united benefice, and that if such annual sum or any part thereof shall at any time be in arrear and unpaid for more than twenty-one days after any of the said half yearly days of payment, and the fact of the same being so in arrear shall be verified by the declaration of the incumbent who shall have so retired, or of his executors, administrators, or assigns, or in such other manner as shall be required by the Bishop of the said diocese of London, then that it shall be lawful for such Bishop to make an order upon the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice, requiring him to pay the amount in arrear within a period to be specified in such order, and, if the same be not paid within such period, then that it shall be lawful for the said Bishop to sequester the profits of the united benefice, until all such arrears and the costs of the sequestration shall have been paid and satisfied; but that the power to be so conferred upon the Bishop shall not in anywise abridge or interfere with the rights of the incumbent who shall have so retired, or his executors, administrators, or assigns to recover the said annual sum and all arrears thereof by proceedings at law or in equity, nor with the legal and equitable rights of the incumbent for the time being of the united benefice to recover from the preceding incumbent of the same united benefice, his executors or administrators, any arrears of the said annual sum which ought to have been paid by such preceding incumbent.

"5. That if the union shall have taken effect by reason of the incumbent for the time being of either of the said two present benefices having retired from his incumbency, and such incumbent shall be living when the united benefice shall for the first time after such union become vacant, the incumbent who shall have so retired shall (if in the opinion of the Bishop of the said diocese of London he be then not disqualified by age or otherwise) be entitled to fill such vacancy, and may be admitted by such Bishop to the united benefice without any form or fee of presentation, and shall, upon such admission, become the incumbent of the united benefice, and that the annual sum hereinbefore proposed to be made payable to him shall thenceforth absolutely cease to be payable.

"6. That upon the union taking effect, the present church of the parishes of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle (that is to say, the church of Saint Mary, Aldermary) shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the united benefice.

"7. That after the union shall have taken effect, the expense of maintaining the fabric of the parish church of the united benefice, and providing the things requisite for the performance of Divine worship therein, shall be defrayed by the four parishes of the united benefice, and shall, as between the same four parishes, be provided in the following proportions, that is to say, that one moiety of such expense shall be defrayed by the parishioners of the said two parishes of Saint Mary, Aldermary, and Saint Thomas Apostle, and the other moiety of such expense shall be defrayed by the parishioners of the said two parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of 'The Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act, 1868.'

"8. That upon the union taking effect, the sacramental plate used in the present church of the parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook (that is to say, in the church of Saint Antholin) shall be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice, but that if, in the opinion of the Bishop of London, the whole or any part of the said sacramental plate be not needed for such parish church, then that such sacramental plate, or so much thereof as shall not be so needed, shall be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul for the use of that cathedral church, subject to the condition that the same Dean and Chapter shall provide for a new church, which is intended to be erected, as hereinafter is mentioned, at Nunhead; Peckham Rye, within the limits of the district parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Peckham, in the diocese of Winchester, and to be called 'The Church of Saint Antholin, Nunhead,' sacramental plate to be approved by the Bishop of the said diocese of London and by the Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, but that if the said Dean and Chapter shall decline to accept the said sacramental plate subject to the foregoing condition, then that such sacramental plate shall belong to and shall form an addition to the sacramental plate already possessed by the church of Saint Mary, Aldermary.

"9. That upon the union taking effect, the font and communion table of the said present church of the parishes of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, shall be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice, but that if such font and communion table, or either of them, be not needed for the parish church of the united benefice, then that the said font and communion table, or either of them, together with the reredos of the said present church of Saint Antholin, shall be transferred to the said proposed new church of Saint Antholin, at Nunhead, provided that if in the opinion of the Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, such font, communion table, or reredos, or any one or more of them, be not needed for the said proposed new church of Saint Antholin, at Nunhead, then that such font, or communion table, or reredos (all or any of them not so needed), shall be transferred to such other church within that part of the diocese of Winchester which is within the limits of the 'Metropolis,' as defined by the Act of the eighteenth and nineteenth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty, as the Bishop of the same diocese shall select.

"10. That upon the union taking effect, if the tables of fees used in the parish churches of the said two present benefices be alike in all particulars, the table of fees used in the church which will become the church of the united benefice shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the four parishes of the united benefice; but that if such tables of fees be not alike in all particulars, then that the same shall be of no authority, and a new table of fees shall be made by the proper authority for the use of the same four parishes as if the same were one parish.

"11. That upon the union taking effect, the persons who at that time shall hold the offices of parish clerk of the parishes of Saint Mary, Aldermary, and Saint Thomas Apostle, and parish clerk of the parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, shall, without any further appointment, become the joint parish clerks of the united benefice, and that the persons who at the time of the union taking effect shall hold the offices of sexton of the parishes of Saint Mary, Aldermary, and Saint Thomas Apostle, and sexton of the parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, shall without any further appointment, become the joint sextons of the united benefice, and that upon the death, retirement, or removal of either of the joint parish clerks, the other of them shall become the parish clerk of the united benefice, and upon the death, retirement, or removal of either of the joint sextons, the other of them shall become the sexton of the united benefice; but that no parish clerk or sexton of the united benefice shall have any larger estate or interest in his office than he possessed in his original office before the union, and that the parish clerk of the united benefice shall afterwards, upon any vacancy in that office, be appointed by the incumbent of the united benefice, and that any future vacancy in the office of sexton shall be filled up by the joint vestry of the four parishes of the united benefice.

"12. That upon the union taking effect, the persons who at that time shall respectively hold the offices of parish clerk and sexton of the parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, and who shall respectively become one of such joint parish clerks and joint sextons of the united benefice, shall respectively cease to hold the office of parish clerk and sexton respectively of such last-mentioned parishes, and the parish clerk so ceasing to hold such office shall, by way of compensation, so long as he shall be one of the joint parish clerks of the united benefice, receive from the vestry of the parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook a salary equal in amount to his present salary, and that in like manner the sexton so ceasing to hold such office shall, by way of compensation, so long as he shall be one of the joint sextons of the united benefice, receive from the vestry of the parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook a salary equal in amount to his present salary, the receipt of such salary in the case of the said parish clerk and sexton respectively to be conditional upon the performance by such parish clerk and sexton respectively of such duties appertaining to the offices of parish clerk and sexton respectively in the parish church of the united benefice or otherwise connected with such parish church and the performance of the services therein as the rector or incumbent and churchwardens of the same parish church may from time to time require.

"13. That so long as a salary shall, under the provisions of this scheme, be payable by the parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook to one of the joint parish clerks of the united benefice, those parishes shall not be required to contribute any proportion of the salary of the other of the joint parish clerks of the united benefice, and that, in like manner, so long as a salary shall, under the provisions of this scheme, be payable by the said parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook to one of the joint sextons of the united benefice, those parishes shall not be required to contribute any proportion of the salary of the other of the joint sextons of the united benefice, but that whilst such salaries, by way of compensation, shall continue to be payable to such joint parish clerk and joint sexton respectively, the salaries of the other joint parish clerk and joint sexton of the united benefice shall be paid exclusively by the parishes of Saint Mary, Aldermary, and Saint Thomas Apostle, as if the two last-named parishes were one parish.

"14. That upon the union taking effect, the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle shall become and thereafter continue to be the parsonage house of and for the united benefice.

"PART II.

"As to the endowments of the united benefice, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose—

"1. That upon and as from the day when the union hereinbefore recommended and proposed of the said two benefices of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle and Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook shall have taken full legal effect as hereinbefore mentioned, all the tithe or money in lieu of tithe and all other the hereditaments, consolidated annuities, gifts, payments, and other property whatsoever constituting the endowments of the benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook shall, without any conveyance, transfer, assignment, or other assurance in the law other than the duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council confirming this scheme, by virtue of which Order such union will so take effect, be transferred and annexed to the said church of the said parishes of Saint Mary, Aldermary, and Saint Thomas Apostle (which church will as from the same day become and be as aforesaid the church of the said proposed united benefice) in order that the same endowments, together with the endowments now belonging to the church and benefice of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle, may become and be, and we recommend and propose that the same shall thereupon and thereafter become and be, the endowments of the united benefice and of the rector or incumbent thereof.

"2. That, nevertheless, the permanent endowments of the united benefice shall, after the said union, be made subject to the payment of any annual rent-charge in perpetuity, not exceeding the annual sum of three hundred pounds, in favour of the benefice of Saint John, Waterlooad, Lambeth, in the said diocese of Winchester (being an existing benefice in the patronage of the Archbishop of Canterbury), which said annual rent-charge shall be charged upon some part or parts (to be duly specified) of the same permanent endowments by virtue of any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying a scheme, to be prepared under the eleventh section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, in which said scheme may be contained any lawful powers and remedies for the recovery of the same annual rent-charge, provided that such rent-charge shall not commence nor come into operation until the benefices so to be united shall be held by an incumbent who has not held the incumbency of either of the said benefices previously to the taking effect of the said union.

"PART III.

"As to the patronage of the united benefice:—

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the two several transfers of rights of patronage which are hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parishes in or in respect of which the same rights of patronage respectively arise or exist, that is to say, in the four parishes of Saint Mary, Aldermary, Saint Thomas Apostle, Saint Antholin, and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook.

"And whereas by an indenture, bearing date on or about the fourth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and made under the authority and for the purposes of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, between the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, of the first part, Richard Pennington Long, Esquire (in the same indenture described), of the second part, the Rev. Michael Biggs, Clerk (in the same indenture also described), of the third part, and the said William Ewart Gladstone, acting as such First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury as aforesaid, of the fourth part, after reciting (amongst other things) in substance the proposals which are hereinafter made in Part V of this present scheme, as to the proceeds of a sale of the parish church of the said present benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook and the site thereof, and the appropriation of a part of such proceeds towards the cost of the said intended church of Saint Antholin, at Nunhead, and after reciting that the proceedings in that behalf involved a surrender of certain rights of patronage which are now exercised by him, the said William Ewart Gladstone, as such First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury as aforesaid (to wit, the alternate turn or right of patronage now vested in your Majesty, your heirs and successors as aforesaid, of the said rectory of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook) it is in consideration, amongst other things, of the premises so recited, provided that, when and if the said proposed church to be called 'The Church of Saint Antholin, Nunhead,' shall have been built and erected, as is in this scheme hereafter mentioned, and shall have been consecrated, the patronage of such church and right of nomination of the minister thereof shall, upon and from such consecration, be vested in and shall belong to your Majesty and your heirs and successors, and shall be for ever exercised on your and their behalf by the said William Ewart Gladstone, or other the First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury for the time being.

"And whereas upon the making of the said indenture of the fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, it was intended and (as the execution of this present scheme by the said William Ewart Gladstone doth testify) it is still intended that the patronage of the said intended church of Saint Antholin, at Nunhead, which by the same indenture is vested and to be exercised as aforesaid, should be so vested and exercised in consideration of the surrender in the recitals to the said indenture mentioned, that is to say, in consideration of a transfer of the alternate turn or right of patronage now vested in your Majesty your heirs and successors as aforesaid of the said rectory of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, which said transfer should be effected by means of this scheme.

"Now, therefore, with such consents, and so testified as aforesaid, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, further recommend and propose that upon and as from the day when the union hereinbefore proposed of the said two benefices of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle and Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, shall have taken full legal effect as hereinbefore mentioned, the patronage of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle, which patronage as to one alternate turn or right of presentation is now as aforesaid vested in the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors, Archbishops of Canterbury for the time being, and as to the other alternate turn or right of presentation is now as aforesaid, vested in the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, and their successors, shall as to so much of the same patronage (being as aforesaid every alternate turn or right of presentation), as is now vested in the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors, Archbishops of Canterbury for the time being, be, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council confirming this scheme, by virtue of which Order such union will so take effect, transferred from the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors, Archbishops of Canterbury for the time being, to and shall thereupon become and be vested in the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, and their successors, and that upon and as from the same day the patronage of the said rectory of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, which patronage as to one alternate turn or right of presentation is now as aforesaid vested in your Majesty, your heirs and successors, and is exercised on behalf of your Majesty by the said William Ewart Gladstone, or other the First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury for the time being, and as to the other alternate turn or right of presentation is now as aforesaid vested in the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul and their successors, shall as to so much of the same patronage (being as aforesaid every alternate turn or right of presentation), as is now vested in your Majesty, your heirs and successors, be, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, confirming this scheme, by virtue of which Order the said proposed union will so take effect, transferred from your Majesty, your heirs and successors, to and shall thereupon become and be vested in the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, and their successors for ever, so that by means of such transfers as aforesaid, the patronage of the united benefice hereinbefore proposed to be created, shall, as from the date of the union, be wholly and absolutely vested in the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, and their successors for ever.

"PART IV.

"As to the church of the said present benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook.

"With respect to the church of the said present benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose.

"1. That upon the said union taking effect, the same church shall (subject nevertheless to and in accordance with the provisions of the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two), be taken down and its materials and site (except as hereinafter recommended and proposed), be sold by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, the sale thereof to be by public tender, and to be made at one time, or at more than one time as may be convenient, the pulpit, bells, organ, and other furniture, and fittings (other than as aforesaid), being reserved to be appropriated, if required, for the use of the said proposed church to be called 'The Church of Saint Antholin, Nunhead,' provided that (if in the opinion of the Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, the same or any of them be not so required) they may in like manner be sold; and that all monies arising from such sale or sales shall be paid over to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

"2. That the spire and tower of the said present church of Saint Antholin shall not be taken down, and that the site thereof shall not be sold, but that the same spire and tower, and the site thereof, shall remain vested in the incumbent or rector for the time being of the rectory of the united benefice, for the benefit of the parishioners of the said two parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, and that the fabric of such spire and tower shall be preserved and maintained by means of the fund hereinafter recommended and proposed to be set apart for that purpose.

"3. That any tablets or monuments now being in any part other than the tower of the said church of the present benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, which are not removed by the heirs, executors, administrators, relatives, or friends of the person or of some or one of the persons to whose memory the same shall have been erected, shall, at the cost of the fund provided by the twenty-second section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, be removed into and re-erected in the tower of the said church of Saint Antholin; and that, for the purpose of such re-erection as aforesaid, the tower of the said present church of Saint Antholin shall, at the cost of the same fund, be surveyed and put into a proper state of repair, and shall be so altered and adapted, internally and externally, as shall be deemed necessary for the re-erection therein of any such tablets or monuments as aforesaid, to the satisfaction of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and of the churchwardens of the said two parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook.

"4. That, subject to the consents required by the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, the remains of any persons deposited under the said church of the present benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, which may not be removed elsewhere by the heirs, executors, administrators, relations, or friends of some or one of such deceased persons, shall, at the cost of the fund provided by the twenty-second section of the said lastly-mentioned Act, be removed from under the said present church of Saint Antholin, and shall be re-interred beneath the tower of the same church; and that if, under the said tower, there be not sufficient space for the re-interment of such human remains as aforesaid, then the now vacant consecrated ground adjacent to the same tower shall be set apart and appropriated for the purpose of the interment of such of the human remains aforesaid as may not be re-interred under the tower of the said present church of Saint Antholin; and that in the event of such lastly-mentioned consecrated ground not being sufficient for this purpose, then there shall be reserved out of the site of the said present church of Saint Antholin, so to be taken down as aforesaid, sufficient space for the re-interment of such of the human remains aforesaid as may not be re-interred under the tower of the same church or in the said consecrated ground adjacent to such tower.

"5. That if any portion of the site of the said present church of Saint Antholin, so to be taken down as aforesaid, shall, in the opinion of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and of the Bishop of London, be required for the purpose of the re-interment of any human remains which are at present interred in any vault or vaults beneath the same church, such portion of the site shall not be sold, but shall be treated as if it formed part of the churchyard or burial-ground now belonging to the same church.

"PART V.

"As to the proceeds of the sale of the present church of Saint Antholin:—

"With respect to the monies to be realized by such sale or sales as aforesaid of the materials, site, furniture, and fittings (all or any of these things) of the said present church of Saint Antholin so intended to be taken down as aforesaid, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose:—

"1. That in the first place such a sum, not exceeding three thousand pounds, as we shall determine upon, and as shall be approved by the Bishop of the said diocese of London for the time being, shall be paid by us to the churchwardens (whose receipt shall be a sufficient discharge to us for the same) of the said united benefice such sum, or the interest thereof only, or some portion of the capital with or without interest, to be applied by the said churchwardens at their discretion, in repairing and keeping in repair the church of the united benefice, that is to say, the said church of Saint Mary, Aldermary, and in putting the same into a fit and proper condition to become the parish church of the united benefice as aforesaid, and in beautifying and reseating the same under the provisions of the twenty-eighth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two.

"2. That in the next place out of the monies received or receivable by us as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the churchwardens of the said two parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook (the receipt of which said churchwardens shall be a sufficient discharge to us for the same) a sum of six hundred pounds, such lastly mentioned sum to be invested by the churchwardens of the same two parishes, and the interest or dividends arising from such investment to be applied by such churchwardens in preserving, maintaining, and keeping in repair the fabric of the spire and tower of the said church of Saint Antholin, and any monuments or tablets which now are or hereafter may be erected in such tower, and any vault or vaults under the same tower.

"3. That in the next place, out of the residue of the monies received or receivable by us as aforesaid, such a sum not exceeding three equal fourth parts of such residue as we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, shall determine upon, shall be appropriated by us in such manner and at such time as we shall determine, for or towards the erection of the said proposed church, intended to be called 'The Church of Saint Antholin, Nunhead,' and (after or subject to the erection of the same church) for or towards the erection or provision of a house of residence for the minister who may hereafter be nominated and appointed to serve the same proposed church.

"4. That in the next place, out of the residue of the monies received or receivable by us as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to Andrew Cash, the present organist of the church of the said existing benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, an annual sum of thirty pounds (that being the annual salary now enjoyed by the said Andrew Cash as such organist as aforesaid) such annual sum of thirty pounds to be paid by equal half-yearly payments, and to be calculated as from the day when the church of the said present benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook shall be finally closed for Divine worship, and to continue to be made to the said Andrew Cash so long as he shall perform such duties in the parish church of the said united benefice, as the rector or incumbent and churchwardens thereof may from time to time require of him, the said Andrew Cash.

"5. That in the next place, the residue of the monies so received or receivable by us as aforesaid, shall be added to the fund which is mentioned in the twenty-second section of the hereinbefore mentioned Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two.

"6. Provided always, that this scheme shall not take effect until the consents and approval, which by the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, are made requisite to the sale, or letting, or appropriation under the powers conferred by that Act, of the site of any church, shall be obtained to the sale and appropriation hereby recommended and proposed to be made of the site of the church of the said present benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook.

"7. And provided also, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall prevent us from hereafter recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts of Parliament, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the space of two calendar months.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London and by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of July, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, situate partly in the county of Buckingham and partly in the county of Middlesex, and wholly in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and published in the London Gazette upon the fourteenth day of the same month, a separate district, comprising certain contiguous portions of the parish of Langley Marish, otherwise Langley Marsh, and of the parish of Horton, both in the county of Buckingham, and in the diocese of Oxford aforesaid, and also a portion of the adjoining parish of Stanwell, in the said county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Colnbrook, in the said parish of Langley Marish, otherwise Langley Marsh, and such district was called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook.'

"And whereas the said Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, should be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include a part of the adjoining parish of Iver, in the said county of Buckingham, and in the said diocese of Oxford.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Fielder, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme or representation, the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, shall be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include all that part of the said parish of Iver which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink, and that from and after the day of the same date, and without any other assurance in law, the said part of the parish of Iver so to be included as aforesaid shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, in the counties of Buckingham and of Middlesex, and in the diocese of Oxford, being—

"All that part of the parish of Iver, in the said county of Buckingham, and in the diocese of Oxford aforesaid, which is bounded on the south-east by the parish of Harmondsworth, in the said county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London; on the south-west by the new parish of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook aforesaid; on the north-west by the parish or parochial chapel of Langley Marish, in the said county of Buckingham, and in the diocese of Oxford aforesaid; and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the north and on the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-mentioned parish or parochial chapelry from the parish of Iver aforesaid, at a point on the western side of the road leading from Colnbrook past Sutton to Uxbridge, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. St. T. N. P. 1872 No. 1,' and placed at Sutton aforesaid, near the north-west corner of the building known as the Tithe Barn, on the eastern side of the same road at the western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 322 upon the award map of the said parish of Iver (which said map is enrolled and deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Buckingham), and which said close is similarly numbered upon the map hereunto annexed from the buildings and premises called or known as Sutton Farm and numbered 323 upon the same maps, and extending thence south-eastward across the said road to such boundary stone, and along the middle of the said fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 257 upon the said maps from the buildings and premises numbered 323 as aforesaid, and from the close numbered 336 upon the same maps, and extending thence first westward and then southward, along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence which forms the eastern boundary of the buildings and premises called or known as Sutton Cottages, and continuing thence still southward along the middle of the last described fence, to its junction with the line of fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 334, 333, and 258 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 332, 328, and 325 upon the same maps, and extending thence first south-eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last described line of fences to the junction of the fence dividing the said close numbered 325 from the close numbered 258 as aforesaid, with the fence dividing the close numbered 324 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 325 as aforesaid and 326 upon the same maps, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence of Riching's Park, and extending thence, first south-westward, then eastward, then north-eastward, and then again eastward, along the middle of the said park fence to a boundary stone inscribed "C. P. 1872, No. 2," and placed at the point on the north-eastern side of the rickyard of Old Slade Farm, where the same park fence abuts upon the western side of the private road numbered 27 upon the said maps, and leading from the Sutton and Iver-road past the Old Slade Farm aforesaid and past Chapel Farm House to the Sheep Bridge over the Colnbrook branch of the River Colne, and extending thence eastward from the said boundary stone to a point in the middle of the said private road, and extending thence southward for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts along the middle of the same private road to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed "C. St. T. N. St. T. N. P. 1872, No. 4," and placed at the western end of the same wall or fence on the eastern side of the private road numbered 27 as aforesaid, and continuing thence still westward to a point in the middle of the said private road, and extending thence for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts, first southward, then westward, and then again southward, along the middle of the same private road to a point in the centre of the Sheep Bridge, across the Colnbrook branch of the river Colne as aforesaid, at the southern end of the said private road, and extending thence south-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts, thereby crossing the allotment numbered 285 upon the said maps to a point on the county boundary at the junction of Bigley Ditch with the main stream of the said river Colne, which divides the said parish of Iver from the parish of Harmondsworth aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme or representation has been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Iver, and also to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook.

And whereas the patron and the incumbent of the said vicarage of the new parish of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the patron and the incumbent of the said vicarage of the parish of Iver have made certain objections to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has, notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of July, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of July, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her Majesty (session two) chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of your Majesty (session two) chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain additional alterations and improvements at the episcopal house of residence at Norwich, belonging to the bishoprick of Norwich.

"Whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of the diocese of Norwich, is desirous that certain additional permanent alterations and improvements should be made at the said episcopal house of residence at Norwich, and has submitted to us the particulars of such proposed additional alterations and improvements, and we have approved the same.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous, and it appears to us to be expedient, that towards the cost of effecting the said proposed additional alterations and improvements a sum of one thousand pounds (being a sum which, together with a sum of five thousand pounds already borrowed upon the same security by the said Bishop, under the authority of the statutes hereinbefore mentioned, does not exceed two years' income of the see) should be provided by borrowing the same by means of a further mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments or endowments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the bishoprick of Norwich.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, the sum of one thousand pounds, and that, as a security for the same, the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments and endowments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said bishoprick, to the said Governors by deed for a term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum of one thousand pounds, with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied; and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following, that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop, or his successors, shall yearly, at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed, and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter, pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one-thirtieth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall, at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale, in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessees from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said John Thomas, now Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, as every succeeding Bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest, costs, and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said sum of one thousand pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our Joint Treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of one thousand pounds, the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us, at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, towards effecting the said proposed additional alterations and improvements at the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of July, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Cotmanhay, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twentieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred forty-five, and published in the London Gazette, on the sixteenth day of December in the same year, the district of Cotmanhay, was constituted partly out of the parish of Heanor, in the said county of Derby, and in the said diocese of Lichfield, and partly out of the parish of Ilkeston, in the same county and diocese, and such district has since become and now as aforesaid is a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And whereas, no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage and nomination of the minister, or (as the case might be) of the perpetual curate of the said district, now a new parish as aforesaid, was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

"And whereas a sum of one thousand five hundred pounds has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, by Alfred Miller Mundy, of Shipley Hall, in the said county of Derby, Esquire, towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish, and for the benefit of the vicar or incumbent thereof, and we have in respect of the said sum agreed with the said Alfred Miller Mundy, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to the vicar or incumbent of the said new parish (being duly licensed thereto), the yearly sum of fifty pounds.

"And whereas the said sum of one thousand five hundred pounds sterling was so contributed and paid by the said Alfred Miller Mundy as aforesaid, upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto should be assigned to the said Alfred Miller Mundy, his heirs and assigns, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Cotmanhay, and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Alfred Miller Mundy, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

And whereas an Order in Council has been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice aforesaid is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz. :—
